021:001 And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

021:002 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

021:003 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

021:004 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

021:005 And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, 021:006 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

021:007 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

021:008 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

021:009 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

021:010 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

021:011 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

021:012 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

021:013 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

021:014 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

021:015 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

021:016 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

021:017 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

021:018 But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

021:019 In your patience possess ye your souls.

021:020 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

021:021 Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

021:022 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

021:023 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

021:024 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

021:025 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

021:026 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

021:027 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

021:028 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

021:029 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

021:030 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

021:031 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

021:032 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

021:033 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

021:034 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

021:035 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

021:036 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

021:037 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

021:038 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

022:001 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

022:002 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

022:003 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

022:004 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

022:005 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

022:006 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

022:007 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

022:008 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

022:009 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

022:010 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

022:011 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

022:012 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

022:013 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

022:014 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

022:015 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

022:016 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

022:017 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

022:018 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

022:019 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

022:020 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
022:021 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.
022:022 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!
022:023 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.
022:024 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.
022:025 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.
022:026 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.
022:027 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.
022:028 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.
022:029 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;
022:030 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
022:031 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:
022:032 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.
022:033 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

022:034 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

022:035 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

022:036 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

022:037 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

022:038 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

022:039 And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

022:040 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

022:041 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 022:042 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

022:043 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

022:044 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

022:045 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 022:046 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

022:047 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

022:048 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

022:049 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

022:050 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

022:051 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

022:052 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

022:053 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

022:054 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

022:055 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

022:056 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

022:057 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

022:058 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

022:059 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilaean.

022:060 And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

022:061 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

022:062 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

022:063 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

022:064 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee?

022:065 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

022:066 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

022:067 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

022:068 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

022:069 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

022:070 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

022:071 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

023:001 And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

023:002 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

023:003 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

023:004 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

023:005 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place.

023:006 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean.

023:007 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

023:008 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

023:009 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

023:010 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

023:011 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

023:012 And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

023:013 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

023:014 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

023:015 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

023:016 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

023:017 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

023:018 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas:

023:019 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

023:020 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

023:021 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

023:022 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

023:023 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

023:024 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

023:025 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

023:026 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.

023:027 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

023:028 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

023:029 For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

023:030 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

023:031 For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

023:032 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

023:033 And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

023:034 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

023:035 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

023:036 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 023:037 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

023:038 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

023:039 And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

023:040 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

023:041 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

023:042 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

023:043 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

023:044 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

023:045 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

023:046 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

023:047 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

023:048 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

023:049 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

023:050 And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

023:051 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

023:052 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

023:053 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

023:054 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

023:055 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

023:056 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

024:001 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

024:002 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

024:003 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

024:004 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

024:005 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

024:006 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

024:007 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

024:008 And they remembered his words,

024:009 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

024:010 It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

024:011 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

024:012 Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

024:013 And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.
024:014 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.
024:015 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.
024:016 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.
024:017 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?
024:018 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?
024:019 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:
024:020 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.
024:021 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.
024:022 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;
024:023 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.
024:024 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.
024:025 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

024:026 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

024:027 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

024:028 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

024:029 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

024:030 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

024:031 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

024:032 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

024:033 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 024:034 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

024:035 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

024:036 And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

024:037 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

024:038 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

024:039 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

024:040 And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his hands and his feet.

024:041 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

024:042 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

024:043 And he took it, and did eat before them.

024:044 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

024:045 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

024:046 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

024:047 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.

024:048 And ye are witnesses of these things.

024:049 And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

024:050 And he led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

024:051 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

024:052 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

024:053 And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

Book 43

---

001:001 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

001:002 The same was in the beginning with God.

001:003 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

001:004 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

001:005 And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

001:006 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

001:007 The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

001:008 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

001:009 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

001:010 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

001:011 He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

001:012 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

001:013 Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

001:014 And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

001:015 John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

001:016 And of his fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

001:017 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.

001:018 No man hath seen God at any time, the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

001:019 And this is the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

001:020 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

001:021 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.

001:022 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

001:023 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

001:024 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

001:025 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

001:026 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

001:027 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

001:028 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

001:029 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

001:030 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

001:031 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

001:032 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

001:033 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

001:034 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

001:035 Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

001:036 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

001:037 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

001:038 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

001:039 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

001:040 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

001:041 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

001:042 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

001:043 The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

001:044 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

001:045 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.

001:046 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

001:047 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

001:048 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

001:049 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

001:050 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

001:051 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

002:001 And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

002:002 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

002:003 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

002:004 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

002:005 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

002:006 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

002:007 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

002:008 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

002:009 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

002:010 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

002:011 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

002:012 After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

002:013 And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

002:014 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

002:015 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

002:016 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

002:017 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

002:018 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

002:019 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

002:020 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

002:021 But he spake of the temple of his body.

002:022 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

002:023 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

002:024 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, 002:025 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

003:001 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

003:002 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
003:003 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
003:004 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
003:005 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
003:006 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
003:007 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.
003:008 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
003:009 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?
003:010 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?
003:011 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.
003:012 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?
003:013 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.
003:014 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

003:015 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

003:016 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

003:017 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

003:018 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

003:019 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

003:020 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

003:021 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

003:022 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

003:023 And John also was baptizing in Aenon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

003:024 For John was not yet cast into prison.

003:025 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

003:026 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

003:027 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

003:028 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

003:029 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

003:030 He must increase, but I must decrease.

003:031 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

003:032 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

003:033 He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God is true.

003:034 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.

003:035 The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

003:036 He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

004:001 When therefore the LORD knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,

004:002 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

004:003 He left Judaea, and departed again into Galilee.

004:004 And he must needs go through Samaria.

004:005 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

004:006 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

004:007 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

004:008 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

004:009 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

004:010 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

004:011 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

004:012 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

004:013 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

004:014 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

004:015 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

004:016 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

004:017 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

004:018 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

004:019 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

004:020 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

004:021 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

004:022 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

004:023 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

004:024 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

004:025 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

004:026 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

004:027 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

004:028 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 004:029 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

004:030 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

004:031 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

004:032 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

004:033 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

004:034 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

004:035 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

004:036 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

004:037 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

004:038 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

004:039 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

004:040 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

004:041 And many more believed because of his own word;

004:042 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

004:043 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

004:044 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

004:045 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

004:046 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.

004:047 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

004:048 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

004:049 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

004:050 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

004:051 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

004:052 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

004:053 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

004:054 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

005:001 After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

005:002 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

005:003 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

005:004 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

005:005 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

005:006 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

005:007 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

005:008 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

005:009 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

005:010 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

005:011 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

005:012 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

005:013 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

005:014 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

005:015 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

005:016 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

005:017 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

005:018 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

005:019 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

005:020 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

005:021 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

005:022 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

005:023 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

005:024 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

005:025 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

005:026 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

005:027 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

005:028 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 005:029 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

005:030 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

005:031 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

005:032 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

005:033 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

005:034 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

005:035 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

005:036 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

005:037 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

005:038 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

005:039 Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

005:040 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

005:041 I receive not honour from men.

005:042 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

005:043 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

005:044 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

005:045 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

005:046 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me.

005:047 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

006:001 After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

006:002 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

006:003 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

006:004 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

006:005 When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

006:006 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

006:007 Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

006:008 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him, 006:009 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

006:010 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

006:011 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

006:012 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

006:013 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

006:014 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

006:015 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

006:016 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, 006:017 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

006:018 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

006:019 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

006:020 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

006:021 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

006:022 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

006:023 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

006:024 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

006:025 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

006:026 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

006:027 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

006:028 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

006:029 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

006:030 They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

006:031 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

006:032 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

006:033 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

006:034 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

006:035 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

006:036 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

006:037 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

006:038 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

006:039 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

006:040 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

006:041 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

006:042 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

006:043 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

006:044 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

006:045 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

006:046 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

006:047 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

006:048 I am that bread of life.

006:049 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

006:050 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

006:051 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

006:052 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

006:053 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

006:054 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

006:055 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

006:056 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

006:057 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

006:058 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

006:059 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

006:060 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

006:061 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

006:062 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

006:063 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

006:064 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

006:065 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

006:066 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

006:067 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

006:068 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

006:069 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

006:070 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

006:071 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

007:001 After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him.

007:002 Now the Jew's feast of tabernacles was at hand.

007:003 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

007:004 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

007:005 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

007:006 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

007:007 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

007:008 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast: for my time is not yet full come.

007:009 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

007:010 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

007:011 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

007:012 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

007:013 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

007:014 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

007:015 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

007:016 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

007:017 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

007:018 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

007:019 Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

007:020 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

007:021 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

007:022 Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

007:023 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

007:024 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

007:025 Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

007:026 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

007:027 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

007:028 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

007:029 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

007:030 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

007:031 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

007:032 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

007:033 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

007:034 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

007:035 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

007:036 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

007:037 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

007:038 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

007:039 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

007:040 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

007:041 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

007:042 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?

007:043 So there was a division among the people because of him.

007:044 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

007:045 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

007:046 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

007:047 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

007:048 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

007:049 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

007:050 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

007:051 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

007:052 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

007:053 And every man went unto his own house.

008:001 Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.

008:002 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

008:003 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, 008:004 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

008:005 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

008:006 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

008:007 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

008:008 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

008:009 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

008:010 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

008:011 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

008:012 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

008:013 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

008:014 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

008:015 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

008:016 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

008:017 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

008:018 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

008:019 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

008:020 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

008:021 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

008:022 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

008:023 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

008:024 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

008:025 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

008:026 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

008:027 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

008:028 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

008:029 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

008:030 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

008:031 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

008:032 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

008:033 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

008:034 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

008:035 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

008:036 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

008:037 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

008:038 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

008:039 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

008:040 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

008:041 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

008:042 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

008:043 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

008:044 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

008:045 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

008:046 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

008:047 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

008:048 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?

008:049 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

008:050 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

008:051 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

008:052 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

008:053 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

008:054 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

008:055 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

008:056 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

008:057 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

008:058 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

008:059 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

009:001 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

009:002 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

009:003 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

009:004 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

009:005 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

009:006 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

009:007 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

009:008 The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

009:009 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

009:010 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

009:011 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

009:012 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

009:013 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

009:014 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

009:015 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

009:016 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

009:017 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

009:018 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

009:019 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

009:020 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

009:021 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

009:022 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

009:023 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

009:024 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

009:025 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

009:026 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

009:027 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

009:028 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

009:029 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

009:030 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

009:031 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

009:032 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

009:033 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

009:034 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

009:035 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

009:036 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

009:037 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

009:038 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

009:039 And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

009:040 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

009:041 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

010:001 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

010:002 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

010:003 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

010:004 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

010:005 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

010:006 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

010:007 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

010:008 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

010:009 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

010:010 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

010:011 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

010:012 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

010:013 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
010:014 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.
010:015 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.
010:016 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
010:017 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.
010:018 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.
010:019 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.
010:020 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?
010:021 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?
010:022 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
010:023 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.
010:024 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
010:025 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

010:026 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

010:027 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

010:028 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

010:029 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

010:030 I and my Father are one.

010:031 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

010:032 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

010:033 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

010:034 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

010:035 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

010:036 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

010:037 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

010:038 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

010:039 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand, 010:040 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

010:041 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.

010:042 And many believed on him there.

011:001 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

011:002 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

011:003 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

011:004 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

011:005 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

011:006 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

011:007 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.

011:008 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

011:009 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

011:010 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

011:011 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

011:012 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

011:013 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

011:014 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

011:015 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

011:016 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

011:017 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

011:018 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

011:019 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

011:020 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

011:021 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

011:022 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

011:023 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

011:024 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

011:025 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

011:026 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

011:027 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

011:028 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

011:029 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

011:030 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

011:031 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

011:032 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

011:033 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled.

011:034 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

011:035 Jesus wept.

011:036 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

011:037 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

011:038 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

011:039 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

011:040 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

011:041 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

011:042 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

011:043 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

011:044 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

011:045 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

011:046 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

011:047 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

011:048 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

011:049 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

011:050 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

011:051 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

011:052 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

011:053 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

011:054 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

011:055 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

011:056 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

011:057 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

012:001 Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

012:002 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

012:003 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

012:004 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, 012:005 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

012:006 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

012:007 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

012:008 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

012:009 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

012:010 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

012:011 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

012:012 On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 012:013 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

012:014 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 012:015 Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

012:016 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

012:017 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

012:018 For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

012:019 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

012:020 And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

012:021 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

012:022 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

012:023 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

012:024 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.
012:025 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.
012:026 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.
012:027 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.
012:028 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.
012:029 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.
012:030 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.
012:031 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.
012:032 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.
012:033 This he said, signifying what death he should die.
012:034 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?
012:035 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you.
Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
012:036 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

012:037 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:
012:038 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?
012:039 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, 012:040 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.
012:041 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.
012:042 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:
012:043 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
012:044 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.
012:045 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.
012:046 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.
012:047 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for
I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.
012:048 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.
012:049 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

012:050 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

---

013:001 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

013:002 And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

013:003 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

013:004 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

013:005 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

013:006 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

013:007 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

013:008 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

013:009 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

013:010 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

013:011 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

013:012 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?
013:013 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
013:014 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
013:015 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.
013:016 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
013:017 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.
013:018 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.
013:019 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
013:020 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
013:021 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.
013:022 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
013:023 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.
013:024 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.
013:025 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

013:026 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.

013:027 And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

013:028 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

013:029 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

013:030 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

013:031 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

013:032 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

013:033 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

013:034 A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

013:035 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

013:036 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

013:037 Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.

013:038 Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

014:001 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

014:002 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

014:003 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

014:004 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

014:005 Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

014:006 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

014:007 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

014:008 Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

014:009 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

014:010 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

014:011 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

014:012 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

014:013 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

014:014 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

014:015 If ye love me, keep my commandments.

014:016 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

014:017 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

014:018 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.

014:019 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.

014:020 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

014:021 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

014:022 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

014:023 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

014:024 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

014:025 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

014:026 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

014:027 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

014:028 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

014:029 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

014:030 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

014:031 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

015:001 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

015:002 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

015:003 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

015:004 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

015:005 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

015:006 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

015:007 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

015:008 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

015:009 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

015:010 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

015:011 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

015:012 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

015:013 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

015:014 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

015:015 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

015:016 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

015:017 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

015:018 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

015:019 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

015:020 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

015:021 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

015:022 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloak for their sin.

015:023 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

015:024 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

015:025 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

015:026 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

015:027 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

016:001 These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

016:002 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

016:003 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

016:004 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

016:005 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

016:006 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

016:007 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

016:008 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

016:009 Of sin, because they believe not on me;

016:010 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

016:011 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.

016:012 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

016:013 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

016:014 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

016:015 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

016:016 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

016:017 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

016:018 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

016:019 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

016:020 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
016:021 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
016:022 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
016:023 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
016:024 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.
016:025 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.
016:026 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:
016:027 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.
016:028 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.
016:029 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.
016:030 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.
016:031 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

016:032 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

016:033 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

017:001 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

017:002 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

017:003 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

017:004 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

017:005 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

017:006 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

017:007 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

017:008 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

017:009 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

017:010 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

017:011 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.

017:012 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

017:013 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

017:014 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

017:015 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

017:016 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

017:017 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

017:018 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

017:019 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.

017:020 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

017:021 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

017:022 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

017:023 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.

017:024 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

017:025 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

017:026 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

018:001 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

018:002 And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

018:003 Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

018:004 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

018:005 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

018:006 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

018:007 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

018:008 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

018:009 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

018:010 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

018:011 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

018:012 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 018:013 And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.

018:014 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

018:015 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

018:016 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

018:017 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

018:018 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

018:019 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

018:020 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

018:021 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

018:022 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

018:023 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

018:024 Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

018:025 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

018:027 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

018:028 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

018:029 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

018:030 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

018:031 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

018:032 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

018:033 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

018:034 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

018:035 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

018:036 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

018:037 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

018:038 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

018:039 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

018:040 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

019:001 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

019:002 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe, 019:003 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

019:004 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

019:005 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!
019:006 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.
019:007 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.
019:008 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;
019:009 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.
019:010 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?
019:011 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.
019:012 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Caesar.
019:013 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.
019:014 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!
019:015 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Caesar.
019:016 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

019:017 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

019:018 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

019:019 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

019:020 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

019:021 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

019:022 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

019:023 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

019:024 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

019:025 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

019:026 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

019:027 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

019:028 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

019:029 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

019:030 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

019:031 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

019:032 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

019:033 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

019:034 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

019:035 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

019:036 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

019:037 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

019:038 And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

019:039 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

019:040 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

019:041 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

019:042 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

020:001 The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

020:002 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the LORD out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

020:003 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

020:004 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

020:005 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

020:006 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie, 020:007 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

020:008 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

020:009 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

020:010 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

020:011 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 020:012 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

020:013 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my LORD, and I know not where they have laid him.

020:014 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

020:015 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

020:016 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

020:017 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

020:018 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the LORD, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

020:019 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

020:020 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the LORD.

020:021 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

020:022 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

020:023 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

020:024 But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

020:025 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the LORD. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

020:026 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

020:027 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

020:028 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My LORD and my God.

020:029 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

020:030 And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

020:031 But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

021:001 After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

021:002 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

021:003 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

021:004 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

021:005 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

021:006 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

021:007 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

021:008 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

021:009 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

021:010 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

021:011 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

021:012 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

021:013 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

021:014 This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

021:015 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

021:016 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

021:017 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

021:018 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdest thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

021:019 This spake he, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

021:020 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

021:021 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

021:022 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

021:023 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee?

021:024 This is the disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

021:025 And there are also many other things which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

Book 44

ACTS

001:001 The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

001:002 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

001:003 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

001:004 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

001:005 For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

001:006 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

001:007 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

001:008 But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

001:009 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

001:010 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

001:011 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

001:012 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

001:013 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.

001:014 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.

001:015 And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

001:016 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus.

001:017 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

001:018 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

001:019 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.

001:020 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take.

001:021 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, 001:022 Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

001:023 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

001:024 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 001:025 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

001:026 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

002:001 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

002:002 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

002:003 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

002:004 And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

002:005 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

002:006 Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

002:007 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak Galilaeans?

002:008 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?

002:009 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

002:010 Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and proselytes, 002:011 Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the wonderful works of God.

002:012 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

002:013 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

002:014 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

002:015 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

002:016 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;

002:017 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

002:018 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

002:019 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

002:020 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and notable day of the Lord come:

002:021 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

002:022 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

002:023 Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

002:024 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

002:025 For David speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

002:026 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

002:027 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

002:028 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

002:029 Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

002:030 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;

002:031 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

002:032 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

002:033 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

002:034 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 002:035 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

002:036 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made the same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

002:037 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

002:038 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

002:039 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the LORD our God shall call.

002:040 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

002:041 Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

002:042 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

002:043 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

002:044 And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

002:045 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

002:046 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 002:047 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

003:001 Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

003:002 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

003:003 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

003:004 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

003:005 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

003:006 Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

003:007 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

003:008 And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

003:009 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

003:010 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

003:011 And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

003:012 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

003:013 The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.

003:014 But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

003:015 And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses.

003:016 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

003:017 And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

003:018 But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

003:019 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.

003:020 And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you:

003:021 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

003:022 For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

003:023 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

003:024 Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

003:025 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

003:026 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

004:001 And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, 004:002 Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.

004:003 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

004:004 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

004:005 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, 004:006 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

004:007 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

004:008 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

004:009 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

004:010 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

004:011 This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

004:012 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

004:013 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

004:014 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

004:015 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 004:016 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

004:017 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

004:018 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

004:019 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

004:020 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

004:021 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

004:022 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

004:023 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

004:024 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

004:025 Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

004:026 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

004:027 For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were gathered together, 004:028 For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

004:029 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word, 004:030 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.

004:031 And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

004:032 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

004:033 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

004:034 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

004:035 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

004:036 And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 004:037 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

005:001 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, 005:002 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

005:003 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

005:004 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

005:005 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

005:006 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

005:007 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

005:008 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

005:009 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

005:010 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

005:011 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

005:012 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

005:013 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.

005:014 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

005:015 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

005:016 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

005:017 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, 005:018 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

005:019 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 005:020 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

005:021 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

005:022 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned and told,

005:023 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

005:024 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

005:025 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

005:026 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

005:027 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 005:028 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

005:029 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

005:030 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

005:031 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

005:032 And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

005:033 When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

005:034 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

005:035 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

005:036 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

005:037 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

005:038 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

005:039 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

005:040 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

005:041 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

005:042 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

006:001 And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

006:002 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

006:003 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

006:004 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

006:005 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:

006:006 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

006:007 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

006:008 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

006:009 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.

006:010 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

006:011 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.

006:012 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

006:013 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

006:014 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

006:015 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

007:001 Then said the high priest, Are these things so?

007:002 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, 007:003 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

007:004 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

007:005 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

007:006 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

007:007 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

007:008 And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

007:009 And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him, 007:010 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

007:011 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

007:012 But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

007:013 And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

007:014 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

007:015 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, 007:016 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

007:017 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 007:018 Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph.

007:019 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

007:020 In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

007:021 And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

007:022 And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

007:023 And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

007:024 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

007:025 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

007:026 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

007:027 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

007:028 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

007:029 Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

007:030 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

007:031 When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the LORD came unto him, 007:032 Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.

007:033 Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

007:034 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

007:035 This Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

007:036 He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

007:037 This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear.

007:038 This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively oracles to give unto us:

007:039 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt, 007:040 Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.

007:041 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

007:042 Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

007:043 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

007:044 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

007:045 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

007:046 Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.

007:047 But Solomon built him an house.

007:048 Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, 007:049 Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

007:050 Hath not my hand made all these things?

007:051 Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

007:052 Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

007:053 Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

007:054 When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

007:055 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 007:056 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

007:057 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 007:058 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.

007:059 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.

007:060 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

008:001 And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles.

008:002 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

008:003 As for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

008:004 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

008:005 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

008:006 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

008:007 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

008:008 And there was great joy in that city.

008:009 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

008:010 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

008:011 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

008:012 But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

008:013 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.

008:014 Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

008:015 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Ghost:

008:016 (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

008:017 Then laid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.
008:018 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 008:019 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.
008:020 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.
008:021 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.
008:022 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.
008:023 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.
008:024 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the LORD for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.
008:025 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.
008:026 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto Gaza, which is desert.
008:027 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, 008:028 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.
008:029 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

008:030 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

008:031 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

008:032 The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

008:033 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

008:034 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

008:035 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

008:036 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?

008:037 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

008:038 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

008:039 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

008:040 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

009:001 And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, 009:002 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

009:003 And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

009:004 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

009:005 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

009:006 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

009:007 And the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

009:008 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

009:009 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

009:010 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

009:011 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 009:012 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

009:013 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

009:014 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

009:015 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:

009:016 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

009:017 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

009:018 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

009:019 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

009:020 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

009:021 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

009:022 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

009:023 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

009:024 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

009:025 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

009:026 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

009:027 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

009:028 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

009:029 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

009:030 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

009:031 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

009:032 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

009:033 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

009:034 And Peter said unto him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

009:035 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

009:036 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

009:037 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

009:038 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

009:039 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

009:040 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

009:041 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

009:042 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

009:043 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

010:001 There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band, 010:002 A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

010:003 He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius.

010:004 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

010:005 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:

010:006 He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

010:007 And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

010:008 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

010:009 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

010:010 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

010:011 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending upon him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

010:012 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

010:013 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

010:014 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

010:015 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

010:016 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

010:017 Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and stood before the gate, 010:018 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

010:019 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

010:020 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

010:021 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

010:022 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

010:023 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

010:024 And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and he had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

010:025 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

010:026 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

010:027 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

010:028 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

010:029 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

010:030 And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

010:031 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

010:032 Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

010:033 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

010:034 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

010:035 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

010:036 The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)

010:037 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;

010:038 How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him.

010:039 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

010:040 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

010:041 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

010:042 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

010:043 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

010:044 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

010:045 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

010:046 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 010:047 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we?

010:048 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

011:001 And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.

011:002 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him, 011:003 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

011:004 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying,

011:005 I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

011:006 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

011:007 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

011:008 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

011:009 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

011:010 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

011:011 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Caesarea unto me.

011:012 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

011:013 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

011:014 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

011:015 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

011:016 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

011:017 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

011:018 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto life.

011:019 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

011:020 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the LORD Jesus.

011:021 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord.

011:022 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

011:023 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

011:024 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

011:025 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

011:026 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

011:027 And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

011:028 And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar.

011:029 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea:

011:030 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

---

012:001 Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

012:002 And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

012:003 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

012:004 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

012:005 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

012:006 And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

012:007 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

012:008 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

012:009 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

012:010 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street;
and forthwith the angel departed from him.

012:011 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the LORD hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

012:012 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying.

012:013 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

012:014 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

012:015 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

012:016 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

012:017 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison.
And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren.
And he departed, and went into another place.

012:018 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

012:019 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judaea to Caesarea, and there abode.

012:020 And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

012:021 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

012:022 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

012:023 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

012:024 But the word of God grew and multiplied.

012:025 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

013:001 Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.

013:002 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

013:003 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

013:004 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

013:005 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister.

013:006 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:

013:007 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

013:008 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

013:009 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him.

013:010 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

013:011 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

013:012 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

013:013 Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem.

013:014 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

013:015 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

013:016 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

013:017 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

013:018 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

013:019 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

013:020 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

013:021 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

013:022 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave their testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

013:023 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus:

013:024 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

013:025 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

013:026 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

013:027 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

013:028 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain.

013:029 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

013:030 But God raised him from the dead:

013:031 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people.

013:032 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers, 013:033 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

013:034 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

013:035 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

013:036 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

013:037 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

013:038 Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:

013:039 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.

013:040 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

013:041 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

013:042 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

013:043 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

013:044 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

013:045 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

013:046 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

013:047 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

013:048 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

013:049 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

013:050 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.

013:051 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.

013:052 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

014:001 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

014:002 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

014:003 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

014:004 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

014:005 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

014:006 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

014:007 And there they preached the gospel.

014:008 And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

014:009 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, 014:010 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

014:011 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.
014:012 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.
014:013 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.
014:014 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,
014:015 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:
014:016 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.
014:017 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.
014:018 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.
014:019 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.
014:020 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.
014:021 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, 014:022 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

014:023 And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

014:024 And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

014:025 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

014:026 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

014:027 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles.

014:028 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

015:001 And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

015:002 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question.

015:003 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

015:004 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

015:005 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

015:006 And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

015:007 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

015:008 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

015:009 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

015:010 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

015:011 But we believe that through the grace of the LORD Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

015:012 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

015:013 And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

015:014 Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

015:015 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

015:016 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

015:017 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

015:018 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

015:019 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

015:020 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

015:021 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

015:022 Then pleased it the apostles and elders with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas and Silas, chief men among the brethren:

015:023 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia.

015:024 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

015:025 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 015:026 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

015:027 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.
015:028 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;
015:029 That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.
015:030 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:
015:031 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.
015:032 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.
015:033 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.
015:034 Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.
015:035 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.
015:036 And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the LORD, and see how they do.
015:037 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.
015:038 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.
015:039 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus;

015:040 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

015:041 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

016:001 Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:

016:002 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

016:003 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

016:004 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem.

016:005 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

016:006 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia, 016:007 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

016:008 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas.

016:009 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

016:010 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

016:011 Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;
016:012 And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.
016:013 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.
016:014 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.
016:015 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.
016:016 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:
016:017 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.
016:018 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.
016:019 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,
016:020 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 016:021 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.

016:022 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

016:023 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

016:024 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

016:025 And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

016:026 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

016:027 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

016:028 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

016:029 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 016:030 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

016:031 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

016:032 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

016:033 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

016:034 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

016:035 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

016:036 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

016:037 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

016:038 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

016:039 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

016:040 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

017:001 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

017:002 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, 017:003 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

017:004 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

017:005 But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

017:006 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

017:007 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

017:008 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

017:009 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

017:010 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

017:011 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

017:012 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

017:013 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

017:014 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

017:015 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

017:016 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.
017:017 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.
017:018 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.
017:019 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?
017:020 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.
017:021 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)
017:022 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.
017:023 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.
017:024 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; 017:025 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; 017:026 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; 017:027 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

017:028 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

017:029 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

017:030 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

017:031 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

017:032 And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

017:033 So Paul departed from among them.

017:034 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

018:001 After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;

018:002 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them.

018:003 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

018:004 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

018:005 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ.

018:006 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean; from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.
018:007 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.
018:008 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized.
018:009 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:
018:010 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city.
018:011 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
018:012 And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,
018:013 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.
018:014 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:
018:015 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.
018:016 And he drave them from the judgment seat.
018:017 Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of those things.

018:018 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

018:019 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

018:020 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

018:021 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

018:022 And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

018:023 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.

018:024 And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

018:025 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.

018:026 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

018:027 And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

018:028 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

019:001 And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, 019:002 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

019:003 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism.

019:004 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

019:005 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

019:006 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

019:007 And all the men were about twelve.

019:008 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

019:009 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

019:010 And this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

019:011 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

019:012 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.
019:013 Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the LORD Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.
019:014 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.
019:015 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?
019:016 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
019:017 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
019:018 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.
019:019 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
019:020 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.
019:021 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.
019:022 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.
019:023 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

019:024 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

019:025 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

019:026 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands:

019:027 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worshippeth.

019:028 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

019:029 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

019:030 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

019:031 And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

019:032 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused: and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

019:033 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

019:034 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

019:035 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

019:036 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

019:037 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

019:038 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

019:039 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

019:040 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

019:041 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

020:001 And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

020:002 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece, 020:003 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

020:004 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

020:005 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

020:006 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

020:007 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

020:008 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

020:009 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

020:010 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

020:011 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

020:012 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

020:013 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

020:014 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

020:015 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

020:016 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

020:017 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

020:018 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

020:019 Serving the LORD with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:

020:020 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house, 020:021 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

020:022 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

020:023 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

020:024 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

020:025 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

020:026 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

020:027 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

020:028 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

020:029 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

020:030 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

020:031 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

020:032 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

020:033 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

020:034 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

020:035 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

020:036 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

020:037 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 020:038 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

021:001 And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

021:002 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

021:003 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

021:004 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

021:005 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

021:006 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

021:007 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

021:008 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

021:009 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

021:010 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus.

021:011 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

021:012 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

021:013 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

021:014 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

021:015 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

021:016 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

021:017 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

021:018 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.

021:019 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

021:020 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

021:021 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

021:022 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

021:023 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

021:024 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

021:025 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

021:026 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

021:027 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, 021:028 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

021:029 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

021:030 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

021:031 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

021:032 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

021:033 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

021:034 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

021:035 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

021:036 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

021:037 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

021:038 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

021:039 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

021:040 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

022:001 Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

022:002 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

022:003 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.
022:004 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.
022:005 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.
022:006 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.
022:007 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
022:008 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.
022:009 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.
022:010 And I said, What shall I do, LORD? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.
022:011 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.
022:012 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 022:013 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

022:014 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

022:015 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

022:016 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

022:017 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

022:018 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

022:019 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

022:020 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

022:021 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

022:022 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

022:023 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 022:024 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

022:025 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

022:026 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

022:027 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

022:028 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

022:029 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

022:030 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

023:001 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

023:002 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

023:003 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

023:004 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

023:005 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

023:006 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

023:007 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.
023:008 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.
023:009 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.
023:010 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.
023:011 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.
023:012 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.
023:013 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.
023:014 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.
023:015 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.
023:016 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

023:017 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

023:018 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

023:019 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

023:020 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

023:021 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

023:022 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

023:023 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

023:024 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

023:025 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

023:026 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

023:027 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

023:028 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

023:029 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

023:030 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

023:031 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

023:032 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

023:033 Who, when they came to Caesarea and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

023:034 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

023:035 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

024:001 And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

024:002 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, 024:003 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

024:004 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

024:005 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

024:006 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

024:007 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, 024:008 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

024:009 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

024:010 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

024:011 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

024:012 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

024:013 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

024:014 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

024:015 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

024:016 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void to offence toward God, and toward men.

024:017 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

024:018 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

024:019 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

024:020 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, 024:021 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

024:022 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

024:023 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

024:024 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

024:025 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

024:026 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

024:027 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

025:001 Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.

025:002 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,
025:003 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.
025:004 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.
025:005 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.
025:006 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.
025:007 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.
025:008 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.
025:009 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?
025:010 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.
025:011 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.
025:012 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.

025:013 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.

025:014 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

025:015 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

025:016 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

025:017 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

025:018 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

025:019 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

025:020 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

025:021 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.

025:022 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

025:023 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

025:024 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

025:025 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

025:026 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

025:027 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

026:001 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

026:002 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

026:003 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

026:004 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

026:005 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

026:006 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God, unto our fathers:

026:007 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

026:008 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

026:009 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

026:010 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

026:011 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

026:012 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 026:013 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

026:014 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

026:015 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

026:016 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

026:017 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, 026:018 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

026:019 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

026:020 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

026:021 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

026:022 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

026:023 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

026:024 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

026:025 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

026:026 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

026:027 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

026:028 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.

026:029 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

026:030 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

026:031 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

026:032 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar.

027:001 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

027:002 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

027:003 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

027:004 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

027:005 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.
027:006 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.
027:007 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone;
027:008 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.
027:009 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,
027:010 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.
027:011 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.
027:012 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.
027:013 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.
027:014 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.
027:015 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.
027:016 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

027:017 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

027:018 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

027:019 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

027:020 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

027:021 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

027:022 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

027:023 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 027:024 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

027:025 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

027:026 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

027:027 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

027:028 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

027:029 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

027:030 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 027:031 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
027:032 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
027:033 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.
027:034 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.
027:035 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.
027:036 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.
027:037 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.
027:038 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.
027:039 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.
027:040 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.
027:041 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

027:042 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

027:043 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

027:044 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

028:001 And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

028:002 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

028:003 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

028:004 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

028:005 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

028:006 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

028:007 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

028:008 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

028:009 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

028:010 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

028:011 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

028:012 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

028:013 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

028:014 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

028:015 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

028:016 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

028:017 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

028:018 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

028:019 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

028:020 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

028:021 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

028:022 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

028:023 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

028:024 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

028:025 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

028:026 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

028:027 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

028:028 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

028:029 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

028:030 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 028:031 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

001:001 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,

001:002 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

001:003 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;

001:004 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

001:005 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:

001:006 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

001:007 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:008 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

001:009 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

001:010 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

001:011 For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

001:012 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

001:013 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

001:014 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

001:015 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

001:016 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

001:017 For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.

001:018 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

001:019 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.

001:020 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

001:021 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

001:022 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

001:023 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

001:024 Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

001:025 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

001:026 For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

001:027 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

001:028 And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

001:029 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

001:030 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

001:031 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

001:032 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

002:001 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

002:002 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

002:003 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

002:004 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

002:005 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

002:006 Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

002:007 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

002:008 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

002:009 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

002:010 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

002:011 For there is no respect of persons with God.

002:012 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

002:013 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

002:014 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:
002:015 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)
002:016 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.
002:017 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,
002:018 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
002:019 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
002:020 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
002:021 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?
002:022 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?
002:023 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?
002:024 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.
002:025 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
002:026 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

002:027 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

002:028 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

002:029 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

003:001 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

003:002 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

003:003 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

003:004 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

003:005 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

003:006 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

003:007 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

003:008 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

003:009 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;

003:010 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

003:011 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

003:012 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

003:013 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

003:014 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

003:015 Their feet are swift to shed blood:

003:016 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

003:017 And the way of peace have they not known:

003:018 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

003:019 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

003:020 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

003:021 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

003:022 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

003:023 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

003:024 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

003:025 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

003:026 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

003:027 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

003:028 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

003:029 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

003:030 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

003:031 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

004:001 What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

004:002 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

004:003 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

004:004 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

004:005 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

004:006 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, 004:007 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

004:008 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

004:009 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

004:010 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

004:011 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

004:012 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

004:013 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

004:014 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

004:015 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

004:016 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,

004:017 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

004:018 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

004:019 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:

004:020 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

004:021 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

004:022 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

004:023 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

004:024 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

004:025 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

005:001 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

005:002 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

005:003 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

005:004 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

005:005 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

005:006 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

005:007 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

005:008 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

005:009 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

005:010 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

005:011 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

005:012 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

005:013 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

005:014 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

005:015 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

005:016 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

005:017 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

005:018 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

005:019 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

005:020 Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

005:021 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

006:001 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

006:002 God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?

006:003 Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?

006:004 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

006:005 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

006:006 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

006:007 For he that is dead is freed from sin.

006:008 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

006:009 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

006:010 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

006:011 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

006:012 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

006:013 Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

006:014 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

006:015 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

006:016 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

006:017 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

006:018 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

006:019 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

006:020 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.

006:021 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

006:022 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

006:023 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

007:001 Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

007:002 For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

007:003 So then if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

007:004 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

007:005 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

007:006 But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

007:007 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

007:008 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

007:009 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

007:010 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

007:011 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

007:012 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

007:013 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

007:014 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

007:015 For that which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

007:016 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

007:017 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

007:018 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

007:019 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

007:020 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

007:021 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

007:022 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:

007:023 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

007:024 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

007:025 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

008:001 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

008:002 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

008:003 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

008:004 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

008:005 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

008:006 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

008:007 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

008:008 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

008:009 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

008:010 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

008:011 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

008:012 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

008:013 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

008:014 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

008:015 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

008:016 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

008:017 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

008:018 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

008:019 For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.

008:020 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 008:021 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

008:022 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.
008:023 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.
008:024 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?
008:025 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.
008:026 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
008:027 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.
008:028 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
008:029 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.
008:030 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.
008:031 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?
008:032 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?
008:033 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.

008:034 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

008:035 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

008:036 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

008:037 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

008:038 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

008:039 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

009:001 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost, 009:002 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

009:003 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

009:004 Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

009:005 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

009:006 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

009:007 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

009:008 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

009:009 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

009:010 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac;

009:011 (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth;)

009:012 It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the younger.

009:013 As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

009:014 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

009:015 For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

009:016 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

009:017 For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

009:018 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

009:019 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

009:020 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

009:021 Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

009:022 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

009:023 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, 009:024 Even us, whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

009:025 As he saith also in Osee, I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

009:026 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

009:027 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:

009:028 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

009:029 And as Esaias said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

009:030 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith.

009:031 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

009:032 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

009:033 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

010:001 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

010:002 For I bear them record that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

010:003 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

010:004 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

010:005 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

010:006 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

010:007 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

010:008 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

010:009 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

010:010 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

010:011 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

010:012 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

010:013 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

010:014 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

010:015 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

010:016 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

010:017 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

010:018 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

010:019 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

010:020 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

010:021 But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

011:001 I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

011:002 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel saying, 011:003 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

011:004 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

011:005 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
011:006 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then it is no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.
011:007 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.
011:008 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.
011:009 And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:
011:010 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.
011:011 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.
011:012 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?
011:013 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office:
011:014 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.
011:015 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
011:016 For if the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

011:017 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert graffed in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

011:018 Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

011:019 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

011:020 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear:

011:021 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

011:022 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

011:023 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

011:024 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert graffed contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?

011:025 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

011:026 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

011:027 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

011:028 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the father's sakes.

011:029 For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

011:030 For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

011:031 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

011:032 For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

011:033 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

011:034 For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

011:035 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

011:036 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

012:001 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

012:002 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

012:003 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

012:004 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

012:005 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

012:006 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

012:007 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching;

012:008 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

012:009 Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

012:010 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

012:011 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

012:012 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;

012:013 Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.

012:014 Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

012:015 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

012:016 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.

012:017 Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

012:018 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

012:019 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

012:020 Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

012:021 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

013:001 Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.

013:002 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

013:003 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

013:004 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

013:005 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

013:006 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

013:007 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

013:008 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

013:009 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

013:010 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

013:011 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

013:012 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

013:013 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

013:014 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

014:001 Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

014:002 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

014:003 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

014:004 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

014:005 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

014:006 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

014:007 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

014:008 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

014:009 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

014:010 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

014:011 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

014:012 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

014:013 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

014:014 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

014:015 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

014:016 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

014:017 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

014:018 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

014:019 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.

014:020 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

014:021 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

014:022 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

014:023 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

015:001 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

015:002 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.

015:003 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

015:004 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

015:005 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:

015:006 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

015:007 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

015:008 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

015:009 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

015:010 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

015:011 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.

015:012 And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

015:013 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

015:014 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

015:015 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God, 015:016 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

015:017 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

015:018 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 015:019 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

015:020 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

015:021 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

015:022 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

015:023 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

015:024 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

015:025 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

015:026 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

015:027 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

015:028 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

015:029 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

015:030 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

015:031 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

015:032 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

015:033 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

016:001 I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:

016:002 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

016:003 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

016:004 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

016:005 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.

016:006 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

016:007 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

016:008 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

016:009 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

016:010 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' household.

016:011 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

016:012 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

016:013 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

016:014 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

016:015 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

016:016 Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

016:017 Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

016:018 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

016:019 For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evil.

016:020 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

016:021 Timotheus my workfellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.

016:022 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.

016:023 Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.

016:024 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

016:025 Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,

016:026 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:

016:027 To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen.

1 CORINTHIANS

001:001 Paul called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,

001:002 Unto the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both their's and our's:

001:003 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:004 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;

001:005 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

001:006 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

001:007 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

001:008 Who shall also confirm you unto the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

001:009 God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

001:010 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

001:011 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

001:012 Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

001:013 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

001:014 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;

001:015 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

001:016 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

001:017 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

001:018 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God.

001:019 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

001:020 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

001:021 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

001:022 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

001:023 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

001:024 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

001:025 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

001:026 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

001:027 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

001:028 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

001:029 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

001:030 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

001:031 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

002:001 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

002:002 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

002:003 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

002:004 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

002:005 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

002:006 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

002:007 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

002:008 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

002:009 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

002:010 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

002:011 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

002:012 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

002:013 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

002:014 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

002:015 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

002:016 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

---

003:001 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

003:002 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

003:003 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?

003:004 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

003:005 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?

003:006 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase.

003:007 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

003:008 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

003:009 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

003:010 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

003:011 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

003:012 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

003:013 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

003:014 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

003:015 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

003:016 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

003:017 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

003:018 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

003:019 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

003:020 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

003:021 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are your's;

003:022 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

003:023 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

004:001 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

004:002 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

004:003 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

004:004 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

004:005 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

004:006 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

004:007 For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

004:008 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

004:009 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

004:010 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

004:011 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

004:012 And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

004:013 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

004:014 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

004:015 For though ye have ten thousand instructers in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

004:016 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.

004:017 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

004:018 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

004:019 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

004:020 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

004:021 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

005:001 It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

005:002 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

005:003 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

005:004 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 005:005 To deliver such an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.

005:006 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

005:007 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

005:008 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

005:009 I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:

005:010 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

005:011 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

005:012 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

005:013 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

006:001 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

006:002 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

006:003 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

006:004 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

006:005 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

006:006 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

006:007 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

006:008 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

006:009 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 006:010 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

006:011 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

006:012 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

006:013 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

006:014 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

006:015 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

006:016 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

006:017 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

006:018 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

006:019 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

006:020 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

007:001 Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

007:002 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

007:003 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

007:004 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

007:005 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

007:006 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

007:007 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

007:008 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

007:009 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

007:010 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

007:011 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

007:012 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

007:013 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

007:014 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

007:015 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

007:016 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

007:017 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

007:018 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

007:019 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

007:020 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

007:021 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

007:022 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

007:023 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

007:024 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.
007:025 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.
007:026 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.
007:027 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
007:028 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
007:029 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;
007:030 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
007:031 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.
007:032 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
007:033 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
007:034 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

007:035 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

007:036 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

007:037 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

007:038 So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

007:039 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

007:040 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

008:001 Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

008:002 And if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

008:003 But if any man love God, the same is known of him.

008:004 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

008:005 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) 008:006 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

008:007 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

008:008 But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse.

008:009 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of your's become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

008:010 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

008:011 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

008:012 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

008:013 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

009:001 Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

009:002 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

009:003 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

009:004 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

009:005 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

009:006 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

009:007 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

009:008 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

009:009 For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

009:010 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

009:011 If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

009:012 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

009:013 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

009:014 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

009:015 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

009:016 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

009:017 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

009:018 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

009:019 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

009:020 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

009:021 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

009:022 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

009:023 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

009:024 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

009:025 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

009:026 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

009:027 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

010:001 Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;

010:002 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

010:003 And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

010:004 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

010:005 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

010:006 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

010:007 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

010:008 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

010:009 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

010:010 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

010:011 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

010:012 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

010:013 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

010:014 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

010:015 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

010:016 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
010:017 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
010:018 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?
010:019 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
010:020 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.
010:021 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.
010:022 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?
010:023 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
010:024 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.
010:025 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:
010:026 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.
010:027 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
010:028 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

010:029 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

010:030 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

010:031 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

010:032 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

010:033 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

011:001 Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

011:002 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

011:003 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.

011:004 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

011:005 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

011:006 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

011:007 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

011:008 For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man.

011:009 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

011:010 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.
011:011 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.
011:012 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.
011:013 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?
011:014 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?
011:015 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
011:016 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
011:017 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
011:018 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.
011:019 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.
011:020 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
011:021 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
011:022 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

011:023 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

011:024 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

011:025 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

011:026 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

011:027 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

011:028 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

011:029 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

011:030 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

011:031 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

011:032 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

011:033 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

011:034 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

012:001 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

012:002 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

012:003 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

012:004 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

012:005 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

012:006 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

012:007 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

012:008 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

012:009 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

012:010 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

012:011 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

012:012 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

012:013 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

012:014 For the body is not one member, but many.

012:015 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
012:016 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
012:017 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?
012:018 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.
012:019 And if they were all one member, where were the body?
012:020 But now are they many members, yet but one body.
012:021 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.
012:022 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:
012:023 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.
012:024 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked.
012:025 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.
012:026 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.
012:027 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.
012:028 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

012:029 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?
012:030 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?
012:031 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

013:001 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
013:002 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.
013:003 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.
013:004 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, 013:005 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
013:006 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
013:007 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.
013:008 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.
013:009 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
013:010 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

013:011 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

013:012 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

013:013 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

014:001 Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

014:002 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

014:003 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

014:004 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

014:005 I would that ye all spake with tongues but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

014:006 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

014:007 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

014:008 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

014:009 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.
014:010 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
014:011 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
014:012 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.
014:013 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
014:014 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
014:015 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.
014:016 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
014:017 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
014:018 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
014:019 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
014:020 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

014:021 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

014:022 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

014:023 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

014:024 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

014:025 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

014:026 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

014:027 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

014:028 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

014:029 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

014:030 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

014:031 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

014:032 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

014:033 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

014:034 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience as also saith the law.

014:035 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

014:036 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

014:037 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

014:038 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

014:039 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

014:040 Let all things be done decently and in order.

015:001 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

015:002 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

015:003 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

015:004 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

015:005 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

015:006 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

015:007 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

015:008 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

015:009 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

015:010 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

015:011 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

015:012 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

015:013 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

015:014 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

015:015 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

015:016 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

015:017 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

015:018 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

015:019 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

015:020 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

015:021 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

015:022 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

015:023 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

015:024 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

015:025 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

015:026 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

015:027 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

015:028 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

015:029 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

015:030 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

015:031 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

015:032 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

015:033 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

015:034 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

015:035 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

015:036 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

015:037 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

015:038 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

015:039 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

015:040 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

015:041 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

015:042 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

015:043 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

015:044 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

015:045 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

015:046 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

015:047 The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.

015:048 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

015:049 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

015:050 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

015:051 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 015:052 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

015:053 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

015:054 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

015:055 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

015:056 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

015:057 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

015:058 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

016:001 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

016:002 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

016:003 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

016:004 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

016:005 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

016:006 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

016:007 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

016:008 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

016:009 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

016:010 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

016:011 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

016:012 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

016:013 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

016:014 Let all your things be done with charity.

016:015 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,) 016:016 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

016:017 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

016:018 For they have refreshed my spirit and your's: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

016:019 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
016:020 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.
016:021 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.
016:022 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.
016:023 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
016:024 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Book 47

---

001:001 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:

001:002 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:003 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

001:004 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

001:005 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

001:006 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

001:007 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

001:008 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

001:009 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

001:010 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

001:011 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

001:012 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

001:013 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

001:014 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are our's in the day of the Lord Jesus.

001:015 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;

001:016 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.

001:017 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

001:018 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea and nay.

001:019 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

001:020 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

001:021 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

001:022 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

001:023 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

001:024 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

002:001 But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

002:002 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

002:003 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

002:004 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

002:005 But if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

002:006 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.

002:007 So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

002:008 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

002:009 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

002:010 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;

002:011 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

002:012 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 002:013 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

002:014 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

002:015 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

002:016 To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

002:017 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

003:001 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

003:002 Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:

003:003 Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.

003:004 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

003:005 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
003:006 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.
003:007 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:
003:008 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?
003:009 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
003:010 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.
003:011 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
003:012 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
003:013 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
003:014 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
003:015 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
003:016 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

003:017 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

003:018 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

004:001 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

004:002 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

004:003 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

004:004 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

004:005 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

004:006 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

004:007 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

004:008 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

004:009 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

004:010 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

004:011 For we which live are alway delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

004:012 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

004:013 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

004:014 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

004:015 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

004:016 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

004:017 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

004:018 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

005:001 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

005:002 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

005:003 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

005:004 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

005:005 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

005:006 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

005:007 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

005:008 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

005:009 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

005:010 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

005:011 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

005:012 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

005:013 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

005:014 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

005:015 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

005:016 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

005:017 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

005:018 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

005:019 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

005:020 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

005:021 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

006:001 We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

006:002 (For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

006:003 Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

006:004 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

006:005 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

006:006 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

006:007 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

006:008 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

006:009 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;

006:010 As sorrowful, yet alway rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

006:011 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

006:012 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.

006:013 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

006:014 Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

006:015 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

006:016 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

006:017 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.

006:018 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

007:001 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

007:002 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

007:003 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

007:004 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

007:005 For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

007:006 Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

007:007 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

007:008 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

007:009 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

007:010 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

007:011 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

007:012 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

007:013 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

007:014 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

007:015 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

007:016 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

---

008:001 Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

008:002 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality.

008:003 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

008:004 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

008:005 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

008:006 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

008:007 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

008:008 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

008:009 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

008:010 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

008:011 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

008:012 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

008:013 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

008:014 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

008:015 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

008:016 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

008:017 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

008:018 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

008:019 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

008:020 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

008:021 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

008:022 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

008:023 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

008:024 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

009:001 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

009:002 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

009:003 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

009:004 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

009:005 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

009:006 But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

009:007 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver.

009:008 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

009:009 (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

009:010 Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)

009:011 Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

009:012 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

009:013 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men;

009:014 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

009:015 Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

010:001 Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:

010:002 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

010:003 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

010:004 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

010:005 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

010:006 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

010:007 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

010:008 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

010:009 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

010:010 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

010:011 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

010:012 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

010:013 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

010:014 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

010:015 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, 010:016 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

010:017 But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

010:018 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

011:001 Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.

011:002 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

011:003 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

011:004 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.

011:005 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

011:006 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

011:007 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

011:008 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

011:009 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

011:010 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

011:011 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

011:012 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

011:013 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

011:014 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

011:015 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

011:016 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

011:017 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

011:018 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

011:019 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

011:020 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

011:021 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

011:022 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

011:023 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft.

011:024 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.

011:025 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

011:026 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

011:027 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

011:028 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.

011:029 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

011:030 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

011:031 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

011:032 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

011:033 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

012:001 It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

012:002 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

012:003 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

012:004 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

012:005 Of such an one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

012:006 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

012:007 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

012:008 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

012:009 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

012:010 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

012:011 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

012:012 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

012:013 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

012:014 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not your's but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

012:015 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.

012:016 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

012:017 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

012:018 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

012:019 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

012:020 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

012:021 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

013:001 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

013:002 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

013:003 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

013:004 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

013:005 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

013:006 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

013:007 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

013:008 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

013:009 For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

013:010 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

013:011 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

013:012 Greet one another with an holy kiss.

013:013 All the saints salute you.

013:014 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

Book 48

GALATIONS

001:001 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)

001:002 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Galatia:

001:003 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

001:004 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

001:005 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

001:006 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

001:007 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

001:008 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

001:009 As we said before, so say I now again, if any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

001:010 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

001:011 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

001:012 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

001:013 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

001:014 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

001:015 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

001:016 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

001:017 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

001:018 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

001:019 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

001:020 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

001:021 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

001:022 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ:

001:023 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

001:024 And they glorified God in me.

002:001 Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

002:002 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.

002:003 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

002:004 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

002:005 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

002:006 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:

002:007 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

002:008 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

002:009 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

002:010 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

002:011 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

002:012 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

002:013 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

002:014 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

002:015 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles, 002:016 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

002:017 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

002:018 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

002:019 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God.

002:020 I am crucified with Christ: neverthless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

002:021 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

003:001 O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?
003:002 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
003:003 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?
003:004 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.
003:005 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
003:006 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
003:007 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
003:008 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.
003:009 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
003:010 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
003:011 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.
003:012 And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them.
003:013 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

003:014 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
003:015 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.
003:016 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
003:017 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.
003:018 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.
003:019 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.
003:020 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.
003:021 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.
003:022 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.
003:023 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
003:024 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
003:025 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.
003:026 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

003:027 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

003:028 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

003:029 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

004:001 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

004:002 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

004:003 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:

004:004 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, 004:005 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

004:006 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

004:007 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

004:008 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

004:009 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

004:010 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

004:011 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

004:012 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

004:013 Ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

004:014 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

004:015 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

004:016 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

004:017 They zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them.

004:018 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

004:019 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 004:020 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

004:021 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

004:022 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.

004:023 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.

004:024 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.

004:025 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

004:026 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

004:027 For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

004:028 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.

004:029 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

004:030 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

004:031 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

---

005:001 Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

005:002 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

005:003 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

005:004 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace.

005:005 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

005:006 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.

005:007 Ye did run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

005:008 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

005:009 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

005:010 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

005:011 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased.

005:012 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.

005:013 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

005:014 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

005:015 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

005:016 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

005:017 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

005:018 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

005:019 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

005:020 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

005:021 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

005:022 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 005:023 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

005:024 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.

005:025 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

005:026 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

006:001 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

006:002 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

006:003 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

006:004 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

006:005 For every man shall bear his own burden.

006:006 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

006:007 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

006:008 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

006:009 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

006:010 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

006:011 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

006:012 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

006:013 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

006:014 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

006:015 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

006:016 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

006:017 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

006:018 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

EPHESIANS

---

001:001 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

001:002 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:003 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:

001:004 According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:

001:005 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

001:006 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

001:007 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;

001:008 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

001:009 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:

001:010 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

001:011 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

001:012 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.

001:013 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 001:014 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

001:015 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints,

001:016 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

001:017 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

001:018 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

001:019 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

001:020 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

001:021 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

001:022 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, 001:023 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

002:001 And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

002:002 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

002:003 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

002:004 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

002:005 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

002:006 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

002:007 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

002:008 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

002:009 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

002:010 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

002:011 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

002:012 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

002:013 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

002:014 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

002:015 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

002:016 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

002:017 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

002:018 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

002:019 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

002:020 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

002:021 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

002:022 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

---

003:001 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

003:002 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

003:003 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, 003:004 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

003:005 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

003:006 That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

003:007 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

003:008 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

003:009 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

003:010 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

003:011 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

003:012 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

003:013 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

003:014 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

003:015 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

003:016 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

003:017 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

003:018 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

003:019 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

003:020 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, 003:021 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

---

004:001 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

004:002 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

004:003 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

004:004 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

004:005 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

004:006 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

004:007 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

004:008 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

004:009 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

004:010 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

004:011 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

004:012 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

004:013 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

004:014 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

004:015 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

004:016 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

004:017 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

004:018 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

004:019 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

004:020 But ye have not so learned Christ;

004:021 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

004:022 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

004:023 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

004:024 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

004:025 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

004:026 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

004:027 Neither give place to the devil.

004:028 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

004:029 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

004:030 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

004:031 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

004:032 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

---

005:001 Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

005:002 And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour.

005:003 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

005:004 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

005:005 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

005:006 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

005:007 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

005:008 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

005:009 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

005:010 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

005:011 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

005:012 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

005:013 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

005:014 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

005:015 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 005:016 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

005:017 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

005:018 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

005:019 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

005:020 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

005:021 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

005:022 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

005:023 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

005:024 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

005:025 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

005:026 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

005:027 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

005:028 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

005:029 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

005:030 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

005:031 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

005:032 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

005:033 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

---

006:001 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
006:002 Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;
006:003 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
006:004 And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
006:005 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;
006:006 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
006:007 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
006:008 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.
006:009 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
006:010 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
006:011 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
006:012 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
006:013 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

006:014 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

006:015 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

006:016 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

006:017 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

006:018 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

006:019 And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, 006:020 For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

006:021 But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:

006:022 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.

006:023 Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

006:024 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

PHILIPPIANS

001:001 Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

001:002 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:003 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

001:004 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

001:005 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

001:006 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

001:007 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

001:008 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

001:009 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

001:010 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ.

001:011 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

001:012 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

001:013 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

001:014 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

001:015 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

001:016 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

001:017 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

001:018 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

001:019 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, 001:020 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

001:021 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

001:022 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

001:023 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

001:024 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

001:025 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

001:026 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

001:027 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

001:028 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

001:029 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

001:030 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

002:001 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, 002:002 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

002:003 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

002:004 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

002:005 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

002:006 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

002:007 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

002:008 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

002:009 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

002:010 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

002:011 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

002:012 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

002:013 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

002:014 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

002:015 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

002:016 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

002:017 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith,
I joy, and rejoice with you all.

002:018 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

002:019 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

002:020 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

002:021 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

002:022 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
002:023 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
002:024 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
002:025 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.
002:026 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.
002:027 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
002:028 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
002:029 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:
002:030 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

---

003:001 Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
003:002 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.
003:003 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
003:004 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

003:005 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

003:006 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

003:007 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

003:008 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

003:009 And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

003:010 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

003:011 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

003:012 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

003:013 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, 003:014 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

003:015 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

003:016 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

003:017 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

003:018 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

003:019 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

003:020 For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

003:021 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

---

004:001 Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

004:002 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

004:003 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book of life.

004:004 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

004:005 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

004:006 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

004:007 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

004:008 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

004:009 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

004:010 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

004:011 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

004:012 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

004:013 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

004:014 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that ye did communicate with my affliction.

004:015 Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

004:016 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

004:017 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

004:018 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.

004:019 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

004:020 Now unto God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

004:021 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you.

004:022 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.

004:023 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

COLOSSIANS

001:001 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother, 001:002 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:003 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

001:004 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

001:005 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

001:006 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

001:007 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

001:008 Who also declared unto us your love in the Spirit.

001:009 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

001:010 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

001:011 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;

001:012 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

001:013 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

001:014 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

001:015 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:

001:016 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

001:017 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

001:018 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.

001:019 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

001:020 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

001:021 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

001:022 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:

001:023 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

001:024 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church:

001:025 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God;

001:026 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

001:027 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

001:028 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

001:029 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

002:001 For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

002:002 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

002:003 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

002:004 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

002:005 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

002:006 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

002:007 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

002:008 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

002:009 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

002:010 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

002:011 In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

002:012 Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

002:013 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

002:014 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

002:015 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

002:016 Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

002:017 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

002:018 Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

002:019 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

002:020 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, 002:021 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

002:022 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

002:023 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body: not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

---

003:001 If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

003:002 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

003:003 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

003:004 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.

003:005 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

003:006 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

003:007 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

003:008 But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

003:009 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

003:010 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

003:011 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

003:012 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

003:013 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

003:014 And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

003:015 And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

003:016 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

003:017 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

003:018 Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

003:019 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

003:020 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

003:021 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

003:022 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God;

003:023 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

003:024 Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.

003:025 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

---

004:001 Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

004:002 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

004:003 Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:

004:004 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

004:005 Walk in wisdom toward them that are without, redeeming the time.

004:006 Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

004:007 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the Lord:

004:008 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

004:009 With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

004:010 Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, receive him;)

004:011 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

004:012 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.

004:013 For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

004:014 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.

004:015 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

004:016 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

004:017 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

004:018 The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 THESSALONIANS

---

001:001 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:002 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

001:003 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

001:004 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

001:005 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

001:006 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost.

001:007 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

001:008 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

001:009 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

001:010 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

002:001 For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

002:002 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

002:003 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

002:004 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

002:005 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

002:006 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

002:007 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

002:008 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

002:009 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

002:010 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

002:011 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 002:012 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

002:013 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

002:014 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jews:

002:015 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

002:016 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

002:017 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

002:018 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.

002:019 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?

002:020 For ye are our glory and joy.

003:001 Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;

003:002 And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

003:003 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

003:004 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

003:005 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

003:006 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

003:007 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

003:008 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

003:009 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

003:010 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

003:011 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.

003:012 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

003:013 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

004:001 Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.
004:002 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.
004:003 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:
004:004 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;
004:005 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:
004:006 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.
004:007 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness.
004:008 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.
004:009 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another.
004:010 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;
004:011 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;
004:012 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.
004:013 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

004:014 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

004:015 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

004:016 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

004:017 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

004:018 Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

005:001 But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

005:002 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

005:003 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

005:004 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

005:005 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

005:006 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

005:007 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

005:008 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

005:009 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, 005:010 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

005:011 Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

005:012 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

005:013 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

005:014 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

005:015 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

005:016 Rejoice evermore.

005:017 Pray without ceasing.

005:018 In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

005:019 Quench not the Spirit.

005:020 Despise not prophesyings.

005:021 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

005:022 Abstain from all appearance of evil.

005:023 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

005:024 Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

005:025 Brethren, pray for us.

005:026 Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss.

005:027 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren.

005:028 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

2 THESSALONIANS

---

001:001 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

001:002 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

001:003 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

001:004 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

001:005 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:

001:006 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

001:007 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

001:008 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

001:009 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

001:010 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

001:011 Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:

001:012 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

002:001 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, 002:002 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

002:003 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

002:004 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

002:005 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

002:006 And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

002:007 For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.

002:008 And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:

002:009 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, 002:010 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

002:011 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

002:012 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

002:013 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:

002:014 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

002:015 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

002:016 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 002:017 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

003:001 Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

003:002 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

003:003 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

003:004 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

003:005 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

003:006 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

003:007 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

003:008 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

003:009 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

003:010 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

003:011 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

003:012 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

003:013 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

003:014 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

003:015 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

003:016 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

003:017 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

003:018 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 TIMOTHY

---

001:001 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope;

001:002 Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

001:003 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, 001:004 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

001:005 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

001:006 From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

001:007 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

001:008 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

001:009 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

001:010 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

001:011 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

001:012 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;

001:013 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

001:014 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

001:015 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

001:016 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

001:017 Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

001:018 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

001:019 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

001:020 Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

002:001 I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

002:002 For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

002:003 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

002:004 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

002:005 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

002:006 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

002:007 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

002:008 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

002:009 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

002:010 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

002:011 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

002:012 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

002:013 For Adam was first formed, then Eve.

002:014 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

002:015 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

---

003:001 This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.
003:002 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;
003:003 Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;
003:004 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;
003:005 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
003:006 Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
003:007 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.
003:008 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;
003:009 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
003:010 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.
003:011 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
003:012 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
003:013 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
003:014 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

003:015 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

003:016 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

---

004:001 Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;

004:002 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

004:003 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

004:004 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

004:005 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

004:006 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

004:007 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

004:008 For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

004:009 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation.

004:010 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

004:011 These things command and teach.

004:012 Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

004:013 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

004:014 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

004:015 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

004:016 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

---

005:001 Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

005:002 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

005:003 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

005:004 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

005:005 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

005:006 But she that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

005:007 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

005:008 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

005:009 Let not a widow be taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man.

005:010 Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

005:011 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry;

005:012 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

005:013 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

005:014 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

005:015 For some are already turned aside after Satan.

005:016 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

005:017 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

005:018 For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

005:019 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

005:020 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

005:021 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

005:022 Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

005:023 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

005:024 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

005:025 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

006:001 Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

006:002 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

006:003 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

006:004 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, 006:005 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

006:006 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

006:007 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

006:008 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

006:009 But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.

006:010 For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

006:011 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.

006:012 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

006:013 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good confession;

006:014 That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:

006:015 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;

006:016 Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power everlasting. Amen.

006:017 Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;

006:018 That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;

006:019 Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

006:020 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called:

006:021 Which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

Book 16

NEHEMIAH

---

001:001 The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, 001:002 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

001:003 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire.

001:004 And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

001:005 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

001:006 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

001:007 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

001:008 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:

001:009 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.

001:010 Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

001:011 O LORD, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

---

002:001 And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

002:002 Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, 002:003 And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

002:004 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

002:005 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

002:006 And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

002:007 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

002:008 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

002:009 Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

002:010 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

002:011 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

002:012 And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

002:013 And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

002:014 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

002:015 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

002:016 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

002:017 Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

002:018 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

002:019 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

002:020 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

003:001 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hananeel.

003:002 And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.

003:003 But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

003:004 And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana.

003:005 And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their LORD.

003:006 Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

003:007 And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river.

003:008 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

003:009 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

003:010 And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah.

003:011 Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

003:012 And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

003:013 The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate.

003:014 But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Bethhaccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof.

003:015 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

003:016 After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Bethzur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

003:017 After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part.

003:018 After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

003:019 And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall.

003:020 After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

003:021 After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

003:022 And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain.

003:023 After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah by his house.

003:024 After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

003:025 Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh.

003:026 Moreover the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that lieth out.

003:027 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Ophel.

003:028 From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

003:029 After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate.

003:030 After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah over against his chamber.

003:031 After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up of the corner.

003:032 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

004:001 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

004:002 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

004:003 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

004:004 Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

004:005 And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

004:006 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

004:007 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, 004:008 And conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

004:009 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

004:010 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

004:011 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

004:012 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

004:013 Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

004:014 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the LORD, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

004:015 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

004:016 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

004:017 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

004:018 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

004:019 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

004:020 In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

004:021 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

004:022 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

004:023 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

005:001 And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.

005:002 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

005:003 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

005:004 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

005:005 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

005:006 And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

005:007 Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.
005:008 And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.
005:009 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?
005:010 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.
005:011 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.
005:012 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.
005:013 Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.
005:014 Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

005:015 But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

005:016 Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

005:017 Moreover there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

005:018 Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

005:019 Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

006:001 Now it came to pass when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)

006:002 That Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief.

006:003 And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

006:004 Yet they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

006:005 Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

006:006 Wherein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

006:007 And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

006:008 Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart.

006:009 For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

006:010 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.

006:011 And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.

006:012 And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

006:013 Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

006:014 My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

006:015 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.

006:016 And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

006:017 Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

006:018 For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.

006:019 Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

007:001 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,

007:002 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

007:003 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

007:004 Now the city was large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

007:005 And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein,

007:006 These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

007:007 Who came with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Israel was this;

007:008 The children of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two.

007:009 The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

007:010 The children of Arah, six hundred fifty and two.

007:011 The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and eighteen.

007:012 The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four.

007:013 The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five.

007:014 The children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore.

007:015 The children of Binnui, six hundred forty and eight.

007:016 The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty and eight.

007:017 The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty and two.

007:018 The children of Adonikam, six hundred threescore and seven.

007:019 The children of Bigvai, two thousand threescore and seven.

007:020 The children of Adin, six hundred fifty and five.

007:059 The children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth of Zebaim, the children of Amon.

007:060 All the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

007:061 And these were they which went up also from Telmelah, Telharesha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel.

007:062 The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two.

007:063 And of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name.

007:064 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

007:065 And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim.

007:066 The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, 007:067 Beside their manservants and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

007:068 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five:

007:069 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

007:070 And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments.

007:071 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

007:072 And that which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments.

007:073 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

008:001 And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

008:002 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh month.

008:003 And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

008:004 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam.

008:005 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up:

008:006 And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

008:007 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their place.

008:008 So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

008:009 And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law.

008:010 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our LORD: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

008:011 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved.

008:012 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

008:013 And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law.

008:014 And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month:

008:015 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

008:016 So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

008:017 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness.

008:018 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

009:001 Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

009:002 And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.

009:003 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

009:004 Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God.

009:005 Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

009:006 Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

009:007 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham;

009:008 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:

009:009 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea;

009:010 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

009:011 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

009:012 Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

009:013 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

009:014 And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

009:015 And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

009:016 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, 009:017 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

009:018 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;

009:019 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

009:020 Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.
009:021 Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.
009:022 Moreover thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.
009:023 Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.
009:024 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.
009:025 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.
009:026 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.
009:027 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

009:028 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the land of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

009:029 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

009:030 Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

009:031 Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

009:032 Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

009:033 Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly:

009:034 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

009:035 For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

009:036 Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

009:037 And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

009:038 And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it.

---

010:001 Now those that sealed were, Nehemiah, the Tirshatha, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah,

010:009 And the Levites: both Jeshua the son of Azaniah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel;

010:010 And their brethren, Shebaniah, Hodijah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, 010:011 Micha, Rehob, Hashabiah,

010:012 Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah,

010:013 Hodijah, Bani, Beninu.

010:014 The chief of the people; Parosh, Pahathmoab, Elam, Zatthu, Bani, 010:015 Bunni, Azgad, Bebai,

010:016 Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin,

010:017 Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur,

010:024 Hallohesh, Pileha, Shobek,

010:025 Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah,

010:026 And Ahijah, Hanan, Anan,

010:027 Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

010:028 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding;

010:029 They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

010:030 And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, not take their daughters for our sons:

010:031 And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.

010:032 Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;

010:033 For the shewbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

010:034 And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law:

010:035 And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD:

010:036 Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God:

010:037 And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.

010:038 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house.

010:039 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

011:001 And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities.

011:002 And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

011:003 Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants.

011:004 And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez;

011:008 And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

011:011 Seraiah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of God.

011:013 And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, 011:014 And their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one of the great men.

011:015 Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni;

011:016 And Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God.

011:017 And Mattaniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun.

011:018 All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred fourscore and four.

011:019 Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred seventy and two.

011:020 And the residue of Israel, of the priests, and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

011:021 But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and Gispa were over the Nethinims.

011:022 The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God.

011:023 For it was the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day.

011:024 And Pethahiah the son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

011:025 And for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjatharba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof,

011:026 And at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Bethphelet, 011:027 And at Hazarshual, and at Beersheba, and in the villages thereof,

011:028 And at Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in the villages thereof,

011:029 And at Enrimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth,

011:030 Zanoah, Adullam, and in their villages, at Lachish, and the fields thereof, at Azekah, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beersheba unto the valley of Hinnom.

011:031 The children also of Benjamin from Geba dwelt at Michmash, and Aija, and Bethel, and in their villages.

011:032 And at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah,

011:033 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim,

011:034 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat,

011:035 Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen.

011:036 And of the Levites were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin.

---

012:001 Now these are the priests and the Levites that went up with Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua: Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,

012:002 Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,

012:014 Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph;

012:015 Of Harim, Adna; of Meraioth, Helkai;

012:016 Of Iddo, Zechariah; of Ginnethon, Meshullam;

012:017 Of Abijah, Zichri; of Miniamin, of Moadiah, Piltai:

012:018 Of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemaiah, Jehonathan;

012:019 And of Joiarib, Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi;

012:020 Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber;

012:021 Of Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel.

012:022 The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

012:023 The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of Eliashib.

012:024 And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.

012:025 Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates.

012:026 These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

012:027 And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

012:028 And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi;

012:029 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

012:030 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

012:031 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate:
012:032 And after them went Hoshaiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 012:033 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam,
012:034 Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah,
012:035 And certain of the priests' sons with trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph:
012:036 And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.
012:037 And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward.
012:038 And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall;
012:039 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate.
012:040 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:
012:041 And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;
012:042 And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

012:043 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

012:044 And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.

012:045 And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

012:046 For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

012:047 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

013:001 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever;

013:002 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

013:003 Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

013:004 And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

013:005 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

013:006 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, and after certain days obtained I leave of the king:

013:007 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

013:008 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff to Tobiah out of the chamber.

013:009 Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

013:010 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

013:011 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

013:012 Then brought all Judah the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries.

013:013 And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

013:014 Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

013:015 In those days saw I in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

013:016 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

013:017 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

013:018 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

013:019 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

013:020 So the merchants and sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

013:021 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

013:022 And I commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

013:023 In those days also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

013:024 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.

013:025 And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.

013:026 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

013:027 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?

013:028 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.

013:029 Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

013:030 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business;

013:031 And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

Book 17

ESTHER

001:001 Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

001:002 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

001:003 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:

001:004 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days.

001:005 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;

001:006 Where were white, green, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble.

001:007 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

001:008 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

001:009 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

001:010 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 001:011 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

001:012 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

001:013 Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

001:014 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

001:015 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

001:016 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

001:017 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

001:018 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

001:019 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she.

001:020 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

001:021 And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

001:022 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

002:001 After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

002:002 Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:
002:003 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:
002:004 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.
002:005 Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;
002:006 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.
002:007 And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.
002:008 So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.
002:009 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

002:010 Esther had not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it.

002:011 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her.

002:012 Now when every maid's turn was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

002:013 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house.

002:014 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

002:015 Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

002:016 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

002:017 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

002:018 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

002:019 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

002:020 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

002:021 In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus.

002:022 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

002:023 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

---

003:001 After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

003:002 And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

003:003 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the king's commandment?

003:004 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

003:005 And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

003:006 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

003:007 In the first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

003:008 And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

003:009 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

003:010 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.

003:011 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

003:012 Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.

003:013 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

003:014 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

003:015 The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

---

004:001 When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

004:002 And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

004:003 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

004:004 So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

004:005 Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

004:006 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

004:007 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

004:008 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

004:009 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

004:010 Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

004:011 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or women, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

004:012 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

004:013 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

004:014 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

004:015 Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

004:016 Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

004:017 So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

---

005:001 Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

005:002 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

005:003 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

005:004 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

005:005 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

005:006 And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

005:007 Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is;

005:008 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

005:009 Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

005:010 Nevertheless Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

005:011 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

005:012 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king.

005:013 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

005:014 Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

---

006:001 On that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

006:002 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.
006:003 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.
006:004 And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.
006:005 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.
006:006 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?
006:007 And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honour,
006:008 Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:
006:009 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.
006:010 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

006:011 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

006:012 And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.

006:013 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

006:014 And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

007:001 So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

007:002 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

007:003 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

007:004 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

007:005 Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?

007:006 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

007:007 And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

007:008 Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

007:009 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

007:010 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

---

008:001 On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

008:002 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

008:003 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

008:004 Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

008:005 And said, If it please the king, and if I have favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the king's provinces:

008:006 For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

008:007 Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

008:008 Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse.

008:009 Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

008:010 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:

008:011 Wherein the king granted the Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, 008:012 Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

008:013 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.

008:014 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

008:015 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

008:016 The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour.

008:017 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

009:001 Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;)

009:002 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

009:003 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

009:004 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater and greater.

009:005 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

009:006 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

009:007 And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

009:008 And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

009:009 And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, 009:010 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

009:011 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

009:012 And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

009:013 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

009:014 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

009:015 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

009:016 But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they laid not their hands on the prey, 009:017 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

009:018 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

009:019 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

009:020 And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

009:021 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

009:022 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

009:023 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

009:024 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

009:025 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

009:026 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

009:027 The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

009:028 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

009:029 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

009:030 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, 009:031 To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

009:032 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

010:001 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

010:002 And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

010:003 For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

Book 18

JOB

---

001:001 There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

001:002 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters.

001:003 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

001:004 And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

001:005 And it was so, when the days of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

001:006 Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

001:007 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

001:008 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?

001:009 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

001:010 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

001:011 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

001:012 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

001:013 And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

001:014 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

001:015 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

001:016 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

001:017 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

001:018 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

001:019 And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

001:020 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 001:021 And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

001:022 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

002:001 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

002:002 And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

002:003 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

002:004 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.

002:005 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

002:006 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

002:007 So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

002:008 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes.

002:009 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.

002:010 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

002:011 Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him.

002:012 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

002:013 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

---

003:001 After this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

003:002 And Job spake, and said,

003:003 Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.

003:004 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

003:005 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.

003:006 As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

003:007 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

003:008 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

003:009 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:

003:010 Because it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes.

003:011 Why died I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

003:012 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

003:013 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest,

003:014 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which build desolate places for themselves;

003:015 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

003:016 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

003:017 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.

003:018 There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.

003:019 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.

003:020 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul;

003:021 Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;

003:022 Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

003:023 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?

003:024 For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

003:025 For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.

003:026 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

---

004:001 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

004:002 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking?

004:003 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

004:004 Thy words have upholden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

004:005 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

004:006 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

004:007 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

004:008 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.
004:009 By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.
004:010 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
004:011 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.
004:012 Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof.
004:013 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men,
004:014 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.
004:015 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:
004:016 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying, 004:017 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?
004:018 Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly:
004:019 How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?
004:020 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.
004:021 Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

---

005:001 Call now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

005:002 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

005:003 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

005:004 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

005:005 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

005:006 Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

005:007 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

005:008 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

005:009 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things without number:

005:010 Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:

005:011 To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

005:012 He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

005:013 He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

005:014 They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope in the noonday as in the night.

005:015 But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

005:016 So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

005:017 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:

005:018 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

005:019 He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

005:020 In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword.

005:021 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

005:022 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

005:023 For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

005:024 And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin.

005:025 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

005:026 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season.

005:027 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

---

006:001 But Job answered and said,

006:002 Oh that my grief were throughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

006:003 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are swallowed up.

006:004 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

006:005 Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

006:006 Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

006:007 The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful meat.

006:008 Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for!

006:009 Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!

006:010 Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.

006:011 What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is mine end, that I should prolong my life?

006:012 Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?

006:013 Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

006:014 To him that is afflicted pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.

006:015 My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;

006:016 Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid:

006:017 What time they wax warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.

006:018 The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.

006:019 The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.

006:020 They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

006:021 For now ye are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid.

006:022 Did I say, Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance?

006:023 Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?

006:024 Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand wherein I have erred.

006:025 How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?

006:026 Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?

006:027 Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

006:028 Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident unto you if I lie.

006:029 Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yea, return again, my righteousness is in it.

006:030 Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?

---

007:001 Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?

007:002 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

007:003 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

007:004 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

007:005 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

007:006 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

007:007 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

007:008 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

007:009 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

007:010 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

007:011 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

007:012 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

007:013 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaints;

007:014 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

007:015 So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

007:016 I loathe it; I would not live alway: let me alone; for my days are vanity.

007:017 What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart upon him?

007:018 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

007:019 How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle?

007:020 I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?

007:021 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

---

008:001 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

008:002 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

008:003 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

008:004 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;

008:005 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

008:006 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

008:007 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

008:008 For enquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:

008:009 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

008:010 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

008:011 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water?

008:012 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

008:013 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish:

008:014 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.

008:015 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

008:016 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

008:017 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

008:018 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

008:019 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

008:020 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers:

008:021 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

008:022 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

009:001 Then Job answered and said,

009:002 I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God?

009:003 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

009:004 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

009:005 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.

009:006 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

009:007 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

009:008 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

009:009 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

009:010 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

009:011 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

009:012 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What doest thou?

009:013 If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.

009:014 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?

009:015 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

009:016 If I had called, and he had answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

009:017 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

009:018 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.

009:019 If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?

009:020 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also prove me perverse.

009:021 Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

009:022 This is one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

009:023 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.

009:024 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is he?

009:025 Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

009:026 They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

009:027 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:

009:028 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

009:029 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

009:030 If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

009:031 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me.

009:032 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.

009:033 Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

009:034 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrify me:

009:035 Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

---

010:001 My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

010:002 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest with me.

010:003 Is it good unto thee that thou shouldest oppress, that thou shouldest despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

010:004 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

010:005 Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days, 010:006 That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

010:007 Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

010:008 Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

010:009 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

010:010 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

010:011 Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

010:012 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

010:013 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee.

010:014 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.

010:015 If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;

010:016 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.

010:017 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

010:018 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!

010:019 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

010:020 Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

010:021 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

010:022 A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

---

011:001 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

011:002 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?

011:003 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

011:004 For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.

011:005 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;

011:006 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.

011:007 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?

011:008 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?

011:009 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

011:010 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?

011:011 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?

011:012 For vain men would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.

011:013 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;

011:014 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.

011:015 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:

011:016 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

011:017 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday: thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.

011:018 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.

011:019 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

011:020 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the giving up of the ghost.

---

012:001 And Job answered and said,

012:002 No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.

012:003 But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things as these?

012:004 I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to scorn.

012:005 He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.

012:006 The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.

012:007 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:

012:008 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.

012:009 Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?

012:010 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

012:011 Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat?

012:012 With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.

012:013 With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.

012:014 Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.

012:015 Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.

012:016 With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.

012:017 He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

012:018 He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.

012:019 He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.

012:020 He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.

012:021 He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.

012:022 He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death.

012:023 He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again.

012:024 He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

012:025 They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

013:001 Lo, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it.

013:002 What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you.

013:003 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

013:004 But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value.

013:005 O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom.

013:006 Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

013:007 Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

013:008 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

013:009 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

013:010 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

013:011 Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

013:012 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.

013:013 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

013:014 Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand?

013:015 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him.

013:016 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

013:017 Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.

013:018 Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.

013:019 Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

013:020 Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee.

013:021 Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

013:022 Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

013:023 How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.

013:024 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

013:025 Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

013:026 For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

013:027 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

013:028 And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

014:001 Man that is born of a woman is of few days and full of trouble.

014:002 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

014:003 And doth thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee?

014:004 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

014:005 Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

014:006 Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

014:007 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

014:008 Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground;
014:009 Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.
014:010 But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?
014:011 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:
014:012 So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.
014:013 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me!
014:014 If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.
014:015 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.
014:016 For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?
014:017 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.
014:018 And surely the mountains falling cometh to nought, and the rock is removed out of his place.
014:019 The waters wear the stones: thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.
014:020 Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

014:021 His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

014:022 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

---

015:001 Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

015:002 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

015:003 Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he can do no good?

015:004 Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God.

015:005 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty.

015:006 Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

015:007 Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

015:008 Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

015:009 What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

015:010 With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father.

015:011 Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

015:012 Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, 015:013 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?

015:014 What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
015:015 Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight.
015:016 How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water?
015:017 I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare;
015:018 Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it:
015:019 Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.
015:020 The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.
015:021 A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.
015:022 He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword.
015:023 He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
015:024 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
015:025 For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.
015:026 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:
015:027 Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.

015:028 And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.

015:029 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the earth.

015:030 He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.

015:031 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompence.

015:032 It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.

015:033 He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

015:034 For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

015:035 They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

---

016:001 Then Job answered and said,

016:002 I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

016:003 Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

016:004 I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake mine head at you.

016:005 But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should asswage your grief.

016:006 Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged: and though I forbear, what am I eased?

016:007 But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.

016:008 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.

016:009 He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.

016:010 They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.

016:011 God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

016:012 I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.

016:013 His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.

016:014 He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.

016:015 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.

016:016 My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

016:017 Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure.

016:018 O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

016:019 Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.

016:020 My friends scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God.

016:021 O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour!

016:022 When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

---

017:001 My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

017:002 Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocation?

017:003 Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?

017:004 For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.

017:005 He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

017:006 He hath made me also a byword of the people; and aforetime I was as a tabret.

017:007 Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow.

017:008 Upright men shall be astonied at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.

017:009 The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.

017:010 But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

017:011 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

017:012 They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.

017:013 If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

017:014 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

017:015 And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it?

017:016 They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

018:001 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

018:002 How long will it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.

018:003 Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?

018:004 He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?

018:005 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.

018:006 The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.

018:007 The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.

018:008 For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

018:009 The gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him.

018:010 The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.

018:011 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.

018:012 His strength shall be hungerbitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.

018:013 It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.

018:014 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.

018:015 It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

018:016 His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.

018:017 His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.

018:018 He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.

018:019 He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.

018:020 They that come after him shall be astonied at his day, as they that went before were affrighted.

018:021 Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

---

019:001 Then Job answered and said,

019:002 How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

019:003 These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me.

019:004 And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth with myself.

019:005 If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

019:006 Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net.

019:007 Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

019:008 He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

019:009 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.

019:010 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.

019:011 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.

019:012 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.

019:013 He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

019:014 My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.

019:015 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

019:016 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth.

019:017 My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of mine own body.

019:018 Yea, young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.

019:019 All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.

019:020 My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
019:021 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.
019:022 Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
019:023 Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!
019:024 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!
019:025 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:
019:026 And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:
019:027 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.
019:028 But ye should say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me?
019:029 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

020:001 Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
020:002 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.
020:003 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.
020:004 Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth, 020:005 That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

020:006 Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto the clouds;

020:007 Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they which have seen him shall say, Where is he?

020:008 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

020:009 The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

020:010 His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

020:011 His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

020:012 Though wickedness be sweet in his mouth, though he hide it under his tongue;

020:013 Though he spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth:

020:014 Yet his meat in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

020:015 He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.

020:016 He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him.

020:017 He shall not see the rivers, the floods, the brooks of honey and butter.

020:018 That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

020:019 Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away an house which he builded not;

020:020 Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.

020:021 There shall none of his meat be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

020:022 In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.

020:023 When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.

020:024 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.

020:025 It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.

020:026 All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

020:027 The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.

020:028 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

020:029 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

---

021:001 But Job answered and said,

021:002 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

021:003 Suffer me that I may speak; and after that I have spoken, mock on.

021:004 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

021:005 Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

021:006 Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

021:007 Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

021:008 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

021:009 Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.

021:010 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

021:011 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

021:012 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

021:013 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

021:014 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

021:015 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

021:016 Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

021:017 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

021:018 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.

021:019 God layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

021:020 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

021:021 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

021:022 Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

021:023 One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

021:024 His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

021:025 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

021:026 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

021:027 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

021:028 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked?

021:029 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, 021:030 That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

021:031 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

021:032 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

021:033 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

021:034 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

022:001 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

022:002 Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto himself?

022:003 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

022:004 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

022:005 Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?

022:006 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

022:007 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

022:008 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honourable man dwelt in it.

022:009 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

022:010 Therefore snares are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;

022:011 Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.

022:012 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!

022:013 And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?

022:014 Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

022:015 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?

022:016 Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood:

022:017 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them?

022:018 Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

022:019 The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

022:020 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

022:021 Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

022:022 Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

022:023 If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.

022:024 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

022:025 Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have plenty of silver.

022:026 For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

022:027 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

022:028 Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

022:029 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; and he shall save the humble person.

022:030 He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

---

023:001 Then Job answered and said,

023:002 Even to day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

023:003 Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

023:004 I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

023:005 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

023:006 Will he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.

023:007 There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.

023:008 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

023:009 On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:

023:010 But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

023:011 My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.

023:012 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

023:013 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

023:014 For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

023:015 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.

023:016 For God maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:

023:017 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

---

024:001 Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?

024:002 Some remove the landmarks; they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof.

024:003 They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.

024:004 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth hide themselves together.

024:005 Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.

024:006 They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.

024:007 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

024:008 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

024:009 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

024:010 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;

024:011 Which make oil within their walls, and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.

024:012 Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

024:013 They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

024:014 The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

024:015 The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguiseth his face.

024:016 In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the light.

024:017 For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death: if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.

024:018 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.

024:019 Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned.

024:020 The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

024:021 He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.

024:022 He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.

024:023 Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways.

024:024 They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

024:025 And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

---

025:001 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

025:002 Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

025:003 Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?

025:004 How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

025:005 Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight.

025:006 How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

026:001 But Job answered and said,

026:002 How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

026:003 How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is?

026:004 To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

026:005 Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

026:006 Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

026:007 He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

026:008 He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

026:009 He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

026:010 He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

026:011 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof.

026:012 He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

026:013 By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

026:014 Lo, these are parts of his ways: but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

---

027:001 Moreover Job continued his parable, and said,

027:002 As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul;

027:003 All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

027:004 My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

027:005 God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me.

027:006 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

027:007 Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.

027:008 For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?

027:009 Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?

027:010 Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?

027:011 I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

027:012 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?

027:013 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

027:014 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

027:015 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

027:016 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;

027:017 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

027:018 He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

027:019 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

027:020 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

027:021 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

027:022 For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

027:023 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

028:001 Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

028:002 Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

028:003 He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death.

028:004 The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men.

028:005 As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.

028:006 The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.

028:007 There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen:

028:008 The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

028:009 He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

028:010 He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.

028:011 He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light.
028:012 But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?
028:013 Man knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living.
028:014 The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.
028:015 It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
028:016 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
028:017 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.
028:018 No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
028:019 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
028:020 Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?
028:021 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.
028:022 Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.
028:023 God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.
028:024 For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;

028:025 To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

028:026 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:

028:027 Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

028:028 And unto man he said, Behold, the fear of the LORD, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

---

029:001 Moreover Job continued his parable, and said,

029:002 Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;

029:003 When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

029:004 As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

029:005 When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;

029:006 When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil;

029:007 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!

029:008 The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.

029:009 The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.

029:010 The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.

029:011 When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

029:012 Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.

029:013 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

029:014 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.

029:015 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.

029:016 I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.

029:017 And I brake the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.

029:018 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

029:019 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.

029:020 My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.

029:021 Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.

029:022 After my words they spake not again; and my speech dropped upon them.

029:023 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

029:024 If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.

029:025 I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

030:001 But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.

030:002 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age was perished?

030:003 For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.

030:004 Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

030:005 They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as after a thief;)

030:006 To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.

030:007 Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were gathered together.

030:008 They were children of fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth.

030:009 And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword.

030:010 They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.

030:011 Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.

030:012 Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.

030:013 They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.

030:014 They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

030:015 Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.
030:016 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
030:017 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.
030:018 By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.
030:019 He hath cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.
030:020 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.
030:021 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.
030:022 Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.
030:023 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.
030:024 Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.
030:025 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?
030:026 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.
030:027 My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction prevented me.
030:028 I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.
030:029 I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

030:030 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat.

030:031 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

---

031:001 I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

031:002 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

031:003 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

031:004 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

031:005 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to deceit;

031:006 Let me be weighed in an even balance that God may know mine integrity.

031:007 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands;

031:008 Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.

031:009 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbour's door;

031:010 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

031:011 For this is an heinous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

031:012 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.

031:013 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, when they contended with me;

031:014 What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?
031:015 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?
031:016 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;
031:017 Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof;
031:018 (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;)
031:019 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;
031:020 If his loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
031:021 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:
031:022 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone.
031:023 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.
031:024 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;
031:025 If I rejoice because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much;
031:026 If I beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness;
031:027 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

031:028 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

031:029 If I rejoice at the destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him:

031:030 Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.

031:031 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.

031:032 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller.

031:033 If I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom:

031:034 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?

031:035 Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

031:036 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.

031:037 I would declare unto him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near unto him.

031:038 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain;

031:039 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:

031:040 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

---

032:001 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

032:002 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

032:003 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

032:004 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he.

032:005 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

032:006 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion.

032:007 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

032:008 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

032:009 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.

032:010 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion.

032:011 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.

032:012 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

032:013 Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.

032:014 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.

032:015 They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking.

032:016 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;)

032:017 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion.

032:018 For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me.

032:019 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

032:020 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

032:021 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

032:022 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

---

033:001 Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

033:002 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

033:003 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

033:004 The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

033:005 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.

033:006 Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

033:007 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

033:008 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying, 033:009 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.

033:010 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, 033:011 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

033:012 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

033:013 Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.

033:014 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not.

033:015 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

033:016 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, 033:017 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.

033:018 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

033:019 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:

033:020 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.

033:021 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.

033:022 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

033:023 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness:

033:024 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom.

033:025 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

033:026 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

033:027 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;

033:028 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

033:029 Lo, all these things worketh God oftentimes with man, 033:030 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

033:031 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

033:032 If thou hast anything to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

033:033 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

---

034:001 Furthermore Elihu answered and said,

034:002 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

034:003 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat.

034:004 Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

034:005 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.

034:006 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

034:007 What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water?

034:008 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.

034:009 For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.

034:010 Therefore hearken unto me ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.

034:011 For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.

034:012 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

034:013 Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

034:014 If he set his heart upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;

034:015 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again unto dust.

034:016 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.

034:017 Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?

034:018 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?

034:019 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.

034:020 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

034:021 For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

034:022 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.

034:023 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God.

034:024 He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.

034:025 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.

034:026 He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;

034:027 Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

034:028 So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

034:029 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

034:030 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared.

034:031 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

034:032 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

034:033 Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

034:034 Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

034:035 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

034:036 My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.

034:037 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

---

035:001 Elihu spake moreover, and said,

035:002 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

035:003 For thou saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?

035:004 I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

035:005 Look unto the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.

035:006 If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him?

035:007 If thou be righteous, what givest thou him? or what receiveth he of thine hand?

035:008 Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.

035:009 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.

035:010 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night;

035:011 Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

035:012 There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.

035:013 Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.

035:014 Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.

035:015 But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity:

035:016 Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.

036:001 Elihu also proceeded, and said,

036:002 Suffer me a little, and I will shew thee that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

036:003 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

036:004 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.

036:005 Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.

036:006 He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.

036:007 He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

036:008 And if they be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction;

036:009 Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

036:010 He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.

036:011 If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.

036:012 But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.

036:013 But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.

036:014 They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.

036:015 He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.

036:016 Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table should be full of fatness.

036:017 But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.

036:018 Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.

036:019 Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.

036:020 Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.

036:021 Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

036:022 Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?

036:023 Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

036:024 Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.

036:025 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.

036:026 Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his years be searched out.

036:027 For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof:

036:028 Which the clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly.

036:029 Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?

036:030 Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

036:031 For by them judgeth he the people; he giveth meat in abundance.

036:032 With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the cloud that cometh betwixt.

036:033 The noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapour.

---

037:001 At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.

037:002 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.

037:003 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning unto the ends of the earth.

037:004 After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

037:005 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.

037:006 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.

037:007 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.

037:008 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.

037:009 Out of the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north.

037:010 By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.

037:011 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud:

037:012 And it is turned round about by his counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.

037:013 He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.

037:014 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.

037:015 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?

037:016 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

037:017 How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?

037:018 Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?

037:019 Teach us what we shall say unto him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.

037:020 Shall it be told him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.

037:021 And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.

037:022 Fair weather cometh out of the north: with God is terrible majesty.

037:023 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict.

037:024 Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

---

038:001 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, 038:002 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

038:003 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

038:004 Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

038:005 Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

038:006 Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof;

038:007 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

038:008 Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

038:009 When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddlingband for it,

038:010 And brake up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors, 038:011 And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?

038:012 Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the dayspring to know his place;

038:013 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?

038:014 It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.

038:015 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm shall be broken.

038:016 Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?

038:017 Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?

038:018 Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.

038:019 Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof, 038:020 That thou shouldest take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldest know the paths to the house thereof?

038:021 Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?

038:022 Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, 038:023 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?

038:024 By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?

038:025 Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;

038:026 To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness, wherein there is no man;

038:027 To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?

038:028 Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of dew?

038:029 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

038:030 The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

038:031 Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

038:032 Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with his sons?

038:033 Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?

038:034 Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

038:035 Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go and say unto thee, Here we are?

038:036 Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

038:037 Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven, 038:038 When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?

038:039 Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions, 038:040 When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?

038:041 Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat.

---

039:001 Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?

039:002 Canst thou number the months that they fulfil? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?
039:003 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.
039:004 Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not unto them.
039:005 Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?
039:006 Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.
039:007 He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.
039:008 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.
039:009 Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib?
039:010 Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?
039:011 Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him?
039:012 Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?
039:013 Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?
039:014 Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust, 039:015 And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.
039:016 She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not her's: her labour is in vain without fear;

039:017 Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.

039:018 What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.

039:019 Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?

039:020 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.

039:021 He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.

039:022 He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.

039:023 The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

039:024 He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.

039:025 He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.

039:026 Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south?

039:027 Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?

039:028 She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.

039:029 From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.

039:030 Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

040:001 Moreover the LORD answered Job, and said,

040:002 Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.

040:003 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

040:004 Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.

040:005 Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; but I will proceed no further.

040:006 Then answered the LORD unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said, 040:007 Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

040:008 Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

040:009 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

040:010 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty.

040:011 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

040:012 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.

040:013 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.

040:014 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

040:015 Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

040:016 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

040:017 He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones are wrapped together.

040:018 His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.

040:019 He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

040:020 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.

040:021 He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.

040:022 The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook compass him about.

040:023 Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

040:024 He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

---

041:001 Canst thou draw out leviathan with an hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?

041:002 Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

041:003 Will he make many supplications unto thee? will he speak soft words unto thee?

041:004 Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

041:005 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

041:006 Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

041:007 Canst thou fill his skin with barbed irons? or his head with fish spears?

041:008 Lay thine hand upon him, remember the battle, do no more.

041:009 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down even at the sight of him?

041:010 None is so fierce that dare stir him up: who then is able to stand before me?

041:011 Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.

041:012 I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

041:013 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

041:014 Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

041:015 His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a close seal.

041:016 One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

041:017 They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.

041:018 By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

041:019 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

041:020 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.

041:021 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

041:022 In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.

041:023 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

041:024 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.

041:025 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.

041:026 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.

041:027 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

041:028 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

041:029 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.

041:030 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

041:031 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

041:032 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

041:033 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.

041:034 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

---

042:001 Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

042:002 I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.

042:003 Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

042:004 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.

042:005 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.

042:006 Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

042:007 And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

042:008 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

042:009 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.

042:010 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

042:011 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.

042:012 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

042:013 He had also seven sons and three daughters.

042:014 And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch.

042:015 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.
042:016 After this lived Job an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.
042:017 So Job died, being old and full of days.

PSALM

---

001:001 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

001:002 But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

001:003 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

001:004 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

001:005 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

001:006 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

---

002:001 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

002:002 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, 002:003 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

002:004 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the LORD shall have them in derision.

002:005 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

002:006 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

002:007 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.

002:008 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

002:009 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

002:010 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

002:011 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

002:012 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

---

003:001 Lord, how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me.

003:002 Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. Selah.

003:003 But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.

003:004 I cried unto the LORD with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah.

003:005 I laid me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me.

003:006 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about.

003:007 Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.

003:008 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

---

004:001 Hear me when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

004:002 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

004:003 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him.

004:004 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah.

004:005 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in the LORD.

004:006 There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

004:007 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased.

004:008 I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

---

005:001 Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

005:002 Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray.

005:003 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.

005:004 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.

005:005 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.

005:006 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.

005:007 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

005:008 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

005:009 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue.

005:010 Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

005:011 But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.

005:012 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

---

006:001 O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

006:002 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed.

006:003 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long?

006:004 Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

006:005 For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee thanks?

006:006 I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

006:007 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies.

006:008 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

006:009 The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.

006:010 Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

007:001 O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:

007:002 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

007:003 O LORD my God, If I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;

007:004 If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without cause is mine enemy:)

007:005 Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah.

007:006 Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

007:007 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

007:008 The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me.

007:009 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins.

007:010 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.

007:011 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

007:012 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

007:013 He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

007:014 Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.

007:015 He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.

007:016 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate.

007:017 I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

---

008:001 O LORD, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.

008:002 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

008:003 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

008:004 What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

008:005 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

008:006 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

008:007 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

008:008 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

008:009 O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

009:001 I will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

009:002 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

009:003 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

009:004 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the throne judging right.

009:005 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

009:006 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with them.

009:007 But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgment.

009:008 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.

009:009 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

009:010 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

009:011 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

009:012 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

009:013 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death:

009:014 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

009:015 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

009:016 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

009:017 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

009:018 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.

009:019 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

009:020 Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

---

010:001 Why standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?

010:002 The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

010:003 For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

010:004 The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

010:005 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

010:006 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

010:007 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

010:008 He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

010:009 He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

010:010 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.

010:011 He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

010:012 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

010:013 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.

010:014 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.

010:015 Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

010:016 The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

010:017 LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear:

010:018 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

---

011:001 In the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?

011:002 For, lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

011:003 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

011:004 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

011:005 The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

011:006 Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and an horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

011:007 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

---

012:001 Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

012:002 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

012:003 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:

012:004 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

012:005 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.

012:006 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

012:007 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

012:008 The wicked walk on every side, when the vilest men are exalted.

013:001 How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?

013:002 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?

013:003 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

013:004 Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

013:005 But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

013:006 I will sing unto the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

014:001 The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

014:002 The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

014:003 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

014:004 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

014:005 There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

014:006 Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

014:007 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

---

015:001 Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

015:002 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

015:003 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

015:004 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

015:005 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

---

016:001 Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

016:002 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;

016:003 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

016:004 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

016:005 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

016:006 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage.

016:007 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

016:008 I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

016:009 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.

016:010 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

016:011 Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

---

017:001 Hear the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.

017:002 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.

017:003 Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.

017:004 Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.

017:005 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.

017:006 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thine ear unto me, and hear my speech.

017:007 Shew thy marvellous lovingkindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

017:008 Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings, 017:009 From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass me about.

017:010 They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.

017:011 They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

017:012 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

017:013 Arise, O LORD, disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:

017:014 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

017:015 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness.

018:001 I will love thee, O LORD, my strength.

018:002 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, my strength, in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

018:003 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.
018:004 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.
018:005 The sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death prevented me.
018:006 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.
018:007 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.
018:008 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.
018:009 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.
018:010 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.
018:011 He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.
018:012 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.
018:013 The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; hail stones and coals of fire.
018:014 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.
018:015 Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.

018:016 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

018:017 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.

018:018 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

018:019 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.

018:020 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

018:021 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

018:022 For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.

018:023 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.

018:024 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.

018:025 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;

018:026 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.

018:027 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.

018:028 For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.

018:029 For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.

018:030 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.

018:031 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?

018:032 It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

018:033 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.

018:034 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

018:035 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made me great.

018:036 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.

018:037 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.

018:038 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

018:039 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

018:040 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

018:041 They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

018:042 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

018:043 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

018:044 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.

018:045 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

018:046 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

018:047 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

018:048 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

018:049 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

018:050 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

---

019:001 The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

019:002 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

019:003 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

019:004 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun, 019:005 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

019:006 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

019:007 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

019:008 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

019:009 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

019:010 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

019:011 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

019:012 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

019:013 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

019:014 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

---

020:001 The LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee;

020:002 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion;

020:003 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah.

020:004 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

020:005 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

020:006 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

020:007 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

020:008 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

020:009 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

---

021:001 The king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
021:002 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.
021:003 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.
021:004 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.
021:005 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.
021:006 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.
021:007 For the king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.
021:008 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.
021:009 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.
021:010 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.
021:011 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.
021:012 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings against the face of them.
021:013 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

022:001 My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

022:002 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent.

022:003 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

022:004 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

022:005 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

022:006 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

022:007 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

022:008 He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

022:009 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

022:010 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

022:011 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help.

022:012 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

022:013 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

022:014 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

022:015 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

022:016 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

022:017 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

022:018 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

022:019 But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

022:020 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.

022:021 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast heard me from the horns of the unicorns.

022:022 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

022:023 Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

022:024 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard.

022:025 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

022:026 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.

022:027 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

022:028 For the kingdom is the LORD's: and he is the governor among the nations.

022:029 All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

022:030 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

022:031 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

---

023:001 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

023:002 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

023:003 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

023:004 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

023:005 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

023:006 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

---

024:001 The earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

024:002 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

024:003 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his holy place?

024:004 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

024:005 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

024:006 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.
024:007 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
024:008 Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.
024:009 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.
024:010 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

---

025:001 Unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.
025:002 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.
025:003 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.
025:004 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths.
025:005 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee do I wait all the day.
025:006 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.
025:007 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me for thy goodness' sake, O LORD.
025:008 Good and upright is the LORD: therefore will he teach sinners in the way.
025:009 The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his way.

025:010 All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.

025:011 For thy name's sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great.

025:012 What man is he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose.

025:013 His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit the earth.

025:014 The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant.

025:015 Mine eyes are ever toward the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

025:016 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.

025:017 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my distresses.

025:018 Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins.

025:019 Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred.

025:020 O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee.

025:021 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee.

025:022 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

---

026:001 Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide.

026:002 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.

026:003 For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy truth.

026:004 I have not sat with vain persons, neither will I go in with dissemblers.

026:005 I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked.

026:006 I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O LORD:

026:007 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

026:008 LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

026:009 Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:

026:010 In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.

026:011 But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

026:012 My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bless the LORD.

---

027:001 The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

027:002 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

027:003 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

027:004 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

027:005 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

027:006 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

027:007 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

027:008 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

027:009 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

027:010 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up.

027:011 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

027:012 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

027:013 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

027:014 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

028:001 Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

028:002 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

028:003 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

028:004 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert.

028:005 Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up.

028:006 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

028:007 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

028:008 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

028:009 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

---

029:001 Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

029:002 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

029:003 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

029:004 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

029:005 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

029:006 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

029:007 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

029:008 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

029:009 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

029:010 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

029:011 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

---

030:001 I will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

030:002 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

030:003 O LORD, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.

030:004 Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

030:005 For his anger endureth but a moment; in his favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

030:006 And in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.

030:007 LORD, by thy favour thou hast made my mountain to stand strong: thou didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.

030:008 I cried to thee, O LORD; and unto the LORD I made supplication.

030:009 What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise thee? shall it declare thy truth?

030:010 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me: LORD, be thou my helper.

030:011 Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness;

030:012 To the end that my glory may sing praise to thee, and not be silent.
O LORD my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.

---

031:001 In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed:
deliver me in thy righteousness.
031:002 Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.
031:003 For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me.
031:004 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.
031:005 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O
LORD God of truth.
031:006 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.
031:007 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities; 031:008 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.
031:009 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.
031:010 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.
031:011 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.
031:012 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

031:013 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

031:014 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

031:015 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

031:016 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant: save me for thy mercies' sake.

031:017 Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let them be silent in the grave.

031:018 Let the lying lips be put to silence; which speak grievous things proudly and contemptuously against the righteous.

031:019 Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men!

031:020 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

031:021 Blessed be the LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city.

031:022 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee.

031:023 O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

031:024 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the LORD.

---

032:001 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

032:002 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

032:003 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all the day long.

032:004 For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

032:005 I acknowledge my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah.

032:006 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him.

032:007 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

032:008 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

032:009 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

032:010 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

032:011 Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

---

033:001 Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.

033:002 Praise the LORD with harp: sing unto him with the psaltery and an instrument of ten strings.

033:003 Sing unto him a new song; play skilfully with a loud noise.

033:004 For the word of the LORD is right; and all his works are done in truth.
033:005 He loveth righteousness and judgment: the earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.
033:006 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
033:007 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.
033:008 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
033:009 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.
033:010 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.
033:011 The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
033:012 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.
033:013 The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all the sons of men.
033:014 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.
033:015 He fashioneth their hearts alike; he considereth all their works.
033:016 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.
033:017 An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.
033:018 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy;
033:019 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

033:020 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help and our shield.

033:021 For our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.

033:022 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope in thee.

---

034:001 I will bless the LORD at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

034:002 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

034:003 O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together.

034:004 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

034:005 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

034:006 This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.

034:007 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

034:008 O taste and see that the LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

034:009 O fear the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

034:010 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.

034:011 Come, ye children, hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

034:012 What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?

034:013 Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.

034:014 Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue it.

034:015 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

034:016 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

034:017 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles.

034:018 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.

034:019 Many are the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all.

034:020 He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken.

034:021 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.

034:022 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

---

035:001 Plead my cause, O LORD, with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

035:002 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

035:003 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

035:004 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

035:005 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them.

035:006 Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the angel of the LORD persecute them.

035:007 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul.

035:008 Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall.

035:009 And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall rejoice in his salvation.

035:010 All my bones shall say, LORD, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

035:011 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

035:012 They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of my soul.

035:013 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned into mine own bosom.

035:014 I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth for his mother.

035:015 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not:

035:016 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

035:017 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, my darling from the lions.

035:018 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among much people.

035:019 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate me without a cause.

035:020 For they speak not peace: but they devise deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land.

035:021 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our eye hath seen it.

035:022 This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me.

035:023 Stir up thyself, and awake to my judgment, even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.

035:024 Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not rejoice over me.

035:025 Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

035:026 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify themselves against me.

035:027 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

035:028 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

---

036:001 The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

036:002 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

036:003 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

036:004 He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

036:005 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

036:006 Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.

036:007 How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

036:008 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

036:009 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

036:010 O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

036:011 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.

036:012 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise.

---

037:001 Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

037:002 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

037:003 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed.

037:004 Delight thyself also in the LORD: and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

037:005 Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

037:006 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgment as the noonday.

037:007 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

037:008 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

037:009 For evildoers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

037:010 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

037:011 But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

037:012 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with his teeth.

037:013 The LORD shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his day is coming.

037:014 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as be of upright conversation.

037:015 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

037:016 A little that a righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked.

037:017 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth the righteous.

037:018 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

037:019 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

037:020 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

037:021 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth.

037:022 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

037:023 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way.

037:024 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

037:025 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

037:026 He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and his seed is blessed.

037:027 Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell for evermore.

037:028 For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

037:029 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

037:030 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgment.

037:031 The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide.

037:032 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

037:033 The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

037:034 Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

037:035 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

037:036 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

037:037 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

037:038 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

037:039 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

037:040 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

---

038:001 O lord, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

038:002 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

038:003 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

038:004 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

038:005 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

038:006 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.

038:007 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

038:008 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart.

038:009 Lord, all my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.

038:010 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

038:011 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off.

038:012 They also that seek after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

038:013 But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

038:014 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.

038:015 For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou wilt hear, O Lord my God.

038:016 For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me.

038:017 For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow is continually before me.

038:018 For I will declare mine iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.

038:019 But mine enemies are lively, and they are strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

038:020 They also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is.

038:021 Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be not far from me.

038:022 Make haste to help me, O Lord my salvation.

---

039:001 I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

039:002 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was stirred.
039:003 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned:
then spake I with my tongue,
039:004 LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is: that I may know how frail I am.
039:005 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.
039:006 Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.
039:007 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.
039:008 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach of the foolish.
039:009 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou didst it.
039:010 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.
039:011 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity.
Selah.
039:012 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
039:013 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

---

040:001 I waited patiently for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

040:002 He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.

040:003 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

040:004 Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

040:005 Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

040:006 Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire; mine ears hast thou opened: burnt offering and sin offering hast thou not required.

040:007 Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me,

040:008 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

040:009 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest.

040:010 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation.

040:011 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

040:012 For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me.

040:013 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me.

040:014 Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil.

040:015 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha.

040:016 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation say continually, The LORD be magnified.

040:017 But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer; make no tarrying, O my God.

---

041:001 Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.

041:002 The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

041:003 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

041:004 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee.

041:005 Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish?

041:006 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it.

041:007 All that hate me whisper together against me: against me do they devise my hurt.

041:008 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him: and now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.

041:009 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.

041:010 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up, that I may requite them.
041:011 By this I know that thou favourest me, because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.
041:012 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity, and settest me before thy face for ever.
041:013 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting, and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

042:001 As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.
042:002 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?
042:003 My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?
042:004 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.
042:005 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.
042:006 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.
042:007 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
042:008 Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the day time, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

042:009 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

042:010 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

042:011 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

---

043:001 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation: O deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.

043:002 For thou art the God of my strength: why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

043:003 O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles.

043:004 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God.

043:005 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

044:001 We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old.

044:002 How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

044:003 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them.

044:004 Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob.

044:005 Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

044:006 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

044:007 But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us.

044:008 In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

044:009 But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

044:010 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

044:011 Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

044:012 Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price.

044:013 Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

044:014 Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people.

044:015 My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, 044:016 For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger.

044:017 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant.

044:018 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way;

044:019 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and covered us with the shadow of death.

044:020 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god;

044:021 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

044:022 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

044:023 Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.

044:024 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

044:025 For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

044:026 Arise for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

---

045:001 My heart is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

045:002 Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

045:003 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

045:004 And in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

045:005 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

045:006 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

045:007 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

045:008 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

045:009 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

045:010 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

045:011 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

045:012 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

045:013 The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought gold.

045:014 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

045:015 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace.

045:016 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

045:017 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

---

046:001 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

046:002 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

046:003 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

046:004 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

046:005 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

046:006 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

046:007 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

046:008 Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

046:009 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

046:010 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

046:011 The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

---

047:001 O clap your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

047:002 For the LORD most high is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.

047:003 He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet.

047:004 He shall choose our inheritance for us, the excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah.

047:005 God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

047:006 Sing praises to God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

047:007 For God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding.

047:008 God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.

047:009 The princes of the people are gathered together, even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

---

048:001 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.

048:002 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

048:003 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.

048:004 For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.

048:005 They saw it, and so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away.

048:006 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

048:007 Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind.

048:008 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.

048:009 We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.

048:010 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.

048:011 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.

048:012 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.

048:013 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.

048:014 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

---

049:001 Hear this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world:

049:002 Both low and high, rich and poor, together.

049:003 My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.

049:004 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.

049:005 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about?

049:006 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;

049:007 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him:

049:008 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:)

049:009 That he should still live for ever, and not see corruption.

049:010 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

049:011 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

049:012 Nevertheless man being in honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish.

049:013 This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.

049:014 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

049:015 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he shall receive me. Selah.

049:016 Be not thou afraid when one is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased;

049:017 For when he dieth he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.

049:018 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, when thou doest well to thyself.

049:019 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; they shall never see light.

049:020 Man that is in honour, and understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

---

050:001 The mighty God, even the LORD, hath spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof.

050:002 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined.

050:003 Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

050:004 He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people.

050:005 Gather my saints together unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.

050:006 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge himself. Selah.

050:007 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God.

050:008 I will not reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me.

050:009 I will take no bullock out of thy house, nor he goats out of thy folds.

050:010 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.

050:011 I know all the fowls of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

050:012 If I were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.

050:013 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

050:014 Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High:

050:015 And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me.

050:016 But unto the wicked God saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth?

050:017 Seeing thou hatest instruction, and casteth my words behind thee.

050:018 When thou sawest a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers.

050:019 Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue frameth deceit.

050:020 Thou sittest and speakest against thy brother; thou slanderest thine own mother's son.

050:021 These things hast thou done, and I kept silence; thou thoughtest that I was altogether such an one as thyself: but I will reprove thee, and set them in order before thine eyes.

050:022 Now consider this, ye that forget God, lest I tear you in pieces, and there be none to deliver.

050:023 Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation aright will I shew the salvation of God.

---

051:001 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

051:002 Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

051:003 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

051:004 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

051:005 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

051:006 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

051:007 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

051:008 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

051:009 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

051:010 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

051:011 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

051:012 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

051:013 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.

051:014 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

051:015 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

051:016 For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

051:017 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

051:018 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: build thou the walls of Jerusalem.

051:019 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering: then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

---

052:001 Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

052:002 The tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

052:003 Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah.

052:004 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

052:005 God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

052:006 The righteous also shall see, and fear, and shall laugh at him:

052:007 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.

052:008 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

052:009 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

---

053:001 The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

053:002 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

053:003 Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

053:004 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

053:005 There were they in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

053:006 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

---

054:001 Save me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

054:002 Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth.

054:003 For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.

054:004 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold my soul.

054:005 He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off in thy truth.

054:006 I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy name, O LORD; for it is good.

054:007 For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.

---

055:001 Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my supplication.

055:002 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise;

055:003 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.

055:004 My heart is sore pained within me: and the terrors of death are fallen upon me.

055:005 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me.

055:006 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, and be at rest.

055:007 Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah.

055:008 I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest.

055:009 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

055:010 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are in the midst of it.

055:011 Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and guile depart not from her streets.

055:012 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:

055:013 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

055:014 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

055:015 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.

055:016 As for me, I will call upon God; and the LORD shall save me.

055:017 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice.

055:018 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me: for there were many with me.

055:019 God shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God.

055:020 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

055:021 The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.

055:022 Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.

055:023 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

---

056:001 Be merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.

056:002 Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they be many that fight against me, O thou most High.

056:003 What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

056:004 In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.

056:005 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil.

056:006 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul.

056:007 Shall they escape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.

056:008 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

056:009 When I cry unto thee, then shall mine enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me.

056:010 In God will I praise his word: in the LORD will I praise his word.

056:011 In God have I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.

056:012 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee.

056:013 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

---

057:001 Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast.

057:002 I will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me.

057:003 He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach of him that would swallow me up. Selah. God shall send forth his mercy and his truth.

057:004 My soul is among lions: and I lie even among them that are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.

057:005 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above all the earth.

057:006 They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah.

057:007 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise.

057:008 Awake up, my glory; awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

057:009 I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

057:010 For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds.

057:011 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

---

058:001 Do ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?

058:002 Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.

058:003 The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking lies.

058:004 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf adder that stoppeth her ear;

058:005 Which will not hearken to the voice of charmers, charming never so wisely.

058:006 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.

058:007 Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.
058:008 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.
058:009 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath.
058:010 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
058:011 So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous:
verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

---

059:001 Deliver me from mine enemies, O my God: defend me from them that rise up against me.
059:002 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from bloody men.
059:003 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD.
059:004 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help me, and behold.
059:005 Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors.
Selah.
059:006 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.
059:007 Behold, they belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear?
059:008 But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.

059:009 Because of his strength will I wait upon thee: for God is my defence.

059:010 The God of my mercy shall prevent me: God shall let me see my desire upon mine enemies.

059:011 Slay them not, lest my people forget: scatter them by thy power; and bring them down, O Lord our shield.

059:012 For the sin of their mouth and the words of their lips let them even be taken in their pride: and for cursing and lying which they speak.

059:013 Consume them in wrath, consume them, that they may not be: and let them know that God ruleth in Jacob unto the ends of the earth. Selah.

059:014 And at evening let them return; and let them make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.

059:015 Let them wander up and down for meat, and grudge if they be not satisfied.

059:016 But I will sing of thy power; yea, I will sing aloud of thy mercy in the morning: for thou hast been my defence and refuge in the day of my trouble.

059:017 Unto thee, O my strength, will I sing: for God is my defence, and the God of my mercy.

060:001 O God, thou hast cast us off, thou hast scattered us, thou hast been displeased; O turn thyself to us again.

060:002 Thou hast made the earth to tremble; thou hast broken it: heal the breaches thereof; for it shaketh.

060:003 Thou hast shewed thy people hard things: thou hast made us to drink the wine of astonishment.

060:004 Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah.

060:005 That thy beloved may be delivered; save with thy right hand, and hear me.

060:006 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

060:007 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;

060:008 Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe: Philistia, triumph thou because of me.

060:009 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

060:010 Wilt not thou, O God, which hadst cast us off? and thou, O God, which didst not go out with our armies?

060:011 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

060:012 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

---

061:001 Hear my cry, O God; attend unto my prayer.

061:002 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed: lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

061:003 For thou hast been a shelter for me, and a strong tower from the enemy.

061:004 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever: I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.

061:005 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows: thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.

061:006 Thou wilt prolong the king's life: and his years as many generations.

061:007 He shall abide before God for ever: O prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

061:008 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

---

062:001 Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation.

062:002 He only is my rock and my salvation; he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.

062:003 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man? ye shall be slain all of you: as a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

062:004 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency: they delight in lies: they bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah.

062:005 My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him.

062:006 He only is my rock and my salvation: he is my defence; I shall not be moved.

062:007 In God is my salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

062:008 Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah.

062:009 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

062:010 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

062:011 God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God.

062:012 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

---

063:001 O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is;

063:002 To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

063:003 Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

063:004 Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name.

063:005 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips:

063:006 When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches.

063:007 Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.

063:008 My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me.

063:009 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.

063:010 They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes.

063:011 But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

---

064:001 Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy.

064:002 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity:

064:003 Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words:

064:004 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.

064:005 They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them?

064:006 They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart, is deep.

064:007 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded.

064:008 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away.

064:009 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall wisely consider of his doing.

064:010 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

---

065:001 Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed.

065:002 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

065:003 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

065:004 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

065:005 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:

065:006 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power:

065:007 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and the tumult of the people.

065:008 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.

065:009 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

065:010 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou blessest the springing thereof.

065:011 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness.

065:012 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.

065:013 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

066:001 Make a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands:

066:002 Sing forth the honour of his name: make his praise glorious.

066:003 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

066:004 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah.

066:005 Come and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.

066:006 He turned the sea into dry land: they went through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him.

066:007 He ruleth by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

066:008 O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard:

066:009 Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.

066:010 For thou, O God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried.

066:011 Thou broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

066:012 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.

066:013 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee my vows, 066:014 Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.

066:015 I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah.

066:016 Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

066:017 I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.

066:018 If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me:

066:019 But verily God hath heard me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

066:020 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

---

067:001 God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; Selah.

067:002 That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations.
067:003 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.
067:004 O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah.
067:005 Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee.
067:006 Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us.
067:007 God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

---

068:001 Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered: let them also that hate him flee before him.
068:002 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
068:003 But let the righteous be glad; let them rejoice before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.
068:004 Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him.
068:005 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.
068:006 God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land.
068:007 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march through the wilderness; Selah:
068:008 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God:
even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

068:009 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.

068:010 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.

068:011 The Lord gave the word: great was the company of those that published it.

068:012 Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the spoil.

068:013 Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow gold.

068:014 When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as snow in Salmon.

068:015 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan; an high hill as the hill of Bashan.

068:016 Why leap ye, ye high hills? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in; yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.

068:017 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.

068:018 Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them.

068:019 Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation. Selah.

068:020 He that is our God is the God of salvation; and unto GOD the Lord belong the issues from death.

068:021 But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one as goeth on still in his trespasses.

068:022 The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea:
068:023 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies, and the tongue of thy dogs in the same.
068:024 They have seen thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.
068:025 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after; among them were the damsels playing with timbrels.
068:026 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain of Israel.
068:027 There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.
068:028 Thy God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.
068:029 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee.
068:030 Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war.
068:031 Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.
068:032 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises unto the Lord; Selah:
068:033 To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.
068:034 Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.

068:035 O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.

---

069:001 Save me, O God; for the waters are come in unto my soul.

069:002 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.

069:003 I am weary of my crying: my throat is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God.

069:004 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

069:005 O God, thou knowest my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee.

069:006 Let not them that wait on thee, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel.

069:007 Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

069:008 I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and an alien unto my mother's children.

069:009 For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

069:010 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, that was to my reproach.

069:011 I made sackcloth also my garment; and I became a proverb to them.

069:012 They that sit in the gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards.

069:013 But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy salvation.

069:014 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

069:015 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me.

069:016 Hear me, O LORD; for thy lovingkindness is good: turn unto me according to the multitude of thy tender mercies.

069:017 And hide not thy face from thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily.

069:018 Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.

069:019 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: mine adversaries are all before thee.

069:020 Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.

069:021 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.

069:022 Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a trap.

069:023 Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make their loins continually to shake.

069:024 Pour out thine indignation upon them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them.

069:025 Let their habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents.

069:026 For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the grief of those whom thou hast wounded.

069:027 Add iniquity unto their iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness.

069:028 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with the righteous.

069:029 But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O God, set me up on high.

069:030 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

069:031 This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

069:032 The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live that seek God.

069:033 For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth not his prisoners.

069:034 Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, and every thing that moveth therein.

069:035 For God will save Zion, and will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession.

069:036 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and they that love his name shall dwell therein.

---

070:001 MAKE HASTE, O GOD, TO DELIVER ME; MAKE HASTE TO HELP ME, O LORD.

070:002 Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt.

070:003 Let them be turned back for a reward of their shame that say, Aha, aha.

070:004 Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.

070:005 But I am poor and needy: make haste unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

---

071:001 In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion.

071:002 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me.

071:003 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.

071:004 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

071:005 For thou art my hope, O Lord GOD: thou art my trust from my youth.

071:006 By thee have I been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee.

071:007 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

071:008 Let my mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.

071:009 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth.

071:010 For mine enemies speak against me; and they that lay wait for my soul take counsel together, 071:011 Saying, God hath forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him.

071:012 O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my help.

071:013 Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.

071:014 But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee more and more.

071:015 My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof.

071:016 I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of thy righteousness, even of thine only.

071:017 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.

071:018 Now also when I am old and greyheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and thy power to every one that is to come.

071:019 Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is like unto thee!

071:020 Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

071:021 Thou shalt increase my greatness, and comfort me on every side.

071:022 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.

071:023 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed.

071:024 My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

---

072:001 Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.

072:002 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

072:003 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.

072:004 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.

072:005 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

072:006 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.

072:007 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

072:008 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth.

072:009 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust.

072:010 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

072:011 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him: all nations shall serve him.

072:012 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.

072:013 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

072:014 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight.

072:015 And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.

072:016 There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.

072:017 His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

072:018 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things.

072:019 And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen.

072:020 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

---

073:001 Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart.

073:002 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped.

073:003 For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

073:004 For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm.

073:005 They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

073:006 Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment.

073:007 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.

073:008 They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily.

073:009 They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth.

073:010 Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them.

073:011 And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?

073:012 Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches.

073:013 Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocency.

073:014 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.

073:015 If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children.

073:016 When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me;

073:017 Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end.

073:018 Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction.

073:019 How are they brought into desolation, as in a moment! they are utterly consumed with terrors.

073:020 As a dream when one awaketh; so, O Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image.

073:021 Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

073:022 So foolish was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee.

073:023 Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.

073:024 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

073:025 Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon earth that I desire beside thee.

073:026 My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.

073:027 For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all them that go a whoring from thee.

073:028 But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy works.

---

074:001 O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever? why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?

074:002 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old; the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt.

074:003 Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the sanctuary.

074:004 Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; they set up their ensigns for signs.

074:005 A man was famous according as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees.

074:006 But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.

074:007 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground.

074:008 They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

074:009 We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth how long.

074:010 O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever?

074:011 Why withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

074:012 For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

074:013 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou brakest the heads of the dragons in the waters.

074:014 Thou brakest the heads of leviathan in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness.

074:015 Thou didst cleave the fountain and the flood: thou driedst up mighty rivers.

074:016 The day is thine, the night also is thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun.

074:017 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.

074:018 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.

074:019 O deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.

074:020 Have respect unto the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.

074:021 O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.

074:022 Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

074:023 Forget not the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee increaseth continually.

075:001 Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare.

075:002 When I shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly.

075:003 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah.

075:004 I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to the wicked, Lift not up the horn:

075:005 Lift not up your horn on high: speak not with a stiff neck.

075:006 For promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south.

075:007 But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.

075:008 For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.

075:009 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

075:010 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

---

076:001 In Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel.

076:002 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion.

076:003 There brake he the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah.

076:004 Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey.

076:005 The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: and none of the men of might have found their hands.

076:006 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

076:007 Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry?

076:008 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still,

076:009 When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah.

076:010 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.

076:011 Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.

076:012 He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

077:001 I cried unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

077:002 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

077:003 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

077:004 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

077:005 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

077:006 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

077:007 Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

077:008 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

077:009 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

077:010 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.

077:011 I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

077:012 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

077:013 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?

077:014 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

077:015 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

077:016 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid:
the depths also were troubled.

077:017 The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.

077:018 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

077:019 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

077:020 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

---

078:001 Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

078:002 I will open my mouth in a parable: I will utter dark sayings of old:

078:003 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.

078:004 We will not hide them from their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done.

078:005 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children:

078:006 That the generation to come might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children:

078:007 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments:

078:008 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.

078:009 The children of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.

078:010 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;

078:011 And forgat his works, and his wonders that he had shewed them.

078:012 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

078:013 He divided the sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap.

078:014 In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

078:015 He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths.

078:016 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.

078:017 And they sinned yet more against him by provoking the most High in the wilderness.

078:018 And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

078:019 Yea, they spake against God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

078:020 Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people?

078:021 Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel;

078:022 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation:

078:023 Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven, 078:024 And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven.

078:025 Man did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full.

078:026 He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind.

078:027 He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea:

078:028 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, round about their habitations.

078:029 So they did eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire;

078:030 They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet in their mouths, 078:031 The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel.

078:032 For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.

078:033 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in trouble.

078:034 When he slew them, then they sought him: and they returned and enquired early after God.

078:035 And they remembered that God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer.

078:036 Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him with their tongues.

078:037 For their heart was not right with him, neither were they stedfast in his covenant.

078:038 But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.

078:039 For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again.

078:040 How oft did they provoke him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!

078:041 Yea, they turned back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel.

078:042 They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them from the enemy.

078:043 How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan.

078:044 And had turned their rivers into blood; and their floods, that they could not drink.

078:045 He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which destroyed them.

078:046 He gave also their increase unto the caterpiller, and their labour unto the locust.

078:047 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycomore trees with frost.

078:048 He gave up their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

078:049 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them.

078:050 He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence;

078:051 And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham:

078:052 But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

078:053 And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

078:054 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased.

078:055 He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

078:056 Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies:

078:057 But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow.

078:058 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.

078:059 When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

078:060 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

078:061 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

078:062 He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

078:063 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage.

078:064 Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation.

078:065 Then the LORD awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

078:066 And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

078:067 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

078:068 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved.

078:069 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever.

078:070 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

078:071 From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

078:072 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

---

079:001 O god, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

079:002 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

079:003 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.

079:004 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

079:005 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

079:006 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

079:007 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.

079:008 O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low.

079:009 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.

079:010 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.

079:011 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

079:012 And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

079:013 So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

080:001 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth.

080:002 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and come and save us.

080:003 Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

080:004 O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people?

080:005 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure.

080:006 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves.

080:007 Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

080:008 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt: thou hast cast out the heathen, and planted it.

080:009 Thou preparedst room before it, and didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.

080:010 The hills were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.

080:011 She sent out her boughs unto the sea, and her branches unto the river.

080:012 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges, so that all they which pass by the way do pluck her?

080:013 The boar out of the wood doth waste it, and the wild beast of the field doth devour it.

080:014 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts: look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine;

080:015 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted, and the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.

080:016 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: they perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.

080:017 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand, upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.

080:018 So will not we go back from thee: quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.

080:019 Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts, cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved.

---

081:001 Sing aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.

081:002 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant harp with the psaltery.

081:003 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.

081:004 For this was a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob.

081:005 This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not.

081:006 I removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots.

081:007 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah.
Selah.

081:008 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;

081:009 There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.

081:010 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

081:011 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.

081:012 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.

081:013 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!

081:014 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.

081:015 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.

081:016 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

---

082:001 God standeth in the congregation of the mighty; he judgeth among the gods.

082:002 How long will ye judge unjustly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah.

082:003 Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy.

082:004 Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked.

082:005 They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness: all the foundations of the earth are out of course.

082:006 I have said, Ye are gods; and all of you are children of the most High.

082:007 But ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.

082:008 Arise, O God, judge the earth: for thou shalt inherit all nations.

---

083:001 Keep not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.

083:002 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.

083:003 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.

083:004 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

083:005 For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:

083:006 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;

083:007 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;

083:008 Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.

083:009 Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:

083:010 Which perished at Endor: they became as dung for the earth.

083:011 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna:

083:012 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession.

083:013 O my God, make them like a wheel; as the stubble before the wind.

083:014 As the fire burneth a wood, and as the flame setteth the mountains on fire;

083:015 So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm.

083:016 Fill their faces with shame; that they may seek thy name, O LORD.

083:017 Let them be confounded and troubled for ever; yea, let them be put to shame, and perish:

083:018 That men may know that thou, whose name alone is JEHOVAH, art the most high over all the earth.

---

084:001 How amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts!

084:002 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.

084:003 Yea, the sparrow hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God.

084:004 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee. Selah.

084:005 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.

084:006 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.

084:007 They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.

084:008 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah.

084:009 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed.

084:010 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

084:011 For the LORD God is a sun and shield: the LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.

084:012 O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

---

085:001 Lord, thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.

085:002 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah.

085:003 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.

085:004 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine anger toward us to cease.

085:005 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?

085:006 Wilt thou not revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee?

085:007 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD, and grant us thy salvation.

085:008 I will hear what God the LORD will speak: for he will speak peace unto his people, and to his saints: but let them not turn again to folly.

085:009 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

085:010 Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

085:011 Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

085:012 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good; and our land shall yield her increase.

085:013 Righteousness shall go before him; and shall set us in the way of his steps.

---

086:001 Bow down thine ear, O LORD, hear me: for I am poor and needy.

086:002 Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

086:003 Be merciful unto me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee daily.

086:004 Rejoice the soul of thy servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.

086:005 For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

086:006 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; and attend to the voice of my supplications.

086:007 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me.

086:008 Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there any works like unto thy works.

086:009 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name.

086:010 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.

086:011 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: unite my heart to fear thy name.

086:012 I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

086:013 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

086:014 O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; and have not set thee before them.

086:015 But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

086:016 O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

086:017 Shew me a token for good; that they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed: because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

---

087:001 His foundation is in the holy mountains.

087:002 The LORD loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

087:003 Glorious things are spoken of thee, O city of God. Selah.

087:004 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.

087:005 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her: and the highest himself shall establish her.

087:006 The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people, that this man was born there. Selah.

087:007 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there: all my springs are in thee.

---

088:001 O lord God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee:

088:002 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry;

088:003 For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

088:004 I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

088:005 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand.

088:006 Thou hast laid me in the lowest pit, in darkness, in the deeps.

088:007 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah.

088:008 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.

088:009 Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

088:010 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

088:011 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

088:012 Shall thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

088:013 But unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my prayer prevent thee.

088:014 LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why hidest thou thy face from me?

088:015 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

088:016 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

088:017 They came round about me daily like water; they compassed me about together.

088:018 Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

---

089:001 I will sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.

089:002 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

089:003 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David my servant, 089:004 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. Selah.

089:005 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

089:006 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

089:007 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

089:008 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

089:009 Thou rulest the raging of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.

089:010 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

089:011 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.

089:012 The north and the south thou hast created them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.

089:013 Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

089:014 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.

089:015 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.

089:016 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.

089:017 For thou art the glory of their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.

089:018 For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.

089:019 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.

089:020 I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I anointed him:

089:021 With whom my hand shall be established: mine arm also shall strengthen him.

089:022 The enemy shall not exact upon him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him.

089:023 And I will beat down his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him.

089:024 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

089:025 I will set his hand also in the sea, and his right hand in the rivers.

089:026 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.

089:027 Also I will make him my firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth.

089:028 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him.

089:029 His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.

089:030 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments;
089:031 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;
089:032 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.
089:033 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.
089:034 My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
089:035 Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie unto David.
089:036 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.
089:037 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah.
089:038 But thou hast cast off and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed.
089:039 Thou hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground.
089:040 Thou hast broken down all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin.
089:041 All that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.
089:042 Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.
089:043 Thou hast also turned the edge of his sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle.
089:044 Thou hast made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.
089:045 The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him with shame. Selah.

089:046 How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire?

089:047 Remember how short my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain?

089:048 What man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah.

089:049 Lord, where are thy former lovingkindnesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth?

089:050 Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants; how I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people;

089:051 Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed.

089:052 Blessed be the LORD for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

---

090:001 Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations.

090:002 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.

090:003 Thou turnest man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men.

090:004 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

090:005 Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

090:006 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

090:007 For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled.

090:008 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

090:009 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we spend our years as a tale that is told.

090:010 The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

090:011 Who knoweth the power of thine anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.

090:012 So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

090:013 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

090:014 O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

090:015 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen evil.

090:016 Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto their children.

090:017 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

---

091:001 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

091:002 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

091:003 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence.

091:004 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

091:005 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

091:006 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

091:007 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.

091:008 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

091:009 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation;

091:010 There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

091:011 For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

091:012 They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

091:013 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

091:014 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

091:015 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him.

091:016 With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

---

092:001 IT IS A GOOD THING TO GIVE THANKS UNTO THE LORD, AND TO SING PRAISES UNTO THY NAME, O MOST HIGH:

092:002 To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy faithfulness every night, 092:003 Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound.

092:004 For thou, LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands.

092:005 O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy thoughts are very deep.

092:006 A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth a fool understand this.

092:007 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever:

092:008 But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore.

092:009 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.

092:010 But my horn shalt thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil.

092:011 Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me.

092:012 The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

092:013 Those that be planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

092:014 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing;

092:015 To shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

---

093:001 The LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

093:002 Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting.

093:003 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.

093:004 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

093:005 Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

---

094:001 O Lord God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.

094:002 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.

094:003 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?

094:004 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?

094:005 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.

094:006 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.

094:007 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.

094:008 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?

094:009 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?

094:010 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?

094:011 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.

094:012 Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;

094:013 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.

094:014 For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.

094:015 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.

094:016 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?

094:017 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.

094:018 When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.

094:019 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

094:020 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?

094:021 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

094:022 But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.

094:023 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

---

095:001 O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.

095:002 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

095:003 For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.

095:004 In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also.

095:005 The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed the dry land.

095:006 O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel before the LORD our maker.

095:007 For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To day if ye will hear his voice,

095:008 Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

095:009 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my work.

095:010 Forty years long was I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:

095:011 Unto whom I sware in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

---

096:001 O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth.

096:002 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day.

096:003 Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.

096:004 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.

096:005 For all the gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

096:006 Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.

096:007 Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

096:008 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts.

096:009 O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear before him, all the earth.

096:010 Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously.

096:011 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.

096:012 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice

096:013 Before the LORD: for he cometh, for he cometh to judge the earth: he shall judge the world with righteousness, and the people with his truth.

---

097:001 The LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.

097:002 Clouds and darkness are round about him: righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.

097:003 A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.

097:004 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.

097:005 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

097:006 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the people see his glory.

097:007 Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: worship him, all ye gods.

097:008 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD.

097:009 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted far above all gods.

097:010 Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.

097:011 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

097:012 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

---

098:001 O sing unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.

098:002 The LORD hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.

098:003 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

098:004 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.

098:005 Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm.

098:006 With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.

098:007 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

098:008 Let the floods clap their hands: let the hills be joyful together

098:009 Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

---

099:001 The LORD reigneth; let the people tremble: he sitteth between the cherubims; let the earth be moved.

099:002 The LORD is great in Zion; and he is high above all the people.

099:003 Let them praise thy great and terrible name; for it is holy.

099:004 The king's strength also loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

099:005 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.

099:006 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

099:007 He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

099:008 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

099:009 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

---

100:001 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.

100:002 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

100:003 Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

100:004 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

100:005 For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

---

101:001 I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

101:002 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.

101:003 I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me.

101:004 A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked person.

101:005 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer.

101:006 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

101:007 He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight.

101:008 I will early destroy all the wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

---

102:001 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and let my cry come unto thee.

102:002 Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the day when I call answer me speedily.

102:003 For my days are consumed like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth.

102:004 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.

102:005 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin.

102:006 I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of the desert.

102:007 I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house top.

102:008 Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are mad against me are sworn against me.

102:009 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping.

102:010 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.

102:011 My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am withered like grass.

102:012 But thou, O LORD, shall endure for ever; and thy remembrance unto all generations.

102:013 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.

102:014 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the dust thereof.

102:015 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth thy glory.

102:016 When the LORD shall build up Zion, he shall appear in his glory.

102:017 He will regard the prayer of the destitute, and not despise their prayer.

102:018 This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.

102:019 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth;

102:020 To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to death;

102:021 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;

102:022 When the people are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.

102:023 He weakened my strength in the way; he shortened my days.

102:024 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.

102:025 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the work of thy hands.

102:026 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed:

102:027 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.

102:028 The children of thy servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before thee.

103:001 Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

103:002 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:

103:003 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases;

103:004 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies;

103:005 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.

103:006 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

103:007 He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.

103:008 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.

103:009 He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever.

103:010 He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

103:011 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.

103:012 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

103:013 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

103:014 For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

103:015 As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

103:016 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

103:017 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

103:018 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

103:019 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

103:020 Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

103:021 Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

103:022 Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.

104:001 Bless the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

104:002 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

104:003 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

104:004 Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire:

104:005 Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

104:006 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

104:007 At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

104:008 They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

104:009 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

104:010 He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.

104:011 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.

104:012 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

104:013 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

104:014 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

104:015 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

104:016 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;

104:017 Where the birds make their nests: as for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

104:018 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats; and the rocks for the conies.

104:019 He appointed the moon for seasons: the sun knoweth his going down.

104:020 Thou makest darkness, and it is night: wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.

104:021 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their meat from God.

104:022 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together, and lay them down in their dens.

104:023 Man goeth forth unto his work and to his labour until the evening.

104:024 O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all: the earth is full of thy riches.

104:025 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.

104:026 There go the ships: there is that leviathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.

104:027 These wait all upon thee; that thou mayest give them their meat in due season.

104:028 That thou givest them they gather: thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.

104:029 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled: thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.

104:030 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created: and thou renewest the face of the earth.

104:031 The glory of the LORD shall endure for ever: the LORD shall rejoice in his works.

104:032 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth: he toucheth the hills, and they smoke.

104:033 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have my being.

104:034 My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD.

104:035 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

---

105:001 O give thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name: make known his deeds among the people.

105:002 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works.

105:003 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

105:004 Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore.

105:005 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

105:006 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen.

105:007 He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth.

105:008 He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations.

105:009 Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac;

105:010 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant:

105:011 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance:

105:012 When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it.
105:013 When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people;
105:014 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes;
105:015 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.
105:016 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread.
105:017 He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant:
105:018 Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron:
105:019 Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him.
105:020 The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.
105:021 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance:
105:022 To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom.
105:023 Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
105:024 And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies.
105:025 He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.
105:026 He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen.
105:027 They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.
105:028 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against his word.

105:029 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.

105:030 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of their kings.

105:031 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and lice in all their coasts.

105:032 He gave them hail for rain, and flaming fire in their land.

105:033 He smote their vines also and their fig trees; and brake the trees of their coasts.

105:034 He spake, and the locusts came, and caterpillers, and that without number, 105:035 And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.

105:036 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their strength.

105:037 He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

105:038 Egypt was glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them.

105:039 He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.

105:040 The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

105:041 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out; they ran in the dry places like a river.

105:042 For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant.

105:043 And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness:

105:044 And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people;

105:045 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD.

106:001 Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

106:002 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise?

106:003 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times.

106:004 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation;

106:005 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance.

106:006 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

106:007 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea.

106:008 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known.

106:009 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

106:010 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

106:011 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

106:012 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

106:013 They soon forgat his works; they waited not for his counsel:

106:014 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

106:015 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul.

106:016 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD.

106:017 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and covered the company of Abiram.

106:018 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

106:019 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

106:020 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

106:021 They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt;

106:022 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

106:023 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

106:024 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word:

106:025 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD.

106:026 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

106:027 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands.

106:028 They joined themselves also unto Baalpeor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.

106:029 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

106:030 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed.

106:031 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore.

106:032 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

106:033 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

106:034 They did not destroy the nations, concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

106:035 But were mingled among the heathen, and learned their works.

106:036 And they served their idols: which were a snare unto them.

106:037 Yea, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto devils, 106:038 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood.

106:039 Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions.

106:040 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

106:041 And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them.

106:042 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

106:043 Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity.

106:044 Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry:

106:045 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

106:046 He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives.

106:047 Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise.

106:048 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD.

---

107:001 O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

107:002 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

107:003 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.

107:004 They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in.

107:005 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.

107:006 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses.

107:007 And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation.

107:008 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

107:009 For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness.

107:010 Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron;

107:011 Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High:

107:012 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help.

107:013 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.

107:014 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

107:015 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

107:016 For he hath broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder.

107:017 Fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.

107:018 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto the gates of death.

107:019 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saveth them out of their distresses.

107:020 He sent his word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

107:021 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

107:022 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing.

107:023 They that go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;

107:024 These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep.

107:025 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof.

107:026 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.

107:027 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wit's end.

107:028 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, and he bringeth them out of their distresses.

107:029 He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still.

107:030 Then are they glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

107:031 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

107:032 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

107:033 He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and the watersprings into dry ground;

107:034 A fruitful land into barrenness, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein.

107:035 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.

107:036 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city for habitation;

107:037 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which may yield fruits of increase.

107:038 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.

107:039 Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.

107:040 He poureth contempt upon princes, and causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.

107:041 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him families like a flock.

107:042 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice: and all iniquity shall stop her mouth.

107:043 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things, even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

---

108:001 O god, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

108:002 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

108:003 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.

108:004 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

108:005 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

108:006 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.

108:007 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.

108:008 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;

108:009 Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.

108:010 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?

108:011 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts?

108:012 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.

108:013 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

---

109:001 Hold not thy peace, O God of my praise;

109:002 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.

109:003 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause.

109:004 For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.

109:005 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

109:006 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.

109:007 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.

109:008 Let his days be few; and let another take his office.

109:009 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.

109:010 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.

109:011 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.

109:012 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.

109:013 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.

109:014 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.

109:015 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.

109:016 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.

109:017 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him.

109:018 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

109:019 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

109:020 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

109:021 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

109:022 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

109:023 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

109:024 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

109:025 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shaked their heads.

109:026 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

109:027 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

109:028 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

109:029 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

109:030 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

109:031 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

---

110:001 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.

110:002 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

110:003 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

110:004 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

110:005 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

110:006 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

110:007 He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head.

---

111:001 Praise ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart, in the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.

111:002 The works of the LORD are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

111:003 His work is honourable and glorious: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

111:004 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered: the LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

111:005 He hath given meat unto them that fear him: he will ever be mindful of his covenant.

111:006 He hath shewed his people the power of his works, that he may give them the heritage of the heathen.

111:007 The works of his hands are verity and judgment; all his commandments are sure.

111:008 They stand fast for ever and ever, and are done in truth and uprightness.

111:009 He sent redemption unto his people: he hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.

111:010 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments: his praise endureth for ever.

---

112:001 Praise ye the LORD. Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD, that delighteth greatly in his commandments.

112:002 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the upright shall be blessed.

112:003 Wealth and riches shall be in his house: and his righteousness endureth for ever.

112:004 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness: he is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.

112:005 A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth: he will guide his affairs with discretion.

112:006 Surely he shall not be moved for ever: the righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.

112:007 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: his heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.

112:008 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, until he see his desire upon his enemies.

112:009 He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor; his righteousness endureth for ever; his horn shall be exalted with honour.

112:010 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; he shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: the desire of the wicked shall perish.

---

113:001 Praise ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD.

113:002 Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and for evermore.

113:003 From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same the LORD's name is to be praised.

113:004 The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

113:005 Who is like unto the LORD our God, who dwelleth on high, 113:006 Who humbleth himself to behold the things that are in heaven, and in the earth!

113:007 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth the needy out of the dunghill;

113:008 That he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.

113:009 He maketh the barren woman to keep house, and to be a joyful mother of children. Praise ye the LORD.

---

114:001 When Israel went out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language;

114:002 Judah was his sanctuary, and Israel his dominion.

114:003 The sea saw it, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

114:004 The mountains skipped like rams, and the little hills like lambs.

114:005 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest? thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

114:006 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams; and ye little hills, like lambs?

114:007 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob; 114:008 Which turned the rock into a standing water, the flint into a fountain of waters.

---

115:001 Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

115:002 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God?

115:003 But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

115:004 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

115:005 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:

115:006 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:

115:007 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.

115:008 They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.

115:009 O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

115:010 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

115:011 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

115:012 The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.

115:013 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great.

115:014 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.

115:015 Ye are blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth.

115:016 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.

115:017 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.

115:018 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

---

116:001 I love the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.

116:002 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

116:003 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.

116:004 Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.

116:005 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.

116:006 The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.

116:007 Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

116:008 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.

116:009 I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

116:010 I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted:

116:011 I said in my haste, All men are liars.

116:012 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me?

116:013 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.

116:014 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people.

116:015 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

116:016 O LORD, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine handmaid: thou hast loosed my bonds.

116:017 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.

116:018 I will pay my vows unto the LORD now in the presence of all his people.

116:019 In the courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

---

117:001 O praise the LORD, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.

117:002 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

---

118:001 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.

118:002 Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

118:003 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

118:004 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.

118:005 I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.

118:006 The LORD is on my side; I will not fear: what can man do unto me?

118:007 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.

118:008 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.

118:009 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.

118:010 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I destroy them.

118:011 They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

118:012 They compassed me about like bees: they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.

118:013 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.

118:014 The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.

118:015 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

118:016 The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

118:017 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.

118:018 The LORD hath chastened me sore: but he hath not given me over unto death.

118:019 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD:

118:020 This gate of the LORD, into which the righteous shall enter.

118:021 I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation.

118:022 The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.

118:023 This is the LORD's doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.

118:024 This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.

118:025 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.

118:026 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

118:027 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.

118:028 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: thou art my God, I will exalt thee.

118:029 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

---

119:001 Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the LORD.

119:002 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, and that seek him with the whole heart.

119:003 They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways.

119:004 Thou hast commanded us to keep thy precepts diligently.

119:005 O that my ways were directed to keep thy statutes!

119:006 Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect unto all thy commandments.

119:007 I will praise thee with uprightness of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments.

119:008 I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly.

119:009 Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word.

119:010 With my whole heart have I sought thee: O let me not wander from thy commandments.

119:011 Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.

119:012 Blessed art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes.

119:013 With my lips have I declared all the judgments of thy mouth.

119:014 I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches.

119:015 I will meditate in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways.

119:016 I will delight myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word.

119:017 Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

119:018 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law.

119:019 I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy commandments from me.

119:020 My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto thy judgments at all times.

119:021 Thou hast rebuked the proud that are cursed, which do err from thy commandments.

119:022 Remove from me reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies.

119:023 Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in thy statutes.

119:024 Thy testimonies also are my delight and my counsellors.

119:025 My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou me according to thy word.

119:026 I have declared my ways, and thou heardest me: teach me thy statutes.

119:027 Make me to understand the way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works.

119:028 My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy word.

119:029 Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law graciously.

119:030 I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I laid before me.

119:031 I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put me not to shame.

119:032 I will run the way of thy commandments, when thou shalt enlarge my heart.

119:033 Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end.

119:034 Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart.

119:035 Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; for therein do I delight.

119:036 Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, and not to covetousness.

119:037 Turn away mine eyes from beholding vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way.

119:038 Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear.

119:039 Turn away my reproach which I fear: for thy judgments are good.

119:040 Behold, I have longed after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness.

119:041 Let thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy word.

119:042 So shall I have wherewith to answer him that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word.

119:043 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments.

119:044 So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever.

119:045 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts.

119:046 I will speak of thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed.

119:047 And I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.

119:048 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes.

119:049 Remember the word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope.

119:050 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened me.

119:051 The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not declined from thy law.

119:052 I remembered thy judgments of old, O LORD; and have comforted myself.

119:053 Horror hath taken hold upon me because of the wicked that forsake thy law.

119:054 Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.

119:055 I have remembered thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law.

119:056 This I had, because I kept thy precepts.

119:057 Thou art my portion, O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words.

119:058 I intreated thy favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to thy word.

119:059 I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy testimonies.

119:060 I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy commandments.

119:061 The bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not forgotten thy law.

119:062 At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee because of thy righteous judgments.

119:063 I am a companion of all them that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts.

119:064 The earth, O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes.

119:065 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word.

119:066 Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have believed thy commandments.

119:067 Before I was afflicted I went astray: but now have I kept thy word.

119:068 Thou art good, and doest good; teach me thy statutes.

119:069 The proud have forged a lie against me: but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart.

119:070 Their heart is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law.

119:071 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes.

119:072 The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and silver.

119:073 Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me understanding, that I may learn thy commandments.

119:074 They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in thy word.

119:075 I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me.

119:076 Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to thy word unto thy servant.

119:077 Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may live: for thy law is my delight.

119:078 Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will meditate in thy precepts.

119:079 Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and those that have known thy testimonies.

119:080 Let my heart be sound in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed.

119:081 My soul fainteth for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word.

119:082 Mine eyes fail for thy word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me?

119:083 For I am become like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes.

119:084 How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judgment on them that persecute me?

119:085 The proud have digged pits for me, which are not after thy law.

119:086 All thy commandments are faithful: they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.

119:087 They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.

119:088 Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; so shall I keep the testimony of thy mouth.

119:089 For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled in heaven.

119:090 Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast established the earth, and it abideth.

119:091 They continue this day according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants.

119:092 Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine affliction.

119:093 I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou hast quickened me.

119:094 I am thine, save me: for I have sought thy precepts.

119:095 The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I will consider thy testimonies.

119:096 I have seen an end of all perfection: but thy commandment is exceeding broad.

119:097 O how I love thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

119:098 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

119:099 I have more understanding than all my teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation.

119:100 I understand more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts.

119:101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

119:102 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me.

119:103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

119:104 Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way.
119:105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.
119:106 I have sworn, and I will perform it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments.
119:107 I am afflicted very much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.
119:108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments.
119:109 My soul is continually in my hand: yet do I not forget thy law.
119:110 The wicked have laid a snare for me: yet I erred not from thy precepts.
119:111 Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart.
119:112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes alway, even unto the end.
119:113 I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love.
119:114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word.
119:115 Depart from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God.
119:116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: and let me not be ashamed of my hope.
119:117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.
119:118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes: for their deceit is falsehood.
119:119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies.

119:120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments.

119:121 I have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.

119:122 Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me.

119:123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteousness.

119:124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach me thy statutes.

119:125 I am thy servant; give me understanding, that I may know thy testimonies.

119:126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work: for they have made void thy law.

119:127 Therefore I love thy commandments above gold; yea, above fine gold.

119:128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way.

119:129 Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my soul keep them.

119:130 The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple.

119:131 I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for thy commandments.

119:132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.

119:133 Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me.

119:134 Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy precepts.

119:135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; and teach me thy statutes.

119:136 Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law.

119:137 Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments.

119:138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful.

119:139 My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

119:140 Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.

119:141 I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts.

119:142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth.

119:143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet thy commandments are my delights.

119:144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting: give me understanding, and I shall live.

119:145 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD: I will keep thy statutes.

119:146 I cried unto thee; save me, and I shall keep thy testimonies.

119:147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in thy word.

119:148 Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I might meditate in thy word.

119:149 Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment.

119:150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy law.

119:151 Thou art near, O LORD; and all thy commandments are truth.

119:152 Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou hast founded them for ever.

119:153 Consider mine affliction, and deliver me: for I do not forget thy law.

119:154 Plead my cause, and deliver me: quicken me according to thy word.

119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes.

119:156 Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD: quicken me according to thy judgments.

119:157 Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.

119:158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; because they kept not thy word.

119:159 Consider how I love thy precepts: quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness.

119:160 Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

119:161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word.

119:162 I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil.

119:163 I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love.

119:164 Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments.

119:165 Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them.

119:166 LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments.

119:167 My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly.

119:168 I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: for all my ways are before thee.

119:169 Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: give me understanding according to thy word.

119:170 Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word.

119:171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes.

119:172 My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness.

119:173 Let thine hand help me; for I have chosen thy precepts.

119:174 I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD; and thy law is my delight.

119:175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me.

119:176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

---

120:001 In my distress I cried unto the LORD, and he heard me.

120:002 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue.

120:003 What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue?

120:004 Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper.

120:005 Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar!

120:006 My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace.

120:007 I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.

---

121:001 I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.

121:002 My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth.

121:003 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

121:004 Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep.

121:005 The LORD is thy keeper: the LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.

121:006 The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

121:007 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul.

121:008 The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

---

122:001 I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD.

122:002 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.

122:003 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together:

122:004 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.

122:005 For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

122:006 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

122:007 Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

122:008 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

122:009 Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.

---

123:001 Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that dwellest in the heavens.

123:002 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, until that he have mercy upon us.

123:003 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

123:004 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.

---

124:001 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, now may Israel say;

124:002 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when men rose up against us:

124:003 Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us:

124:004 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over our soul:

124:005 Then the proud waters had gone over our soul.

124:006 Blessed be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth.

124:007 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare is broken, and we are escaped.

124:008 Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

---

125:001 They that trust in the LORD shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.

125:002 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round about his people from henceforth even for ever.

125:003 For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

125:004 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

125:005 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

---

126:001 When the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion, we were like them that dream.

126:002 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.

126:003 The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad.

126:004 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south.

126:005 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

126:006 He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

127:001 Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.

127:002 It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep.

127:003 Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and the fruit of the womb is his reward.

127:004 As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth.

127:005 Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

128:001 Blessed is every one that feareth the LORD; that walketh in his ways.

128:002 For thou shalt eat the labour of thine hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee.

128:003 Thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table.

128:004 Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD.

128:005 The LORD shall bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life.

128:006 Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, and peace upon Israel.

129:001 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth, may Israel now say:

129:002 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth: yet they have not prevailed against me.

129:003 The plowers plowed upon my back: they made long their furrows.

129:004 The LORD is righteous: he hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

129:005 Let them all be confounded and turned back that hate Zion.

129:006 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, which withereth afore it groweth up:

129:007 Wherewith the mower filleth not his hand; nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom.

129:008 Neither do they which go by say, The blessing of the LORD be upon you: we bless you in the name of the LORD.

---

130:001 Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.

130:002 Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

130:003 If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand?

130:004 But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.

130:005 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.

130:006 My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that watch for the morning.

130:007 Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.

130:008 And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

131:001 Lord, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too high for me.

131:002 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as a weaned child.

131:003 Let Israel hope in the LORD from henceforth and for ever.

---

132:001 Lord, remember David, and all his afflictions:

132:002 How he sware unto the LORD, and vowed unto the mighty God of Jacob;

132:003 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;

132:004 I will not give sleep to mine eyes, or slumber to mine eyelids, 132:005 Until I find out a place for the LORD, an habitation for the mighty God of Jacob.

132:006 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood.

132:007 We will go into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool.

132:008 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.

132:009 Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; and let thy saints shout for joy.

132:010 For thy servant David's sake turn not away the face of thine anointed.

132:011 The LORD hath sworn in truth unto David; he will not turn from it; Of the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

132:012 If thy children will keep my covenant and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children shall also sit upon thy throne for evermore.

132:013 For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.

132:014 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

132:015 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.

132:016 I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

132:017 There will I make the horn of David to bud: I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed.

132:018 His enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

133:001 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

133:002 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

133:003 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

134:001 Behold, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD, which by night stand in the house of the LORD.

134:002 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the LORD.

134:003 The LORD that made heaven and earth bless thee out of Zion.

---

135:001 Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.

135:002 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God.

135:003 Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

135:004 For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure.

135:005 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

135:006 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth, in the seas, and all deep places.

135:007 He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries.

135:008 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and beast.

135:009 Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.

135:010 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings;

135:011 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan:

135:012 And gave their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Israel his people.

135:013 Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.

135:014 For the LORD will judge his people, and he will repent himself concerning his servants.

135:015 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.

135:016 They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not;

135:017 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths.

135:018 They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusteth in them.

135:019 Bless the LORD, O house of Israel: bless the LORD, O house of Aaron:

135:020 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD.

135:021 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion, which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

---

136:001 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:002 O give thanks unto the God of gods: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:003 O give thanks to the Lord of lords: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:004 To him who alone doeth great wonders: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:005 To him that by wisdom made the heavens: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:006 To him that stretched out the earth above the waters: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:007 To him that made great lights: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:008 The sun to rule by day: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:009 The moon and stars to rule by night: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:010 To him that smote Egypt in their firstborn: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:011 And brought out Israel from among them: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:012 With a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:013 To him which divided the Red sea into parts: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:014 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:015 But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red sea: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:016 To him which led his people through the wilderness: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:017 To him which smote great kings: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:018 And slew famous kings: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:019 Sihon king of the Amorites: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:020 And Og the king of Bashan: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:021 And gave their land for an heritage: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:022 Even an heritage unto Israel his servant: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:023 Who remembered us in our low estate: for his mercy endureth for ever:

136:024 And hath redeemed us from our enemies: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:025 Who giveth food to all flesh: for his mercy endureth for ever.

136:026 O give thanks unto the God of heaven: for his mercy endureth for ever.

---

137:001 By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion.

137:002 We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof.

137:003 For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.

137:004 How shall we sing the LORD's song in a strange land?

137:005 If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.

137:006 If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.

137:007 Remember, O LORD, the children of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof.

137:008 O daughter of Babylon, who art to be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us.

137:009 Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.

138:001 I will praise thee with my whole heart: before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.

138:002 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.

138:003 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

138:004 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth.

138:005 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD.

138:006 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off.

138:007 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me.

138:008 The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever: forsake not the works of thine own hands.

---

139:001 O lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.

139:002 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off.

139:003 Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.

139:004 For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.

139:005 Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thine hand upon me.

139:006 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it.

139:007 Whither shall I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?

139:008 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.

139:009 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;

139:010 Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.

139:011 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.

139:012 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee.

139:013 For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.

139:014 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.

139:015 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

139:016 Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them.

139:017 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

139:018 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when I awake, I am still with thee.

139:019 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

139:020 For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.

139:021 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee?

139:022 I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies.

139:023 Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

139:024 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

---

140:001 Deliver me, O LORD, from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man;

140:002 Which imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war.

140:003 They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips. Selah.

140:004 Keep me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings.

140:005 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah.

140:006 I said unto the LORD, Thou art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD.

140:007 O GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle.

140:008 Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah.

140:009 As for the head of those that compass me about, let the mischief of their own lips cover them.

140:010 Let burning coals fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again.

140:011 Let not an evil speaker be established in the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.

140:012 I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor.

140:013 Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

---

141:001 Lord, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee.

141:002 Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

141:003 Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips.

141:004 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

141:005 Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities.

141:006 When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.

141:007 Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth.

141:008 But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave not my soul destitute.

141:009 Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity.

141:010 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape.

---

142:001 I cried unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make my supplication.

142:002 I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed before him my trouble.

142:003 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have they privily laid a snare for me.

142:004 I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed me; no man cared for my soul.

142:005 I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.

142:006 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from my persecutors; for they are stronger than I.

142:007 Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.

---

143:001 Hear my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

143:002 And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight shall no man living be justified.

143:003 For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead.

143:004 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is desolate.

143:005 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands.

143:006 I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land. Selah.

143:007 Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.

143:008 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.

143:009 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: I flee unto thee to hide me.

143:010 Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

143:011 Quicken me, O LORD, for thy name's sake: for thy righteousness' sake bring my soul out of trouble.

143:012 And of thy mercy cut off mine enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul: for I am thy servant.

---

144:001 Blessed be the LORD my strength which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight:

144:002 My goodness, and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me.

144:003 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him!

144:004 Man is like to vanity: his days are as a shadow that passeth away.

144:005 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.

144:006 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.

144:007 Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children;

144:008 Whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

144:009 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.

144:010 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

144:011 Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood:

144:012 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace:

144:013 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets:

144:014 That our oxen may be strong to labour; that there be no breaking in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets.

144:015 Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that people, whose God is the LORD.

---

145:001 I will extol thee, my God, O king; and I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

145:002 Every day will I bless thee; and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

145:003 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

145:004 One generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

145:005 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, and of thy wondrous works.

145:006 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness.

145:007 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing of thy righteousness.

145:008 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion; slow to anger, and of great mercy.

145:009 The LORD is good to all: and his tender mercies are over all his works.

145:010 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee.

145:011 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

145:012 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

145:013 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

145:014 The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

145:015 The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat in due season.

145:016 Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

145:017 The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and holy in all his works.

145:018 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth.

145:019 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them.

145:020 The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all the wicked will he destroy.

145:021 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

---

146:001 Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul.

146:002 While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being.

146:003 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.

146:004 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.

146:005 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God:

146:006 Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever:

146:007 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners:

146:008 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous:

146:009 The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.

146:010 The LORD shall reign for ever, even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations. Praise ye the LORD.

---

147:001 Praise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises unto our God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely.

147:002 The LORD doth build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.

147:003 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.

147:004 He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.

147:005 Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite.

147:006 The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked down to the ground.

147:007 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing praise upon the harp unto our God:

147:008 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

147:009 He giveth to the beast his food, and to the young ravens which cry.

147:010 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

147:011 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy.

147:012 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, O Zion.

147:013 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath blessed thy children within thee.

147:014 He maketh peace in thy borders, and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.

147:015 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly.

147:016 He giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes.

147:017 He casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?

147:018 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

147:019 He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

147:020 He hath not dealt so with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

---

148:001 Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: praise him in the heights.

148:002 Praise ye him, all his angels: praise ye him, all his hosts.

148:003 Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, all ye stars of light.

148:004 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens.

148:005 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for he commanded, and they were created.

148:006 He hath also stablished them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which shall not pass.

148:007 Praise the LORD from the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps:

148:008 Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling his word:

148:009 Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars:

148:010 Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things, and flying fowl:

148:011 Kings of the earth, and all people; princes, and all judges of the earth:

148:012 Both young men, and maidens; old men, and children:

148:013 Let them praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is excellent; his glory is above the earth and heaven.

148:014 He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

---

149:001 Praise ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise in the congregation of saints.

149:002 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

149:003 Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.

149:004 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people: he will beautify the meek with salvation.

149:005 Let the saints be joyful in glory: let them sing aloud upon their beds.

149:006 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand;

149:007 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;

149:008 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;

149:009 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD.

---

150:001 Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power.

150:002 Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness.

150:003 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet: praise him with the psaltery and harp.

150:004 Praise him with the timbrel and dance: praise him with stringed instruments and organs.

150:005 Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.

150:006 Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

PROVERBS

---

001:001 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

001:002 To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

001:003 To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

001:004 To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

001:005 A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

001:006 To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

001:007 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

001:008 My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

001:009 For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

001:010 My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

001:011 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause:

001:012 Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; and whole, as those that go down into the pit:

001:013 We shall find all precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil:

001:014 Cast in thy lot among us; let us all have one purse:

001:015 My son, walk not thou in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path:

001:016 For their feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood.

001:017 Surely in vain the net is spread in the sight of any bird.

001:018 And they lay wait for their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives.

001:019 So are the ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof.

001:020 Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth her voice in the streets:

001:021 She crieth in the chief place of concourse, in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying,

001:022 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?

001:023 Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I will make known my words unto you.

001:024 Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

001:025 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof:

001:026 I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh;

001:027 When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you.

001:028 Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me:

001:029 For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD:

001:030 They would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof.

001:031 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with their own devices.

001:032 For the turning away of the simple shall slay them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them.

001:033 But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

002:001 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

002:002 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

002:003 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

002:004 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

002:005 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

002:006 For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

002:007 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.

002:008 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

002:009 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

002:010 When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

002:011 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

002:012 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

002:013 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

002:014 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

002:015 Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

002:016 To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

002:017 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

002:018 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

002:019 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

002:020 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

002:021 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

002:022 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

---

003:001 My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my commandments:

003:002 For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall they add to thee.

003:003 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

003:004 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

003:005 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

003:006 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

003:007 Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the LORD, and depart from evil.

003:008 It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

003:009 Honour the LORD with thy substance, and with the firstfruits of all thine increase:

003:010 So shall thy barns be filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.

003:011 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary of his correction:

003:012 For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth.

003:013 Happy is the man that findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding.

003:014 For the merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold.

003:015 She is more precious than rubies: and all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.

003:016 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches and honour.

003:017 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

003:018 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retaineth her.

003:019 The LORD by wisdom hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens.

003:020 By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the clouds drop down the dew.

003:021 My son, let not them depart from thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion:

003:022 So shall they be life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck.

003:023 Then shalt thou walk in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble.

003:024 When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

003:025 Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

003:026 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

003:027 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

003:028 Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

003:029 Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

003:030 Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

003:031 Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

003:032 For the froward is abomination to the LORD: but his secret is with the righteous.

003:033 The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.

003:034 Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

003:035 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

---

004:001 Hear, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know understanding.

004:002 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

004:003 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

004:004 He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, and live.

004:005 Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

004:006 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

004:007 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

004:008 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

004:009 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

004:010 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many.

004:011 I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.

004:012 When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

004:013 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

004:014 Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

004:015 Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

004:016 For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

004:017 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

004:018 But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.

004:019 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

004:020 My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings.

004:021 Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart.

004:022 For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh.

004:023 Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life.

004:024 Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee.

004:025 Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee.

004:026 Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established.

004:027 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

005:001 My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding:

005:002 That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge.

005:003 For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil:

005:004 But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.

005:005 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell.

005:006 Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them.

005:007 Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth.

005:008 Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house:

005:009 Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel:

005:010 Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger;

005:011 And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed,

005:012 And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;

005:013 And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me!

005:014 I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly.

005:015 Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well.

005:016 Let thy fountains be dispersed abroad, and rivers of waters in the streets.

005:017 Let them be only thine own, and not strangers' with thee.

005:018 Let thy fountain be blessed: and rejoice with the wife of thy youth.

005:019 Let her be as the loving hind and pleasant roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished always with her love.

005:020 And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger?

005:021 For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all his goings.

005:022 His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sins.

005:023 He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

---

006:001 My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger,

006:002 Thou art snared with the words of thy mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth.

006:003 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

006:004 Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

006:005 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

006:006 Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

006:007 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

006:008 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

006:009 How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

006:010 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

006:011 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

006:012 A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

006:013 He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

006:014 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.

006:015 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

006:016 These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

006:017 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

006:018 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief, 006:019 A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

006:020 My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

006:021 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

006:022 When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

006:023 For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

006:024 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

006:025 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

006:026 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adultress will hunt for the precious life.

006:027 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

006:028 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

006:029 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

006:030 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

006:031 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

006:032 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

006:033 A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

006:034 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

006:035 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

007:001 My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

007:002 Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.

007:003 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

007:004 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

007:005 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

007:006 For at the window of my house I looked through my casement,

007:007 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

007:008 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

007:009 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

007:010 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

007:011 (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

007:012 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

007:013 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him, 007:014 I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows.

007:015 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

007:016 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

007:017 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

007:018 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

007:019 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

007:020 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

007:021 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

007:022 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

007:023 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

007:024 Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

007:025 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

007:026 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

007:027 Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

---

008:001 Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

008:002 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

008:003 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

008:004 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

008:005 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

008:006 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

008:007 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

008:008 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

008:009 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

008:010 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

008:011 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

008:012 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

008:013 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

008:014 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

008:015 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

008:016 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

008:017 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

008:018 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness.

008:019 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

008:020 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

008:021 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures.

008:022 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

008:023 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

008:024 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

008:025 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

008:026 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

008:027 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth:

008:028 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

008:029 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

008:030 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

008:031 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men.

008:032 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways.

008:033 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

008:034 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

008:035 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

008:036 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

---

009:001 Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

009:002 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

009:003 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

009:004 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 009:005 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

009:006 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

009:007 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

009:008 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

009:009 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

009:010 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

009:011 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

009:012 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

009:013 A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

009:014 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

009:015 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

009:016 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, 009:017 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

009:018 But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

010:001 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

010:002 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.

010:003 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked.

010:004 He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.

010:005 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame.

010:006 Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

010:007 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot.

010:008 The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prating fool shall fall.

010:009 He that walketh uprightly walketh surely: but he that perverteth his ways shall be known.

010:010 He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall.

010:011 The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.

010:012 Hatred stirreth up strifes: but love covereth all sins.

010:013 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found: but a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.

010:014 Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction.

010:015 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty.

010:016 The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin.

010:017 He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that refuseth reproof erreth.

010:018 He that hideth hatred with lying lips, and he that uttereth a slander, is a fool.

010:019 In the multitude of words there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise.

010:020 The tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth.

010:021 The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die for want of wisdom.

010:022 The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, and he addeth no sorrow with it.

010:023 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom.

010:024 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted.

010:025 As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation.

010:026 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him.

010:027 The fear of the LORD prolongeth days: but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.

010:028 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

010:029 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.

010:030 The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth.

010:031 The mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out.

010:032 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

---

011:001 A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight is his delight.

011:002 When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with the lowly is wisdom.

011:003 The integrity of the upright shall guide them: but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them.

011:004 Riches profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death.

011:005 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.

011:006 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness.

011:007 When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth.

011:008 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead.

011:009 An hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered.

011:010 When it goeth well with the righteous, the city rejoiceth: and when the wicked perish, there is shouting.

011:011 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

011:012 He that is void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

011:013 A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

011:014 Where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

011:015 He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it: and he that hateth suretiship is sure.

011:016 A gracious woman retaineth honour: and strong men retain riches.

011:017 The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

011:018 The wicked worketh a deceitful work: but to him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

011:019 As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

011:020 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

011:021 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

011:022 As a jewel of gold in a swine's snout, so is a fair woman which is without discretion.

011:023 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is wrath.

011:024 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

011:025 The liberal soul shall be made fat: and he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

011:026 He that withholdeth corn, the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

011:027 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

011:028 He that trusteth in his riches shall fall; but the righteous shall flourish as a branch.

011:029 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

011:030 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise.

011:031 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

---

012:001 Whoso loveth instruction loveth knowledge: but he that hateth reproof is brutish.

012:002 A good man obtaineth favour of the LORD: but a man of wicked devices will he condemn.

012:003 A man shall not be established by wickedness: but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.

012:004 A virtuous woman is a crown to her husband: but she that maketh ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.

012:005 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

012:006 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

012:007 The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.

012:008 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.

012:009 He that is despised, and hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread.

012:010 A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.

012:011 He that tilleth his land shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding.

012:012 The wicked desireth the net of evil men: but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit.

012:013 The wicked is snared by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble.

012:014 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him.

012:015 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth unto counsel is wise.

012:016 A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame.

012:017 He that speaketh truth sheweth forth righteousness: but a false witness deceit.

012:018 There is that speaketh like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health.

012:019 The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue is but for a moment.

012:020 Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy.

012:021 There shall no evil happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief.

012:022 Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly are his delight.

012:023 A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.

012:024 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute.

012:025 Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad.

012:026 The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but the way of the wicked seduceth them.

012:027 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.

012:028 In the way of righteousness is life: and in the pathway thereof there is no death.

---

013:001 A wise son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth not rebuke.

013:002 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence.

013:003 He that keepeth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips shall have destruction.

013:004 The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.

013:005 A righteous man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to shame.

013:006 Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but wickedness overthroweth the sinner.

013:007 There is that maketh himself rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath great riches.

013:008 The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the poor heareth not rebuke.

013:009 The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.

013:010 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

013:011 Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour shall increase.

013:012 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

013:013 Whoso despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.

013:014 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

013:015 Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

013:016 Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly.

013:017 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health.

013:018 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

013:019 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

013:020 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools shall be destroyed.

013:021 Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

013:022 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

013:023 Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of judgment.

013:024 He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

013:025 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

014:001 Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh it down with her hands.

014:002 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

014:003 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

014:004 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

014:005 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

014:006 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

014:007 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

014:008 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

014:009 Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

014:010 The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

014:011 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

014:012 There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

014:013 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of that mirth is heaviness.

014:014 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

014:015 The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going.

014:016 A wise man feareth, and departeth from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident.

014:017 He that is soon angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated.

014:018 The simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

014:019 The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.

014:020 The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the rich hath many friends.

014:021 He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he.

014:022 Do they not err that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.

014:023 In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth only to penury.

014:024 The crown of the wise is their riches: but the foolishness of fools is folly.

014:025 A true witness delivereth souls: but a deceitful witness speaketh lies.

014:026 In the fear of the LORD is strong confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge.

014:027 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death.

014:028 In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.

014:029 He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly.

014:030 A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but envy the rottenness of the bones.

014:031 He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on the poor.

014:032 The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the righteous hath hope in his death.

014:033 Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst of fools is made known.

014:034 Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people.

014:035 The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

---

015:001 A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

015:002 The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

015:003 The eyes of the LORD are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

015:004 A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

015:005 A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

015:006 In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

015:007 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

015:008 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

015:009 The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

015:010 Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.

015:011 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then the hearts of the children of men?

015:012 A scorner loveth not one that reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise.

015:013 A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the spirit is broken.

015:014 The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness.

015:015 All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath a continual feast.

015:016 Better is little with the fear of the LORD than great treasure and trouble therewith.

015:017 Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.

015:018 A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth strife.
015:019 The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but the way of the righteous is made plain.
015:020 A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother.
015:021 Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly.
015:022 Without counsel purposes are disappointed: but in the multitude of counsellors they are established.
015:023 A man hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it!
015:024 The way of life is above to the wise, that he may depart from hell beneath.
015:025 The LORD will destroy the house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow.
015:026 The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but the words of the pure are pleasant words.
015:027 He that is greedy of gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live.
015:028 The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things.
015:029 The LORD is far from the wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous.
015:030 The light of the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat.
015:031 The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the wise.

015:032 He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but he that heareth reproof getteth understanding.

015:033 The fear of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

---

016:001 The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

016:002 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

016:003 Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.

016:004 The LORD hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil.

016:005 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.

016:006 By mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.

016:007 When a man's ways please the LORD, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.

016:008 Better is a little with righteousness than great revenues without right.

016:009 A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

016:010 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment.

016:011 A just weight and balance are the LORD's: all the weights of the bag are his work.

016:012 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness.

016:013 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that speaketh right.

016:014 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacify it.

016:015 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

016:016 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding rather to be chosen than silver!

016:017 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.

016:018 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.

016:019 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide the spoil with the proud.

016:020 He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he.

016:021 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning.

016:022 Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly.

016:023 The heart of the wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips.

016:024 Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.

016:025 There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

016:026 He that laboureth laboureth for himself; for his mouth craveth it of him.

016:027 An ungodly man diggeth up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

016:028 A froward man soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends.

016:029 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

016:030 He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving his lips he bringeth evil to pass.

016:031 The hoary head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

016:032 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city.

016:033 The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

---

017:001 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house full of sacrifices with strife.

017:002 A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

017:003 The fining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts.

017:004 A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.

017:005 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and he that is glad at calamities shall not be unpunished.

017:006 Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers.

017:007 Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying lips a prince.

017:008 A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

017:009 He that covereth a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends.

017:010 A reproof entereth more into a wise man than an hundred stripes into a fool.

017:011 An evil man seeketh only rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

017:012 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.

017:013 Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart from his house.

017:014 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with.

017:015 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, even they both are abomination to the LORD.

017:016 Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

017:017 A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.

017:018 A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh surety in the presence of his friend.

017:019 He loveth transgression that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.

017:020 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath a perverse tongue falleth into mischief.

017:021 He that begetteth a fool doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy.

017:022 A merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

017:023 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to pervert the ways of judgment.

017:024 Wisdom is before him that hath understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.

017:025 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare him.

017:026 Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes for equity.

017:027 He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit.

017:028 Even a fool, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

018:001 Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom.

018:002 A fool hath no delight in understanding, but that his heart may discover itself.

018:003 When the wicked cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

018:004 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.

018:005 It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment.

018:006 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

018:007 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.

018:008 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

018:009 He also that is slothful in his work is brother to him that is a great waster.

018:010 The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

018:011 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in his own conceit.

018:012 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, and before honour is humility.

018:013 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him.

018:014 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?

018:015 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the wise seeketh knowledge.

018:016 A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men.

018:017 He that is first in his own cause seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him.

018:018 The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.

018:019 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and their contentions are like the bars of a castle.

018:020 A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled.

018:021 Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

018:022 Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the LORD.

018:023 The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.

018:024 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

---

019:001 Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his lips, and is a fool.

019:002 Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sinneth.

019:003 The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart fretteth against the LORD.

019:004 Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbour.

019:005 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape.

019:006 Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts.

019:007 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him.

019:008 He that getteth wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good.

019:009 A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall perish.

019:010 Delight is not seemly for a fool; much less for a servant to have rule over princes.

019:011 The discretion of a man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression.

019:012 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

019:013 A foolish son is the calamity of his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

019:014 House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife is from the LORD.

019:015 Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an idle soul shall suffer hunger.

019:016 He that keepeth the commandment keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.

019:017 He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that which he hath given will he pay him again.

019:018 Chasten thy son while there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying.

019:019 A man of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again.

019:020 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that thou mayest be wise in thy latter end.

019:021 There are many devices in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand.

019:022 The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is better than a liar.

019:023 The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil.

019:024 A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.

019:025 Smite a scorner, and the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge.

019:026 He that wasteth his father, and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach.

019:027 Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that causeth to err from the words of knowledge.

019:028 An ungodly witness scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity.

019:029 Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the back of fools.

---

020:001 Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise.

020:002 The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own soul.

020:003 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool will be meddling.

020:004 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing.

020:005 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will draw it out.

020:006 Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?

020:007 The just man walketh in his integrity: his children are blessed after him.

020:008 A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.

020:009 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?

020:010 Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

020:011 Even a child is known by his doings, whether his work be pure, and whether it be right.

020:012 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.

020:013 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and thou shalt be satisfied with bread.

020:014 It is naught, it is naught, saith the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth.

020:015 There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

020:016 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

020:017 Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.

020:018 Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good advice make war.

020:019 He that goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.

020:020 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in obscure darkness.

020:021 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed.

020:022 Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save thee.

020:023 Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a false balance is not good.

020:024 Man's goings are of the LORD; how can a man then understand his own way?

020:025 It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry.

020:026 A wise king scattereth the wicked, and bringeth the wheel over them.

020:027 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

020:028 Mercy and truth preserve the king: and his throne is upholden by mercy.

020:029 The glory of young men is their strength: and the beauty of old men is the grey head.

020:030 The blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

---

021:001 The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of water: he turneth it whithersoever he will.

021:002 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts.

021:003 To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

021:004 An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

021:005 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

021:006 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

021:007 The robbery of the wicked shall destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

021:008 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

021:009 It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman in a wide house.

021:010 The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes.
021:011 When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.
021:012 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.
021:013 Whoso stoppeth his ears at the cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.
021:014 A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong wrath.
021:015 It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity.
021:016 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.
021:017 He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.
021:018 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.
021:019 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.
021:020 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
but a foolish man spendeth it up.
021:021 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.
021:022 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.
021:023 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

021:024 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

021:025 The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

021:026 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not.

021:027 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

021:028 A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

021:029 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

021:030 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD.

021:031 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD.

---

022:001 A GOOD name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold.

022:002 The rich and poor meet together: the LORD is the maker of them all.

022:003 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and are punished.

022:004 By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches, and honour, and life.

022:005 Thorns and snares are in the way of the froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them.

022:006 Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

022:007 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

022:008 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail.

022:009 He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

022:010 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

022:011 He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

022:012 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor.

022:013 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

022:014 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

022:015 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

022:016 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

022:017 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

022:018 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

022:019 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

022:020 Have not I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge, 022:021 That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

022:022 Rob not the poor, because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:
022:023 For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.
022:024 Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go:
022:025 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.
022:026 Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.
022:027 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?
022:028 Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.
022:029 Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

---

023:001 When thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:
023:002 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.
023:003 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.
023:004 Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom.
023:005 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.
023:006 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

023:007 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

023:008 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

023:009 Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

023:010 Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

023:011 For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

023:012 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

023:013 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

023:014 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

023:015 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

023:016 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

023:017 Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

023:018 For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

023:019 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

023:020 Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh:

023:021 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

023:022 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

023:023 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

023:024 The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

023:025 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

023:026 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

023:027 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

023:028 She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

023:029 Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds without cause? who hath redness of eyes?

023:030 They that tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

023:031 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

023:032 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

023:033 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

023:034 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

023:035 They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

---

024:001 Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them.

024:002 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

024:003 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established:

024:004 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

024:005 A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

024:006 For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety.

024:007 Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

024:008 He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person.

024:009 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

024:010 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small.

024:011 If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

024:012 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works?

024:013 My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste:

024:014 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

024:015 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

024:016 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

024:017 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

024:018 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

024:019 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked:
024:020 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out.
024:021 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change:
024:022 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?
024:023 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.
024:024 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou are righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:
024:025 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.
024:026 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.
024:027 Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.
024:028 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.
024:029 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to the man according to his work.
024:030 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;
024:031 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.
024:032 Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

024:033 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

024:034 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

---

025:001 These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

025:002 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

025:003 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

025:004 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

025:005 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

025:006 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

025:007 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

025:008 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

025:009 Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and discover not a secret to another:

025:010 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn not away.

025:011 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

025:012 As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

025:013 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters.

025:014 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain.

025:015 By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

025:016 Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

025:017 Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee.

025:018 A man that beareth false witness against his neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.

025:019 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.

025:020 As he that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart.

025:021 If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink:

025:022 For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

025:023 The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance a backbiting tongue.

025:024 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house.

025:025 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.

025:026 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

025:027 It is not good to eat much honey: so for men to search their own glory is not glory.

025:028 He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

026:001 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.

026:002 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.

026:003 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

026:004 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

026:005 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

026:006 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

026:007 The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

026:008 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

026:009 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouths of fools.

026:010 The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

026:011 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

026:012 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

026:013 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.
026:014 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.
026:015 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.
026:016 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.
026:017 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.
026:018 As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death, 026:019 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?
026:020 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.
026:021 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.
026:022 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.
026:023 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.
026:024 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;
026:025 When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.
026:026 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

026:027 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

026:028 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

---

027:001 Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

027:002 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

027:003 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

027:004 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?

027:005 Open rebuke is better than secret love.

027:006 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

027:007 The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

027:008 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

027:009 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

027:010 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

027:011 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

027:012 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished.

027:013 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

027:014 He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.

027:015 A continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike.

027:016 Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself.

027:017 Iron sharpeneth iron; so a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend.

027:018 Whoso keepeth the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured.

027:019 As in water face answereth to face, so the heart of man to man.

027:020 Hell and destruction are never full; so the eyes of man are never satisfied.

027:021 As the fining pot for silver, and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise.

027:022 Though thou shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him.

027:023 Be thou diligent to know the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds.

027:024 For riches are not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation?

027:025 The hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered.

027:026 The lambs are for thy clothing, and the goats are the price of the field.

027:027 And thou shalt have goats' milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.

028:001 The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are bold as a lion.

028:002 For the transgression of a land many are the princes thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.

028:003 A poor man that oppresseth the poor is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food.

028:004 They that forsake the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them.

028:005 Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the LORD understand all things.

028:006 Better is the poor that walketh in his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.

028:007 Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a companion of riotous men shameth his father.

028:008 He that by usury and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor.

028:009 He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination.

028:010 Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

028:011 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath understanding searcheth him out.

028:012 When righteous men do rejoice, there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden.

028:013 He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.

028:014 Happy is the man that feareth alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief.

028:015 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the poor people.

028:016 The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his days.

028:017 A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stay him.

028:018 Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.

028:019 He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough.

028:020 A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent.

028:021 To have respect of persons is not good: for for a piece of bread that man will transgress.

028:022 He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty shall come upon him.

028:023 He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue.

028:024 Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; the same is the companion of a destroyer.

028:025 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD shall be made fat.

028:026 He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

028:027 He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have many a curse.

028:028 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.

029:001 He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.

029:002 When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

029:003 Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he that keepeth company with harlots spendeth his substance.

029:004 The king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it.

029:005 A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet.

029:006 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice.

029:007 The righteous considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it.

029:008 Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise men turn away wrath.

029:009 If a wise man contendeth with a foolish man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest.

029:010 The bloodthirsty hate the upright: but the just seek his soul.

029:011 A fool uttereth all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards.

029:012 If a ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked.

029:013 The poor and the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes.

029:014 The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.

029:015 The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame.

029:016 When the wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall.

029:017 Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.

029:018 Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

029:019 A servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer.

029:020 Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

029:021 He that delicately bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length.

029:022 An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man aboundeth in transgression.

029:023 A man's pride shall bring him low: but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit.

029:024 Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not.

029:025 The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his trust in the LORD shall be safe.

029:026 Many seek the ruler's favour; but every man's judgment cometh from the LORD.

029:027 An unjust man is an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

030:001 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal, 030:002 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

030:003 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

030:004 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

030:005 Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

030:006 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

030:007 Two things have I required of thee; deny me them not before I die:

030:008 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me:

030:009 Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

030:010 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

030:011 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

030:012 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

030:013 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

030:014 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.

030:015 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:

030:016 The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.

030:017 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.

030:018 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:

030:019 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.

030:020 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.

030:021 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:

030:022 For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;

030:023 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.

030:024 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:

030:025 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;

030:026 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;

030:027 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;

030:028 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

030:029 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:

030:030 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;

030:031 A greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.

030:032 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.

030:033 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

031:001 The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught him.

031:002 What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, the son of my vows?

031:003 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.

031:004 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:

031:005 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.

031:006 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.

031:007 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.
031:008 Open thy mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction.
031:009 Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the cause of the poor and needy.
031:010 Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.
031:011 The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.
031:012 She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.
031:013 She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.
031:014 She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.
031:015 She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.
031:016 She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
031:017 She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.
031:018 She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.
031:019 She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.
031:020 She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.
031:021 She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
031:022 She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.
031:023 Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

031:024 She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

031:025 Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

031:026 She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

031:027 She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

031:028 Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

031:029 Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

031:030 Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

031:031 Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

001:001 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

001:002 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

001:003 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

001:004 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

001:005 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose.

001:006 The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north;
it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

001:007 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

001:008 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

001:009 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

001:010 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

001:011 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

001:012 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

001:013 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

001:014 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

001:015 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

001:016 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

001:017 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit.

001:018 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

002:001 I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity.

002:002 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

002:003 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

002:004 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

002:005 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

002:006 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

002:007 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

002:008 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

002:009 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

002:010 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.

002:011 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

002:012 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been already done.

002:013 Then I saw that wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

002:014 The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all.

002:015 Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

002:016 For there is no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool.

002:017 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

002:018 Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me.

002:019 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

002:020 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

002:021 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

002:022 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

002:023 For all his days are sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

002:024 There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

002:025 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I?

002:026 For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

---

003:001 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

003:002 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

003:003 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

003:004 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

003:005 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

003:006 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

003:007 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

003:008 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

003:009 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

003:010 I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

003:011 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

003:012 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

003:013 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

003:014 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

003:015 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.

003:016 And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

003:017 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.

003:018 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

003:019 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

003:020 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

003:021 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

003:022 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

004:001 So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

004:002 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

004:003 Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

004:004 Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

004:005 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh.

004:006 Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

004:007 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

004:008 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail.

004:009 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

004:010 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up.

004:011 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

004:012 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

004:013 Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

004:014 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

004:015 I considered all the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead.

004:016 There is no end of all the people, even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

---

005:001 Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil.

005:002 Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few.

005:003 For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a fool's voice is known by multitude of words.

005:004 When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

005:005 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

005:006 Suffer not thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy voice, and destroy the work of thine hands?

005:007 For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God.

005:008 If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.

005:009 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

005:010 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

005:011 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

005:012 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

005:013 There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for the owners thereof to their hurt.

005:014 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

005:015 As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

005:016 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath laboured for the wind?

005:017 All his days also he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

005:018 Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is his portion.

005:019 Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.

005:020 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

006:001 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

006:002 A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

006:003 If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he.

006:004 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.

006:005 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

006:006 Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place?

006:007 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.

006:008 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

006:009 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit.

006:010 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he.

006:011 Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?

006:012 For who knoweth what is good for man in this life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

007:001 A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of death than the day of one's birth.

007:002 It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.

007:003 Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better.

007:004 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.

007:005 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

007:006 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

007:007 Surely oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

007:008 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

007:009 Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

007:010 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this.

007:011 Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun.

007:012 For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

007:013 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

007:014 In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

007:015 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

007:016 Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou destroy thyself ?

007:017 Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time?

007:018 It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

007:019 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which are in the city.

007:020 For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

007:021 Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

007:022 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

007:023 All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.

007:024 That which is far off, and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

007:025 I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness:

007:026 And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her.

007:027 Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the account:

007:028 Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those have I not found.

007:029 Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

---

008:001 Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the boldness of his face shall be changed.

008:002 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.

008:003 Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.

008:004 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

008:005 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment.

008:006 Because to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.

008:007 For he knoweth not that which shall be: for who can tell him when it shall be?

008:008 There is no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.

008:009 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.

008:010 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.

008:011 Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.

008:012 Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him:

008:013 But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.

008:014 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.

008:015 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

008:016 When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

008:017 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

009:001 For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them.

009:002 All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

009:003 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

009:004 For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

009:005 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.

009:006 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

009:007 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works.

009:008 Let thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

009:009 Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun.

009:010 Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

009:011 I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

009:012 For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

009:013 This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:

009:014 There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:

009:015 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man.

009:016 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.

009:017 The words of wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.

009:018 Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good.

010:001 Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.

010:002 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.

010:003 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool.

010:004 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences.

010:005 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler:

010:006 Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low place.

010:007 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.

010:008 He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.

010:009 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.

010:010 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.

010:011 Surely the serpent will bite without enchantment; and a babbler is no better.

010:012 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.

010:013 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.

010:014 A fool also is full of words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

010:015 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.

010:016 Woe to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning!

010:017 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

010:018 By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through.

010:019 A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things.

010:020 Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

---

011:001 Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many days.

011:002 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

011:003 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

011:004 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

011:005 As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

011:006 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

011:007 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun:

011:008 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

011:009 Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment.

011:010 Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.

012:001 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them;

012:002 While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain:

012:003 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened,

012:004 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low;

012:005 Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets:

012:006 Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern.

012:007 Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

012:008 Vanity of vanities, saith the preacher; all is vanity.

012:009 And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.

012:010 The preacher sought to find out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth.

012:011 The words of the wise are as goads, and as nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.

012:012 And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

012:013 Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.

012:014 For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

SONG OF SOLOMAN

---

001:001 The song of songs, which is Solomon's.

001:002 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.

001:003 Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.

001:004 Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.

001:005 I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

001:006 Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.

001:007 Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

001:008 If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

001:009 I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

001:010 Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

001:011 We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.

001:012 While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

001:013 A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

001:014 My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi.

001:015 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

001:016 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

001:017 The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

002:001 I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

002:002 As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

002:003 As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.

002:004 He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

002:005 Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love.

002:006 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

002:007 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

002:008 The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

002:009 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice.

002:010 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

002:011 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

002:012 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;

002:013 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

002:014 O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

002:015 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

002:016 My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

002:017 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether.

---

003:001 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

003:002 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

003:003 The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

003:004 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

003:005 I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

003:006 Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant?

003:007 Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.

003:008 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

003:009 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.

003:010 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.

003:011 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

---

004:001 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead.

004:002 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

004:003 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

004:004 Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

004:005 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

004:006 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

004:007 Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

004:008 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

004:009 Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.

004:010 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!

004:011 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

004:012 A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.

004:013 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard,

004:014 Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:

004:015 A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.

004:016 Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

---

005:001 I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

005:002 I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

005:003 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

005:004 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.

005:005 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

005:006 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

005:007 The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

005:008 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

005:009 What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

005:010 My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

005:011 His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

005:012 His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

005:013 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

005:014 His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

005:015 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

005:016 His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

---

006:001 Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

006:002 My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

006:003 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

006:004 Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army with banners.

006:005 Turn away thine eyes from me, for they have overcome me: thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

006:006 Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

006:007 As a piece of a pomegranate are thy temples within thy locks.

006:008 There are threescore queens, and fourscore concubines, and virgins without number.

006:009 My dove, my undefiled is but one; she is the only one of her mother, she is the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

006:010 Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners?

006:011 I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished and the pomegranates budded.

006:012 Or ever I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of Amminadib.

006:013 Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

---

007:001 How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

007:002 Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

007:003 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

007:004 Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

007:005 Thine head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is held in the galleries.

007:006 How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

007:007 This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

007:008 I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;

007:009 And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.

007:010 I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

007:011 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.

007:012 Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.

007:013 The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

008:001 O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.

008:002 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

008:003 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

008:004 I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

008:005 Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

008:006 Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

008:007 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

008:008 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

008:009 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

008:010 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

008:011 Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

008:012 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

008:013 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

008:014 Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

ISAIAH

---

001:001 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.

001:002 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

001:003 The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider.

001:004 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward.

001:005 Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

001:006 From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment.

001:007 Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.

001:008 And the daughter of Zion is left as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

001:009 Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah.

001:010 Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

001:011 To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats.

001:012 When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?

001:013 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.

001:014 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

001:015 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

001:016 Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil;

001:017 Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

001:018 Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

001:019 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

001:020 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

001:021 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

001:022 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:

001:023 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

001:024 Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:

001:025 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

001:026 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.

001:027 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

001:028 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

001:029 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.

001:030 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath no water.

001:031 And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench them.

002:001 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

002:002 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

002:003 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

002:004 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

002:005 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

002:006 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

002:007 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

002:008 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

002:009 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

002:010 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

002:011 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

002:012 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

002:013 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

002:014 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

002:015 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

002:016 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

002:017 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

002:018 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

002:019 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

002:020 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

002:021 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

002:022 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of ?

---

003:001 For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water.

003:002 The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,
003:003 The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator.
003:004 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.
003:005 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.
003:006 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand:
003:007 In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.
003:008 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory.
003:009 The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.
003:010 Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.
003:011 Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him.
003:012 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths.
003:013 The LORD standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

003:014 The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

003:015 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

003:016 Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet:

003:017 Therefore the LORD will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts.

003:018 In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon,

003:019 The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers,

003:020 The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings,

003:021 The rings, and nose jewels,

003:022 The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins,

003:023 The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails.

003:024 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty.

003:025 Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war.

003:026 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground.

004:001 And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach.

004:002 In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.

004:003 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem:

004:004 When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning.

004:005 And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence.

004:006 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the day time from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

005:001 Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:

005:002 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.

005:003 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, betwixt me and my vineyard.

005:004 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?

005:005 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:

005:006 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

005:007 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

005:008 Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

005:009 In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

005:010 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield an ephah.

005:011 Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue until night, till wine inflame them!

005:012 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands.

005:013 Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

005:014 Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

005:015 And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

005:016 But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

005:017 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat.

005:018 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope:

005:019 That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

005:020 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

005:021 Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

005:022 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

005:023 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

005:024 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

005:025 Therefore is the anger of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

005:026 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly:

005:027 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

005:028 Whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs shall be counted like flint, and their wheels like a whirlwind:

005:029 Their roaring shall be like a lion, they shall roar like young lions:
yea, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and shall carry it away safe, and none shall deliver it.

005:030 And in that day they shall roar against them like the roaring of the sea: and if one look unto the land, behold darkness and sorrow, and the light is darkened in the heavens thereof.

---

006:001 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

006:002 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

006:003 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

006:004 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

006:005 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

006:006 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

006:007 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

006:008 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

006:009 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

006:010 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

006:011 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, 006:012 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

006:013 But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as a teil tree, and as an oak, whose substance is in them, when they cast their leaves: so the holy seed shall be the substance thereof.

007:001 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.

007:002 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind.

007:003 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field;

007:004 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

007:005 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying,

007:006 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

007:007 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

007:008 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

007:009 And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

007:010 Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, 007:011 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.

007:012 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.

007:013 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

007:014 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

007:015 Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

007:016 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

007:017 The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

007:018 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

007:019 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes.

007:020 In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of the feet: and it shall also consume the beard.

007:021 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two sheep;

007:022 And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

007:023 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.

007:024 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all the land shall become briers and thorns.

007:025 And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.

---

008:001 Moreover the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and write in it with a man's pen concerning Mahershalalhashbaz.

008:002 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

008:003 And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Mahershalalhashbaz.

008:004 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

008:005 The LORD spake also unto me again, saying,

008:006 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;

008:007 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

008:008 And he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel.

008:009 Associate yourselves, O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces.

008:010 Take counsel together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.

008:011 For the LORD spake thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, 008:012 Say ye not, A confederacy, to all them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid.

008:013 Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.

008:014 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

008:015 And many among them shall stumble, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.

008:016 Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

008:017 And I will wait upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.

008:018 Behold, I and the children whom the LORD hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion.

008:019 And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead?

008:020 To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.

008:021 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward.

008:022 And they shall look unto the earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

009:001 Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexation, when at the first he lightly afflicted the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, and afterward did more grievously afflict her by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

009:002 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined.

009:003 Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.

009:004 For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.

009:005 For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be with burning and fuel of fire.

009:006 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

009:007 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

009:008 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel.

009:009 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in the pride and stoutness of heart, 009:010 The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycomores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars.

009:011 Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together;

009:012 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

009:013 For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of hosts.

009:014 Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day.

009:015 The ancient and honourable, he is the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail.

009:016 For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.

009:017 Therefore the LORD shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

009:018 For wickedness burneth as the fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke.

009:019 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother.

009:020 And he shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:

009:021 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

010:001 Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed;

010:002 To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!

010:003 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?

010:004 Without me they shall bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

010:005 O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation.

010:006 I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

010:007 Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few.

010:008 For he saith, Are not my princes altogether kings?

010:009 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?

010:010 As my hand hath found the kingdoms of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;

010:011 Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?

010:012 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

010:013 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down the inhabitants like a valiant man:

010:014 And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped.

010:015 Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should lift up itself, as if it were no wood.

010:016 Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire.

010:017 And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day;

010:018 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standard-bearer fainteth.

010:019 And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that a child may write them.

010:020 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.

010:021 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the mighty God.

010:022 For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed shall overflow with righteousness.

010:023 For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the land.

010:024 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the manner of Egypt.

010:025 For yet a very little while, and the indignation shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction.

010:026 And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt.

010:027 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.

010:028 He is come to Aiath, he is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages:

010:029 They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled.

010:030 Lift up thy voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth.

010:031 Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim gather themselves to flee.

010:032 As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

010:033 Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled.

010:034 And he shall cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

---

011:001 And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:

011:002 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;

011:003 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:

011:004 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth: with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

011:005 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.

011:006 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.

011:007 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

011:008 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den.

011:009 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

011:010 And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.

011:011 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

011:012 And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

011:013 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.

011:014 But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them.

011:015 And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod.

011:016 And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

012:001 And in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me.

012:002 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; he also is become my salvation.

012:003 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.

012:004 And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare his doings among the people, make mention that his name is exalted.

012:005 Sing unto the LORD; for he hath done excellent things: this is known in all the earth.

012:006 Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee.

---

013:001 The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.

013:002 Lift ye up a banner upon the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.

013:003 I have commanded my sanctified ones, I have also called my mighty ones for mine anger, even them that rejoice in my highness.

013:004 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, like as of a great people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle.

013:005 They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.

013:006 Howl ye; for the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.

013:007 Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's heart shall melt:

013:008 And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them;
they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames.

013:009 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.

013:010 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

013:011 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.

013:012 I will make a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir.

013:013 Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.

013:014 And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land.

013:015 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword.

013:016 Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished.

013:017 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, which shall not regard silver; and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.

013:018 Their bows also shall dash the young men to pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eyes shall not spare children.

013:019 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.

013:020 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arabian pitch tent there; neither shall the shepherds make their fold there.

013:021 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and owls shall dwell there, and satyrs shall dance there.

013:022 And the wild beasts of the islands shall cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.

014:001 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

014:002 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.

014:003 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve, 014:004 That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!

014:005 The LORD hath broken the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers.

014:006 He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth.

014:007 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

014:008 Yea, the fir trees rejoice at thee, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

014:009 Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up the dead for thee, even all the chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

014:010 All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

014:011 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

014:012 How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

014:013 For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north:

014:014 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High.

014:015 Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit.

014:016 They that see thee shall narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

014:017 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners?

014:018 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house.

014:019 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

014:020 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

014:021 Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

014:022 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD.

014:023 I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

014:024 The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

014:025 That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders.

014:026 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

014:027 For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?

014:028 In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden.

014:029 Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.

014:030 And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root with famine, and he shall slay thy remnant.

014:031 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; thou, whole Palestina, art dissolved: for there shall come from the north a smoke, and none shall be alone in his appointed times.

014:032 What shall one then answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD hath founded Zion, and the poor of his people shall trust in it.

---

015:001 The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;

015:002 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

015:003 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

015:004 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

015:005 My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

015:006 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

015:007 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

015:008 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beerelim.

015:009 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

---

016:001 Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.

016:002 For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab shall be at the fords of Arnon.

016:003 Take counsel, execute judgment; make thy shadow as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; bewray not him that wandereth.

016:004 Let mine outcasts dwell with thee, Moab; be thou a covert to them from the face of the spoiler: for the extortioner is at an end, the spoiler ceaseth, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.

016:005 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

016:006 We have heard of the pride of Moab; he is very proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so.

016:007 Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every one shall howl: for the foundations of Kirhareseth shall ye mourn; surely they are stricken.

016:008 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah: the lords of the heathen have broken down the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea.

016:009 Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen.

016:010 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease.

016:011 Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirharesh.

016:012 And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail.

016:013 This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time.

016:014 But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

---

017:001 The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.

017:002 The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

017:003 The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts.

017:004 And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

017:005 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim.

017:006 Yet gleaning grapes shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel.

017:007 At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.

017:008 And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers have made, either the groves, or the images.

017:009 In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be desolation.

017:010 Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips:

017:011 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.

017:012 Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the rushing of mighty waters!

017:013 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind.

017:014 And behold at eveningtide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

018:001 Woe to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia:

018:002 That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, whose land the rivers have spoiled!

018:003 All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye.

018:004 For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.

018:005 For afore the harvest, when the bud is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches.

018:006 They shall be left together unto the fowls of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.

018:007 In that time shall the present be brought unto the LORD of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

019:001 The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.

019:002 And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.

019:003 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.

019:004 And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

019:005 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and dried up.

019:006 And they shall turn the rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither.

019:007 The paper reeds by the brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more.

019:008 The fishers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.

019:009 Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave networks, shall be confounded.

019:010 And they shall be broken in the purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish.

019:011 Surely the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?

019:012 Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt.

019:013 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes thereof.

019:014 The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit.

019:015 Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may do.

019:016 In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of hosts, which he shaketh over it.

019:017 And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, which he hath determined against it.

019:018 In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction.

019:019 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.

019:020 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great one, and he shall deliver them.

019:021 And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the LORD, and perform it.

019:022 And the LORD shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them.

019:023 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians.

019:024 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the midst of the land:

019:025 Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

---

020:001 In the year that Tartan came unto Ashdod, (when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him,) and fought against Ashdod, and took it;

020:002 At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

020:003 And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia;

020:004 So shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.

020:005 And they shall be afraid and ashamed of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.

020:006 And the inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

021:001 The burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land.
021:002 A grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam:
besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.
021:003 Therefore are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it.
021:004 My heart panted, fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me.
021:005 Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield.
021:006 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth.
021:007 And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed:
021:008 And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights:
021:009 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.
021:010 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.
021:011 The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?
021:012 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come.

021:013 The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

021:014 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

021:015 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

021:016 For thus hath the LORD said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:

021:017 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

---

022:001 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?

022:002 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

022:003 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

022:004 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

022:005 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

022:006 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

022:007 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

022:008 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.
022:009 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.
022:010 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.
022:011 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.
022:012 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:
022:013 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die.
022:014 And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.
022:015 Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say,
022:016 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?
022:017 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.
022:018 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.

022:019 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.

022:020 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:

022:021 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

022:022 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

022:023 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house.

022:024 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.

022:025 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

023:001 The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them.

023:002 Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.

023:003 And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations.

023:004 Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins.

023:005 As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.

023:006 Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.

023:007 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn.

023:008 Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth?

023:009 The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth.

023:010 Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no more strength.

023:011 He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof.

023:012 And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have no rest.

023:013 Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof; and he brought it to ruin.

023:014 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste.

023:015 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an harlot.

023:016 Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou mayest be remembered.

023:017 And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.

023:018 And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

024:001 Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof.

024:002 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him.

024:003 The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word.

024:004 The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish.

024:005 The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant.

024:006 Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.
024:007 The new wine mourneth, the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh.
024:008 The mirth of tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth.
024:009 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.
024:010 The city of confusion is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in.
024:011 There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.
024:012 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.
024:013 When thus it shall be in the midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done.
024:014 They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea.
024:015 Wherefore glorify ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea.
024:016 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously.
024:017 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O inhabitant of the earth.

024:018 And it shall come to pass, that he who fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake.

024:019 The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly.

024:020 The earth shall reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall fall, and not rise again.

024:021 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

024:022 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

024:023 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

---

025:001 O Lord, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are faithfulness and truth.

025:002 For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.

025:003 Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the city of the terrible nations shall fear thee.

025:004 For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.

025:005 Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones shall be brought low.

025:006 And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.

025:007 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations.

025:008 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.

025:009 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

025:010 For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for the dunghill.

025:011 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim: and he shall bring down their pride together with the spoils of their hands.

025:012 And the fortress of the high fort of thy walls shall he bring down, lay low, and bring to the ground, even to the dust.

---

026:001 In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.

026:002 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.

026:003 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

026:004 Trust ye in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength:

026:005 For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust.

026:006 The foot shall tread it down, even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.

026:007 The way of the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just.

026:008 Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee.

026:009 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

026:010 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

026:011 LORD, when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them.

026:012 LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.

026:013 O LORD our God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name.

026:014 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish.

026:015 Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth.

026:016 LORD, in trouble have they visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them.

026:017 Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the time of her delivery, is in pain, and crieth out in her pangs; so have we been in thy sight, O LORD.

026:018 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.

026:019 Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead.

026:020 Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.

026:021 For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

027:001 In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

027:002 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine.

027:003 I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.

027:004 Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, I would burn them together.

027:005 Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with me.

027:006 He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.

027:007 Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?

027:008 In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind.

027:009 By this therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be purged; and this is all the fruit to take away his sin; when he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, the groves and images shall not stand up.

027:010 Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.

027:011 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour.

027:012 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.

027:013 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

028:001 Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine!

028:002 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

028:003 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet:

028:004 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up.

028:005 In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people, 028:006 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate.

028:007 But they also have erred through wine, and through strong drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.

028:008 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

028:009 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

028:010 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

028:011 For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people.

028:012 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.
028:013 But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.
028:014 Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.
028:015 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
028:016 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.
028:017 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
028:018 And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.
028:019 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to understand the report.
028:020 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.
028:021 For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

028:022 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

028:023 Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

028:024 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods of his ground?

028:025 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rie in their place?

028:026 For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

028:027 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

028:028 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

028:029 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

---

029:001 Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices.

029:002 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

029:003 And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee.

029:004 And thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust.

029:005 Moreover the multitude of thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly.

029:006 Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire.

029:007 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision.

029:008 It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

029:009 Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.

029:010 For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered.

029:011 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed:

029:012 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

029:013 Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men:

029:014 Therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

029:015 Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

029:016 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

029:017 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

029:018 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

029:019 The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

029:020 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for iniquity are cut off:

029:021 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the just for a thing of nought.

029:022 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

029:023 But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel.

029:024 They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

---

030:001 Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, that they may add sin to sin:

030:002 That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!

030:003 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.

030:004 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.

030:005 They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.

030:006 The burden of the beasts of the south: into the land of trouble and anguish, from whence come the young and old lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they will carry their riches upon the shoulders of young asses, and their treasures upon the bunches of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.

030:007 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still.

030:008 Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever:

030:009 That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of the LORD:

030:010 Which say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophesy deceits:

030:011 Get you out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

030:012 Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon:

030:013 Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant.

030:014 And he shall break it as the breaking of the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit.

030:015 For thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not.

030:016 But ye said, No; for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.

030:017 One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill.

030:018 And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.

030:019 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

030:020 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, yet shall not thy teachers be removed into a corner any more, but thine eyes shall see thy teachers:

030:021 And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

030:022 Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence.

030:023 Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures.

030:024 The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan.

030:025 And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.

030:026 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound.

030:027 Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire:

030:028 And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err.

030:029 Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel.

030:030 And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones.

030:031 For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod.

030:032 And in every place where the grounded staff shall pass, which the LORD shall lay upon him, it shall be with tabrets and harps: and in battles of shaking will he fight with it.

030:033 For Tophet is ordained of old; yea, for the king it is prepared; he hath made it deep and large: the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of brimstone, doth kindle it.

031:001 Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD!

031:002 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

031:003 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

031:004 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.

031:005 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.

031:006 Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.

031:007 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.

031:008 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited.

031:009 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

032:001 Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment.

032:002 And a man shall be as an hiding place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest; as rivers of water in a dry place, as the shadow of a great rock in a weary land.

032:003 And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.

032:004 The heart also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.

032:005 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said to be bountiful.

032:006 For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

032:007 The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right.

032:008 But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.

032:009 Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless daughters; give ear unto my speech.

032:010 Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the gathering shall not come.

032:011 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.

032:012 They shall lament for the teats, for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

032:013 Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city:

032:014 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

032:015 Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

032:016 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

032:017 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

032:018 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

032:019 When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low place.

032:020 Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.

033:001 Woe to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

033:002 O LORD, be gracious unto us; we have waited for thee: be thou their arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

033:003 At the noise of the tumult the people fled; at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

033:004 And your spoil shall be gathered like the gathering of the caterpiller: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he run upon them.

033:005 The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

033:006 And wisdom and knowledge shall be the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

033:007 Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

033:008 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

033:009 The earth mourneth and languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down: Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

033:010 Now will I rise, saith the LORD; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself.

033:011 Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

033:012 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

033:013 Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might.

033:014 The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?

033:015 He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil;

033:016 He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.

033:017 Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.

033:018 Thine heart shall meditate terror. Where is the scribe? where is the receiver? where is he that counted the towers?

033:019 Thou shalt not see a fierce people, a people of a deeper speech than thou canst perceive; of a stammering tongue, that thou canst not understand.

033:020 Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: thine eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tabernacle that shall not be taken down; not one of the stakes thereof shall ever be removed, neither shall any of the cords thereof be broken.

033:021 But there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of broad rivers and streams; wherein shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.

033:022 For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us.

033:023 Thy tacklings are loosed; they could not well strengthen their mast, they could not spread the sail: then is the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame take the prey.

033:024 And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

---

034:001 Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

034:002 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

034:003 Their slain also shall be cast out, and their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

034:004 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.

034:005 For my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.

034:006 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

034:007 And the unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

034:008 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompences for the controversy of Zion.

034:009 And the streams thereof shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.

034:010 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever: from generation to generation it shall lie waste; none shall pass through it for ever and ever.

034:011 But the cormorant and the bittern shall possess it; the owl also and the raven shall dwell in it: and he shall stretch out upon it the line of confusion, and the stones of emptiness.

034:012 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but none shall be there, and all her princes shall be nothing.

034:013 And thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls.

034:014 The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest.

034:015 There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate.

034:016 Seek ye out of the book of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them.

034:017 And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

---

035:001 The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

035:002 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God.

035:003 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.

035:004 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you.

035:005 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.

035:006 Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.

035:007 And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.

035:008 And an highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein.

035:009 No lion shall be there, nor any ravenous beast shall go up thereon, it shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there:

035:010 And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

036:001 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

036:002 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

036:003 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

036:004 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

036:005 I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

036:006 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

036:007 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

036:008 Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

036:009 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

036:010 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

036:011 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

036:012 But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

036:013 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.

036:014 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

036:015 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

036:016 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

036:017 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

036:018 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, the LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

036:019 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?

036:020 Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

036:021 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

036:022 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

---

037:001 And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

037:002 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

037:003 And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

037:004 It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left.

037:005 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

037:006 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

037:007 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumour, and return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

037:008 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

037:009 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 037:010 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

037:011 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?

037:012 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in Telassar?

037:013 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah?

037:014 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

037:015 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

037:016 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

037:017 Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

037:018 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, 037:019 And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

037:020 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

037:021 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

037:022 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

037:023 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

037:024 By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel.

037:025 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places.

037:026 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

037:027 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

037:028 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

037:029 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

037:030 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

037:031 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

037:032 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this.

037:033 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

037:034 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

037:035 For I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

037:036 Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

037:037 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

037:038 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

038:001 In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and not live.

038:002 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, 038:003 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sore.

038:004 Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

038:005 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years.

038:006 And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and I will defend this city.

038:007 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

038:008 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

038:009 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:
038:010 I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of my years.
038:011 I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.
038:012 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.
038:013 I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.
038:014 Like a crane or a swallow, so did I chatter: I did mourn as a dove: mine eyes fail with looking upward: O LORD, I am oppressed; undertake for me.
038:015 What shall I say? he hath both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul.
038:016 O LORD, by these things men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live.
038:017 Behold, for peace I had great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.
038:018 For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.
038:019 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the father to the children shall make known thy truth.
038:020 The LORD was ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

038:021 For Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover.

038:022 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

039:001 At that time Merodachbaladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.

039:002 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

039:003 Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.

039:004 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.

039:005 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:

039:006 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.

039:007 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

039:008 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

040:001 Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

040:002 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

040:003 The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

040:004 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

040:005 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

040:006 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

040:007 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

040:008 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

040:009 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

040:010 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

040:011 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

040:012 Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

040:013 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him?

040:014 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

040:015 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

040:016 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

040:017 All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

040:018 To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

040:019 The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

040:020 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

040:021 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?

040:022 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

040:023 That bringeth the princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

040:024 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

040:025 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

040:026 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

040:027 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

040:028 Hast thou not known? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

040:029 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

040:030 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

040:031 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

041:001 Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the people renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

041:002 Who raised up the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

041:003 He pursued them, and passed safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

041:004 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, the first, and with the last; I am he.

041:005 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

041:006 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage.

041:007 So the carpenter encouraged the goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer him that smote the anvil, saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it with nails, that it should not be moved.

041:008 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend.

041:009 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

041:010 Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

041:011 Behold, all they that were incensed against thee shall be ashamed and confounded: they shall be as nothing; and they that strive with thee shall perish.

041:012 Thou shalt seek them, and shalt not find them, even them that contended with thee: they that war against thee shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.

041:013 For I the LORD thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee.

041:014 Fear not, thou worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help thee, saith the LORD, and thy redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

041:015 Behold, I will make thee a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth: thou shalt thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shalt make the hills as chaff.

041:016 Thou shalt fan them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them: and thou shalt rejoice in the LORD, and shalt glory in the Holy One of Israel.

041:017 When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue faileth for thirst, I the LORD will hear them, I the God of Israel will not forsake them.

041:018 I will open rivers in high places, and fountains in the midst of the valleys: I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

041:019 I will plant in the wilderness the cedar, the shittah tree, and the myrtle, and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the fir tree, and the pine, and the box tree together:

041:020 That they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of the LORD hath done this, and the Holy One of Israel hath created it.

041:021 Produce your cause, saith the LORD; bring forth your strong reasons, saith the King of Jacob.

041:022 Let them bring them forth, and shew us what shall happen: let them shew the former things, what they be, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or declare us things for to come.

041:023 Shew the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yea, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.

041:024 Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work of nought: an abomination is he that chooseth you.

041:025 I have raised up one from the north, and he shall come: from the rising of the sun shall he call upon my name: and he shall come upon princes as upon morter, and as the potter treadeth clay.

041:026 Who hath declared from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is righteous? yea, there is none that sheweth, yea, there is none that declareth, yea, there is none that heareth your words.

041:027 The first shall say to Zion, Behold, behold them: and I will give to Jerusalem one that bringeth good tidings.

041:028 For I beheld, and there was no man; even among them, and there was no counsellor, that, when I asked of them, could answer a word.

041:029 Behold, they are all vanity; their works are nothing: their molten images are wind and confusion.

---

042:001 Behold my servant, whom I uphold; mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth; I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

042:002 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.

042:003 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench: he shall bring forth judgment unto truth.

042:004 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law.

042:005 Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:

042:006 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;

042:007 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house.

042:008 I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.

042:009 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them.

042:010 Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

042:011 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.

042:012 Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.

042:013 The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

042:014 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and devour at once.

042:015 I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up the pools.

042:016 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them.

042:017 They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

042:018 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

042:019 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant?

042:020 Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth not.

042:021 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable.

042:022 But this is a people robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

042:023 Who among you will give ear to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come?

042:024 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law.

042:025 Therefore he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

043:001 But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.
043:002 When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.
043:003 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee.
043:004 Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.
043:005 Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from the east, and gather thee from the west;
043:006 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;
043:007 Even every one that is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.
043:008 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.
043:009 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.
043:010 Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

043:011 I, even I, am the LORD; and beside me there is no saviour.

043:012 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

043:013 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it?

043:014 Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

043:015 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the creator of Israel, your King.

043:016 Thus saith the LORD, which maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;

043:017 Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they are quenched as tow.

043:018 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.

043:019 Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

043:020 The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

043:021 This people have I formed for myself; they shall shew forth my praise.

043:022 But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel.

043:023 Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense.

043:024 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities.

043:025 I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and will not remember thy sins.

043:026 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

043:027 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.

043:028 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

044:001 Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have chosen:

044:002 Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my servant; and thou, Jesurun, whom I have chosen.

044:003 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring:

044:004 And they shall spring up as among the grass, as willows by the water courses.

044:005 One shall say, I am the LORD's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel.

044:006 Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God.

044:007 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them.

044:008 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any.

044:009 They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

044:010 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is profitable for nothing?

044:011 Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together.

044:012 The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint.

044:013 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

044:014 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

044:015 Then shall it be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto.

044:016 He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire:

044:017 And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god.

044:018 They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.

044:019 And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?

044:020 He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?

044:021 Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant: O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me.

044:022 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: return unto me; for I have redeemed thee.

044:023 Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.

044:024 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by myself;

044:025 That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their knowledge foolish;

044:026 That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof:

044:027 That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers:

044:028 That saith of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

---

045:001 Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

045:002 I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

045:003 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

045:004 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me.

045:005 I am the LORD, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me:

045:006 That they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else.

045:007 I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil:
I the LORD do all these things.

045:008 Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it.

045:009 Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

045:010 Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begettest thou? or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth?

045:011 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me.

045:012 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded.

045:013 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will direct all his ways:
he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.

045:014 Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God.

045:015 Verily thou art a God that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.

045:016 They shall be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols.

045:017 But Israel shall be saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end.

045:018 For thus saith the LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else.

045:019 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.

045:020 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image, and pray unto a god that cannot save.

045:021 Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and a Saviour; there is none beside me.

045:022 Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else.

045:023 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

045:024 Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed.

045:025 In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

046:001 Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden; they are a burden to the weary beast.

046:002 They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.

046:003 Hearken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are carried from the womb:

046:004 And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

046:005 To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?

046:006 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship.

046:007 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet can he not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

046:008 Remember this, and shew yourselves men: bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.

046:009 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,

046:010 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

046:011 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

046:012 Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness:

046:013 I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

---

047:001 Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate.

047:002 Take the millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers.

047:003 Thy nakedness shall be uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man.

047:004 As for our redeemer, the LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.

047:005 Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms.

047:006 I was wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke.

047:007 And thou saidst, I shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it.

047:008 Therefore hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:

047:009 But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments.

047:010 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me.

047:011 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know.

047:012 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

047:013 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

047:014 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it.

047:015 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

---

048:001 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness.

048:002 For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.
048:003 I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass.
048:004 Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;
048:005 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.
048:006 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.
048:007 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.
048:008 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor from the womb.
048:009 For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.
048:010 Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I have chosen thee in the furnace of affliction.
048:011 For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another.
048:012 Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.

048:013 Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

048:014 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.

048:015 I, even I, have spoken; yea, I have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

048:016 Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord GOD, and his Spirit, hath sent me.

048:017 Thus saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go.

048:018 O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea:

048:019 Thy seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me.

048:020 Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob.

048:021 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.

048:022 There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.

---

049:001 Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

049:002 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me;

049:003 And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

049:004 Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

049:005 And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength.

049:006 And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

049:007 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and he shall choose thee.

049:008 Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

049:009 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.

049:010 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by the springs of water shall he guide them.

049:011 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.

049:012 Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.

049:013 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

049:014 But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

049:015 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee.

049:016 Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

049:017 Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee.

049:018 Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a bride doeth.

049:019 For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away.

049:020 The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell.

049:021 Then shalt thou say in thine heart, Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been?

049:022 Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.

049:023 And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me.

049:024 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

049:025 But thus saith the LORD, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children.

049:026 And I will feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

050:001 Thus saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

050:002 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

050:003 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

050:004 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

050:005 The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.

050:006 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

050:007 For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

050:008 He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.

050:009 Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

050:010 Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

050:011 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

---

051:001 Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged.

051:002 Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him.

051:003 For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

051:004 Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my judgment to rest for a light of the people.

051:005 My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

051:006 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

051:007 Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

051:008 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

051:009 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

051:010 Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over?

051:011 Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away.

051:012 I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldest be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass;

051:013 And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?

051:014 The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

051:015 But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

051:016 And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

051:017 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

051:018 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up.

051:019 These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee?

051:020 Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

051:021 Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine:

051:022 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

051:023 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

---

052:001 Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

052:002 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

052:003 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

052:004 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

052:005 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed.

052:006 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

052:007 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

052:008 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

052:009 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

052:010 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

052:011 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

052:012 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rereward.

052:013 Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

052:014 As many were astonied at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

052:015 So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

053:001 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

053:002 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

053:003 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

053:004 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

053:005 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

053:006 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

053:007 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

053:008 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

053:009 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

053:010 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

053:011 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

053:012 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

---

054:001 Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

054:002 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

054:003 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

054:004 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

054:005 For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

054:006 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

054:007 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

054:008 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

054:009 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

054:010 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

054:011 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

054:012 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

054:013 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

054:014 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near thee.

054:015 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

054:016 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

054:017 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

055:001 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

055:002 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

055:003 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

055:004 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

055:005 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

055:006 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

055:007 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

055:008 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

055:009 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

055:010 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

055:011 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

055:012 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

055:013 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

056:001 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

056:002 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

056:003 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

056:004 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

056:005 Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

056:006 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

056:007 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

056:008 The Lord GOD, which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside those that are gathered unto him.

056:009 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

056:010 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

056:011 Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

056:012 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

---

057:001 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

057:002 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

057:003 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

057:004 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood.

057:005 Enflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks?

057:006 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

057:007 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

057:008 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

057:009 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

057:010 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

057:011 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

057:012 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

057:013 When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

057:014 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

057:015 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

057:016 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

057:017 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

057:018 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

057:019 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

057:020 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

057:021 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

058:001 Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

058:002 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

058:003 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours.

058:004 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

058:005 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

058:006 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

058:007 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

058:008 Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rereward.

058:009 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;

058:010 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day:

058:011 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

058:012 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

058:013 If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

058:014 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

059:001 Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

059:002 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

059:003 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

059:004 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

059:005 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

059:006 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

059:007 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

059:008 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

059:009 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

059:010 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

059:011 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

059:012 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

059:013 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

059:014 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

059:015 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

059:016 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

059:017 For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak.

059:018 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

059:019 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

059:020 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

059:021 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

---

060:001 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

060:002 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

060:003 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

060:004 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

060:005 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

060:006 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

060:007 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

060:008 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

060:009 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

060:010 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

060:011 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

060:012 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

060:013 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

060:014 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee; The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

060:015 Whereas thou has been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

060:016 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

060:017 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

060:018 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

060:019 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

060:020 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

060:021 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

060:022 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

---

061:001 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

061:002 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;
061:003 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.
061:004 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.
061:005 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.
061:006 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.
061:007 For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.
061:008 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
061:009 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.
061:010 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

061:011 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

062:001 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

062:002 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

062:003 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

062:004 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

062:005 For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

062:006 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, 062:007 And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

062:008 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

062:009 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

062:010 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

062:011 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

062:012 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

---

063:001 Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

063:002 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

063:003 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

063:004 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

063:005 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

063:006 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

063:007 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

063:008 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

063:009 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

063:010 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

063:011 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

063:012 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

063:013 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

063:014 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

063:015 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

063:016 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

063:017 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

063:018 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

063:019 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

---

064:001 Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence, 064:002 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

064:003 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

064:004 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

064:005 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

064:006 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

064:007 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

064:008 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

064:009 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

064:010 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

064:011 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

064:012 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

---

065:001 I am sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name.

065:002 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

065:003 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;

065:004 Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

065:005 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

065:006 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

065:007 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

065:008 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

065:009 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

065:010 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

065:011 But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that number.

065:012 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

065:013 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

065:014 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

065:015 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

065:016 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

065:017 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

065:018 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

065:019 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

065:020 There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

065:021 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

065:022 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

065:023 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

065:024 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

065:025 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

066:001 Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

066:002 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

066:003 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

066:004 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

066:005 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

066:006 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

066:007 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

066:008 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

066:009 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

066:010 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

066:011 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

066:012 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

066:013 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

066:014 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

066:015 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

066:016 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

066:017 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

066:018 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

066:019 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

066:020 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

066:021 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

066:022 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

066:023 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

066:024 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

Book 24

JEREMIAH

001:001 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:

001:002 To whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.

001:003 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.

001:004 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

001:005 Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

001:006 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.

001:007 But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.

001:008 Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

001:009 Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.

001:010 See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

001:011 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.

001:012 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

001:013 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north.

001:014 Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

001:015 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

001:016 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

001:017 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.

001:018 For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

001:019 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

002:001 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

002:002 Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.

002:003 Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

002:004 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

002:005 Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?

002:006 Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed through, and where no man dwelt?

002:007 And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

002:008 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

002:009 Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead.

002:010 For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

002:011 Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit.

002:012 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

002:013 For my people have committed two evils; they have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

002:014 Is Israel a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled?

002:015 The young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant.

002:016 Also the children of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head.

002:017 Hast thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way?

002:018 And now what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river?

002:019 Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

002:020 For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot.

002:021 Yet I had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me?

002:022 For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD.

002:023 How canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways;

002:024 A wild ass used to the wilderness, that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.

002:025 Withhold thy foot from being unshod, and thy throat from thirst: but thou saidst, There is no hope: no; for I have loved strangers, and after them will I go.

002:026 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets.

002:027 Saying to a stock, Thou art my father; and to a stone, Thou hast brought me forth: for they have turned their back unto me, and not their face: but in the time of their trouble they will say, Arise, and save us.

002:028 But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are thy gods, O Judah.

002:029 Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD.

002:030 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

002:031 O generation, see ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will come no more unto thee?

002:032 Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.

002:033 Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways.

002:034 Also in thy skirts is found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these.

002:035 Yet thou sayest, Because I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned.

002:036 Why gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria.

002:037 Yea, thou shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

003:001 They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

003:002 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.

003:003 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.

003:004 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

003:005 Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest.

003:006 The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot.

003:007 And I said after she had done all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it.

003:008 And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

003:009 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks.

003:010 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD.

003:011 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

003:012 Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

003:013 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

003:014 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

003:015 And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.
003:016 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind:
neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more.
003:017 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil heart.
003:018 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.
003:019 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.
003:020 Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.
003:021 A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God.
003:022 Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings.
Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.
003:023 Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.
003:024 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth; their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.

003:025 We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

---

004:001 If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not remove.

004:002 And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.

004:003 For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

004:004 Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

004:005 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

004:006 Set up the standard toward Zion: retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.

004:007 The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant.

004:008 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

004:009 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.

004:010 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

004:011 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 004:012 Even a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I give sentence against them.

004:013 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled.

004:014 O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

004:015 For a voice declareth from Dan, and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim.

004:016 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

004:017 As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

004:018 Thy way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

004:019 My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.

004:020 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

004:021 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?

004:022 For my people is foolish, they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

004:023 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.

004:024 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

004:025 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

004:026 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his fierce anger.

004:027 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end.

004:028 For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

004:029 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

004:030 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

004:031 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

---

005:001 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth; and I will pardon it.

005:002 And though they say, The LORD liveth; surely they swear falsely.

005:003 O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.

005:004 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their God.

005:005 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.

005:006 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.

005:007 How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

005:008 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife.

005:009 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

005:010 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's.

005:011 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

005:012 They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:

005:013 And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

005:014 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.

005:015 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say.

005:016 Their quiver is as an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

005:017 And they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

005:018 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

005:019 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not your's.

005:020 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

005:021 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

005:022 Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

005:023 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

005:024 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

005:025 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

005:026 For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

005:027 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

005:028 They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

005:029 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

005:030 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

005:031 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

006:001 O ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Bethhaccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, and great destruction.
006:002 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a comely and delicate woman.
006:003 The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.
006:004 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.
006:005 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.
006:006 For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.
006:007 As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.
006:008 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land not inhabited.
006:009 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall throughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.
006:010 To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

006:011 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.
006:012 And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.
006:013 For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.
006:014 They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.
006:015 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.
006:016 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein.
006:017 Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.
006:018 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.
006:019 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.
006:020 To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

006:021 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

006:022 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

006:023 They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

006:024 We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and pain, as of a woman in travail.

006:025 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on every side.

006:026 O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

006:027 I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and try their way.

006:028 They are all grievous revolters, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are all corrupters.

006:029 The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked away.

006:030 Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

007:001 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

007:002 Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

007:003 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.

007:004 Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

007:005 For if ye throughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye throughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

007:006 If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

007:007 Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, for ever and ever.

007:008 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.

007:009 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other gods whom ye know not;

007:010 And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations?

007:011 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have seen it, saith the LORD.

007:012 But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

007:013 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not;

007:014 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

007:015 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

007:016 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee.

007:017 Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

007:018 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.

007:019 Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces?

007:020 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

007:021 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh.

007:022 For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:

007:023 But this thing commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you.

007:024 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.

007:025 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:

007:026 Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers.

007:027 Therefore thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

007:028 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

007:029 Cut off thine hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

007:030 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to pollute it.

007:031 And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my heart.

007:032 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

007:033 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them away.

007:034 Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

---

008:001 At that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

008:002 And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

008:003 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

008:004 Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

008:005 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.

008:006 I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse rusheth into the battle.

008:007 Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the judgment of the LORD.

008:008 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain.

008:009 The wise men are ashamed, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them?

008:010 Therefore will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

008:011 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

008:012 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

008:013 I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

008:014 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

008:015 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

008:016 The snorting of his horses was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

008:017 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

008:018 When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me.

008:019 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people because of them that dwell in a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

008:020 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.

008:021 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me.

008:022 Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

009:001 Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!

009:002 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.

009:003 And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD.

009:004 Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with slanders.

009:005 And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves to commit iniquity.

009:006 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.

009:007 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of my people?

009:008 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in heart he layeth his wait.

009:009 Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

009:010 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.

009:011 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant.

009:012 Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?

009:013 And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein;

009:014 But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught them:

009:015 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.

009:016 I will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

009:017 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

009:018 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

009:019 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

009:020 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

009:021 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

009:022 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them.

009:023 Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches:

009:024 But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.

009:025 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them which are circumcised with the uncircumcised;

009:026 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

---

010:001 Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

010:002 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

010:003 For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

010:004 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

010:005 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

010:006 Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

010:007 Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

010:008 But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

010:009 Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men.

010:010 But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

010:011 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

010:012 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

010:013 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

010:014 Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

010:015 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

010:016 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts is his name.

010:017 Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress.

010:018 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so.

010:019 Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is grievous; but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.

010:020 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

010:021 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

010:022 Behold, the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

010:023 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

010:024 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

010:025 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

---

011:001 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD saying,

011:002 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;

011:003 And say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant,

011:004 Which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God:

011:005 That I may perform the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD.

011:006 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.

011:007 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

011:008 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do: but they did them not.

011:009 And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

011:010 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

011:011 Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

011:012 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

011:013 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

011:014 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their trouble.

011:015 What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou rejoicest.

011:016 The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

011:017 For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

011:018 And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

011:019 But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

011:020 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

011:021 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

011:022 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

011:023 And there shall be no remnant of them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

---

012:001 Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously?

012:002 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

012:003 But thou, O LORD, knowest me: thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.

012:004 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

012:005 If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan?

012:006 For even thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee.

012:007 I have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

012:008 Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

012:009 Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour.

012:010 Many pastors have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

012:011 They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.

012:012 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

012:013 They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your revenues because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

012:014 Thus saith the LORD against all mine evil neighbours, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold, I will pluck them out of their land, and pluck out the house of Judah from among them.

012:015 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.

012:016 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built in the midst of my people.

012:017 But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

013:001 Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.

013:002 So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.
013:003 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,
013:004 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock.
013:005 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.
013:006 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.
013:007 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.
013:008 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
013:009 Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.
013:010 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is good for nothing.
013:011 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.
013:012 Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?

013:013 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.

013:014 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them.

013:015 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken.

013:016 Give glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

013:017 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

013:018 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

013:019 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

013:020 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

013:021 What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

013:022 And if thou say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare.

013:023 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.

013:024 Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

013:025 This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.

013:026 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that thy shame may appear.

013:027 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

014:001 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the dearth.

014:002 Judah mourneth, and the gates thereof languish; they are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

014:003 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered their heads.

014:004 Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.

014:005 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there was no grass.

014:006 And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there was no grass.

014:007 O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against thee.

014:008 O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?

014:009 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are called by thy name; leave us not.

014:010 Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

014:011 Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good.

014:012 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.

014:013 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.

014:014 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

014:015 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

014:016 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

014:017 Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

014:018 If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not.

014:019 Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

014:020 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee.

014:021 Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us.

014:022 Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

015:001 Then said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.

015:002 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

015:003 And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

015:004 And I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

015:005 For who shall have pity upon thee, O Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest?

015:006 Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting.

015:007 And I will fan them with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people since they return not from their ways.

015:008 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas: I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a spoiler at noonday: I have caused him to fall upon it suddenly, and terrors upon the city.

015:009 She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD.

015:010 Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me.

015:011 The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.

015:012 Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel?

015:013 Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders.

015:014 And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you.

015:015 O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke.

015:016 Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts.

015:017 I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation.

015:018 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail?

015:019 Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them.

015:020 And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

015:021 And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

---

016:001 The word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,

016:002 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.

016:003 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;

016:004 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

016:005 For thus saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.

016:006 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:

016:007 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.

016:008 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.

016:009 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

016:010 And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God?

016:011 Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;

016:012 And ye have done worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me:

016:013 Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour.

016:014 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

016:015 But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

016:016 Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the rocks.

016:017 For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes.

016:018 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

016:019 O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

016:020 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?

016:021 Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is The LORD.

---

017:001 The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;

017:002 Whilst their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.

017:003 O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

017:004 And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

017:005 Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD.

017:006 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land and not inhabited.

017:007 Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose hope the LORD is.

017:008 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.

017:009 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

017:010 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

017:011 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

017:012 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

017:013 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters.

017:014 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.

017:015 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

017:016 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee.

017:017 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil.

017:018 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

017:019 Thus said the LORD unto me; Go and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

017:020 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

017:021 Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

017:022 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

017:023 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

017:024 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

017:025 Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.

017:026 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

017:027 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

018:001 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, 018:002 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

018:003 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels.

018:004 And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

018:005 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, 018:006 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

018:007 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

018:008 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

018:009 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;

018:010 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

018:011 Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and make your ways and your doings good.

018:012 And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do the imagination of his evil heart.

018:013 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.

018:014 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken?

018:015 Because my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up;

018:016 To make their land desolate, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head.

018:017 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

018:018 Then said they, Come and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

018:019 Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.

018:020 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them.

018:021 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle.

018:022 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.

018:023 Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

---

019:001 Thus saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests;

019:002 And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee,

019:003 And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle.

019:004 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with the blood of innocents;

019:005 They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my mind:

019:006 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter.

019:007 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

019:008 And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.

019:009 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

019:010 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with thee, 019:011 And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury.

019:012 Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants thereof, and even make this city as Tophet:

019:013 And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings unto other gods.

019:014 Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house; and said to all the people, 019:015 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.

---

020:001 Now Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

020:002 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

020:003 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magormissabib.

020:004 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

020:005 Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.

020:006 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

020:007 O LORD, thou hast deceived me, and I was deceived; thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

020:008 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily.

020:009 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

020:010 For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

020:011 But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

020:012 But, O LORD of hosts, that triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.

020:013 Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

020:014 Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

020:015 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

020:016 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the shouting at noontide;

020:017 Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

020:018 Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

021:001 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying, 021:002 Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

021:003 Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

021:004 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city.
021:005 And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.
021:006 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.
021:007 And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.
021:008 And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.
021:009 He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be unto him for a prey.
021:010 For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.
021:011 And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

021:012 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

021:013 Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

021:014 But I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

---

022:001 Thus saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

022:002 And say, Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates:

022:003 Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place.

022:004 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

022:005 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation.

022:006 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.

022:007 And I will prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.

022:008 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

022:009 Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.

022:010 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

022:011 For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

022:012 But he shall die in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

022:013 Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

022:014 That saith, I will build me a wide house and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

022:015 Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do judgment and justice, and then it was well with him?

022:016 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not this to know me? saith the LORD.

022:017 But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.

022:018 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

022:019 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

022:020 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all thy lovers are destroyed.

022:021 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice.

022:022 The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

022:023 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as of a woman in travail!

022:024 As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

022:025 And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

022:026 And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

022:027 But to the land whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return.
022:028 Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not?
022:029 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.
022:030 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

---

023:001 Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD.
023:002 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.
023:003 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase.
023:004 And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.
023:005 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.
023:006 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

023:007 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

023:008 But, The LORD liveth, which brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land.

023:009 Mine heart within me is broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness.

023:010 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right.

023:011 For both prophet and priest are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

023:012 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

023:013 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.

023:014 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness; they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

023:015 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is profaneness gone forth into all the land.

023:016 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.
023:017 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you.
023:018 For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?
023:019 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.
023:020 The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.
023:021 I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.
023:022 But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.
023:023 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off?
023:024 Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.
023:025 I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.
023:026 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their own heart;
023:027 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

023:028 The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.
023:029 Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces?
023:030 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour.
023:031 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.
023:032 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.
023:033 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.
023:034 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house.
023:035 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?
023:036 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.
023:037 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

023:038 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

023:039 Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

023:040 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

---

024:001 The LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

024:002 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.

024:003 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

024:004 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

024:005 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans for their good.

024:006 For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

024:007 And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

024:008 And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

024:009 And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

024:010 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

025:001 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon;

025:002 The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying,

025:003 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.

025:004 And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear.

025:005 They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever:

025:006 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.

025:007 Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt.

025:008 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, 025:009 Behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

025:010 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

025:011 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.

025:012 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations.

025:013 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

025:014 For many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

025:015 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it.

025:016 And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

025:017 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

025:018 To wit, Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day;

025:019 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;

025:020 And all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod,

025:021 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon,

025:022 And all the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea,

025:023 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that are in the utmost corners,

025:024 And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert,

025:025 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes, 025:026 And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.

025:027 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.

025:028 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink.

025:029 For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD of hosts.

025:030 Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.

025:031 A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the LORD.

025:032 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

025:033 And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

025:034 Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant vessel.

025:035 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.

025:036 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD hath spoiled their pasture.

025:037 And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

025:038 He hath forsaken his covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

026:001 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,

026:002 Thus saith the LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word:

026:003 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings.

026:004 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

026:005 To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;

026:006 Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.

026:007 So the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

026:008 Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying,
Thou shalt surely die.

026:009 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

026:010 When the princes of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house.

026:011 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

026:012 Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.

026:013 Therefore now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

026:014 As for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as seemeth good and meet unto you.

026:015 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

026:016 Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God.

026:017 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying,

026:018 Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.

026:019 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus might we procure great evil against our souls.

026:020 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjathjearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah.

026:021 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;

026:022 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt.

026:023 And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

026:024 Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

027:001 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

027:002 Thus saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

027:003 And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

027:004 And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters;

027:005 I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

027:006 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

027:007 And all nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him.

027:008 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

027:009 Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon:

027:010 For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.

027:011 But the nations that bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

027:012 I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.

027:013 Why will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

027:014 Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

027:015 For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

027:016 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you.

027:017 Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste?

027:018 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

027:019 For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that remain in this city.

027:020 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

027:021 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

027:022 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

028:001 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

028:002 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.

028:003 Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon:

028:004 And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

028:005 Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

028:006 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.
028:007 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;
028:008 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.
028:009 The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.
028:010 Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.
028:011 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.
028:012 Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, 028:013 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.
028:014 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.

028:015 Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie.

028:016 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD.

028:017 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

029:001 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

029:002 (After that Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

029:003 By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

029:004 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

029:005 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them;

029:006 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be increased there, and not diminished.

029:007 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.

029:008 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.

029:009 For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

029:010 For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.

029:011 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

029:012 Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you.

029:013 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.

029:014 And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

029:015 Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon;

029:016 Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;

029:017 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

029:018 And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them:

029:019 Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD.

029:020 Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

029:021 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;

029:022 And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;

029:023 Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

029:024 Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying,

029:025 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, 029:026 The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks.

029:027 Now therefore why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you?

029:028 For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

029:029 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

029:030 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

029:031 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie:

029:032 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

030:001 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

030:002 Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book.

030:003 For, lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

030:004 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

030:005 For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.

030:006 Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?

030:007 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble, but he shall be saved out of it.

030:008 For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves of him:

030:009 But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up unto them.

030:010 Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be quiet, and none shall make him afraid.

030:011 For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet I will not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether unpunished.

030:012 For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, and thy wound is grievous.

030:013 There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up:
thou hast no healing medicines.
030:014 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins were increased.
030:015 Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins were increased, I have done these things unto thee.
030:016 Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a prey.
030:017 For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after.
030:018 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof.
030:019 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.
030:020 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them.

030:021 And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD.

030:022 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

030:023 Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

030:024 The fierce anger of the LORD shall not return, until he hath done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

---

031:001 At the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.

031:002 Thus saith the LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.

031:003 The LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee.

031:004 Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry.

031:005 Thou shalt yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things.

031:006 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God.

031:007 For thus saith the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel.

031:008 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company shall return thither.

031:009 They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn.

031:010 Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd doth his flock.

031:011 For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.

031:012 Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.

031:013 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.

031:014 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

031:015 Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rahel weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because they were not.

031:016 Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

031:017 And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again to their own border.

031:018 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be turned; for thou art the LORD my God.

031:019 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.

031:020 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

031:021 Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

031:022 How long wilt thou go about, O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man.

031:023 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness.

031:024 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

031:025 For I have satiated the weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

031:026 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

031:027 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

031:028 And it shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

031:029 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge.

031:030 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

031:031 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

031:032 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:

031:033 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

031:034 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

031:035 Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

031:036 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

031:037 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

031:038 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

031:039 And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

031:040 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

032:001 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

032:002 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

032:003 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;

032:004 And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;

032:005 And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

032:006 And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 032:007 Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

032:008 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

032:009 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.

032:010 And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

032:011 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open:

032:012 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison.
032:013 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,
032:014 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.
032:015 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land.
032:016 Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,
032:017 Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee:
032:018 Thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name,
032:019 Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:
032:020 Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day;
032:021 And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror;

032:022 And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;

032:023 And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them:

032:024 Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it.

032:025 And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

032:026 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

032:027 Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for me?

032:028 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:

032:029 And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke me to anger.

032:030 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, saith the LORD.

032:031 For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face,

032:032 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

032:033 And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.

032:034 But they set their abominations in the house, which is called by my name, to defile it.

032:035 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.

032:036 And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

032:037 Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:

032:038 And they shall be my people, and I will be their God:

032:039 And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:

032:040 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

032:041 Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

032:042 For thus saith the LORD; Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

032:043 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

032:044 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

033:001 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying,

033:002 Thus saith the LORD the maker thereof, the LORD that formed it, to establish it; the LORD is his name;

033:003 Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

033:004 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword;

033:005 They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city.

033:006 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

033:007 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.
033:008 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.
033:009 And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.
033:010 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and without inhabitant, and without beast, 033:011 The voice of joy, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that shall say, Praise the LORD of hosts: for the LORD is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: and of them that shall bring the sacrifice of praise into the house of the LORD. For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.
033:012 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.
033:013 In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.
033:014 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

033:015 In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

033:016 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our righteousness.

033:017 For thus saith the LORD; David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

033:018 Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

033:019 And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying,

033:020 Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season;

033:021 Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.

033:022 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister unto me.

033:023 Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying,

033:024 Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.

033:025 Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

033:026 Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

034:001 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

034:002 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:

034:003 And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon.

034:004 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

034:005 But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

034:006 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, 034:007 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

034:008 This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them;

034:009 That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

034:010 Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them any more, then they obeyed, and let them go.

034:011 But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

034:012 Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

034:013 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying,

034:014 At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear.

034:015 And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:

034:016 But ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

034:017 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

034:018 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof,

034:019 The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which passed between the parts of the calf;

034:020 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth.

034:021 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you.

034:022 Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

035:001 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, 035:002 Go unto the house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.

035:003 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;

035:004 And I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door:

035:005 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine.

035:006 But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever:

035:007 Neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers.

035:008 Thus have we obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters;

035:009 Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:

035:010 But we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.

035:011 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem.

035:012 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying,

035:013 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD.

035:014 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me.

035:015 I have sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

035:016 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but this people hath not hearkened unto me:

035:017 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but they have not answered.

035:018 And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

035:019 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

036:001 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
036:002 Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.
036:003 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.
036:004 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon a roll of a book.
036:005 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:
036:006 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.
036:007 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.
036:008 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.
036:009 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

036:010 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

036:011 When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, 036:012 Then he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

036:013 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.

036:014 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

036:015 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

036:016 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

036:017 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

036:018 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

036:019 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

036:020 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

036:021 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

036:022 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

036:023 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

036:024 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

036:025 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

036:026 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

036:027 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, 036:028 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

036:029 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

036:030 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

036:031 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

036:032 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

---

037:001 And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

037:002 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah.

037:003 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us.

037:004 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

037:005 Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem.

037:006 Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah saying, 037:007 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.

037:008 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire.

037:009 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

037:010 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

037:011 And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 037:012 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people.

037:013 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

037:014 Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.

037:015 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

037:016 When Jeremiah was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

037:017 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

037:018 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

037:019 Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

037:020 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

037:021 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

038:001 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the people, saying,

038:002 Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live.

038:003 Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it.

038:004 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.

038:005 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

038:006 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire.

038:007 Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin;

038:008 Ebedmelech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king saying,

038:009 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city.

038:010 Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

038:011 So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

038:012 And Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

038:013 So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

038:014 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

038:015 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

038:016 So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

038:017 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

038:018 But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

038:019 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.

038:020 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

038:021 But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

038:022 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away back.

038:023 So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

038:024 Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

038:025 But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

038:026 Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.

038:027 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

038:028 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

039:001 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

039:002 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

039:003 And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergalsharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

039:004 And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

039:005 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him.

039:006 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

039:007 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

039:008 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

039:009 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

039:010 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.

039:011 Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, 039:012 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

039:013 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, Rabsaris, and Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

039:014 Even they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.

039:015 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, 039:016 Go and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee.

039:017 But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid.

039:018 For I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

---

040:001 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon.
040:002 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place.
040:003 Now the LORD hath brought it, and done according as he hath said:
because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.
040:004 And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth good and convenient for thee to go, thither go.
040:005 Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, and let him go.
040:006 Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.
040:007 Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;

040:008 Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, they and their men.

040:009 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

040:010 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.

040:011 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan;

040:012 Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.

040:013 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, 040:014 And said unto him, Dost thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.

040:015 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish?

040:016 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

041:001 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.

041:002 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

041:003 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.

041:004 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it, 041:005 That there came certain from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD.

041:006 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

041:007 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

041:008 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbare, and slew them not among their brethren.

041:009 Now the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

041:010 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the Ammonites.

041:011 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, 041:012 Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

041:013 Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.

041:014 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan the son of Kareah.

041:015 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

041:016 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon:

041:017 And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, 041:018 Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

---

042:001 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even unto the greatest, came near,

042:002 And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine eyes do behold us:)

042:003 That the LORD thy God may shew us the way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do.

042:004 Then Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you.

042:005 Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us.

042:006 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

042:007 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah.

042:008 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,

042:009 And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him;

042:010 If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you.

042:011 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.

042:012 And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

042:013 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

042:014 Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

042:015 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;

042:016 Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

042:017 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

042:018 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

042:019 The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day.

042:020 For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

042:021 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you.

042:022 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

043:001 And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

043:002 Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

043:003 But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

043:004 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

043:005 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

043:006 Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah.

043:007 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes.

043:008 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,

043:009 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

043:010 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

043:011 And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

043:012 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

043:013 He shall break also the images of Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

044:001 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying,

044:002 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, 044:003 Because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

044:004 Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

044:005 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods.

044:006 Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.

044:007 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain;

044:008 In that ye provoke me unto wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

044:009 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

044:010 They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

044:011 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

044:012 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.

044:013 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence:

044:014 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

044:015 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

044:016 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee.

044:017 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

044:018 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

044:019 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men?

044:020 Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

044:021 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

044:022 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

044:023 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

044:024 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:

044:025 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

044:026 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth.

044:027 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

044:028 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or their's.

044:029 And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:

044:030 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaohhophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

---

045:001 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,

045:002 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch:

045:003 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.

045:004 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.

045:005 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

---

046:001 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles;

046:002 Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaohnecho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah.

046:003 Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.

046:004 Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines.

046:005 Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD.

046:006 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates.

046:007 Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers?

046:008 Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof.

046:009 Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow.

046:010 For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.

046:011 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured.

046:012 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

046:013 The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

046:014 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

046:015 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

046:016 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

046:017 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

046:018 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

046:019 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

046:020 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

046:021 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

046:022 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

046:023 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

046:024 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.

046:025 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

046:026 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

046:027 But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

046:028 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

047:001 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

047:002 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl.

047:003 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall not look back to their children for feebleness of hands;

047:004 Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor.

047:005 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself?

047:006 O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself into thy scabbard, rest, and be still.

047:007 How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

048:001 Against Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed.

048:002 There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee.

048:003 A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.

048:004 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.

048:005 For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction.

048:006 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.

048:007 For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together.

048:008 And the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken.

048:009 Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein.

048:010 Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood.

048:011 Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed.

048:012 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles.

048:013 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence.

048:014 How say ye, We are mighty and strong men for the war?

048:015 Moab is spoiled, and gone up out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

048:016 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

048:017 All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!

048:018 Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds.

048:019 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done?

048:020 Moab is confounded; for it is broken down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled,

048:021 And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath,

048:022 And upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Bethdiblathaim,

048:023 And upon Kiriathaim, and upon Bethgamul, and upon Bethmeon, 048:024 And upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

048:025 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.

048:026 Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD: Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.

048:027 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy.

048:028 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's mouth.

048:029 We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness of his heart.

048:030 I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be so; his lies shall not so effect it.

048:031 Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the men of Kirheres.

048:032 O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits and upon thy vintage.

048:033 And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab, and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their shouting shall be no shouting.

048:034 From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate.

048:035 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods.

048:036 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kirheres: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

048:037 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

048:038 There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.

048:039 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

048:040 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

048:041 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

048:042 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.

048:043 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD.

048:044 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

048:045 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

048:046 Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

048:047 Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

049:001 Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

049:002 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

049:003 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

049:004 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

049:005 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

049:006 And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD.

049:007 Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

049:008 Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

049:009 If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

049:010 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not.

049:011 Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

049:012 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

049:013 For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.
049:014 I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.
049:015 For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men.
049:016 Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD.
049:017 Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.
049:018 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.
049:019 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?
049:020 Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitations desolate with them.
049:021 The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was heard in the Red sea.

049:022 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

049:023 Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are fainthearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.

049:024 Damascus is waxed feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail.

049:025 How is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy!

049:026 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts.

049:027 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Benhadad.

049:028 Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east.

049:029 Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

049:030 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you.

049:031 Arise, get you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.

049:032 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD.

049:033 And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it.

049:034 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 049:035 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.

049:036 And upon Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.

049:037 For I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them:

049:038 And I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

049:039 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

050:001 The word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet.

050:002 Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

050:003 For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.

050:004 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God.

050:005 They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that shall not be forgotten.

050:006 My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their restingplace.

050:007 All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers.

050:008 Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he goats before the flocks.

050:009 For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty expert man; none shall return in vain.

050:010 And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD.

050:011 Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls;

050:012 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.

050:013 Because of the wrath of the LORD it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.

050:014 Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD.

050:015 Shout against her round about: she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her.

050:016 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.

050:017 Israel is a scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones.

050:018 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.

050:019 And I will bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead.

050:020 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve.

050:021 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee.

050:022 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.

050:023 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!

050:024 I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD.

050:025 The LORD hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans.

050:026 Come against her from the utmost border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left.

050:027 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.

050:028 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple.

050:029 Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel.

050:030 Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD.

050:031 Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord GOD of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee.

050:032 And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all round about him.

050:033 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them go.

050:034 Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall throughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.

050:035 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.

050:036 A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty men; and they shall be dismayed.

050:037 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed.

050:038 A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven images, and they are mad upon their idols.

050:039 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.

050:040 As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein.

050:041 Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.

050:042 They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O daughter of Babylon.

050:043 The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.

050:044 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me?

050:045 Therefore hear ye the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them.

050:046 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

---

051:001 Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind;

051:002 And will send unto Babylon fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.

051:003 Against him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.

051:004 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets.

051:005 For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

051:006 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.

051:007 Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.

051:008 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

051:009 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.

051:010 The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

051:011 Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his temple.

051:012 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

051:013 O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

051:014 The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers; and they shall lift up a shout against thee.

051:015 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

051:016 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

051:017 Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

051:018 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

051:019 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

051:020 Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

051:021 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

051:022 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces the young man and the maid;
051:023 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.
051:024 And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.
051:025 Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain.
051:026 And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.
051:027 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillers.
051:028 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion.
051:029 And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every purpose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant.
051:030 The mighty men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; her bars are broken.

051:031 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end, 051:032 And that the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.
051:033 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come.
051:034 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.
051:035 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.
051:036 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry.
051:037 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant.
051:038 They shall roar together like lions: they shall yell as lions' whelps.
051:039 In their heat I will make their feasts, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD.
051:040 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats.
051:041 How is Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations!

051:042 The sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.

051:043 Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son of man pass thereby.

051:044 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the wall of Babylon shall fall.

051:045 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the LORD.

051:046 And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.

051:047 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.

051:048 Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

051:049 As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

051:050 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.

051:051 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

051:052 Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land the wounded shall groan.

051:053 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

051:054 A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

051:055 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

051:056 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

051:057 And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

051:058 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary.

051:059 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince.

051:060 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon.

051:061 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

051:062 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.

051:063 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

051:064 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

---

052:001 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

052:002 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

052:003 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

052:004 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

052:005 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

052:006 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

052:007 Then the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain.

052:008 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

052:009 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

052:010 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

052:011 Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

052:012 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan, captain of the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

052:013 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

052:014 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

052:015 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

052:016 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen.

052:017 Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.

052:018 The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

052:019 And the basons, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

052:020 The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

052:021 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.

052:022 And a chapiter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapiter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

052:023 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

052:024 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door:

052:025 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

052:026 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.

052:027 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

052:028 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

052:029 In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons:

052:030 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

052:031 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison.

052:032 And spake kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 052:033 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life.

5283.

052:034 And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

LAMENTATIONS

---

001:001 How doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she become tributary!

001:002 She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

001:003 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her between the straits.

001:004 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

001:005 Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

001:006 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

001:007 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her:
the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths.
001:008 Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness:
yea, she sigheth, and turneth backward.
001:009 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end;
therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O
LORD, behold my affliction: for the enemy hath magnified himself.
001:010 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things:
for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation.
001:011 All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile.
001:012 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.
001:013 From above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day.
001:014 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the LORD hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up.

001:015 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the LORD hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress.

001:016 For these things I weep; mine eye, mine eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed.

001:017 Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them.

001:018 The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

001:019 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls.

001:020 Behold, O LORD; for I am in distress: my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death.

001:021 They have heard that I sigh: there is none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me.

001:022 Let all their wickedness come before thee; and do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

002:001 How hath the LORD covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

002:002 The LORD hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

002:003 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

002:004 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

002:005 The LORD was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

002:006 And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

002:007 The LORD hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast.

002:008 The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament; they languished together.

002:009 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find no vision from the LORD.

002:010 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

002:011 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my bowels are troubled, my liver is poured upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people; because the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.

002:012 They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom.

002:013 What thing shall I take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee?

002:014 Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment.

002:015 All that pass by clap their hands at thee; they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

002:016 All thine enemies have opened their mouth against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

002:017 The LORD hath done that which he had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries.

002:018 Their heart cried unto the LORD, O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

002:019 Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour out thine heart like water before the face of the LORD: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street.

002:020 Behold, O LORD, and consider to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?

002:021 The young and the old lie on the ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied.

002:022 Thou hast called as in a solemn day my terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

---

003:001 I AM the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

003:002 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.

003:003 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me all the day.

003:004 My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath broken my bones.

003:005 He hath builded against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.

003:006 He hath set me in dark places, as they that be dead of old.

003:007 He hath hedged me about, that I cannot get out: he hath made my chain heavy.

003:008 Also when I cry and shout, he shutteth out my prayer.

003:009 He hath inclosed my ways with hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked.

003:010 He was unto me as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places.

003:011 He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me desolate.

003:012 He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

003:013 He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my reins.

003:014 I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day.

003:015 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with wormwood.

003:016 He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he hath covered me with ashes.

003:017 And thou hast removed my soul far off from peace: I forgat prosperity.

003:018 And I said, My strength and my hope is perished from the LORD:

003:019 Remembering mine affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

003:020 My soul hath them still in remembrance, and is humbled in me.

003:021 This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope.

003:022 It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not.

003:023 They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

003:024 The LORD is my portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him.

003:025 The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.
003:026 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.
003:027 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke of his youth.
003:028 He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he hath borne it upon him.
003:029 He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so be there may be hope.
003:030 He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth him: he is filled full with reproach.
003:031 For the LORD will not cast off for ever:
003:032 But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion according to the multitude of his mercies.
003:033 For he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.
003:034 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth.
003:035 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High, 003:036 To subvert a man in his cause, the LORD approveth not.
003:037 Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?
003:038 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?
003:039 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?
003:040 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.
003:041 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.
003:042 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.
003:043 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

003:044 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.
003:045 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.
003:046 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.
003:047 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.
003:048 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
003:049 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission.
003:050 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.
003:051 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my city.
003:052 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.
003:053 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.
003:054 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.
003:055 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.
003:056 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.
003:057 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.
003:058 O LORD, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.
003:059 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: judge thou my cause.
003:060 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me.
003:061 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

003:062 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

003:063 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their musick.

003:064 Render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

003:065 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

003:066 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD.

004:001 How is the gold become dim! how is the most fine gold changed! the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every street.

004:002 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

004:003 Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

004:004 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it unto them.

004:005 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

004:006 For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands stayed on her.

004:007 Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was of sapphire:

004:008 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.

004:009 They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the field.

004:010 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

004:011 The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and it hath devoured the foundations thereof.

004:012 The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates of Jerusalem.

004:013 For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her,

004:014 They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their garments.

004:015 They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there.

004:016 The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not the elders.

004:017 As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

004:018 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.

004:019 Our persecutors are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

004:020 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.

004:021 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked.

004:022 The punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

---

005:001 Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

005:002 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

005:003 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

005:004 We have drunken our water for money; our wood is sold unto us.

005:005 Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and have no rest.

005:006 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

005:007 Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

005:008 Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.

005:009 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

005:010 Our skin was black like an oven because of the terrible famine.

005:011 They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

005:012 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of elders were not honoured.

005:013 They took the young men to grind, and the children fell under the wood.

005:014 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick.

005:015 The joy of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning.

005:016 The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned!

005:017 For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim.

005:018 Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it.

005:019 Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy throne from generation to generation.

005:020 Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us so long time?

005:021 Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

005:022 But thou hast utterly rejected us; thou art very wroth against us.

Book 26

EZEKIEL

001:001 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.

001:002 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, 001:003 The word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

001:004 And I looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire.

001:005 Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man.

001:006 And every one had four faces, and every one had four wings.

001:007 And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass.

001:008 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings.

001:009 Their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.

001:010 As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.

001:011 Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.

001:012 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they went.

001:013 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.

001:014 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

001:015 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

001:016 The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel.

001:017 When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went.

001:018 As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four.

001:019 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.

001:020 Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

001:021 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

001:022 And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched forth over their heads above.

001:023 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that side, their bodies.

001:024 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they let down their wings.

001:025 And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their wings.

001:026 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it.

001:027 And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about.

001:028 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake.

002:001 And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee.

002:002 And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me.

002:003 And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day.

002:004 For they are impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD.

002:005 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

002:006 And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

002:007 And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious.

002:008 But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee.

002:009 And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein;

002:010 And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

---

003:001 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel.

003:002 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll.

003:003 And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

003:004 And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them.

003:005 For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel;

003:006 Not to many people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee.

003:007 But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee; for they will not hearken unto me: for all the house of Israel are impudent and hardhearted.

003:008 Behold, I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads.

003:009 As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house.

003:010 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive in thine heart, and hear with thine ears.

003:011 And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.

003:012 Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place.

003:013 I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great rushing.

003:014 So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

003:015 Then I came to them of the captivity at Telabib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days.

003:016 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 003:017 Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.

003:018 When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

003:019 Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

003:020 Again, When a righteous man doth turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die: because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

003:021 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

003:022 And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee.

003:023 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face.

003:024 Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house.

003:025 But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them:

003:026 And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house.

003:027 But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

004:001 Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

004:002 And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about.

004:003 Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

004:004 Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity.

004:005 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

004:006 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.

004:007 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

004:008 And, behold, I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee from one side to another, till thou hast ended the days of thy siege.

004:009 Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentiles, and millet, and fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

004:010 And thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shalt thou eat it.

004:011 Thou shalt drink also water by measure, the sixth part of an hin: from time to time shalt thou drink.

004:012 And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight.

004:013 And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.

004:014 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.

004:015 Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith.

004:016 Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment:

004:017 That they may want bread and water, and be astonied one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

005:001 And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.

005:002 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.

005:003 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy skirts.

005:004 Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

005:005 Thus saith the Lord GOD; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries that are round about her.

005:006 And she hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them.

005:007 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you;

005:008 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

005:009 And I will do in thee that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

005:010 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds.

005:011 Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity.

005:012 A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

005:013 Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

005:014 Moreover I will make thee waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by.

005:015 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it.

005:016 When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread:

005:017 So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave thee: and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

---

006:001 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

006:002 Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them,

006:003 And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.

006:004 And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.

006:005 And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.

006:006 In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished.

006:007 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

006:008 Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.

006:009 And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.

006:010 And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them.

006:011 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.

006:012 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them.

006:013 Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols.

006:014 So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

007:001 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

007:002 Also, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD unto the land of Israel; An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land.

007:003 Now is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations.

007:004 And mine eye shall not spare thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

007:005 Thus saith the Lord GOD; An evil, an only evil, behold, is come.

007:006 An end is come, the end is come: it watcheth for thee; behold, it is come.

007:007 The morning is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains.

007:008 Now will I shortly pour out my fury upon thee, and accomplish mine anger upon thee: and I will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense thee for all thine abominations.

007:009 And mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will recompense thee according to thy ways and thine abominations that are in the midst of thee; and ye shall know that I am the LORD that smiteth.

007:010 Behold the day, behold, it is come: the morning is gone forth; the rod hath blossomed, pride hath budded.

007:011 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness: none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of any of their's: neither shall there be wailing for them.

007:012 The time is come, the day draweth near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn: for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

007:013 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they were yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, which shall not return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.

007:014 They have blown the trumpet, even to make all ready; but none goeth to the battle: for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.

007:015 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword; and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.

007:016 But they that escape of them shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them mourning, every one for his iniquity.

007:017 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.

007:018 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.

007:019 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it is the stumblingblock of their iniquity.

007:020 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their detestable things therein: therefore have I set it far from them.

007:021 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it.

007:022 My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it.

007:023 Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.

007:024 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be defiled.

007:025 Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

007:026 Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the ancients.

007:027 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

008:001 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there upon me.

008:002 Then I beheld, and lo a likeness as the appearance of fire: from the appearance of his loins even downward, fire; and from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as the colour of amber.

008:003 And he put forth the form of an hand, and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy.

008:004 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain.

008:005 Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.

008:006 He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations.

008:007 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold a hole in the wall.

008:008 Then said he unto me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door.

008:009 And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the wicked abominations that they do here.

008:010 So I went in and saw; and behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about.

008:011 And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up.

008:012 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, the LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

008:013 He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

008:014 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

008:015 Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

008:016 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

008:017 Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.

008:018 Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

009:001 He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

009:002 And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar.

009:003 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

009:004 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

009:005 And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

009:006 Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house.

009:007 And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

009:008 And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

009:009 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

009:010 And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head.

009:011 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

010:001 Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

010:002 And he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.

010:003 Now the cherubims stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.

010:004 Then the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

010:005 And the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh.

010:006 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

010:007 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out.

010:008 And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

010:009 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.

010:010 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

010:011 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

010:012 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

010:013 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

010:014 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

010:015 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

010:016 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

010:017 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

010:018 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

010:019 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

010:020 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

010:021 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

010:022 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

---

011:001 Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

011:002 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

011:003 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

011:004 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

011:005 And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

011:006 Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

011:007 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

011:008 Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD.

011:009 And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.

011:010 Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

011:011 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel:

011:012 And ye shall know that I am the LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

011:013 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

011:014 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

011:015 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

011:016 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

011:017 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

011:018 And they shall come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

011:019 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:

011:020 That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

011:021 But as for them whose heart walketh after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD.

011:022 Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

011:023 And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.

011:024 Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.

011:025 Then I spake unto them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

---

012:001 The word of the LORD also came unto me, saying,

012:002 Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they are a rebellious house.

012:003 Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house.

012:004 Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they that go forth into captivity.

012:005 Dig thou through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.

012:006 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.

012:007 And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight.
012:008 And in the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,
012:009 Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto thee, What doest thou?
012:010 Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel that are among them.
012:011 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall remove and go into captivity.
012:012 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, that he see not the ground with his eyes.
012:013 My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.
012:014 And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.
012:015 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries.
012:016 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.
012:017 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

012:018 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness;

012:019 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.

012:020 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

012:021 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

012:022 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth?

012:023 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

012:024 For there shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.

012:025 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

012:026 Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying.

012:027 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

012:028 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

013:001 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

013:002 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

013:003 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

013:004 O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts.

013:005 Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

013:006 They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

013:007 Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

013:008 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.

013:009 And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

013:010 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, and, lo, others daubed it with untempered morter:

013:011 Say unto them which daub it with untempered morter, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.

013:012 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

013:013 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

013:014 So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered morter, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

013:015 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered morter, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;

013:016 To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD.

013:017 Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them,

013:018 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye save the souls alive that come unto you?

013:019 And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

013:020 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

013:021 Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

013:022 Because with lies ye have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life:

013:023 Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

014:001 Then came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.

014:002 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

014:003 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them?

014:004 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;

014:005 That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.

014:006 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.

014:007 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself:

014:008 And I will set my face against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

014:009 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.

014:010 And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;

014:011 That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD.

014:012 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,

014:013 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it:

014:014 Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD.

014:015 If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:

014:016 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate.

014:017 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it:

014:018 Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves.

014:019 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast:

014:020 Though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.

014:021 For thus saith the Lord GOD; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast?

014:022 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.

014:023 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, saith the Lord GOD.

---

015:001 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

015:002 Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

015:003 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

015:004 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is it meet for any work?

015:005 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned?

015:006 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

015:007 And I will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them.

015:008 And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

---

016:001 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

016:002 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

016:003 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem; Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite.

016:004 And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

016:005 None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born.

016:006 And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.

016:007 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

016:008 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine.

016:009 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I throughly washed away thy blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

016:010 I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk.

016:011 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a chain on thy neck.

016:012 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and earrings in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head.

016:013 Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

016:014 And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD.

016:015 But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his it was.

016:016 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.

016:017 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them, 016:018 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

016:019 My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD.

016:020 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, 016:021 That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the fire for them?

016:022 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood.

016:023 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the LORD GOD;)

016:024 That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, and hast made thee an high place in every street.

016:025 Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms.

016:026 Thou hast also committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

016:027 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way.

016:028 Thou hast played the whore also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied.

016:029 Thou hast moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied therewith.

016:030 How weak is thine heart, saith the LORD GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman;

016:031 In that thou buildest thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire;

016:032 But as a wife that committeth adultery, which taketh strangers instead of her husband!

016:033 They give gifts to all whores: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.

016:034 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary.

016:035 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the LORD:

016:036 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy filthiness was poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them;

016:037 Behold, therefore I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness.

016:038 And I will judge thee, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy.

016:039 And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare.

016:040 They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords.

016:041 And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more.

016:042 So will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

016:043 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

016:044 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

016:045 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lothed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

016:046 And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.

016:047 Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

016:048 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

016:049 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

016:050 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.

016:051 Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

016:052 Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

016:053 When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

016:054 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them.

016:055 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

016:056 For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy pride, 016:057 Before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which despise thee round about.

016:058 Thou hast borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

016:059 For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant.

016:060 Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant.

016:061 Then thou shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant.

016:062 And I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD:

016:063 That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD.

017:001 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

017:002 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

017:003 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; A great eagle with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar:

017:004 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

017:005 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.

017:006 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.

017:007 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of her plantation.

017:008 It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.

017:009 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

017:010 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

017:011 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

017:012 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

017:013 And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the land:

017:014 That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

017:015 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper?
shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the covenant, and be delivered?

017:016 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.

017:017 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:

017:018 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall not escape.

017:019 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath broken, even it will
I recompense upon his own head.

017:020 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me.

017:021 And all his fugitives with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it.

017:022 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also take of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent:

017:023 In the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell.

017:024 And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

018:001 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

018:002 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?

018:003 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.

018:004 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die.

018:005 But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right,

018:006 And hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman,

018:007 And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment;

018:008 He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between man and man, 018:009 Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD.

018:010 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things,

018:011 And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife,

018:012 Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination,

018:013 Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him.

018:014 Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like,

018:015 That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbour's wife,

018:016 Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment,

018:017 That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.

018:018 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.

018:019 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.

018:020 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

018:021 But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

018:022 All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live.

018:023 Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live?

018:024 But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he die.

018:025 Yet ye say, The way of the LORD is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

018:026 When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die.

018:027 Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.

018:028 Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

018:029 Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the LORD is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?

018:030 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.

018:031 Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

018:032 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

019:001 Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, 019:002 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

019:003 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

019:004 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

019:005 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.

019:006 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men.

019:007 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

019:008 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

019:009 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

019:010 Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

019:011 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

019:012 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

019:013 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

019:014 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

020:001 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me.

020:002 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

020:003 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

020:004 Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

020:005 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the LORD your God;

020:006 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands:

020:007 Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

020:008 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.

020:009 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

020:010 Wherefore I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.

020:011 And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them.

020:012 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them.
020:013 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.
020:014 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.
020:015 Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;
020:016 Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.
020:017 Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness.
020:018 But I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols:
020:019 I am the LORD your God; walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them;
020:020 And hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God.

020:021 Notwithstanding the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

020:022 Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

020:023 I lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries;

020:024 Because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

020:025 Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

020:026 And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

020:027 Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.

020:028 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings.

020:029 Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name whereof is called Bamah unto this day.

020:030 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

020:031 For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

020:032 And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.

020:033 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:

020:034 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out.

020:035 And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead with you face to face.

020:036 Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD.

020:037 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant:

020:038 And I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

020:039 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more with your gifts, and with your idols.

020:040 For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

020:041 I will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

020:042 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

020:043 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

020:044 And ye shall know that I am the LORD when I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

020:045 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

020:046 Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field;

020:047 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

020:048 And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

020:049 Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

---

021:001 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

021:002 Son of man, set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel,

021:003 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked.

021:004 Seeing then that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:

021:005 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more.

021:006 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes.

021:007 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

021:008 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

021:009 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished:

021:010 It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my son, as every tree.

021:011 And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.

021:012 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: smite therefore upon thy thigh.

021:013 Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD.

021:014 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together. and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, which entereth into their privy chambers.

021:015 I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is wrapped up for the slaughter.

021:016 Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

021:017 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

021:018 The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

021:019 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

021:020 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

021:021 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

021:022 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

021:023 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken.

021:024 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

021:025 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, 021:026 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

021:027 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

021:028 And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering:

021:029 Whiles they see vanity unto thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

021:030 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

021:031 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

021:032 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

---

022:001 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

022:002 Now, thou son of man, wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge the bloody city? yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations.

022:003 Then say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD, The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to defile herself.

022:004 Thou art become guilty in thy blood that thou hast shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the heathen, and a mocking to all countries.

022:005 Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous and much vexed.

022:006 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were in thee to their power to shed blood.

022:007 In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow.

022:008 Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths.

022:009 In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of thee they commit lewdness.

022:010 In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set apart for pollution.

022:011 And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's daughter.

022:012 In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord GOD.

022:013 Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in the midst of thee.

022:014 Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

022:015 And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

022:016 And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

022:017 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

022:018 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver.

022:019 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.

022:020 As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you.

022:021 Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst therof.

022:022 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you.

022:023 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

022:024 Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.

022:025 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof.

022:026 Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.

022:027 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain.

022:028 And her prophets have daubed them with untempered morter, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken.

022:029 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully.

022:030 And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none.

022:031 Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

---

023:001 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

023:002 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:

023:003 And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity.

023:004 And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem Aholibah.

023:005 And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbours, 023:006 Which were clothed with blue, captains and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.

023:007 Thus she committed her whoredoms with them, with all them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted: with all their idols she defiled herself.

023:008 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

023:009 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

023:010 These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among women; for they had executed judgment upon her.

023:011 And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in her whoredoms.
023:012 She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.
023:013 Then I saw that she was defiled, that they took both one way,
023:014 And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion,
023:015 Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:
023:016 And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.
023:017 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.
023:018 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.
023:019 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.
023:020 For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses.
023:021 Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.

023:022 Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side;

023:023 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses.

023:024 And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments.

023:025 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.

023:026 They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels.

023:027 Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

023:028 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated:

023:029 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

023:030 I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.

023:031 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thine hand.

023:032 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

023:033 Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria.

023:034 Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

023:035 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

023:036 The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare unto them their abominations;

023:037 That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

023:038 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.

023:039 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

023:040 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments, 023:041 And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast set mine incense and mine oil.

023:042 And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

023:043 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, and she with them?

023:044 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

023:045 And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.

023:046 For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them to be removed and spoiled.

023:047 And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.

023:048 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

023:049 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

024:001 Again in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 024:002 Son of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

024:003 And utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

024:004 Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

024:005 Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

024:006 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it.

024:007 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust;

024:008 That it might cause fury to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered.

024:009 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great.

024:010 Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

024:011 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

024:012 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

024:013 In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee.

024:014 I the LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD.

024:015 Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 024:016 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down.

024:017 Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men.

024:018 So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.

024:019 And the people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us, that thou doest so?

024:020 Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 024:021 Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword.

024:022 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.

024:023 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one toward another.

024:024 Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

024:025 Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 024:026 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause thee to hear it with thine ears?

024:027 In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

---

025:001 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

025:002 Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

025:003 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

025:004 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

025:005 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couching place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

025:006 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel;

025:007 Behold, therefore I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

025:008 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

025:009 Therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Bethjeshimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim, 025:010 Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations.

025:011 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

025:012 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

025:013 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword.

025:014 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD.

025:015 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred;

025:016 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.

025:017 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

026:001 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

026:002 Son of man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

026:003 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

026:004 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her like the top of a rock.

026:005 It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD: and it shall become a spoil to the nations.

026:006 And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

026:007 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and companies, and much people.

026:008 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler against thee.
026:009 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.
026:010 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.
026:011 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.
026:012 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and thy dust in the midst of the water.
026:013 And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more heard.
026:014 And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.
026:015 Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?
026:016 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.

026:017 And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it!

026:018 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

026:019 For thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee;

026:020 When I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living;

026:021 I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more: though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

---

027:001 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

027:002 Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus;

027:003 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty.

027:004 Thy borders are in the midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.

027:005 They have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.

027:006 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.

027:007 Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee.

027:008 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.

027:009 The ancients of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.

027:010 They of Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.

027:011 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made thy beauty perfect.

027:012 Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

027:013 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy market.

027:014 They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

027:015 The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

027:016 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate.

027:017 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat of Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.

027:018 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

027:019 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

027:020 Dedan was thy merchant in precious clothes for chariots.

027:021 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

027:022 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

027:023 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

027:024 These were thy merchants in all sorts of things, in blue clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

027:025 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the midst of the seas.

027:026 Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the midst of the seas.

027:027 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

027:028 The suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of thy pilots.

027:029 And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

027:030 And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:

027:031 And they shall make themselves utterly bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

027:032 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

027:033 When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

027:034 In the time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

027:035 All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

027:036 The merchants among the people shall hiss at thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more.

028:001 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

028:002 Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

028:003 Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

028:004 With thy wisdom and with thine understanding thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

028:005 By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

028:006 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

028:007 Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

028:008 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

028:009 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

028:010 Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

028:011 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

028:012 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.

028:013 Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou wast created.

028:014 Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.

028:015 Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till iniquity was found in thee.

028:016 By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

028:017 Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

028:018 Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

028:019 All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

028:020 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

028:021 Son of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it,

028:022 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.

028:023 For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

028:024 And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

028:025 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

028:026 And they shall dwell safely therein, and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

---

029:001 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

029:002 Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt:

029:003 Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

029:004 But I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales.

029:005 And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

029:006 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

029:007 When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand.

029:008 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee.

029:009 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

029:010 Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia.

029:011 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

029:012 And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

029:013 Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered:

029:014 And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom.

029:015 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

029:016 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

029:017 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

029:018 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

029:019 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

029:020 I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.

029:021 In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

---

030:001 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

030:002 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Howl ye, Woe worth the day!

030:003 For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen.

030:004 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.

030:005 Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.

030:006 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

030:007 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.

030:008 And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed.

030:009 In that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh.

030:010 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.

030:011 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.

030:012 And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it.

030:013 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.

030:014 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No.

030:015 And I will pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.

030:016 And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.

030:017 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.

030:018 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.

030:019 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

030:020 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

030:021 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make it strong to hold the sword.

030:022 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.

030:023 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

030:024 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

030:025 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

030:026 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

---

031:001 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

031:002 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

031:003 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among the thick boughs.

031:004 The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent her little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

031:005 Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, when he shot forth.

031:006 All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

031:007 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches: for his root was by great waters.

031:008 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chestnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

031:009 I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

031:010 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;

031:011 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

031:012 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.

031:013 Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

031:014 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.

031:015 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

031:016 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth.

031:017 They also went down into hell with him unto them that be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen.

031:018 To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

032:001 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

032:002 Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and fouledst their rivers.

032:003 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my net.

032:004 Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

032:005 And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

032:006 I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

032:007 And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

032:008 All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

032:009 I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

032:010 Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall.

032:011 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

032:012 By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

032:013 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

032:014 Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.

032:015 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD.

032:016 This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

032:017 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 032:018 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

032:019 Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, and be thou laid with the uncircumcised.

032:020 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

032:021 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

032:022 Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

032:023 Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living.

032:024 There is Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

032:025 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

032:026 There is Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

032:027 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.

032:028 Yea, thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword.

032:029 There is Edom, her kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.

032:030 There be the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.

032:031 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.

032:032 For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

---

033:001 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

033:002 Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman:

033:003 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;

033:004 Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.

033:005 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

033:006 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

033:007 So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

033:008 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

033:009 Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul.

033:010 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live?

033:011 Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?

033:012 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

033:013 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

033:014 Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;

033:015 If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.

033:016 None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.

033:017 Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.

033:018 When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby.

033:019 But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.

033:020 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.

033:021 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten.

033:022 Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.

033:023 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

033:024 Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.

033:025 Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?

033:026 Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land?

033:027 Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.

033:028 For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass through.

033:029 Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which they have committed.

033:030 Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh forth from the LORD.

033:031 And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness.

033:032 And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear thy words, but they do them not.

033:033 And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

---

034:001 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

034:002 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

034:003 Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock.

034:004 The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them.

034:005 And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

034:006 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

034:007 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

034:008 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

034:009 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

034:010 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them.

034:011 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

034:012 As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

034:013 And I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

034:014 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

034:015 I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

034:016 I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment.

034:017 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats.

034:018 Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?

034:019 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

034:020 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

034:021 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

034:022 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

034:023 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

034:024 And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

034:025 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.

034:026 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

034:027 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that served themselves of them.

034:028 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

034:029 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame of the heathen any more.

034:030 Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD.

034:031 And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

035:001 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

035:002 Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 035:003 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee most desolate.

035:004 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

035:005 Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end:

035:006 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, even blood shall pursue thee.

035:007 Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth.

035:008 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword.

035:009 I will make thee perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

035:010 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there:

035:011 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee.

035:012 And thou shalt know that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume.

035:013 Thus with your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them.

035:014 Thus saith the Lord GOD; When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate.

035:015 As thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

---

036:001 Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD:

036:002 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, Aha, even the ancient high places are ours in possession:

036:003 Therefore prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people:

036:004 Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about;

036:005 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

036:006 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen:

036:007 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

036:008 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come.

036:009 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye shall be tilled and sown:

036:010 And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded:

036:011 And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

036:012 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men.

036:013 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations:

036:014 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

036:015 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD.

036:016 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

036:017 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings: their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

036:018 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had polluted it:

036:019 And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

036:020 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

036:021 But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

036:022 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

036:023 And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.

036:024 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.

036:025 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.

036:026 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

036:027 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.

036:028 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

036:029 I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you.

036:030 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

036:031 Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

036:032 Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

036:033 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

036:034 And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

036:035 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

036:036 Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

036:037 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock.

036:038 As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

---

037:001 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, 037:002 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

037:003 And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.
037:004 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.
037:005 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:
037:006 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
037:007 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.
037:008 And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.
037:009 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.
037:010 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.
037:011 Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.
037:012 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.
037:013 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 037:014 And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

037:015 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

037:016 Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and for all the house of Israel his companions:

037:017 And join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

037:018 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these?

037:019 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

037:020 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.

037:021 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

037:022 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all.

037:023 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.

037:024 And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.

037:025 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.

037:026 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.

037:027 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

037:028 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

---

038:001 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

038:002 Son of man, set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

038:003 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

038:004 And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

038:005 Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all of them with shield and helmet:

038:006 Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and many people with thee.

038:007 Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

038:008 After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of them.

038:009 Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

038:010 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt think an evil thought:

038:011 And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,

038:012 To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land.

038:013 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

038:014 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?

038:015 And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army:

038:016 And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes.

038:017 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them?

038:018 And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face.

038:019 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;

038:020 So that the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.

038:021 And I will call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

038:022 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

038:023 Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

---

039:001 Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

039:002 And I will turn thee back, and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel:

039:003 And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand.

039:004 Thou shalt fall upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.

039:005 Thou shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

039:006 And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

039:007 So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

039:008 Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken.

039:009 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn them with fire seven years:

039:010 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

039:011 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of Hamongog.

039:012 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land.

039:013 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

039:014 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.

039:015 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamongog.

039:016 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

039:017 And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

039:018 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

039:019 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

039:020 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

039:021 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

039:022 So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God from that day and forward.

039:023 And the heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword.

039:024 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them.

039:025 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;

039:026 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.

039:027 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;

039:028 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.

039:029 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

040:001 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

040:002 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

040:003 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

040:004 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

040:005 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

040:006 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

040:007 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

040:008 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

040:009 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

040:010 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

040:011 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

040:012 The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

040:013 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

040:014 He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

040:015 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits.

040:016 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each post were palm trees.

040:017 Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

040:018 And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

040:019 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

040:020 And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

040:021 And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

040:022 And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

040:023 And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

040:024 After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

040:025 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

040:026 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.

040:027 And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits.

040:028 And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

040:029 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

040:030 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.

040:031 And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps.

040:032 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

040:033 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

040:034 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

040:035 And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

040:036 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

040:037 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

040:038 And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering.

040:039 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering.

040:040 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

040:041 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.

040:042 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

040:043 And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

040:044 And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

040:045 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.

040:046 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to minister unto him.

040:047 So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that was before the house.

040:048 And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.

040:049 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits, and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

041:001 Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.

041:002 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits.

041:003 Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits.

041:004 So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place.

041:005 After he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.

041:006 And the side chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house.

041:007 And there was an enlarging, and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.

041:008 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.

041:009 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within.

041:010 And between the chambers was the wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.

041:011 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.

041:012 Now the building that was before the separate place at the end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.

041:013 So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an hundred cubits long;

041:014 Also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits.

041:015 And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and the porches of the court;

041:016 The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, and the windows were covered;

041:017 To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.

041:018 And it was made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces;

041:019 So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side:
it was made through all the house round about.

041:020 From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the wall of the temple.

041:021 The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance of the other.

041:022 The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto me, This is the table that is before the LORD.

041:023 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.

041:024 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

041:025 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the porch without.

041:026 And there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

---

042:001 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north.

042:002 Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.

042:003 Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in three stories.

042:004 And before the chambers was a walk to ten cubits breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

042:005 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

042:006 For they were in three stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

042:007 And the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

042:008 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits.

042:009 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goeth into them from the utter court.

042:010 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

042:011 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

042:012 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

042:013 Then said he unto me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

042:014 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

042:015 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

042:016 He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

042:017 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

042:018 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

042:019 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

042:020 He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

---

043:001 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh toward the east:

043:002 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many waters: and the earth shined with his glory.

043:003 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

043:004 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

043:005 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

043:006 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

043:007 And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

043:008 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

043:009 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

043:010 Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.

043:011 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

043:012 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

043:013 And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

043:014 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

043:015 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

043:016 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

043:017 And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east.

043:018 And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

043:019 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a sin offering.

043:020 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it.

043:021 Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.

043:022 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

043:023 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

043:024 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

043:025 Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

043:026 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves.

043:027 And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

044:001 Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut.

044:002 Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut.

044:003 It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.

044:004 Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell upon my face.

044:005 And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary.

044:006 And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, 044:007 In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

044:008 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

044:009 Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.

044:010 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity.

044:011 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

044:012 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity.

044:013 And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

044:014 But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

044:015 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD:

044:016 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

044:017 And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

044:018 They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat.

044:019 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments.

044:020 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

044:021 Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.

044:022 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before.

044:023 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.

044:024 And in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

044:025 And they shall come at no dead person to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

044:026 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

044:027 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord GOD.

044:028 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.

044:029 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering: and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

044:030 And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

044:031 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

045:001 Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

045:002 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary five hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof.
045:003 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.
045:004 The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.
045:005 And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers.
045:006 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.
045:007 And a portion shall be for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west border unto the east border.
045:008 In the land shall be his possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes.
045:009 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD.
045:010 Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.

045:011 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.

045:012 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.

045:013 This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley:

045:014 Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer:

045:015 And one lamb out of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD.

045:016 All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel.

045:017 And it shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

045:018 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary:

045:019 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

045:020 And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is simple: so shall ye reconcile the house.

045:021 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

045:022 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering.

045:023 And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

045:024 And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of oil for an ephah.

045:025 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

046:001 Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

046:002 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

046:003 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

046:004 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

046:005 And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

046:006 And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

046:007 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

046:008 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

046:009 But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

046:010 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

046:011 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

046:012 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

046:013 Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning.

046:014 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

046:015 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

046:016 Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

046:017 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

046:018 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

046:019 After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward.

046:020 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people.

046:021 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.

046:022 In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of one measure.

046:023 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

046:024 Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

047:001 Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of the altar.

047:002 Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

047:003 And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the ankles.

047:004 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

047:005 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

047:006 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

047:007 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.

047:008 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

047:009 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.

047:010 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from Engedi even unto Eneglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.

047:011 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt.

047:012 And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

047:013 Thus saith the Lord GOD; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions.

047:014 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance.

047:015 And this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad;

047:016 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazarhatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran.

047:017 And the border from the sea shall be Hazarenan, the border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side.

047:018 And the east side ye shall measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side.

047:019 And the south side southward, from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward.

047:020 The west side also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side.

047:021 So shall ye divide this land unto you according to the tribes of Israel.

047:022 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the country among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.

047:023 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourneth, there shall ye give him his inheritance, saith the Lord GOD.

---

048:001 Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazarenan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; for these are his sides east and west; a portion for Dan.

048:002 And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Asher.

048:003 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali.

048:004 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Manasseh.

048:005 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim.

048:006 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for Reuben.

048:007 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for Judah.

048:008 And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.

048:009 The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thousand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth.

048:010 And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof.

048:011 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.

048:012 And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the border of the Levites.

048:013 And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.

048:014 And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD.

048:015 And the five thousand, that are left in the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

048:016 And these shall be the measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.

048:017 And the suburbs of the city shall be toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.

048:018 And the residue in length over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city.

048:019 And they that serve the city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel.

048:020 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city.

048:021 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.

048:022 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince.

048:023 As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion.

048:024 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion.

048:025 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion.

048:026 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion.

048:027 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

048:028 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea.

048:029 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their portions, saith the Lord GOD.

048:030 And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred measures.

048:031 And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate of Reuben, one gate of Judah, one gate of Levi.

048:032 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan.

048:033 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun.

048:034 At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali.

048:035 It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there.

Book 27

DANIEL

---

001:001 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, and besieged it.

001:002 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.

001:003 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's seed, and of the princes;

001:004 Children in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and the tongue of the Chaldeans.

001:005 And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

001:006 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

001:007 Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego.

001:008 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

001:009 Now God had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

001:010 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

001:011 Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 001:012 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to drink.

001:013 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

001:014 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

001:015 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

001:016 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

001:017 As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.

001:018 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

001:019 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

001:020 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

001:021 And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

002:001 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

002:002 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

002:003 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

002:004 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

002:005 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

002:006 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

002:007 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

002:008 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

002:009 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

002:010 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

002:011 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

002:012 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

002:013 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

002:014 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

002:015 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

002:016 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

002:017 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

002:018 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

002:019 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

002:020 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his:

002:021 And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding:

002:022 He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him.

002:023 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter.

002:024 Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.

002:025 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation.

002:026 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?

002:027 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

002:028 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

002:029 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

002:030 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

002:031 Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

002:032 This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, 002:033 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

002:034 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

002:035 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.

002:036 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

002:037 Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

002:038 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold.

002:039 And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

002:040 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

002:041 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

002:042 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.

002:043 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

002:044 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

002:045 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

002:046 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

002:047 The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

002:048 Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

002:049 Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

003:001 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

003:002 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

003:003 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

003:004 Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

003:005 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:

003:006 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

003:007 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

003:008 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and accused the Jews.

003:009 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, O king, live for ever.

003:010 Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

003:011 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

003:012 There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

003:013 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king.

003:014 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

003:015 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

003:016 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

003:017 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

003:018 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

003:019 Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

003:020 And he commanded the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

003:021 Then these men were bound in their coats, their hosen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

003:022 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flames of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

003:023 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

003:024 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

003:025 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

003:026 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

003:027 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

003:028 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

003:029 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

003:030 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, in the province of Babylon.

004:001 Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

004:002 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

004:003 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

004:004 I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

004:005 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

004:006 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

004:007 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

004:008 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my God, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying,

004:009 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

004:010 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

004:011 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

004:012 The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

004:013 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven;

004:014 He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

004:015 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

004:016 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

004:017 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

004:018 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

004:019 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

004:020 The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth;

004:021 Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation:

004:022 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

004:023 And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;

004:024 This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the king:

004:025 That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

004:026 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

004:027 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

004:028 All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.

004:029 At the end of twelve months he walked in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.

004:030 The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

004:031 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

004:032 And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

004:033 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

004:034 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

004:035 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?

004:036 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

004:037 Now I Nebuchadnezzar praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

005:001 Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

005:002 Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

005:003 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

005:004 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

005:005 In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

005:006 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

005:007 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

005:008 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

005:009 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

005:010 Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

005:011 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

005:012 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

005:013 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?

005:014 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

005:015 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

005:016 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

005:017 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

005:018 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

005:019 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

005:020 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

005:021 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

005:022 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

005:023 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

005:024 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

005:025 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

005:026 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

005:027 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

005:028 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

005:029 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

005:030 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

005:031 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

---

006:001 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

006:002 And over these three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

006:003 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

006:004 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

006:005 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

006:006 Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever.

006:007 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

006:008 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

006:009 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree.

006:010 Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

006:011 Then these men assembled, and found Daniel praying and making supplication before his God.

006:012 Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which altereth not.

006:013 Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

006:014 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

006:015 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

006:016 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

006:017 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel.

006:018 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting:
neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him.

006:019 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

006:020 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

006:021 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

006:022 My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

006:023 Then was the king exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

006:024 And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

006:025 Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

006:026 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

006:027 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

006:028 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

007:001 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

007:002 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

007:003 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

007:004 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

007:005 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

007:006 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

007:007 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.

007:008 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

007:009 I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

007:010 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

007:011 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

007:012 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

007:013 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

007:014 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

007:015 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

007:016 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

007:017 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

007:018 But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

007:019 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;
007:020 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.
007:021 I beheld, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;
007:022 Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.
007:023 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.
007:024 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.
007:025 And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.
007:026 But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.
007:027 And the kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

007:028 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

---

008:001 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

008:002 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai.

008:003 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

008:004 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

008:005 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.

008:006 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.

008:007 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

008:008 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

008:009 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

008:010 And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

008:011 Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of the sanctuary was cast down.

008:012 And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

008:013 Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

008:014 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

008:015 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man.

008:016 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision.

008:017 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision.

008:018 Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright.

008:019 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be.

008:020 The ram which thou sawest having two horns are the kings of Media and Persia.

008:021 And the rough goat is the king of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.

008:022 Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

008:023 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

008:024 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

008:025 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

008:026 And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.

008:027 And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

009:001 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, which was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans;

009:002 In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem.

009:003 And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

009:004 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

009:005 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

009:006 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

009:007 O LORD, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

009:008 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

009:009 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

009:010 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

009:011 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

009:012 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

009:013 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

009:014 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

009:015 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

009:016 O LORD, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

009:017 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

009:018 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

009:019 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

009:020 And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

009:021 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

009:022 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding.

009:023 At the beginning of thy supplications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

009:024 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

009:025 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

009:026 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

009:027 And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

---

010:001 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

010:002 In those days I Daniel was mourning three full weeks.

010:003 I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

010:004 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

010:005 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

010:006 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

010:007 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

010:008 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

010:009 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.

010:010 And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

010:011 And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

010:012 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

010:013 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

010:014 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

010:015 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

010:016 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

010:017 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

010:018 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 010:019 And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

010:020 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.

010:021 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

---

011:001 Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

011:002 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia.

011:003 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.

011:004 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

011:005 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

011:006 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

011:007 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

011:008 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

011:009 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

011:010 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

011:011 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

011:012 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

011:013 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

011:014 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall.

011:015 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

011:016 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

011:017 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

011:018 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

011:019 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

011:020 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

011:021 And in his estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

011:022 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant.

011:023 And after the league made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

011:024 He shall enter peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

011:025 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

011:026 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain.

011:027 And both of these kings' hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

011:028 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land.

011:029 At the time appointed he shall return, and come toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter.

011:030 For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant.

011:031 And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.

011:032 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

011:033 And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many days.

011:034 Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries.

011:035 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

011:036 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

011:037 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

011:038 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

011:039 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

011:040 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

011:041 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

011:042 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

011:043 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

011:044 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

011:045 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

012:001 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

012:002 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

012:003 And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.

012:004 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

012:005 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

012:006 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

012:007 And I heard the man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

012:008 And I heard, but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things?

012:009 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

012:010 Many shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.

012:011 And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.

012:012 Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.

012:013 But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

Book 28

HOSEA

001:001 The word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

001:002 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

001:003 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

001:004 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

001:005 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel, in the valley of Jezreel.

001:006 And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Loruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.

001:007 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

001:008 Now when she had weaned Loruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

001:009 Then said God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

001:010 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

001:011 Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

002:001 Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

002:002 Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

002:003 Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.

002:004 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

002:005 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

002:006 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

002:007 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

002:008 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal.

002:009 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

002:010 And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

002:011 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

002:012 And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

002:013 And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD.

002:014 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her.

002:015 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

002:016 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.

002:017 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

002:018 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

002:019 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

002:020 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD.

002:021 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

002:022 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.

002:023 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

---

003:001 Then said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love flagons of wine.

003:002 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley:

003:003 And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

003:004 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim:

003:005 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

---

004:001 Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

004:002 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood.

004:003 Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

004:004 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

004:005 Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

004:006 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

004:007 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

004:008 They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

004:009 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

004:010 For they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

004:011 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the heart.

004:012 My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

004:013 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

004:014 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

004:015 Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Bethaven, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

004:016 For Israel slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

004:017 Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

004:018 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

004:019 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

---

005:001 Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.

005:002 And the revolters are profound to make slaughter, though I have been a rebuker of them all.

005:003 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

005:004 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

005:005 And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity: Judah also shall fall with them.

005:006 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

005:007 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

005:008 Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Bethaven, after thee, O Benjamin.

005:009 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

005:010 The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

005:011 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

005:012 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.

005:013 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

005:014 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

005:015 I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

---

006:001 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

006:002 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

006:003 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

006:004 O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

006:005 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

006:006 For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

006:007 But they like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

006:008 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood.

006:009 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

006:010 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

006:011 Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

---

007:001 When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

007:002 And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

007:003 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

007:004 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

007:005 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

007:006 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

007:007 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me.

007:008 Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

007:009 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

007:010 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

007:011 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

007:012 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

007:013 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

007:014 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

007:015 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

007:016 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

---

008:001 Set the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

008:002 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

008:003 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

008:004 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

008:005 Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

008:006 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

008:007 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk; the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

008:008 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

008:009 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers.

008:010 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

008:011 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

008:012 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

008:013 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

008:014 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

009:001 Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor.

009:002 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

009:003 They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria.

009:004 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

009:005 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

009:006 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

009:007 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

009:008 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

009:009 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

009:010 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baalpeor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

009:011 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

009:012 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

009:013 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

009:014 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
009:015 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.
009:016 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit:
yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.
009:017 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

---

010:001 Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself:
according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars;
according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.
010:002 Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.
010:003 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?
010:004 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant:
thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.
010:005 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Bethaven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.
010:006 It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb:
Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.
010:007 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

010:008 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

010:009 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

010:010 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

010:011 And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

010:012 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

010:013 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

010:014 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Betharbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

010:015 So shall Bethel do unto you because of your great wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

---

011:001 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

011:002 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

011:003 I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

011:004 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

011:005 He shall not return into the land of Egypt, and the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

011:006 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

011:007 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him.

011:008 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

011:009 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

011:010 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.

011:011 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

011:012 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

012:001 Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

012:002 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

012:003 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God:

012:004 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in Bethel, and there he spake with us;

012:005 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.

012:006 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment and wait on thy God continually.

012:007 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress.

012:008 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

012:009 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

012:010 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

012:011 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

012:012 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

012:013 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

012:014 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his LORD return unto him.

013:001 When Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.

013:002 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

013:003 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

013:004 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

013:005 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

013:006 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

013:007 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them:

013:008 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

013:009 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.

013:010 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes?

013:011 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

013:012 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.

013:013 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

013:014 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

013:015 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

013:016 Samaria shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

014:001 O israel, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

014:002 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips.

014:003 Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.

014:004 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him.

014:005 I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall grow as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.

014:006 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive tree, and his smell as Lebanon.

014:007 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the corn, and grow as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.

014:008 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I am like a green fir tree. From me is thy fruit found.

014:009 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for the ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

Book 29

JOEL

001:001 The word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

001:002 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

001:003 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

001:004 That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpiller eaten.

001:005 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

001:006 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

001:007 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

001:008 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

001:009 The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

001:010 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

001:011 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

001:012 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

001:013 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

001:014 Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, 001:015 Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

001:016 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

001:017 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

001:018 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

001:019 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

001:020 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

002:001 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

002:002 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

002:003 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

002:004 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

002:005 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

002:006 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.

002:007 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

002:008 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

002:009 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

002:010 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

002:011 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?

002:012 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

002:013 And rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

002:014 Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

002:015 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

002:016 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

002:017 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

002:018 Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

002:019 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen:

002:020 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

002:021 Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

002:022 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

002:023 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

002:024 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

002:025 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

002:026 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

002:027 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

002:028 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

002:029 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

002:030 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

002:031 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come.

002:032 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

---

003:001 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

003:002 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

003:003 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

003:004 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;

003:005 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

003:006 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

003:007 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

003:008 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

003:009 Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up:
003:010 Beat your plowshares into swords and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.
003:011 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.
003:012 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.
003:013 Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.
003:014 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
003:015 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.
003:016 The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel.
003:017 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.
003:018 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth out of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim.
003:019 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

003:020 But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

003:021 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS

---

001:001 The words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.

001:002 And he said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.

001:003 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:

001:004 But I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, which shall devour the palaces of Benhadad.

001:005 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

001:006 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to Edom:

001:007 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

001:008 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

001:009 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

001:010 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

001:011 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:

001:012 But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.

001:013 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border:

001:014 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind:

001:015 And their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, saith the LORD.

002:001 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:

002:002 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kirioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

002:003 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

002:004 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

002:005 But I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.

002:006 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

002:007 That pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name:

002:008 And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god.

002:009 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

002:010 Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

002:011 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

002:012 But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not.

002:013 Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves.

002:014 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

002:015 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

002:016 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

---

003:001 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, 003:002 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities.

003:003 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

003:004 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

003:005 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

003:006 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

003:007 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

003:008 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy?

003:009 Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof.

003:010 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.

003:011 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

003:012 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch.

003:013 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 003:014 That in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Bethel: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

003:015 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

004:001 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

004:002 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

004:003 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

004:004 Come to Bethel, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:

004:005 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

004:006 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

004:007 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

004:008 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

004:009 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

004:010 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

004:011 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

004:012 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

004:013 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

---

005:001 Hear ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

005:002 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

005:003 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

005:004 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live:

005:005 But seek not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beersheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to nought.

005:006 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel.

005:007 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

005:008 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

005:009 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

005:010 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

005:011 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

005:012 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

005:013 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

005:014 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

005:015 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

005:016 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the LORD, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

005:017 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

005:018 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

005:019 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

005:020 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

005:021 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

005:022 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

005:023 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

005:024 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

005:025 Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

005:026 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

005:027 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

006:001 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

006:002 Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

006:003 Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;

006:004 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

006:005 That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David;

006:006 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.

006:007 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

006:008 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

006:009 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

006:010 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

006:011 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.

006:012 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

006:013 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

006:014 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hemath unto the river of the wilderness.

007:001 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

007:002 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

007:003 The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

007:004 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

007:005 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

007:006 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

007:007 Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the LORD stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

007:008 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the LORD, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more:

007:009 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

007:010 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

007:011 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

007:012 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

007:013 But prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

007:014 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit:

007:015 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

007:016 Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac.

007:017 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

---

008:001 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

008:002 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

008:003 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

008:004 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail, 008:005 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

008:006 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

008:007 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

008:008 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

008:009 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

008:010 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

008:011 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

008:012 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

008:013 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.

008:014 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

---

009:001 I saw the LORD standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

009:002 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

009:003 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

009:004 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

009:005 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.

009:006 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name.

009:007 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?

009:008 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

009:009 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

009:010 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.

009:011 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

009:012 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

009:013 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

009:014 And I will bring again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

009:015 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

OBADIAH

001:001 The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

001:002 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

001:003 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

001:004 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

001:005 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

001:006 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

001:007 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; that they eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

001:008 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

001:009 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

001:010 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

001:011 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

001:012 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

001:013 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

001:014 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

001:015 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

001:016 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

001:017 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

001:018 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.

001:019 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

001:020 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

001:021 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

JONAH

001:001 Now the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

001:002 Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

001:003 But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

001:004 But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

001:005 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

001:006 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

001:007 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

001:008 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

001:009 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

001:010 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him. Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

001:011 Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous.

001:012 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

001:013 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

001:014 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

001:015 So they look up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging.

001:016 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

001:017 Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

---

002:001 Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, 002:002 And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

002:003 For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

002:004 Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

002:005 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

002:006 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God.

002:007 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

002:008 They that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

002:009 But I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD.

002:010 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

---

003:001 And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

003:002 Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

003:003 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceeding great city of three days' journey.

003:004 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

003:005 So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

003:006 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

003:007 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

003:008 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

003:009 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

003:010 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

004:001 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

004:002 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

004:003 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

004:004 Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

004:005 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

004:006 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

004:007 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

004:008 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

004:009 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

004:010 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

004:011 And should not I spare Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more then sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?

MICAH

---

001:001 The word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

001:002 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the LORD from his holy temple.

001:003 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

001:004 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

001:005 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

001:006 Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

001:007 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

001:008 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls.

001:009 For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.

001:010 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.

001:011 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Bethezel; he shall receive of you his standing.

001:012 For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

001:013 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

001:014 Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moreshethgath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

001:015 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel.

001:016 Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

002:001 Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

002:002 And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

002:003 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

002:004 In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields.

002:005 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

002:006 Prophesy ye not, say they to them that prophesy: they shall not prophesy to them, that they shall not take shame.

002:007 O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?

002:008 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

002:009 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

002:010 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

002:011 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

002:012 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

002:013 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

---

003:001 And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment?

003:002 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

003:003 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

003:004 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

003:005 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

003:006 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

003:007 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

003:008 But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

003:009 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

003:010 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.

003:011 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us.

003:012 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

004:001 But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

004:002 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

004:003 And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

004:004 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

004:005 For all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

004:006 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

004:007 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

004:008 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

004:009 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

004:010 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

004:011 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.

004:012 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

004:013 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

005:001 Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

005:002 But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

005:003 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

005:004 And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

005:005 And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.

005:006 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

005:007 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

005:008 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

005:009 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

005:010 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

005:011 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

005:012 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have no more soothsayers:

005:013 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

005:014 And I will pluck up thy groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

005:015 And I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

---

006:001 Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

006:002 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

006:003 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

006:004 For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

006:005 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

006:006 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?

006:007 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

006:008 He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

006:009 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

006:010 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

006:011 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

006:012 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

006:013 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

006:014 Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

006:015 Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

006:016 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear the reproach of my people.

---

007:001 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

007:002 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

007:003 That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

007:004 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

007:005 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

007:006 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

007:007 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

007:008 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

007:009 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

007:010 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

007:011 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

007:012 In that day also he shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

007:013 Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

007:014 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, which dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

007:015 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things.

007:016 The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

007:017 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

007:018 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

007:019 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.
007:020 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM

---

001:001 The burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

001:002 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

001:003 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

001:004 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.

001:005 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.

001:006 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

001:007 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

001:008 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

001:009 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

001:010 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

001:011 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

001:012 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

001:013 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

001:014 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

001:015 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

002:001 He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

002:002 For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

002:003 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

002:004 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall justle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

002:005 He shall recount his worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

002:006 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

002:007 And Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

002:008 But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

002:009 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is none end of the store and glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

002:010 She is empty, and void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them all gather blackness.

002:011 Where is the dwelling of the lions, and the feedingplace of the young lions, where the lion, even the old lion, walked, and the lion's whelp, and none made them afraid?

002:012 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his holes with prey, and his dens with ravin.

002:013 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

003:001 Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

003:002 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

003:003 The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

003:004 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

003:005 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

003:006 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as a gazingstock.

003:007 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

003:008 Art thou better than populous No, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

003:009 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were thy helpers.

003:010 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

003:011 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

003:012 All thy strong holds shall be like fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

003:013 Behold, thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

003:014 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the morter, make strong the brickkiln.

003:015 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.

003:016 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoileth, and fleeth away.

003:017 Thy crowned are as the locusts, and thy captains as the great grasshoppers, which camp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun ariseth they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.

003:018 Thy shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria: thy nobles shall dwell in the dust: thy people is scattered upon the mountains, and no man gathereth them.

003:019 There is no healing of thy bruise; thy wound is grievous: all that hear the bruit of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

HABAKKUK

---

001:001 The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.

001:002 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

001:003 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

001:004 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

001:005 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvelously: for I will work a work in your days which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

001:006 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not their's.

001:007 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

001:008 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

001:009 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

001:010 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

001:011 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

001:012 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

001:013 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

001:014 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

001:015 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

001:016 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

001:017 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

002:001 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

002:002 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

002:003 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

002:004 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith.

002:005 Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

002:006 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

002:007 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

002:008 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

002:009 Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

002:010 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

002:011 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

002:012 Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

002:013 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

002:014 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

002:015 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

002:016 Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

002:017 For the violence of Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, which made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

002:018 What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and a teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

002:019 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

002:020 But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

---

003:001 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.

003:002 O LORD, I have heard thy speech, and was afraid: O LORD, revive thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in wrath remember mercy.

003:003 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

003:004 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

003:005 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

003:006 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

003:007 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

003:008 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and thy chariots of salvation?

003:009 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

003:010 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

003:011 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

003:012 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

003:013 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

003:014 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

003:015 Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

003:016 When I heard, my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice:
rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

003:017 Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

003:018 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will joy in the God of my salvation.

003:019 The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet, and he will make me to walk upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH

---

001:001 The word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

001:002 I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD.

001:003 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked: and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

001:004 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarims with the priests;

001:005 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham;

001:006 And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor enquired for him.

001:007 Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

001:008 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

001:009 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.
001:010 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from the hills.
001:011 Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off.
001:012 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.
001:013 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.
001:014 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.
001:015 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,
001:016 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.
001:017 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.
001:018 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

002:001 Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not desired;

002:002 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD's anger come upon you.

002:003 Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD's anger.

002:004 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

002:005 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

002:006 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

002:007 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

002:008 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

002:009 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

002:010 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

002:011 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

002:012 Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

002:013 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

002:014 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds; for he shall uncover the cedar work.

002:015 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

---

003:001 Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!

003:002 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

003:003 Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

003:004 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

003:005 The just LORD is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.

003:006 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant.

003:007 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose early, and corrupted all their doings.

003:008 Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

003:009 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

003:010 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering.

003:011 In that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain.

003:012 I will also leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD.

003:013 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid.

003:014 Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.

003:015 The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more.

003:016 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack.

003:017 The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing.

003:018 I will gather them that are sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden.

003:019 Behold, at that time I will undo all that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame.

003:020 At that time will I bring you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI

001:001 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, saying, 001:002 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

001:003 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, 001:004 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste?

001:005 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

001:006 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it into a bag with holes.

001:007 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

001:008 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

001:009 Ye looked for much, and, lo it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

001:010 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

001:011 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

001:012 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

001:013 Then spake Haggai the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

001:014 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 001:015 In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

002:001 In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying,

002:002 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

002:003 Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

002:004 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

002:005 According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

002:006 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

002:007 And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

002:008 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

002:009 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

002:010 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

002:011 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, 002:012 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

002:013 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

002:014 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

002:015 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:
002:016 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.
002:017 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.
002:018 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it.
002:019 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.
002:020 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying, 002:021 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;
002:022 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.
002:023 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

Book 38

ZECHARIAH

---

001:001 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, 001:002 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.

001:003 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

001:004 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

001:005 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

001:006 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

001:007 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

001:008 I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white.

001:009 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

001:010 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

001:011 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

001:012 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these threescore and ten years?

001:013 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words.

001:014 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

001:015 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

001:016 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

001:017 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

001:018 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

001:019 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

001:020 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

001:021 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

002:001 I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand.

002:002 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

002:003 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

002:004 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

002:005 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

002:006 Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

002:007 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.

002:008 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

002:009 For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

002:010 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

002:011 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

002:012 And the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again.

002:013 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

---

003:001 And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.

003:002 And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

003:003 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

003:004 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

003:005 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

003:006 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

003:007 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

003:008 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH.

003:009 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

003:010 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

004:001 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep.

004:002 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

004:003 And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.

004:004 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

004:005 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

004:006 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

004:007 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

004:008 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

004:009 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

004:010 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

004:011 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

004:012 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

004:013 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

004:014 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the LORD of the whole earth.

005:001 Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

005:002 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

005:003 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

005:004 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

005:005 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

005:006 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

005:007 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

005:008 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

005:009 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

005:010 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

005:011 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

006:001 And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

006:002 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

006:003 And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses.

006:004 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

006:005 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the LORD of all the earth.

006:006 The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

006:007 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

006:008 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.

006:009 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

006:010 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah;

006:011 Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest;

006:012 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD:

006:013 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

006:014 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD.

006:015 And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

---

007:001 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chisleu;

007:002 When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezer and Regemmelech, and their men, to pray before the LORD, 007:003 And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

007:004 Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

007:005 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

007:006 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

007:007 Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

007:008 And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

007:009 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

007:010 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

007:011 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

007:012 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

007:013 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

007:014 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

---

008:001 Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

008:002 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

008:003 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain.

008:004 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

008:005 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

008:006 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

008:007 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

008:008 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

008:009 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

008:010 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

008:011 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

008:012 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

008:013 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

008:014 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

008:015 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

008:016 These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

008:017 And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

008:018 And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying,

008:019 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

008:020 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities:

008:021 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

008:022 Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

008:023 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

009:001 The burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

009:002 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise.

009:003 And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

009:004 Behold, the LORD will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

009:005 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

009:006 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

009:007 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.

009:008 And I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

009:009 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

009:010 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

009:011 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

009:012 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

009:013 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

009:014 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the LORD God shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

009:015 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

009:016 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

009:017 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! corn shall make the young men cheerful, and new wine the maids.

010:001 Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

010:002 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

010:003 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

010:004 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

010:005 And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

010:006 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

010:007 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

010:008 I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

010:009 And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

010:010 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them.

010:011 And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

010:012 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

---

011:001 Open thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

011:002 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

011:003 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

011:004 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

011:005 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

011:006 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

011:007 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

011:008 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me.
011:009 Then said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.
011:010 And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.
011:011 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.
011:012 And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.
011:013 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.
011:014 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
011:015 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.
011:016 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.
011:017 Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

012:001 The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

012:002 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

012:003 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

012:004 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

012:005 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

012:006 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

012:007 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

012:008 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

012:009 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

012:010 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

012:011 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

012:012 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

012:013 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

012:014 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

013:001 In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

013:002 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

013:003 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

013:004 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:

013:005 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

013:006 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

013:007 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

013:008 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

013:009 And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

014:001 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

014:002 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

014:003 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

014:004 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

014:005 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

014:006 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

014:007 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.

014:008 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

014:009 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

014:010 All the land shall be turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.

014:011 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction; but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.

014:012 And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

014:013 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

014:014 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

014:015 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the ass, and of all the beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

014:016 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem shall even go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.

014:017 And it shall be, that whoso will not come up of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

014:018 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that have no rain; there shall be the plague, wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

014:019 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

014:020 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

014:021 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

2 TIMOTHY

---

001:001 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, 001:002 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

001:003 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

001:004 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

001:005 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

001:006 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

001:007 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

001:008 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

001:009 Who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,

001:010 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

001:011 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

001:012 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

001:013 Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

001:014 That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

001:015 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

001:016 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

001:017 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

001:018 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

002:001 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

002:002 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

002:003 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

002:004 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

002:005 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

002:006 The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

002:007 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

002:008 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

002:009 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

002:010 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

002:011 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

002:012 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:

002:013 If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

002:014 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

002:015 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

002:016 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

002:017 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;

002:018 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

002:019 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

002:020 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

002:021 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.

002:022 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

002:023 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

002:024 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,

002:025 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;

002:026 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

---

003:001 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

003:002 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 003:003 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
003:004 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;
003:005 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.
003:006 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, 003:007 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
003:008 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
003:009 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as their's also was.
003:010 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,
003:011 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.
003:012 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.
003:013 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.
003:014 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

003:015 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

003:016 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

003:017 That the man of God may be perfect, throughly furnished unto all good works.

---

004:001 I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

004:002 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

004:003 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

004:004 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

004:005 But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

004:006 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

004:007 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

004:008 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

004:009 Do thy diligence to come shortly unto me:

004:010 For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.

004:011 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.

004:012 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.

004:013 The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.

004:014 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:

004:015 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

004:016 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

004:017 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

004:018 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

004:019 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.

004:020 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.

004:021 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

004:022 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

TITUS

---

001:001 Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

001:002 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

001:003 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

001:004 To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

001:005 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

001:006 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

001:007 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

001:008 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

001:009 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

001:010 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

001:011 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

001:012 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

001:013 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

001:014 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

001:015 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

001:016 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

002:001 But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

002:002 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

002:003 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

002:004 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

002:005 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

002:006 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

002:007 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, 002:008 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

002:009 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

002:010 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

002:011 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

002:012 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

002:013 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;

002:014 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

002:015 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

003:001 Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

003:002 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

003:003 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

003:004 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

003:005 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

003:006 Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

003:007 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

003:008 This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.

003:009 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

003:010 A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition reject;

003:011 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of himself.

003:012 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

003:013 Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them.

003:014 And let our's also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not unfruitful.

003:015 All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

PHILEMON

---

001:001 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer, 001:002 And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the church in thy house:
001:003 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
001:004 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,
001:005 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;
001:006 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.
001:007 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.
001:008 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient,
001:009 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.
001:010 I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:

001:011 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

001:012 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

001:013 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel:

001:014 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

001:015 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;

001:016 Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

001:017 If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.

001:018 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

001:019 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

001:020 Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

001:021 Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

001:022 But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you.

001:023 There salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus;

001:024 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers.

001:025 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

HEBREWS

001:001 God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

001:002 Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

001:003 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high:

001:004 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

001:005 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

001:006 And again, when he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

001:007 And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

001:008 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

001:009 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

001:010 And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

001:011 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

001:012 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

001:013 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

001:014 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

002:001 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

002:002 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

002:003 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

002:004 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

002:005 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

002:006 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man that thou visitest him?

002:007 Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

002:008 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

002:009 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

002:010 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

002:011 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 002:012 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

002:013 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

002:014 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

002:015 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

002:016 For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

002:017 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

002:018 For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

---

003:001 Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;
003:002 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.
003:003 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.
003:004 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.
003:005 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
003:006 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.
003:007 Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice, 003:008 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
003:009 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
003:010 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
003:011 So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)
003:012 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

003:013 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

003:014 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

003:015 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

003:016 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

003:017 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness?

003:018 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

003:019 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

004:001 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

004:002 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

004:003 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

004:004 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

004:005 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

004:006 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

004:007 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

004:008 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

004:009 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

004:010 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

004:011 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

004:012 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

004:013 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

004:014 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

004:015 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.

004:016 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

005:001 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

005:002 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

005:003 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

005:004 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

005:005 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

005:006 As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

005:007 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;

005:008 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;

005:009 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

005:010 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

005:011 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

005:012 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

005:013 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.

005:014 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

006:001 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, 006:002 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
006:003 And this will we do, if God permit.
006:004 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,
006:005 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
006:006 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
006:007 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:
006:008 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.
006:009 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.
006:010 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.
006:011 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:
006:012 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

006:013 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself, 006:014 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

006:015 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

006:016 For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

006:017 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

006:018 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

006:019 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

006:020 Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

007:001 For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

007:002 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

007:003 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

007:004 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

007:005 And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:
007:006 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.
007:007 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.
007:008 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.
007:009 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
007:010 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.
007:011 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
007:012 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
007:013 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
007:014 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.
007:015 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, 007:016 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
007:017 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

007:018 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

007:019 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God.

007:020 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

007:021 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)

007:022 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

007:023 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

007:024 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.

007:025 Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

007:026 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

007:027 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.

007:028 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

---

008:001 Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

008:002 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

008:003 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

008:004 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

008:005 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

008:006 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

008:007 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

008:008 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

008:009 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

008:010 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

008:011 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

008:012 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

008:013 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

009:001 Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

009:002 For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary.

009:003 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

009:004 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

009:005 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

009:006 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

009:007 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

009:008 The Holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

009:009 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

009:010 Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

009:011 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

009:012 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

009:013 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

009:014 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

009:015 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

009:016 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

009:017 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

009:018 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

009:019 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 009:020 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

009:021 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

009:022 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

009:023 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

009:024 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

009:025 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

009:026 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

009:027 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

009:028 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

---

010:001 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

010:002 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

010:003 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

010:004 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

010:005 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

010:006 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

010:007 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

010:008 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

010:009 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

010:010 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

010:011 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

010:012 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

010:013 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

010:014 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

010:015 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

010:016 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

010:017 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

010:018 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

010:019 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

010:020 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

010:021 And having an high priest over the house of God;

010:022 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

010:023 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

010:024 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

010:025 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

010:026 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 010:027 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

010:028 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

010:029 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

010:030 For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.

010:031 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

010:032 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

010:033 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

010:034 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

010:035 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

010:036 For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

010:037 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

010:038 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

010:039 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

---

011:001 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

011:002 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

011:003 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

011:004 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

011:005 By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

011:006 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

011:007 By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

011:008 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

011:009 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

011:010 For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

011:011 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

011:012 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

011:013 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

011:014 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

011:015 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

011:016 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city.

011:017 By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

011:018 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

011:019 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

011:020 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

011:021 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

011:022 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

011:023 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

011:024 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

011:025 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

011:026 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward.
011:027 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
011:028 Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.
011:029 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.
011:030 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.
011:031 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.
011:032 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:
011:033 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions.
011:034 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
011:035 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
011:036 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
011:037 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

011:038 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

011:039 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

011:040 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

---

012:001 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

012:002 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

012:003 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

012:004 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

012:005 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

012:006 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

012:007 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

012:008 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

012:009 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

012:010 For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

012:011 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

012:012 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

012:013 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.

012:014 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

012:015 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

012:016 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

012:017 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

012:018 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

012:019 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

012:020 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

012:021 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

012:022 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

012:023 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, 012:024 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things that that of Abel.

012:025 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

012:026 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

012:027 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

012:028 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

012:029 For our God is a consuming fire.

013:001 Let brotherly love continue.

013:002 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

013:003 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

013:004 Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

013:005 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

013:006 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

013:007 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

013:008 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

013:009 Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied therein.

013:010 We have an altar, whereof they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle.

013:011 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.

013:012 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.

013:013 Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp, bearing his reproach.

013:014 For here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come.

013:015 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.

013:016 But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

013:017 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.

013:018 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.

013:019 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

013:020 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 013:021 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

013:022 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.

013:023 Know ye that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

013:024 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

013:025 Grace be with you all. Amen.

JAMES

001:001 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

001:002 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

001:003 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

001:004 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

001:005 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

001:006 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.

001:007 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

001:008 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

001:009 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

001:010 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

001:011 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

001:012 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

001:013 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

001:014 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

001:015 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

001:016 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

001:017 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

001:018 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

001:019 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

001:020 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

001:021 Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

001:022 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

001:023 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

001:024 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

001:025 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

001:026 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

001:027 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

002:001 My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

002:002 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

002:003 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

002:004 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

002:005 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

002:006 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

002:007 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

002:008 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

002:009 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

002:010 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

002:011 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

002:012 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

002:013 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

002:014 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

002:015 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, 002:016 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

002:017 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

002:018 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

002:019 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble.

002:020 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

002:021 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

002:022 Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

002:023 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.

002:024 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

002:025 Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

002:026 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

003:001 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

003:002 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

003:003 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

003:004 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

003:005 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!

003:006 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

003:007 For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind:

003:008 But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.

003:009 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

003:010 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

003:011 Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

003:012 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

003:013 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

003:014 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

003:015 This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish.

003:016 For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.

003:017 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.

003:018 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

---

004:001 From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

004:002 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

004:003 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

004:004 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

004:005 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

004:006 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

004:007 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

004:008 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

004:009 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

004:010 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

004:011 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

004:012 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

004:013 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

004:014 Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.

004:015 For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.

004:016 But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.

004:017 Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

---

005:001 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

005:002 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are motheaten.

005:003 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

005:004 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

005:005 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

005:006 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

005:007 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

005:008 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

005:009 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

005:010 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

005:011 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

005:012 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

005:013 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

005:014 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

005:015 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

005:016 Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.

005:017 Elias was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.

005:018 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

005:019 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

005:020 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

1 PETER

---

001:001 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 001:002 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

001:003 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

001:004 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

001:005 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

001:006 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

001:007 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

001:008 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

001:009 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

001:010 Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

001:011 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

001:012 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

001:013 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

001:014 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

001:015 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

001:016 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

001:017 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:

001:018 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers;

001:019 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

001:020 Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

001:021 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

001:022 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

001:023 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

001:024 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

001:025 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

---

002:001 Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, all evil speakings,

002:002 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

002:003 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

002:004 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

002:005 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

002:006 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

002:007 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

002:008 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

002:009 But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light;

002:010 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

002:011 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

002:012 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

002:013 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

002:014 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

002:015 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

002:016 As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

002:017 Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

002:018 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

002:019 For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

002:020 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God.

002:021 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

002:022 Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

002:023 Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:

002:024 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

002:025 For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

---

003:001 Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives;

003:002 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

003:003 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

003:004 But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

003:005 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

003:006 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

003:007 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

003:008 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

003:009 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

003:010 For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

003:011 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

003:012 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.

003:013 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

003:014 But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

003:015 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear:

003:016 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

003:017 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

003:018 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

003:019 By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison;

003:020 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

003:021 The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

003:022 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

004:001 Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

004:002 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

004:003 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

004:004 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:

004:005 Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead.

004:006 For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

004:007 But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

004:008 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.

004:009 Use hospitality one to another without grudging.

004:010 As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

004:011 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

004:012 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you:

004:013 But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

004:014 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

004:015 But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

004:016 Yet if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.

004:017 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

004:018 And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

004:019 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

---

005:001 The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

005:002 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

005:003 Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

005:004 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

005:005 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

005:006 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

005:007 Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

005:008 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

005:009 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

005:010 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

005:011 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

005:012 By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

005:013 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son.

005:014 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you[5639] all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

2 PETER

---

001:001 Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

001:002 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

001:003 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

001:004 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

001:005 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;

001:006 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;

001:007 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.

001:008 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

001:009 But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.
001:010 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:
001:011 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
001:012 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.
001:013 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;
001:014 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.
001:015 Moreover I will endeavour that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance.
001:016 For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
001:017 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
001:018 And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount.
001:019 We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:
001:020 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

001:021 For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

002:001 But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

002:002 And many shall follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

002:003 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

002:004 For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

002:005 And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

002:006 And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

002:007 And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

002:008 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

002:009 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

002:010 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

002:011 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

002:012 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

002:013 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;

002:014 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

002:015 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

002:016 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

002:017 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

002:018 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

002:019 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

002:020 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

002:021 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

002:022 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

003:001 This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

003:002 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

003:003 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

003:004 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

003:005 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

003:006 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

003:007 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

003:008 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

003:009 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

003:010 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

003:011 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, 003:012 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

003:013 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

003:014 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

003:015 And account that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you;

003:016 As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction.

003:017 Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own stedfastness.

5646.

003:018 But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour
Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

1 JOHN

001:001 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life;

001:002 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;)

001:003 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

001:004 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

001:005 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

001:006 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

001:007 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

001:008 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

001:009 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

001:010 If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

002:001 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:

002:002 And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

002:003 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

002:004 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

002:005 But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

002:006 He that saith he abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

002:007 Brethren, I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

002:008 Again, a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.

002:009 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

002:010 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him.

002:011 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

002:012 I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

002:013 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

002:014 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

002:015 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

002:016 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

002:017 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

002:018 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

002:019 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

002:020 But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.

002:021 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

002:022 Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

002:023 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

002:024 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

002:025 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

002:026 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

002:027 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

002:028 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

002:029 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

---

003:001 Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

003:002 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

003:003 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

003:004 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

003:005 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

003:006 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

003:007 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

003:008 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

003:009 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

003:010 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

003:011 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

003:012 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

003:013 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

003:014 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

003:015 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

003:016 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

003:017 But whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

003:018 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

003:019 And hereby we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.

003:020 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

003:021 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

003:022 And whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

003:023 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

003:024 And he that keepeth his commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

004:001 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.

004:002 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

004:003 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

004:004 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

004:005 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

004:006 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

004:007 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

004:008 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love.

004:009 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

004:010 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

004:011 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

004:012 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

004:013 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

004:014 And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

004:015 Whosoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

004:016 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

004:017 Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

004:018 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

004:019 We love him, because he first loved us.

004:020 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

004:021 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

005:001 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

005:002 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

005:003 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

005:004 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

005:005 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?

005:006 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

005:007 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.

005:008 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

005:009 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

005:010 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

005:011 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

005:012 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

005:013 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

005:014 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

005:015 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

005:016 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

005:017 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

005:018 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

005:019 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

005:020 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

005:021 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

2 JOHN

---

001:001 The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

001:002 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

001:003 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

001:004 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

001:005 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

001:006 And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

001:007 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist.

001:008 Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.

001:009 Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.

001:010 If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed:

001:011 For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds.

001:012 Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.

001:013 The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

3 JOHN

---

001:001 The elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

001:002 Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

001:003 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.

001:004 I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

001:005 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

001:006 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

001:007 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

001:008 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.

001:009 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.

001:010 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.

001:011 Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

001:012 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true.

001:013 I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:

001:014 But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

JUDE

001:001 Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

001:002 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

001:003 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

001:004 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

001:005 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

001:006 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

001:007 Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

001:008 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

001:009 Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

001:010 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

001:011 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

001:012 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

001:013 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

001:014 And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, 001:015 To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.

001:016 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.

001:017 But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;

001:018 How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

001:019 These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

001:020 But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, 001:021 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life.

001:022 And of some have compassion, making a difference:

001:023 And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

001:024 Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, 001:025 To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.

REVELATION

---

001:001 The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:

001:002 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

001:003 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

001:004 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

001:005 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 001:006 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

001:007 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

001:008 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

001:009 I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

001:010 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet, 001:011 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

001:012 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

001:013 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

001:014 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

001:015 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

001:016 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

001:017 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

001:018 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

001:019 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

001:020 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

002:001 Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

002:002 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

002:003 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

002:004 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

002:005 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

002:006 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

002:007 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

002:008 And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

002:009 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

002:010 Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.

002:011 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of the second death.

002:012 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

002:013 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

002:014 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

002:015 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

002:016 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

002:017 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

002:018 And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

002:019 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

002:020 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

002:021 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

002:022 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

002:023 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

002:024 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

002:025 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

002:026 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

002:027 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

002:028 And I will give him the morning star.

002:029 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

---

003:001 And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

003:002 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

003:003 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

003:004 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

003:005 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

003:006 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

003:007 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

003:008 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

003:009 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

003:010 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

003:011 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

003:012 Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

003:013 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

003:014 And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;

003:015 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

003:016 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

003:017 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

003:018 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

003:019 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

003:020 Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

003:021 To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

003:022 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

004:001 After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

004:002 And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

004:003 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

004:004 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

004:005 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

004:006 And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

004:007 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

004:008 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, LORD God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

004:009 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

004:010 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

004:011 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

---

005:001 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

005:002 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

005:003 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

005:004 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

005:005 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

005:006 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

005:007 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

005:008 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

005:009 And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

005:010 And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

005:011 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

005:012 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

005:013 And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

005:014 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

---

006:001 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

006:002 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

006:003 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.
006:004 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.
006:005 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.
006:006 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.
006:007 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.
006:008 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.
006:009 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:
006:010 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?
006:011 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

006:012 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

006:013 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

006:014 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

006:015 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

006:016 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

006:017 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

007:001 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

007:002 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, 007:003 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

007:004 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

007:005 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

007:006 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

007:007 Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand.

007:008 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

007:009 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

007:010 And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

007:011 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 007:012 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

007:013 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

007:014 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

007:015 Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

007:016 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

007:017 For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

---

008:001 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

008:002 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

008:003 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

008:004 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

008:005 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

008:006 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

008:007 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

008:008 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;

008:009 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

008:010 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

008:011 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

008:012 And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

008:013 And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

009:001 And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

009:002 And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

009:003 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

009:004 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

009:005 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

009:006 And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

009:007 And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

009:008 And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

009:009 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

009:010 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

009:011 And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

009:012 One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

009:013 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God, 009:014 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

009:015 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

009:016 And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

009:017 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

009:018 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

009:019 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

009:020 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

009:021 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

010:001 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

010:002 And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

010:003 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.

010:004 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

010:005 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

010:006 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

010:007 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

010:008 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

010:009 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

010:010 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

010:011 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

011:001 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

011:002 But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

011:003 And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

011:004 These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

011:005 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

011:006 These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

011:007 And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

011:008 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

011:009 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

011:010 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

011:011 And after three days and an half the spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

011:012 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

011:013 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

011:014 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

011:015 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

011:016 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, 011:017 Saying, We give thee thanks, O LORD God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.

011:018 And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

011:019 And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

---

012:001 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

012:002 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

012:003 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

012:004 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

012:005 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

012:006 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

012:007 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, 012:008 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

012:009 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

012:010 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

012:011 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

012:012 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

012:013 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

012:014 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

012:015 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

012:016 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

012:017 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

---

013:001 And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

013:002 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

013:003 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

013:004 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

013:005 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

013:006 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

013:007 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

013:008 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.

013:009 If any man have an ear, let him hear.

013:010 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

013:011 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

013:012 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

013:013 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, 013:014 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

013:015 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

013:016 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

013:017 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

013:018 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

---

014:001 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

014:002 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

014:003 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

014:004 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

014:005 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

014:006 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, 014:007 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

014:008 And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.
014:009 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
014:010 The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:
014:011 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.
014:012 Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.
014:013 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.
014:014 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.
014:015 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

014:016 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

014:017 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

014:018 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

014:019 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

014:020 And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

015:001 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

015:002 And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

015:003 And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

015:004 Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

015:005 And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

015:006 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

015:007 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

015:008 And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

---

016:001 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

016:002 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

016:003 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

016:004 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

016:005 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

016:006 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

016:007 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

016:008 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

016:009 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

016:010 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

016:011 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

016:012 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

016:013 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

016:014 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

016:015 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

016:016 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

016:017 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

016:018 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

016:019 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

016:020 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

016:021 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

---

017:001 And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters:

017:002 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

017:003 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

017:004 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

017:005 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY,
BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

017:006 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

017:007 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

017:008 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

017:009 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

017:010 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

017:011 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

017:012 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

017:013 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

017:014 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

017:015 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

017:016 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

017:017 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

017:018 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

018:001 And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

018:002 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

018:003 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

018:004 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

018:005 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

018:006 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

018:007 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

018:008 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

018:009 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

018:010 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

018:011 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

018:012 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

018:013 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.

018:014 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

018:015 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, 018:016 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

018:017 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 018:018 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

018:019 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

018:020 Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

018:021 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

018:022 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

018:023 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

018:024 And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

---

019:001 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

019:002 For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

019:003 And again they said, Alleluia And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

019:004 And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.

019:005 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.

019:006 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

019:007 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

019:008 And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

019:009 And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God.

019:010 And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

019:011 And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

019:012 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

019:013 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.

019:014 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

019:015 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

019:016 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

019:017 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

019:018 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

019:019 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

019:020 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

019:021 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

---

020:001 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

020:002 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, 020:003 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

020:004 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

020:005 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

020:006 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

020:007 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison, 020:008 And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog, and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

020:009 And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

020:010 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

020:011 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

020:012 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

020:013 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

020:014 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

020:015 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

---

021:001 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

021:002 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

021:003 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

021:004 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

021:005 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

021:006 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

021:007 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

021:008 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

021:009 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

021:010 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

021:011 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

021:012 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

021:013 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

021:014 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

021:015 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

021:016 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

021:017 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

021:018 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

021:019 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

021:020 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

021:021 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

021:022 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

021:023 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

021:024 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

021:025 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

021:026 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

021:027 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

---

022:001 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

022:002 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

022:003 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

022:004 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

022:005 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

022:006 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

022:007 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

022:008 And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

022:009 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

022:010 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

022:011 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

022:012 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

022:013 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.
022:014 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
022:015 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.
022:016 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star.
022:017 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.
022:018 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book:
022:019 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.
022:020 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen.
Even so, come, Lord Jesus.
022:021 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Book 39

MALACHI

---

001:001 The burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

001:002 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved Jacob, 001:003 And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the wilderness.

001:004 Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath indignation for ever.

001:005 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

001:006 A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

001:007 Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the LORD is contemptible.

001:008 And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

001:009 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

001:010 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

001:011 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

001:012 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

001:013 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

001:014 But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

002:001 And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

002:002 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

002:003 Behold, I will corrupt your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it.

002:004 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

002:005 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

002:006 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

002:007 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

002:008 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

002:009 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

002:010 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

002:011 Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

002:012 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

002:013 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

002:014 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

002:015 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

002:016 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

002:017 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

003:001 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

003:002 But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap:

003:003 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

003:004 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

003:005 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

003:006 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

003:007 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

003:008 Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

003:009 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

003:010 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

003:011 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

003:012 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts.

003:013 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

003:014 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

003:015 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered.

003:016 Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

003:017 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

003:018 Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

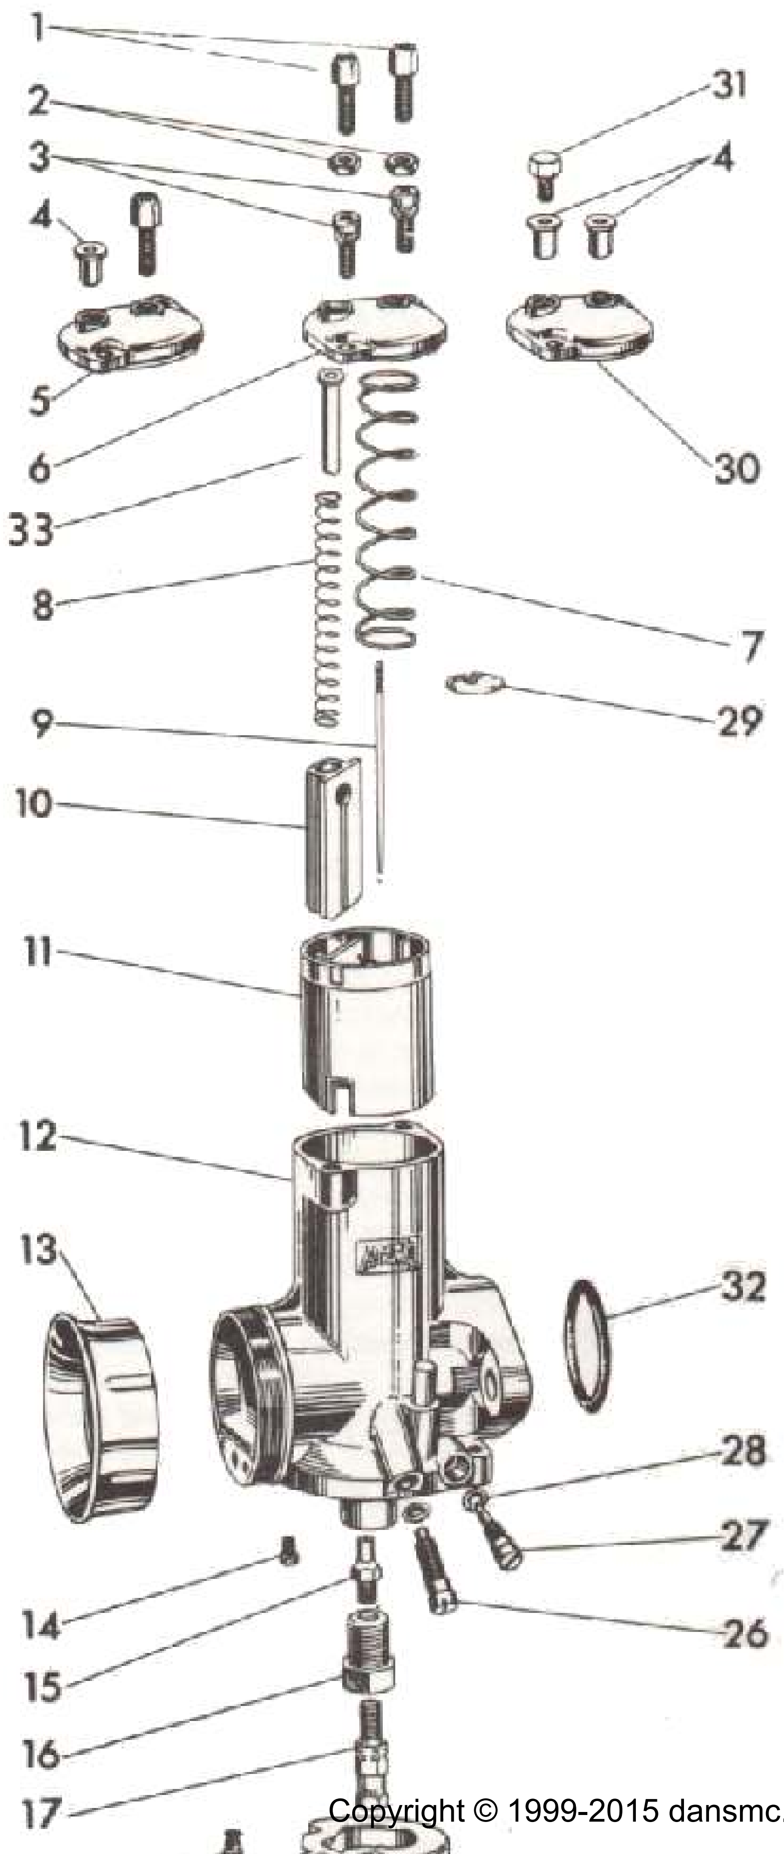
004:001 For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

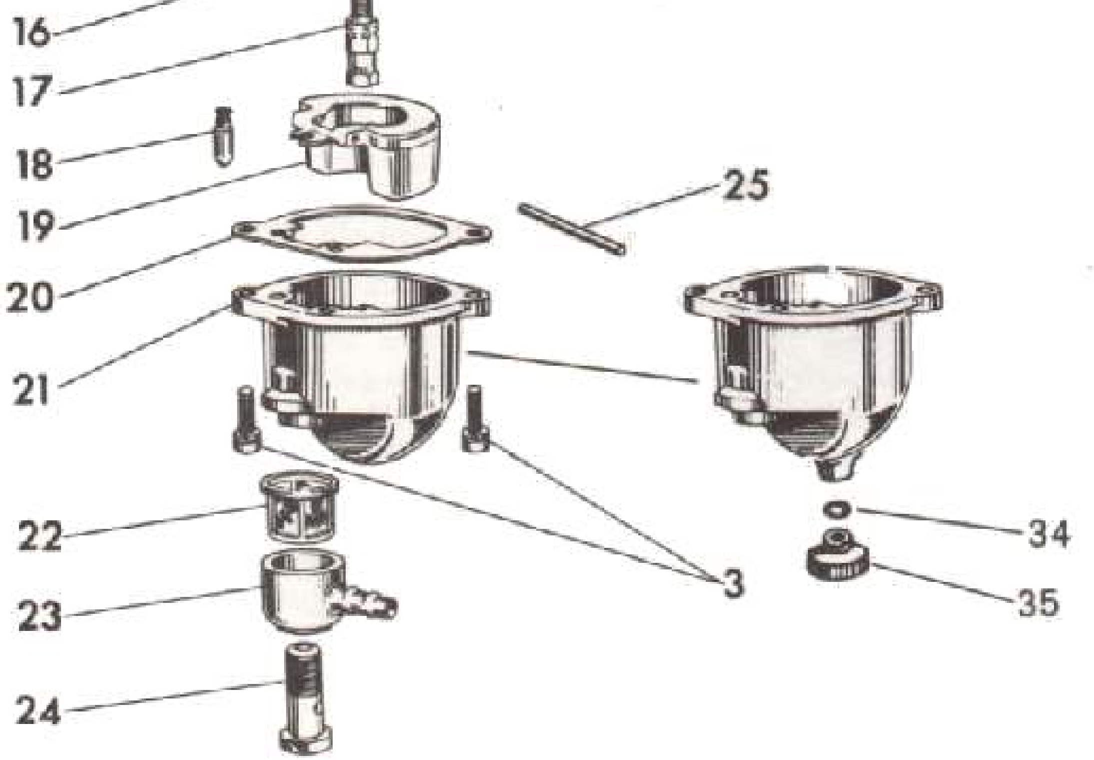
004:002 But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

004:003 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.



004:004 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgments.

004:005 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD:



004:006 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

BRAKE

A hydraulic disc brake is used on each wheel for superior braking performance and high reliability. The major components of each disc brake are the brake lever (front) or the brake pedal (rear), master cylinder, brake line, caliper assembly, and disc. The brake lever is pulled or the brake pedal is pushed to move a piston in the master cylinder and pressurize the brake fluid. Fluid pressure is transmitted through the brake line to operate the caliper. The caliper grips the disc attached to the wheel, slowing wheel rotation. Front brake lever pushes the front brake light switch, and the rear brake pedal pulls the rear brake light switch. Each switch turns on the brake light.

Unlike a drum-type brake, the components of the disc brake which perform the actual braking action, i.e., the disc and pads, are open to direct contact with the air flow past the motorcycle. This provides for excellent dissipation of the heat from brake friction, and minimizes the possibility of brake fade common to drum brakes.

The automatic wear adjustment mechanism of the rear caliper is the same as that of the front caliper, and caliper operation is the same as for the front caliper except that the rear caliper is held stationary and has except that the rear caliper is held stationary and has two pistons. So a separate explanation of the braking and release strokes of the rear caliper will be omitted.

Automatic Wear Adjustment

When fluid pressure develops in the cylinder, the piston is pushed exerting pressure against the brake pad, which in turn presses against the brake disc. The pressurized fluid is prevented from leaking by a fluid seal fitted into the cylinder wall. The seal is pressed against the piston and, instead of sliding when the piston moves, the seal is only distorted, allowing no fluid leakage at all (See Fig. J14). When the brake lever or pedal is released and fluid pressure lowers, the elasticity of the seal returns the piston to its original position.

After the brakes are used for a while and the pads wear slightly, the rubber seal will no longer be able to distort the additional amount that the piston travels. Instead, when piston travel forces the seal past its limit, the seal slips on the piston. The seal then returns the piston to a new rest position that is closer to the disc.

A small amount of fluid from the reservoir supplements the fluid in the brake line to compensate for the difference in piston position. Consequently, the length of the brake lever or pedal stroke remains unchanged, and the brake never needs adjustment.

The seal and the cup at the head of the master cylinder piston are made of special heat resistant rubber for best performance and to prevent deterioration. For this reason, only standard parts should be used.

Braking Stroke

When the brake lever is pulled, the piston (1) in the master cylinder is pushed and moves forward against the force of the return spring (8). At this time, the primary cup (9) at the head of the piston closes the small relief port (4), which connects the pressure chamber and the reservoir (6). Until this port is fully closed, the brake fluid does not start being pressurized, in spite of the forward movement of the piston.

The pressure stroke starts as soon as the relief port is closed. The piston compresses the brake fluid, which is being used as the pressure medium, forcing it out into the brake line. The pressure is transmitted through the line to the cylinder portion of the caliper assembly, where it forces the piston (1) towards the disc. The piston presses pad A against the disc, but since the disc is immovable, further pressure cannot move the pad any farther. Instead, the entire caliper assembly moves in the opposite direction such that pad B is also forced against the disc. In this manner, the disc is gripped between the two pads, and the resulting friction slows wheel rotation.

Braking Release Stroke

When the brake lever is released, the piston in the master cylinder is quickly returned toward its rest position by the spring (8), and brake fluid pressure drops in the line and in the caliper cylinder. The elasticity of the fluid seal ② in the cylinder then returns the piston. This leaves no pressure against either pad A or B so that slight friction against the disc pushes them both slightly away from the disc.

As the master cylinder piston moves back further, the brake fluid in the line rushes to fill the low pressure area in front of the primary cup at the piston head. At this time, fluid from the reservoir flows through the large supply port ⑤ into the space between the primary and secondary cups, through the non-return valve ⑩, and passes around the edges of the primary cup to fill the vacuum. When the piston has returned to its rest position against the stop, the small relief port is uncovered. As the brake fluid returns from the line, excess fluid passes through the relief port into the reservoir until the brake line pressure returns to zero.

Master Cylinder

The master cylinder assembly includes the reservoir ⑤, piston ⑩, primary and secondary cups ⑧, ⑪, non-return valve ⑨, and spring ⑦. The reservoir has two holes at the bottom: a relatively large supply port ③ to supply fluid to the lines and a small relief port ② to admit excess fluid from the line. The primary and secondary cups stop the fluid from leaking back around the piston while the piston is moving forward to pressurize the line. The non-return valve is in the head of the piston; it stops backward fluid flow when the brake is applied. When the brake lever is released, the valve allows flow around the cup to fill the vacuum in front of the piston so that the piston can return easily.

Master cylinder part wear

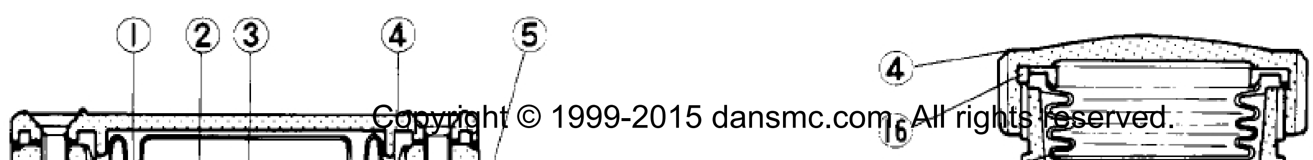
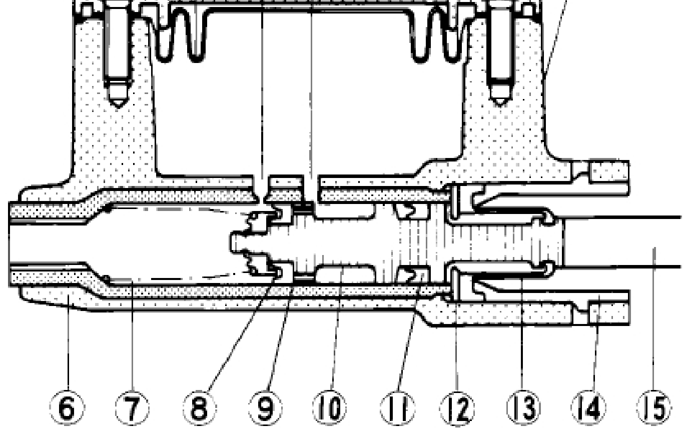
When master cylinder parts are worn or damaged, proper brake fluid pressure cannot be obtained in the line, and the brake will not hold.



If the small relief port becomes plugged, especially with a swollen or damaged primary cup, the brake pads will drag on the disc.



- Check that there are no scratches, rust or pitting on the inside of the master cylinder, and that it is not worn past the service limit.
- Check the piston for these same faults.

Caliper

The front wheel has a floating-type caliper. The front caliper assembly includes pad A (6), pad B (7), and the piston (14), which is inside the caliper cylinder. Through the caliper run two shafts (3), which also pass through the caliper holder (1) to mount the assembly to the fork leg. When the piston forces pad A against the disc, the shaft portion of the caliper assembly slides through the holder such that pad B is also forced against the disc, both brake pads being kept parallel to the disc.

The rear wheel has a fixed caliper. The rear caliper assembly consists of two caliper halves 7, 10, bolted together, with each half containing a cylinder; a set of opposed pistons 6; and two pads 5. The pad anti-rattle springs 3 hold the pads in position apart from the disc when the rear brake is not applied. When the brake is applied, the pressurized fluid is delivered to the piston areas on both sides of the caliper at the same time. Each piston goes forward until it is pressed against the disc, so no lateral movement of the disc and caliper is needed. There is a drilled internal fluid passage which is sealed by O ring where the two caliper halves join.

Pad wear

Inspect the pads for wear. For the front disc brakes, check the thickness of the pad linings, and replace both pads as a set if the thickness of either pad is less than 1 mm.

If any grease or oil spills on the pads, wash it off with trichloroethylene or a high flash-point solvent. Do not use one which will leave an oily residue. If the oil cannot be thoroughly clean off, replace the pads.

Fluid seal damage

The fluid seal around the piston maintains the proper pad/disc clearance. If this seal is not satisfactory, pad wear will increase, and constant pad drag on the disc will raise brake and brake fluid temperature.

Replace the fluid seals under any of the following conditions: (a) fluid leakage around the pad; (b) brakes overheat; (c) there is a large difference in left and right pad wear; (d) the seal is stuck to the piston. If the fluid seal is replaced, replace the dust seal as well. Also, replace all seals every other time the pads are changed.

Brake Disc

Besides wearing down, the disc may warp. A warped disc will cause the brake pads to drag on the disc and will wear down both the pads and disc quickly. Dragging will also cause overheating and poor braking efficiency.

Disc warp

Jack up the motorcycle so that the front wheel is off the ground, and turn the handlebar fully to one side. Set up a dial gauge against the front disc as illustrated, and measure disc runout. Remove the jack, set the motorcycle up on its center stand, and then measure the rear disc runout. If runout exceeds the service limit, replace the disc.

Caliper holder shaft wear

Caliper holder shafts must slide smoothly in the caliper holder. If the shafts do not slide smoothly, one pad will wear more than the other, pad wear will increase, and constant drag on the disc will raise brake and brake fluid temperature. Check to see if the caliper holder shafts are nor badly worn or stepped, or O rings are not damaged. If the shafts or O ring are damaged, replace the shafts, O rings, and the caliper holder.

Disc cleaning

Poor braking can also be caused by oil on the disc. Oil on the disc must be cleaned off with trichloroethylene or a high flash-point solvent. Do not use one which will leave an oily residue.

Brake Fluid

The brake fluid is an extra heavy duty type with a high boiling point to withstand the heat produced by friction of the caliper pads on the disc. Since the boiling point and thus the performance of the fluid would be reduced by contamination with water vapor or dirt from the air, the reservoir is sealed with a rubber diaphragm under the cap. This cap seal also prevents fluid evaporation and spillage should the motorcycle fall over. The fluid is further protected by rubber seals in the caliper assembly and at the master cylinder brake line fitting.

When the brake is applied, heat is generated by the friction between the disc and the brake pads. While much of this heat is immediately dissipated, some of it is transmitted to the brake fluid and may raise fluid temperature to as high as 150°C (300°F) during brake operation. This temperature could boil the brake fluid and cause a vapor lock in the lines unless fluid with a high boiling point is used and has been kept from being contaminated with dirt, moisture, or a different type of fluid. Poor quality or contaminated fluid can also deteriorate from contact with the recommended brake fluids.

The graph of Fig. J29 shows how brake fluid contamination with moisture lowers the fluid boiling point. Although not shown in the graph, the boiling point also lowers as the fluid gets old, is contaminated with dirt, or if two different types of brake fluid are mixed.

WARNING

When working with the disc brake, observe the precautions listed below.

1. Never reuse old brake fluid.
2. Do not use fluid from a container that has been left unsealed or that has been open a long time.
3. Do not mix two types of fluid for use in the brake. This lowers the brake fluid boiling point
4. Don't leave the reservoir cap off for any length of time to avoid moisture contamination of the fluid.
5. Don't change the fluid in the rain or when a strong wind is blowing.
6. Except for the disc pads and discs, use only disc brake fluid, isopropyl alcohol, or ethyl alcohol for cleaning brake parts. Do not use any other fluid for cleaning these parts. Gasoline, motor brake. This lowers the brake fluid boiling point and could cause the brake to be ineffective. If may also cause the rubber brake parts to deteriorate. Recommended fluids are given in the table.

NOTE: The type of fluid originally used in the disc brake is not available in most areas, but it should be necessary to add very little fluid before the first brake fluid change. After changing the fluid, use only the same type thereafter.

fluid for cleaning these parts. Gasoline, motor oil, or any other petroleum distillate will cause deterioration of the rubber parts. Oil spilled on any part will be difficult to wash off completely and will eventually reach and break down the rubber used in the disc brake.

7. When handling the disc pads or disc, be careful that no disc brake fluid or any oil gets on them. Clean off any fluid or oil that inadvertently gets on the pads or disc with a high flash-point solvent. Do not use one which will leave an oily residue. Replace the pads with new ones if they cannot be cleaned satisfactorily.
8. Brake fluid quickly ruins painted surfaces; any spilled fluid should be completely wiped up immediately.
9. If any of the brake line fittings or the bleed valve is opened at any time, the AIR MUST BE BLED FROM THE BRAKE.
10. When installing or assembling the disc brake, tighten the disc brake fittings to the values given in Table G1. Improper torque may cause the brake to malfunction.

Brake Fluid Boiling Point (J29)

Changing the brake fluid

The brake fluid should be changed in accordance with the Periodic Maintenance Chart (Pg. 10) and whenever it becomes contaminated with dirt or water.

- Attach a clear plastic hose to the bleed valve on the caliper, and run the other end of the hose into a container.
- Remove the reservoir cap, and remove the rubber cap on the bleed valve.
- Open the bleed valve (counterclockwise to open), and pump the brake lever or pedal until all the fluid is drained from the line.
- If a dual disc brake is used, repeat the previous step one more time for the other side.
- Close the bleed valve(s), and fill the reservoir with fresh brake fluid.
- Open the bleed valve, apply the brake by the brake lever or pedal, close the valve with the brake held applied, and then quickly release the lever or pedal. Repeat this operation until the brake line is filled and fluid starts coming out of the plastic hose. Replenish the fluid in the reservoir as often as necessary to keep it from running completely out.
- Bleed the air from the lines.

Bleeding the brake

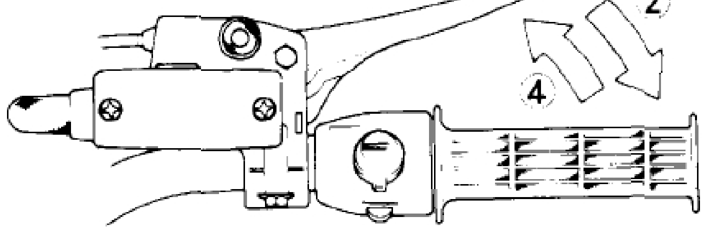
The brake fluid has a very low compression coefficient so that almost all the movement of the brake lever or pedal is transmitted directly to the caliper for braking action. Air, however, is easily compressed. When air enters the brake lines, brake lever or pedal movement will be partially used in compressing the air. This will make the lever or pedal feel spongy, and there will be a loss in braking power.

Bleed the air from the brake whenever brake lever or pedal action feels soft or spongy, after the brake fluid is changed, or whenever a brake line fitting has been loosened for any reason.



- Remove the reservoir cap, and check that there is plenty of fluid in the reservoir. The fluid level must be checked several times during the bleeding operation and replenished as necessary. If the fluid in the reservoir runs completely out any time during bleeding, the bleeding operation must be done over again from the beginning since air will have entered the line.

Filling up the Brake Line (J30)

Bleeding the Brake Line (J31)

1. Open the bleed valve.
2. Apply the brake, keeping the brake applied.
3. Close the bleed valve.
4. Then quickly release the brake.

1. Hold the brake applied.
2. Quickly open and close the valve.
3. Release the brake.

This article is about the typographical mark. For the novel, see Pilcrow (novel).

The pilcrow (¶), also called the paragraph mark, paragraph sign, paraph, alinea (Latin: a lineā, "off the line"), or blind P,[1] is a typographical character for individual paragraphs. It is present in Unicode as U+00B6 ¶ PILCROW SIGN (HTML `¶` · `¶`).

The pilcrow can be used as an indent for separate paragraphs or to designate a new paragraph in one long piece of copy, as Eric Gill did in his 1930s book, An Essay on Typography. The pilcrow was a type of rubrication used in the Middle Ages to mark a new train of thought, before the convention of visually discrete paragraphs was commonplace.[2]

Section sign

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

The section sign (Unicode U+00A7 § SECTION SIGN, HTML `§`, TeX `\S`) is a typographical character used mainly to refer to a particular section of a document, such as a legal code.[1] It is also called "double S"[citation needed], "hurricane"[citation needed], and "sectional symbol".

The likely origin of the section sign is the digraph formed by the combination of two S glyphs (from the Latin signum sectiōnis). When duplicated, as §§, it is read as the plural "sections" (e.g. "§§ 13–21"), much as "pp." (pages) is the plural of "p.".

It is frequently used along with the pilcrow (¶), or paragraph sign. Like the dagger (†) and double dagger (‡), it is also sometimes used to link to a footnote where the asterisk (*) is already in use on a given page.

THE GREAT IGNITION COIL TEST

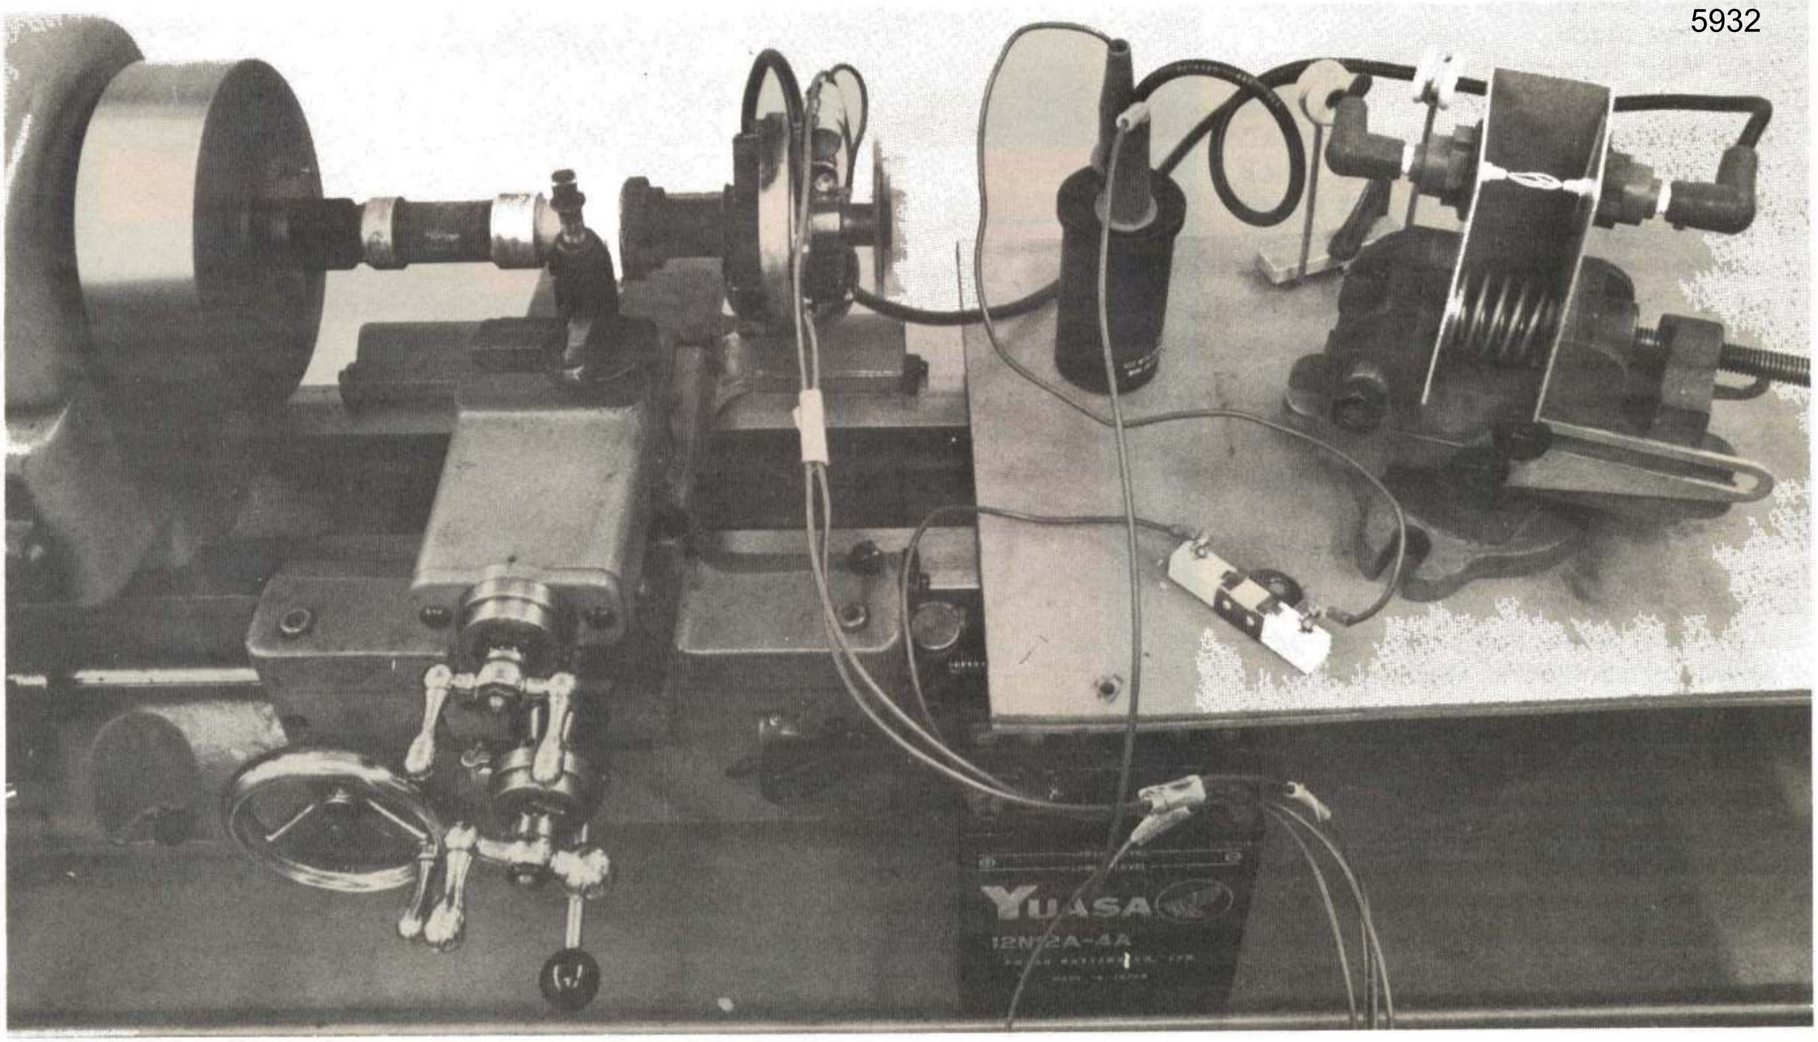
by Gordon Jennings



● We've just discovered handwriting on a wall most of us have been beating our heads against for years, and don't know whether to feel elated, mortified or incensed. A touch of elation is in order because what we found points the way toward extended spark plug life, smoother running, easier starting and generally improved behavior for whole classes of motorcycles. The mortification comes from having been told what to look for a long time ago and knowing that, like simpletons, we ignored an expert's very good advice. And we're incensed because it is now clear that the entire motorcycle industry has been penny-pinching all of us for decades.

Final enlightenment was cast by the blue-white glare of an electric arc in a scene strongly suggestive of the old Frankenstein movies, as we tested coil after coil for spark output on a jury-rigged apparatus in Cycle's shop. But the matter never would have been taken that far except for sundry items of information we either tripped over or was shoved under our collective nose.

Item: Arnold Frank, who represents the Champion Spark Plug Company in our area, mentioned that his associates had conducted a series of performance tests on motorcycle ignition systems without finding much they could admire. Motorcycles' ignitions, he said, were uniformly and depressingly limp. "Oh, you're absolutely right, Arnold," we chorused, nodding our empty heads in agreement, but events proved that only Jess Thomas fully appreciated what we had been told; the rest of us sat there like dummies, figuring a few hundred volts one way or the other couldn't make much difference if you were willing to give your bike fresh plugs at regular intervals.

Item: Among the various staff-owned bikes under our roof were a couple that almost caricatured the classic symptoms of internal combustion temperament. The two bikes in question would always start, albeit with some coaxing, because they got the kind of treatment usually reserved for rich, elderly relatives; pampered and made comfy and receiving care every time they showed the least sign of displeasure. All this fawning attention kept them going, but would not make them truly eager to start or willing to idle decently until thoroughly warmed (sometimes not even then) and of course they devoured spark plugs like a hungry elephant going after fresh roasted peanuts.

Item: Hot on the trail of some hard information about the latest, greatest, transistorized, capacitored, pointless, God's-Own-Lightning kind of ignition system, we obtained some of the printed reports issued after the "Ignition and Engine Performance Conference" sponsored by Champion each year. These conferences are international affairs, attended by people from oil companies, engine and ignition component manufacturers, and other interested, expert parties. Questions are asked, and answered, and the gist of all that gets said amounts to nothing less than an annual state of the art report. The edited record is full of information, and in those we obtained was pointed reference to sheer spark-coil output voltage and its influence on effective plug life and on the plug's spark gap—which was, in turn, a potent factor in an engine's cold starting and idling characteristics.

Item: Jess Thomas, who had been listening when Arnold Frank spoke his piece about the pervasive weakness of motorcycles' ignition systems, suggested to the two staffers struggling with overly temperamental bikes that they "stop all that herming around and put some good coils on the things." This was done, and the results were eye-openers: the hard starting was corrected, and the marked tendency toward plug fouling was substantially relieved. Astonishingly, both bikes perked up and began to run more vigorters are as yet of only peripheral interest to motorcyclists. But there was the occasional gem of information with immediate application to the situation we face, and when you string all the gems together you find that we don't really need transistorized, "God's-Own-Lightning" ignition systems for our bikes. All we need is to catch up to where American automobiles were twenty-five years ago and we'll think we've surely died and gone to heaven.

THE GREAT IGNITION COIL TEST

Unless you're dealing with a racing two-stroke engine, which will have special and peculiar requirements, the name of the mixture-firing game is voltage. Forget about space-age technology, solid-state circuitry and magnetic triggering; the biggest improvement possible in most motorcycles' ignition systems is simply a change of coils. Switch to a set of ignition coils that will pump up some real kilovolts and you'll solve problems you never suspected as being related to ignition system performance, in addition to increasing effective plug life.

Some engines, and riders, make greater demands on spark plugs than others, but if we may for the moment ignore such extraneous factors then plug life may be said to be a function of voltage-required versus voltage-available. The voltage required to fire a new, clean spark plug at cylinder pressures attending wide-open throttle running will be in the order of 8–9 KV (kilo, or thousand, volts), but as the plug electrodes lose their sharp edges and semi-conductive deposits accumulate on the insulator, the requirement rises sharply. [illegible] stabilize, their voltage requirement then further voltage demands will be made mostly as a result of electrode erosion, which will widen the spark gap at the rate of perhaps .001-inch per thousand miles. To handle just this much, the ignition system will need a potential of 13–14 KV, and in practice you also have to accommodate for the fouling deposits accumulated in traffic, which temporarily raise the voltage requirement even higher. Give an engine an ignition system with a peak potential up around 22–24 KV and its plugs will keep right on firing until erosion reduces their electrodes to scaley nubs; cut the potential to, say, 12 KV and the plugs will begin to misfire after only a few thousand miles in service.

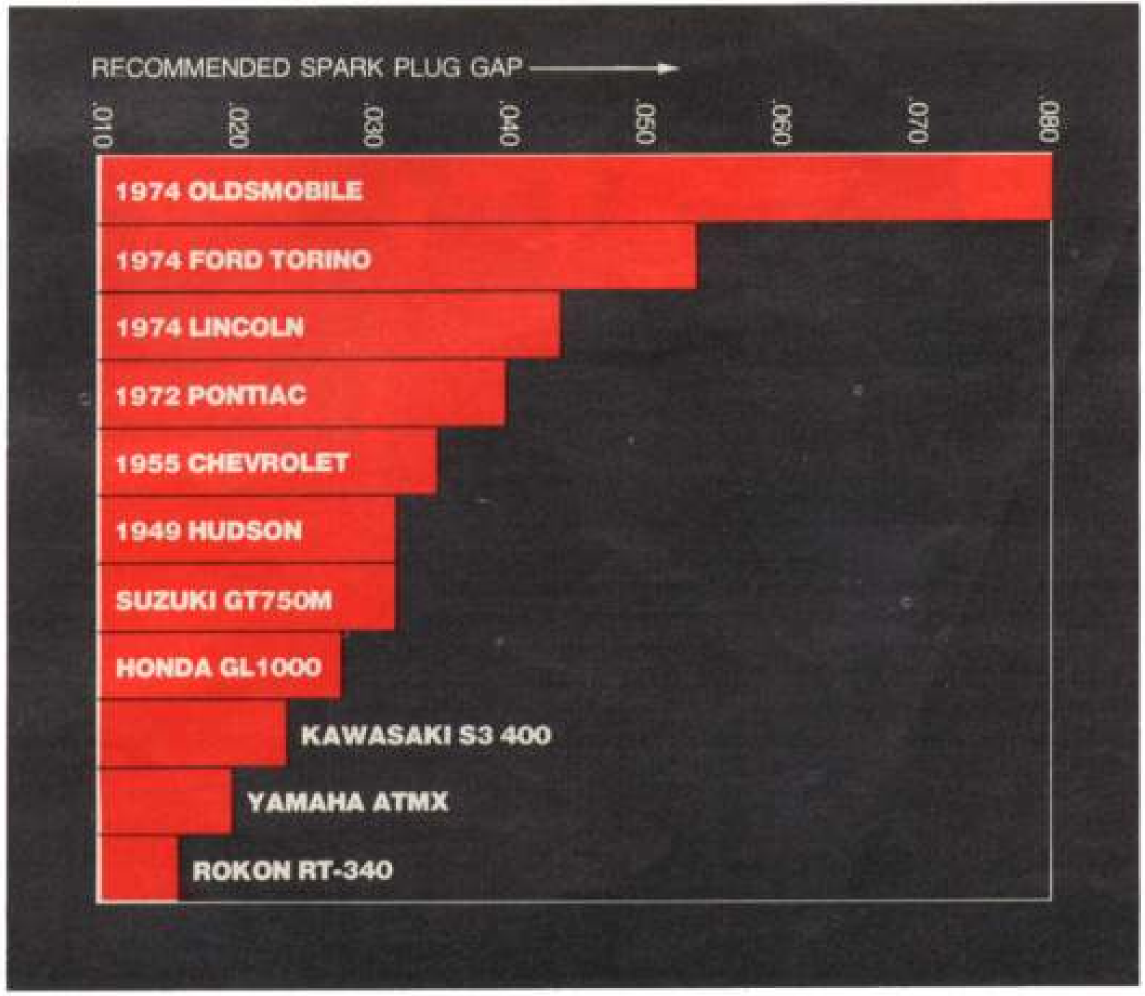
Plug gap distance is closely tied to available voltage, and if an engine's ignition system is weak the gap has to be set fairly narrow—which, it turns out, is a very bad thing. Air/fuel mixtures in stoichiometric proportions (that is to say, chemically-correct mixtures) are very easily ignited and will flame quite satisfactorily if hit with nothing more than a wispy spark bridging a very narrow electrode gap. But in practice perfect mixtures are more the exception than the rule. The best of carburetors cannot be jetted and adjusted for more than one air density and one fuel viscosity—both of which vary considerably in the real world. Further, neither carburetors nor fuel injection deliver perfectly mixed air and fuel, which means that the charge actually arriving inside the combustion chamber will always be overly rich at one point and [illegible] another. So there is no predicting the strength of the mixture that happens ously—and neither was slow before the change was made.

Item: Your reporter's own Ducati 750 GT had steadfastly refused to idle when cold, or to start if its plugs were gapped more than .026-inch. When the stock ignition coils were removed, and a pair of the cheapest available automotive coils substituted, the differences were profound. In the interest of experiment the plug gaps were initially left at the .024-inch that previously had proved satisfactory, and with that gap the only detectable difference was slightly easier cold starting and a willingness to idle, though slowly and uncertainly, after a much shorter warm-up period. But after the plug gaps were opened to .035-inch, the engine picked up 200 rpm at idle when cold, and was perceptibly smoother under all operating conditions. Merely installing fresh spark plugs had never worked that kind of transformation; there clearly was a lot here we hadn't understood.



All these things suddenly began to ask questions and demand answers, and we first went scurrying back to re-read those Champion reports. What we found in them were mostly long, tiresome discussions of how this factor or that was likely to effect exhaust emissions, and such mat-sharply. With time in service the plugs will stabilize, their voltage requirement then being about 5 KV higher on average, and lean at another. So there is no predicting the strength of the mixture that happens to be in and around the gap between the

COILS II

By Gordon Jennings

● A couple of months ago, in our July issue, we presented results from a two-level investigation into the matter of ignition voltage requirements versus actual spark coil performance. The article, titled "The Great Ignition Coil Test," made the point that motorcycle engines have plenty of voltage requirement but don't get much spark; outlined the consequences of ignition voltage insufficiencies; showed the wide-margin superiority of automotive ignition coils; and mentioned that most bikes would benefit from having a coil transplant.

The sheer volume of written and telephoned communications in response to our "Coils" piece says it was well received by the readership; the content of these communications tells us we erred in concentrating on why automotive coils may be expected to improve motorcycles' behavior while giving short shrift to the details of how such transplanting should be done. What follows is intended to re-establish a balance.

Those who missed our July shot at bike coils have to be acquainted with the substance of the information presented. It all concerned the importance of sheer voltage in such seemingly unrelated matters as spark plug service life and engines' sensitivity to mixture strength. Spark plugs will fire satisfactorily on a mere 8–9 kv when new, but their voltage requirement rises with time in service. If an ignition coil's output is weak, then the spark plug will quickly demand more voltage than it can deliver. Weak coils also ac- part-throttle operation and ability to squeeze so many thousands of miles of running out of a set of spark plugs.

Does any of the above transfer to a motorcycle when it is fitted with automotive coils? Our experience says it does. Car coils have been installed in three staff-owned motorcycles, and there was a marked improvement in cold-start characteristics, etc., in every case. But we already told you about that in the first "Coils" article; here we will focus on the problems of those who have been convinced that the car/bike coil transplant is a good thing, and are wondering how to go about it.

Many people seem troubled by the car coil's electrical current draw, which is (like its output) about double that of the typical motorcycle coil. Somewhere there undoubtedly is a motorcycle that lacks the generating capacity to handle the added amperage, but the vast majority of bikes' systems won't even notice the difference. The added current draw, for a twin-coil ignition, is about the same thing the electrical system handles when a bike's stoplight flashes on; it just isn't enough to worry about.

Another point much misunderstood is the nature and function of the ballast resistors almost universally employed in automotive ignition systems. Ordinary resistors are simple electric restrictors, with substantially fixed voltage/current reducing properties. Ballast resistors are electrical flow regulators, and will pass the current for which they are rated even though voltage (electrical pressure) varies a lot. Or, to put it another way, ballast resistors will vary the voltage at an ignition coil's primary windings and thus hold the current at a constant level. We've checked the primary voltage in a ballast-resistor-equipped ignition system, and got readings ranging from a high of nine volts down to a five-volt low, depending on engine speed. It was the ballast resistor doing its job, which is to maintain the coil's primary current (and thus its output) at a very nearly constant level. It just isn't possible to get the same kind of even performance out of an inductive-type ignition system that applies line voltage directly to its coil primaries.

In any case, ignition coils made for American cars are intended to be used in combination with ballast resistors, and you should not try to side-step the makers' intentions in this matter. Neither should you fret yourself about getting a particular kind of ballast resistor, as all those made for American automotive coils seem to have very nearly the same current limiting properties. Simply step right up to the man at your local auto parts store and ask for an ignition system ballast resistor. If he's the worrisome type, and wants to know what kind, tell him you want one to use with a 12-volt Delco coil (even if you really plan to fit up a set of K-Mart or Sears car coils).

You probably won't need more than one ballast resistor, even if—as usually is the case—your bike has two or more coils. The little cam that opens and closes a bike's ignition contact points usually is shaped so that it holds the points open than it can deliver. Weak coils also accentuate any shortcomings in carburetion, because mixture tolerance increases with the width of the gap between spark plug electrodes. And of course the voltage requirement rises as the between-electrodes gap is widened.

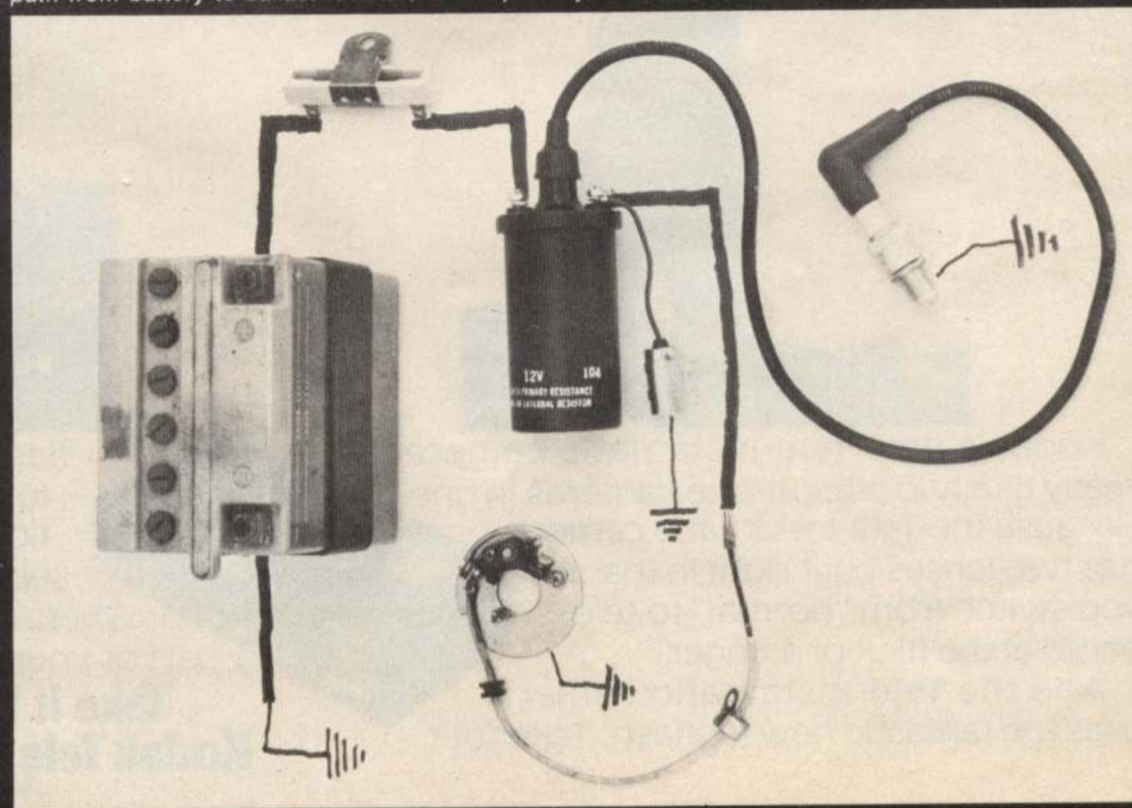
You can get a pretty good feel for the relative merits of automotive and motorcycle coils just by looking at the plug gap recommendations for cars and for bikes. Chevrolets old enough to vote run plugs gapped at .035-inch; the average for motorcycles is about .024-inch, and bikes have all the cold-starting and idling problems theory predicts for too-close electrode gaps.



We went beyond the reading of spark plug charts and actually tested a sampling of ignition coils. And we found exactly what the various gap recommendations had suggested: that car coils really are much stronger than those we get with bikes. The big surprise was the enormity of the difference. An ordinary Delco coil, of the kind used in millions of older Chevrolets, has roughly twice the output of the average motorcycle ignition coil. That fact accounts, in no small part, for the American car's steady idle, smooth

ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS, IF NOT PRAYERS

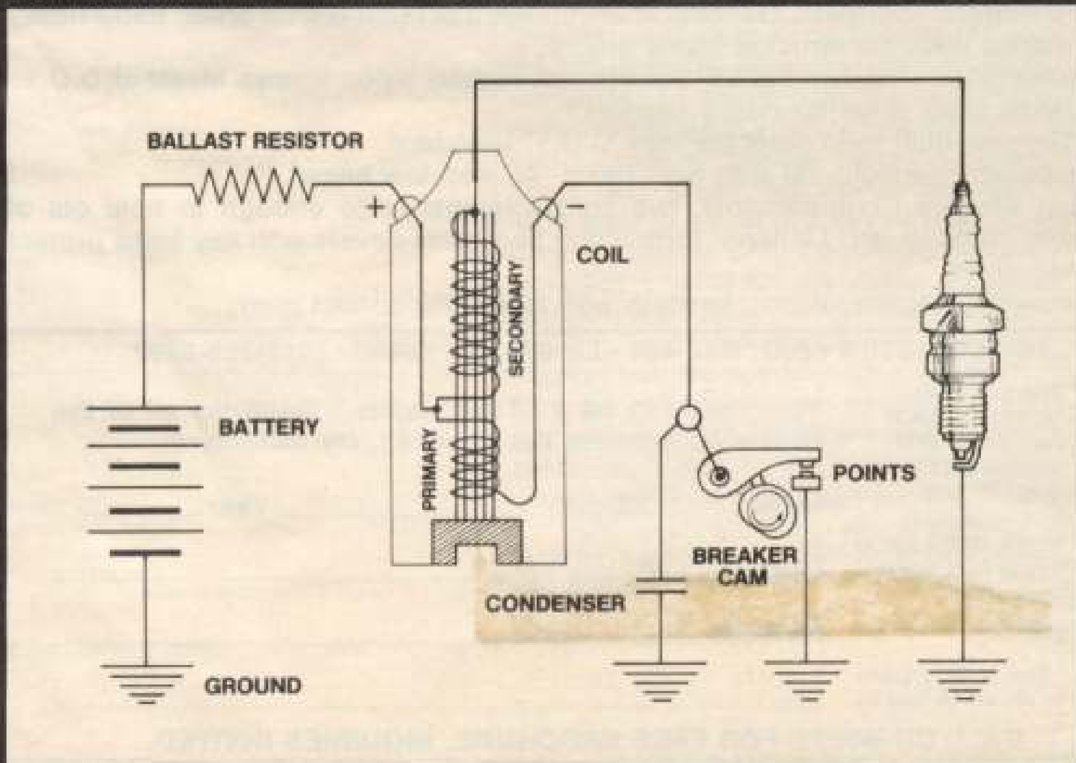
most of the time, dropping a particular set closed just long enough to produce magnetic saturation in the coil and then lifting them open again to produce a spark. The closed period is in many instances so brief that only one of a bike's two or three coils is active at any given moment. When that situation exists, a single ballast resistor inserted in the circuit between the ignition switch and the coils will suffice, because it is being asked to control the current to only one coil at a time. Only when there is an overlap, with more than one coil drawing current, is there any need to have more than a single ballast resistor.

A word of advice here: when you turn on the ballast-resistor-equipped ignition system the very first time, you probably will get wisps of smoke floating up from the resistor coils. Don't panic, thinking something awful is happening; it will simply be a little oil left over from the manufacturing process being scorched off the hot resistor element. Do your worrying when the smoke is rising from one or more of the bike's insulated wires.

Mounting those big automotive coils will be a real pain in the neck, if you're trying to get them installed in the same location as the originals. More often than not, they won't fit because the space up under the fuel tank is limited. And they aren't going to fit into the stock brackets because of space at all you can solve the problem by hanging the big car coils on the front frame downtubes—and hold them there with hose clamps until you get around to making up some proper mounting brackets. Coils don't have to be grounded to the frame.

Condensers do have to be grounded, as their outer cases constitute one of their two electrical terminals. Bikes often have their condensers do have to be grounded, as their outer cases constitute one of their two electrical terminals. Bikes often have their condensers buried cheek to jowl with the engine internals, and that's not good because condensers are more apt to fail when subjected to high temperatures. A far better spot for the motorcycle's condensers is up next to the coils, where they will be cooler—and they don't feel any significant difference, electrically, in that position. You simply mount the condensers so that their cases are grounded to the bike's frame (remember, paint is an insulator) and connect their leads to the points-side coil primary terminals. Here again, as was true of the ballast resistors, you shouldn't worry about matching coils and condensers. It is a verifiable fact that nearly all ignition condensers have a capacitance of .22 microfarads. You should get a set of American automotive condensers to go with your coils, because you can't beat them for price and reliability in doing the job. American automotive coils won't work as part of a CDI or magneto system, but they can be spliced into any of the numerous motorcycle systems that have mechanically operated contact points and battery-energized coils. As is shown in the schematic drawing that accompanies this text, all you need is a wire leading from the non-grounded battery terminal to the ballast resistor, from there to one primary terminal on the coil, then off the other coil primary terminal to the points—which lead to ground. The condenser also leads to ground, if very indirectly, and can be wired in anywhere between the coil and the points. In practice, the lead to the coil will take a detour through the ignition switch, but that's a small complication.



Do be careful with the coils' spark leads. Car coils are so strong that you can mount them clear back on your bike's rear fender, with spark leads five feet long, and they'll still deliver more than enough voltage at the spark plugs unless you let the voltage escape somewhere along the way. Don't tape the spark leads to the frame tubes. If there's a pinhole in the lead insulation the spark will leap to ground there instead of at the plug electrodes, and even if the insulation is perfect there'll be some voltage loss due to certain weird inductive and capacitive effects associated with long conductors fuel tank is limited. And they aren't going to fit into the stock brackets because of the automobile coil's larger size. You should try to position the replacements in roughly the same spot as the originals, as that will enable you to use the existing electrical leads, but if there's just no extra densers to go with your coils, because you can't beat them for price and reliability.

Conventional inductive-type ignition systems are so simple that it's almost impossible to botch the coil transplant seriously unless you get excessively creto certain weird inductive and capacitive effects associated with long conductors and nearby masses of metal.

Another place the voltage can be lost is around the coil terminals. Give the coil a chance and it will send sparks zapping down from its high-voltage terminal to a frame tube or its own primary terminal lugs. Coils really need those rubber boots that fit tightly around the spark leads and their nose. You can get by without such insulation sometimes, but a little dust and moisture on the coil's insulated end will cause a massive short-circuiting of the coil output.

Do your neighbors a big favor and use either resistor-type plugs or spark plug caps that incorporate a resistor. Without resistance in the high-voltage leads your ignition system will be a fairly powerful radio/TV transmitter, and when the public's reception is upset and they figure out that the problem is motorcycles, then our reception is going to suffer. Radio noise from ignition systems is almost as annoying as the more direct output from badly muffled exhausts; it's just not quite as obvious. Those in-line resistors verge on being more than motorcycle coils can handle, but an automotive coil's output is too high to be seriously weakened by their voltage-squelching effects.

Some of the letters we've received express concern that a whooping increase

How motorcycle ignition systems actually perform, why their performance isn't nearly good enough, and a comprehensive plan to help you make your bike start

● IT WAS ONCE WIDELY BELIEVED THAT ANY spark strong enough to light an engine's fire was all the spark that mattered. We were inclined toward that belief ourselves, perhaps because we suspected that the ignition systems on our motorcycles performed at a level near the minimum and didn't want to think about having to make them better. Anyway, our time was needed for work on more pressing matters—like the search for perfect carburetion, and for spark plugs of a type/make/heat range that wouldn't foul after a few hundred miles in service. What we have since learned is that nearly all motorcycle engine fussiness originates in ignition systems. We'd been right in suspecting motorcycles of having fairly weak ignitions, but our assumption that it didn't matter much was entirely wrong: it matters a lot. And, it turns out, bikes' ignition systems are even worse than we had suspected.

The weakness of motorcycle ignition systems, and its implications, was revealed to us almost two years ago, and reported in a story titled "The Great Ignition Coil Test" (Cycle, July, 1975). The letters and phone calls that began to arrive soon after our subscribers received their copies continue, in a volume only slightly diminished, as this is being written. The original story focused, as its title suggests, on ignition coils; it made many of motorcycle coils' shortcomings as relates directly to the influence of spark plug electrode-gap width on the actual igniting of the air/fuel mixture in an engine's combustion chambers. We like to think of the mixture as having all its vaporized fuel molecules evenly distributed throughout the volume of air. If that even distribution could be provided, then full-throttle mixture strength would be about 14.7:1 (air/fuel, by weight) for all engines, and the gap between spark plugs' electrodes could be so narrow that only a few hundred volts would be required to force a spark across. In reality the mixture is highly heterogeneous: at some points within the charge it may actually be at the 14.7:1 ratio that ignites most easily; at most points it will vary in some degree, richer or leaner, from the optimum and may at times fall outside the range for combustion. That's where spark plug gap width comes into the picture, for it happens that the combustible mixture range broadens and narrows with the plug gap itself. One may see this phenomenon expressed in the plug gaps specified for today's emissions-controlled automobile engines, which must cope with extremely lean mixtures and which commonly use plug gaps of around .080-inch for that purpose.

Motorcycles presently are exempted from federal exhaust emissions standards but not from the effects of the relationship between plug gap width and mixture toler-of motorcycle coils' shortcomings as compared with the automotive variety but only mentioned the possibility of a switch from the former to the latter. That was an oversight, as reader response made clear, and we followed the original story with "Coils II," in the September, 1975, issue.

Coils II was intended to provide the information necessary for the average reader to perform a coil transplant on his motorcycle. Most of those who attempted the modification got through the ordeal successfully and were quite satisfied with the results—at first. But, as some discovered, motorcycles' ignition weakness often proved to be mirrored by their entire electrical systems. Coils II said, of replacing bikes' standard coils with the automotive kind, "Somewhere there undoubtedly is a motorcycle that lacks the generating capacity to handle the added amperage, but the vast majority of bikes' systems won't even notice the difference." Experience has shown that we were wrong. Many more motorcycle electrical systems are operating close to deficit than we had imagined; further, we underestimated the current drain some motorcycles would feel when fitted with automotive coils. For these reasons, and because a substantial group of readers either missed or have lost the issues containing the first two stories, we present here all the important information from the earlier reports and add to it what we've learned about the coil transplant's implications in terms of electrical loading.

Before embarking on our initial investigation of motorcycle ignition systems we were prepared to delve deeply into electromagnetic esoterica. That wasn't necessary, because it soon became clear that the most meaningful yardstick was nothing more mysterious than sheer coil output voltage. Ignition systems that pump out voltages strong enough to dazzle Thor, the god of lightning and thunder, are best; those that strain to produce a Zippo-esque flicker are bad. Things like voltage rise-time and spark energy are important, but only secondarily—and these things are, in significant measure, automatically supplied in a system capable of delivering a lot of voltage to an engine's spark plugs.

The overriding importance of sheer voltage in ignition system performance between plug gap width and mixture tolerance. Check through a sampling of motorcycle owners manuals and you'll find that the plug gaps commonly recommended are in the .022- to .028-inch bracket; check with a sampling of motorcycle owners and you'll hear plenty of complaints about bikes being cold-blooded, and/or having a hesitation at certain throttle settings. Can there be some tie between the gap recommendations and the complaints? You bet there is: motorcycle carburetors are arranged, with respect to throat size and general characteristics, with flat-out performance in mind. Their mixture delivery at low engine speeds is at best an approximation, which introduces a great need for mixture tolerance in the engines they feed. Automotive engineers established, long before the advent of emissions control, that a neat balance between mixture tolerance, coil current draw and effective plug life existed when plug gap was established at .035-inch, and that balance presumed better air/fuel mixing than most motorcycle engines can expect. Small wonder, then, that motorcyclists notice in their bikes such symptoms of distress as cold-start reluctance and part-throttle surging.

You can, if you like, perform a little test to tell you if your own motorcycle is suffering from a narrow plug gap-induced mixture intolerance. the ignition system on the subject motorcycle was so weak its engine wouldn't start with the gaps widened beyond .026-inch. However, we had enough faith in what we were told by experts in the field to swap the bike's stock coils for a pair of [illegible] coils purchased at the local K-Mart store. After performing mation. Without careful priming or choking the bike fired up on the second kick and immediately settled into a steady idle, which was 200 rpm faster than it had been at the narrower plug gap. Further, the bike's open-road behavior improved con[illegible]y with the .035-inch setting.

Similar tests made with the other motor-because it's an odds-on bet your bike's ignition system isn't strong enough to fire those plugs once they have acquired a light dusting of soot and fuel deposits. And if the true nature of your bike's problem is an overly-rich mixture it may foul a plug before rolling clear of your own driveway. Our early attempts at testing the wide plug gap theory were foiled because cut-rate automotive coils purchased at the local K-Mart store. After performing the coil transplant we tried the bike with its plugs gapped at .024-inch, and noted only a slightly enhanced willingness to start and cold-idle. The engine was then left overnight to cool, and we tried the same cold start/idle routine with its plugs regapped to .035-inch—to find a transfor- siderably with the .035-inch setting.

Similar tests made with the other motorcycles (a too-narrow sampling, as would become apparent) produced about the same results, which meshed very neatly with what we had been told about the effects of plug gap width. We had been told that a wide gap wouldn't do much for an engine that was getting too much fuel,

COILS CONVERSION

Cycle has run an excellent set of articles telling us about the benefits of an automotive coil transplant. These articles have been very complete—up to the point of describing the procedure for installation on individual machines. I would like to partially fill this void with pertinent information on a coil switch for the GT185 Suzuki.

The Suzuki owner will have to buy the following materials: two each of coils, resistors, condensors, rubber spark plug lead boots, spark plug connector clips, and also two feet of 12-20 gauge wire, electrical tape, two very large hose clamps, two medium sized hose clamps and two L-81 champion plugs. I bought all these supplies at our friendly neighbor-hood Coast to Coast store, which is signif-

Remember those wire pairs I had you tape to the right and left side of the frame? Untape the right side orange wire and connect it to the resistor you mounted on the frame crossmember. Cut six inches from the wire you bought and attach this to the terminal opposite the orange wire on the resistor. Shift to the left side and do the se, except you will only need about four inches of wire.

Place the new coils in the frame in roughly the same place the stock coils were. The lips on the coil tops should be behind the throttle cable junction box and overlapping. For convenience sake, turn the positioned coils so that the negative (—) terminal is on the top. Hose-clamp the coils to frame using the two large clamps. Connect the wires from the resistors to their respective coils positive (+) termihood Coast to Coast store, which is significant only in the case of the coils. Mastercraft coils (12V) are small enough to fit under the tank, yet they work very well.

Procedure: Detach the tank and carefully observe the wiring to the coils. On one side you will see a black wire leading from a coil's front (i.e., the end that has the spark plug lead). This wire leads to the contacts; detach it and the orange wire leading to the other end of the coil. Temporarily tape these wires together on the frame side so you can tell which wires belong together and on which side later on. Shift to the other coil and do the same.

Dismount the coil bracket (coils and all) now that you have it disconnected. You are going to have to cut the spark leads off, as they are not detachable. Put the coils to one side and turn your attention to the spark leads. From the ends that you cut off remove ⅜- to ¾-inch of insulation and solder the spark plug clips on. Lubricate these clips and slip the rubber spark plug boots up over them until the bottom of the boot is level with the end of the clip. Test fit this assembly into the coil (automotive from now on) towers and be sure of a tight connection between the tower clips and your plug clips.

Next turn your attention to the resistors. Mount one of them eight inches behind their respective coils positive (+) terminals, and double check for a tight fit. This done, untape the two remaining wires (one white, one black) and connect them to their respective coils negative terminal.

Scrape the paint away from the main frame tube above the coils and hose-clamp a condenser bracket below the frame tube. Before tightening down the clamp, slip your condensers in the bracket so that they are tail to tail, one condenser facing to the right, one to the left. Now tighten the hose clamp and connect the condenser wires to their respective coils' negative terminal. If you are the nervous type, run what's left of your wire from the hose clamp to the engine cylinder head. Those phillips head screws on the top make great connections and this wire will ensure that your condensers are grounded.

Remove your NGK's (or whatever) and install the L-81's gapped to .040. Install the spark plug leads between the spark plugs and their respective coils.

After carefully going back over your work, cover each connection with liquid rubber to insulate it. Take the left engine cover off and remove the stock condensers, making sure the points are in good shape while you are down there. Slip the tank and engine cover back on, making sure to reconnect the fuel line.

Mount one of them eight inches behind the steering head bracket on the left small frame tube. Use one of the medium hose clamps and mount it on top of the tube. The second resistor should be heavily taped to the middle of the frame crossmember that the stock coil bracket mounted to. Mount this resistor so that its terminals are positioned vertically (up, that is) and the body is parallel to the frame tubes.

Starting: Depress the choke and kick-start it. If it immediately revs to 8500 rpm, shut down and check the throttle cables down by the carbs; they are probably stretched tight. Maneuver them around your coils so they lay normally. Kick it over again. This time it should idle normally, though about 200 rpm faster. After about 10 seconds, lift the choke and watch it settle into a nice, steady idle, no matter if it is —10°F in your garage.

My GT185 still runs a bit cobby until the spider webs get blown out by a few high rpm rushes, but I think it could be that pitted set of points. The coil transplant makes my little road burner run spot on (when it's warmed up) at any altitude, any weather.

I've got a '71 Bonneville that started missing on the right cylinder after warming up. After reading some time ago in Cycle about how bad motorcycle electrics have always been, I decided to change the stock ignition units. At a local discount store I purchased two Holley 33-3 coils at $10.87 each and two Standard Motor Product Blue Streak FD-77X condensers (there are equivalent condensers for a Pinto, etc.) at $1.49 each. With the Holley 33-3 coils there is no need for an external ballast resistor as it is an integral part of the coil itself.

engine. I would recommend a Champion N-3 (which is standard) or colder plug, depending on how hot you ride. Be sure to take several plug readings the first few days or so to make sure she's running fine. I run my plugs gapped at .028 and have yet to have any problems with this system. Even Satan couldn't ask for more fire. She starts up on the first kick every time and there is a noticeable improvement in smoothness at idle and on hard acceleration.

Thanks again to Cycle for turning us all on some time ago to a weak point in just about every bike's electrical system. It really makes a difference.

With these coils and condensers installed there is a noticeable difference in performance. The main things I like are one-kick starting and stronger acceleration. The only other change was to use 16-gauge wire from condensers and wiring harness to the coils as I mounted both coils on the downtubes in front of the

● WE FIND OURSELVES IN THE ODD POSITION of having been right, and wrong, all at the same time. Here's how it happened: In the story "Coils III" we dismissed the idea of fitting four-cylinder Kawasakis and Hondas with automotive ignition coils by saying it wouldn't work. According to our understanding of the word "work" we were right; it turns out that a great many people give it a different interpretati to two twin-lead spark coils, in an arrangement that would be fine if the coils were capable of delivering higher voltage. Stronger coils would let us use wider plug electrode gaps, which improve an engine's tolerance for less-than-perfect carburetion, help to ease cold-start problems, and sometimes give peak power a boost. But none of the automotive coils and that means you have to be a bit the real difficulty comes when you try to switch four coils with only two sets of ignition contacts. As we see it, this problem can be resolved (not necessarily with good results) by choosing from the following alternatives:

You could wire the paired coils together in a parallel circuit, with both negative primary terminals connected to a single set of points. This definitely won't work, as car coils will pull about seven sooner had Cycle's April issue been shipped than reader backlash began: "I've got four car coils on my Honda (or Z-1) and the setup works fine; you guys are wrong again, you never get anything right, and besides that your grandmothers wear army shoes."

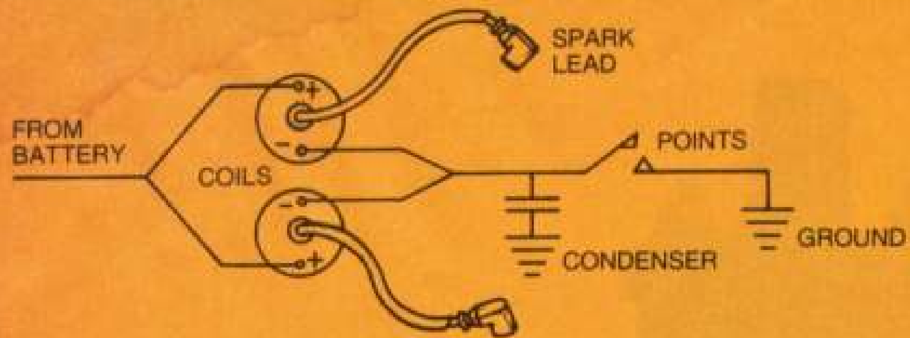
Obviously, our brief comment on this subject was, if not as wrong as charged, then certainly too brief. It was inevitable that after we'd explained the benefits of really strong ignition systems, and demonstrated that ordinary car coils are a world better than the best found on motorcycles, everyone was going to start at least thinking about coil transplanting. It was especially inevitable that all the owners of big fours, who've demonstrated a commitment to performance with the bikes they ride, would be most interested. We should have explored this aspect of the whole coil-transplant subject in more detail; we didn't, and to that extent we unquestionably were wrong.

The basic difficulty facing everyone who's trying to replace a Honda, Suzuki or Kawasaki four's stock coils with automotive ignition coils is that these bikes have just two sets of ignition contact points. These contacts are used to switch current and that means you have to be a bit inventive to even attempt the kind of one-coil-per-cylinder transplant that works so well on singles and twins.

At least one reader tried to splice a "Y" connection on each of two car coils' spark leads, hoping that they'd work like his bike's dual-lead coils. He found that his bike would only run on two cylinders: one per coil. Each coil's entire output was simply flowing to ground through the plug offering the least resistance.

Another reader wanted to know if it would be possible to connect a second spark lead to the coil case, insulate the case from the frame, and get two plugs to fire from a single coil in that fashion. That won't work either: coils' high-voltage windings have a common connection with the primary winding inside the case; conventional coils' cases are not even connected with anything inside.

If you want to use automotive coils on your big four-cylinder bike, you'll have to use four of them. That's inconvenient, because it isn't easy to find room to mount them, but the job doesn't have to be expensive: we haven't found anything better than K-Mart coils, which retail at our local store for $6.66 each. However, work, as car coils will pull about seven amps unless the current is controlled with a ballast resister. The two coils, in a parallel circuit, would therefore draw no less than 14 amps, which would produce an almost immediate points-assembly failure. Most motorcycle ignition points are intended to carry an electrical current no greater than 2.5 amps.



So let's suppose you've tried that, bought a new set of points, and are ready to try again with some ballast-resister protection for your new contacts. If you leave the coils connected in a parallel circuit and insert a single ballast resister between coils and battery, you'll get a total current of about 3.5 to 4.0 amps across the points. They'll survive that for a while but it hardly matters because the coils will have to share that current, cutting each primary winding's supply to something less than two amps—and halving their output voltage. Thus, the full 30-kv (30,000-volt) zap you should get from any good American-made automotive ignition coil will have been reduced to a 15-kv fizzle, which is about what you get from the typical motorcycle coil.

You can add another ballast resister, using one per coil to get full-strength

NO: Placing a ballast resister in the circuit between the battery and parallel-wired coils will hold the current across the points to no more than four amps, but that supplies each coil with only two amps, which will reduce the car coils' robust output to a fizzle. You'd do as well with stock motorcycle coils.

NO: Using two ballast resisters in parallel circuits will insure that each coil will get the current it needs to make a strong spark, but this approach also raises the total current across the points to about three times the load they can carry. You can expect to make it around the block with this setup—once.

MAYBE: Two coils wired in series work when their combined work when their combined resistances hold point current to an acceptable level. Unfortunately, that usually happens only when the coils have a relatively weak output. None of the really vigorous car coils have the resistance needed to do the job.

MAYBE: Adding an automotive ballast resister in a series circuit with two coils can work, but only when each coil's primary resistance is very low and the bike's electrical system is very strong. We tried this arrangement, using a pair of K-Mart coils, and got a spark that was about a third weaker than normal.

YES: Coil resistance and available voltage vary greatly, so you need an adjustable power resister to let you fine-tune the circuit to a current that will give good coil output but not too-drastically shorten the life of the ignition contacts. And it will allow you to trade points life for spark voltage, or vice versa.

MAGNETO

• One of these years I'm going to tire of playing Don Quixote to Jess Thomas' Sancho Panza. Jess very sensibly prefers to spend his time maintaining and fine-tuning factory-built racing bikes; I am always tilting windmills by creating my own racing equipment from a touring-motorcycle base. Predictably, Jess gets a good ride at nearly every race while I struggle with a seemingly endless sorting-out process. Still, all the problems and aggravations notwithstanding, I will probably continue battling the windmills simply because there is so much to be learned in do-it-yourself.

At this time last year, I began work on a new bike for the 1969 season: a Honda CB450-based road racer. My reasons for selecting this particular bike were one: it offered considerable potential, with double overhead camshafts and a five-speed transmission, and two; it was known for having a high degree of reliability. It was available (we had obtained one for a road test) and I thought it was about time for another try with a four-stroke engine after so many months with the window-valve wonders.

When embarking on a project of this sort, a lot of fundamental decisions must be made as to the shape things will take. But in this instance, most decisions had been made for me by others. The AMA rules require that near-standard frame and forks be used—unless you can get approval from those who manufactured your motorcycle to substitute. Honda has never approved anything but Honda equipment except for brakes, and I knew that the frame and forks that came with the bike would have to suffice, for better or for worse. Honda did, however, approve installation of a Fontana four-shoe front brake. I found that the tank, seat and fairing made for Harley-Davidson's KR would fit the Honda—although it was necessary to make a new bottom for the tank to fit down over the Honda frame. All the rest would be Honda, slightly modified.

This gave me all the basic hardware. It was still necessary to work out the details for the various systems, like carburetion and ignition. This last was most bothersome, because while I did not want to carry a battery on the bike, their very successful 450, and had ultimately used a Yamaha magneto—which required the fitting of special seals and cutting a new taper on the end of the Honda crankshaft.

One of the primary reasons PM had for going to that crankshaft-mounted magneto was to dispense with the stock Honda points and breaker-cam setup. They had used a standard battery/coil system, and found a serious misfire up in the 10,000 rpm range that would not go away. Changes in coils, and condensers, and points had no effect; the misfire was still with them. It was eliminated when they switched to the magneto.

But for all the machining required, I might very well have done the same. Unfortunately, I didn't have that much time to devote to an ignition system; an alternative would have to be found. The question was: what alternative? It was obvious that I could not expect good results with the standard ignition system. PM had tried that without success, and I knew that my CB 450 would misfire like mad if taken past the 9700 rpm red line. And there was my clue: it seemed just a little too pat that the misfire would occur so near the red line; perhaps Honda had built in the misfire to prevent people from over-revving their engines.

PM's story was that the misfire was being caused by the exhaust camshaft (which carries the breaker cam on its extended left end) and was upsetting the timing at high engine speeds. That did not seem likely to me, as the Honda's camshafts have a really hefty diameter, and lobes running right next to the support bearings. It had to be something else. And it was.

The 450's ignition breaker cam has an unusually steep opening ramp, and whacks the points open very smartly. A good thing in terms of easy starting and prolonging point life (a fast, clean break minimizes arcing), but definitely ungood at high engine speeds. Get that cam turning fast enough, and the points begin to float and bounce and in general misbehave very badly. At such times, you can get a whole volley of sparks from the ignition system–none of them occurring when they should.

There is a cure. You take a fine stone, and roll a bit more radius into the curve that joins the cam's flank and nose. Then with an even finer stone, you restore the cam's surface polish–which is necessary unless you want a rough spot on the cam that will file away at the breaker blocks. You must go very slowly in modifying that cam profile. Remove just a touch of material, widening the radius ever so slightly, and then put everything back together and ride the bike to see what the result has been. There is not much point in and ride the bike to see what the result has been. There is not much point in moving the point-of-misfire up beyond the engine's operating range. My 450 Honda will go to 12,000 rpm without missing a beat, but you are asking for trouble if you take it much above 10,500 rpm. The Honda will go along with this foolishness a few times, but eventually there will be a big blow up. (For reasons that will be explained when I get around to the subject of cams and Honda's torsion-bar valve springs.)

That takes care of the point float; we still have to deal with the rest of the spark-producing system—which will probably sound complicated to you, but is easily managed if you understand what it is you are trying to accomplish. All you have to do is to make your own magneto, and that is—believe it or not—easier than fitting some existing mag' on the Honda engine.

The magneto I made for my 450 is of the "energy-transfer" variety, which is to say a magneto with separate low-voltage generator (engine driven) and high-voltage spark coils. For the low-voltage generator coils, I simply used the "daytime" coils in the Honda's alternator. The actual spark is produced by a Bendix magneto coil. You need a pair of these Bendix coils, and you can

IT REALLY

A pumper carb is really the hot setup for any four stroke. We know 'cause we've tried it.

This is the letter that started the whole thing:

"I was quite interested in the article in the May issue of your magazine on the installation of a diaphragm type carburetor on a 360 Maico. It seems to me that a lot of four cycle machines would benefit from a similar setup.

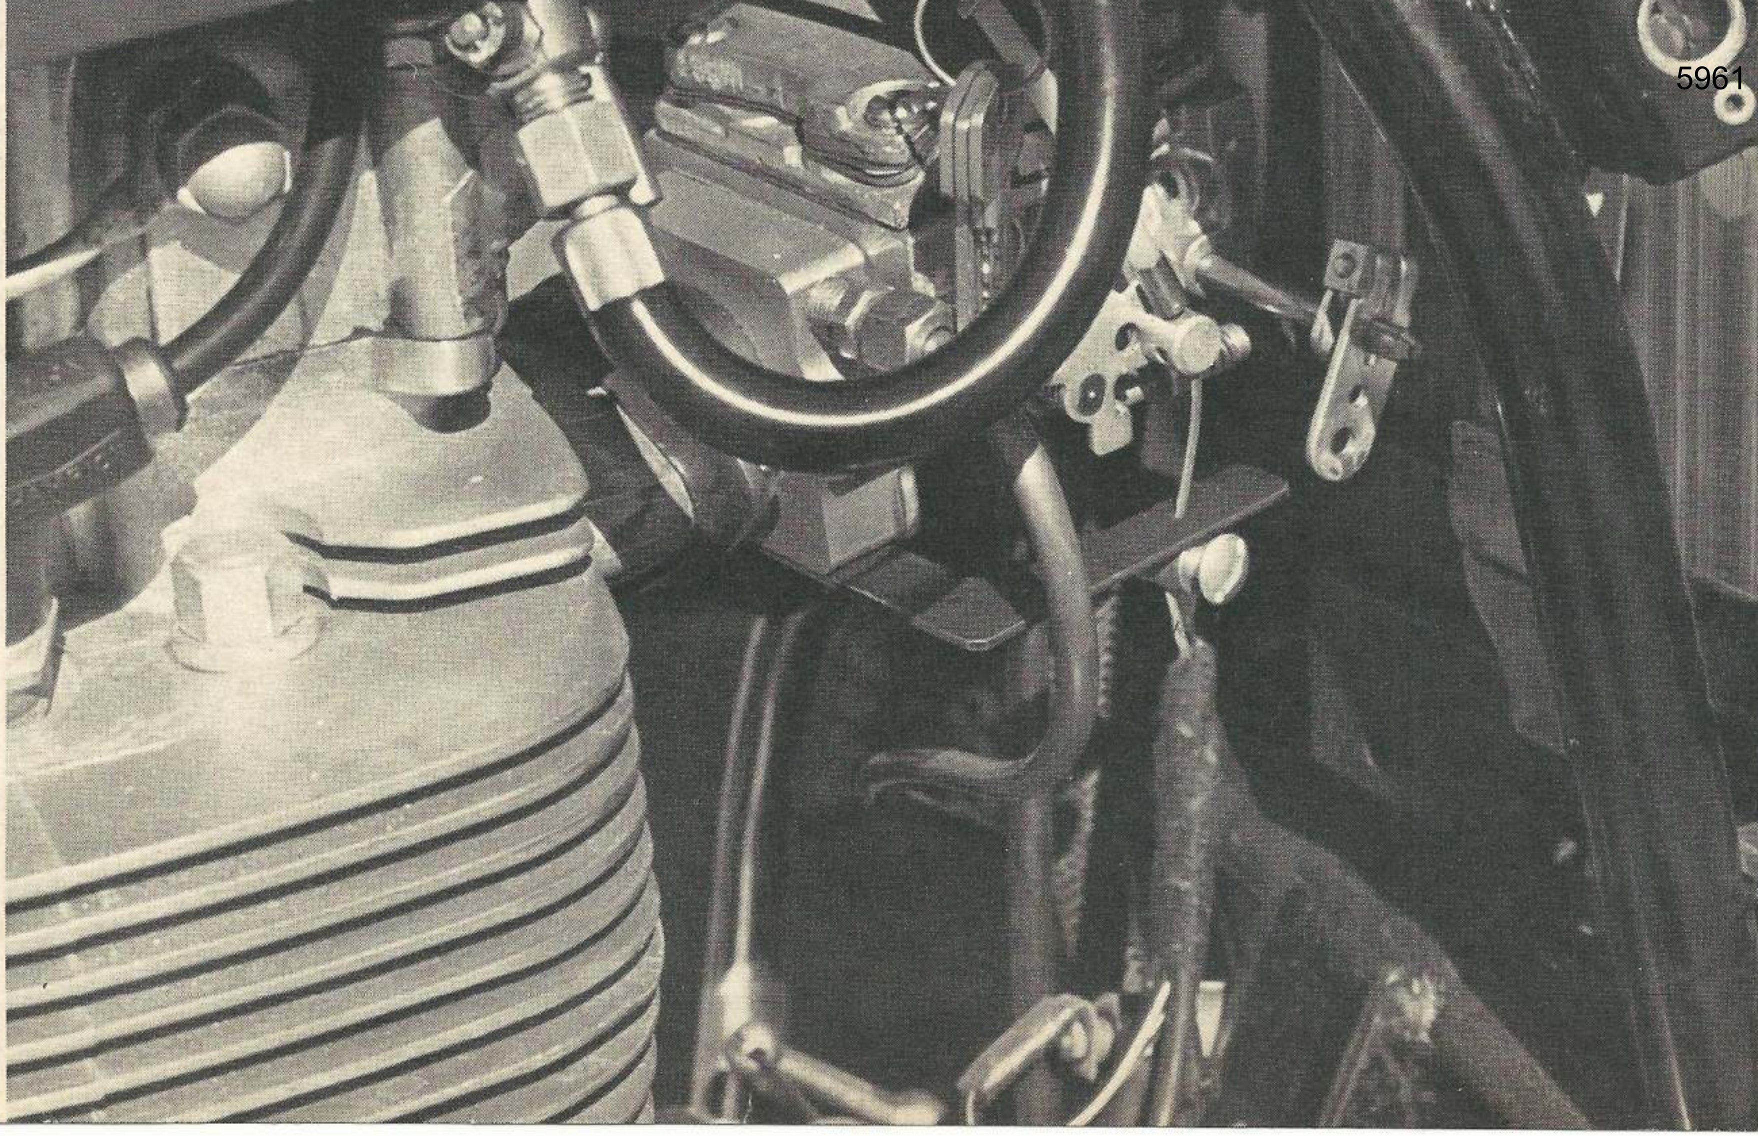
"My 441 Victor BSA has always been a hard starter due mainly to the Amal concentric, which the local mechanics just can't seem to get tuned properly.

"Would it be possible for me to adapt the pumper unit you used to my 441? If so, would there be any special problems involved other than the ones you've mentioned in regards to the Maico? For instance, what happens to the line you ran from the manifold to the crankcase when the carb is adapted to the 441?

"If the McCulloch unit won't work, can you name one that will?" (Michael D. Staberg)

The McCulloch carburetor we were using, Mike, depended on a pressure pulse from the crankcase on a two-stroke to inject the fuel into the throat of the carburetor. With a four-cycle engine, it's a different ball game altogether.

The problem with a four-stroke installation was where to pick up this pressure pulse. We no longer had a crankcase with the necessary two-stroke characteristics to provide the puffing that was needed to operate our carburetor.



After a lot of head scratching, it was discovered there was a considerable pulse action in the exhaust system. The natural thing, therefore, would be to get the pulse off this portion of the engine and thereby utilize the exhaust system to actuate the diaphragm inside the carburetor. We're proud to announce it worked like a charm.

The only problem with the whole setup (and it really wasn't a problem) came about the first time fuel was poured into the tank: There is no real pulse in the exhaust system until the engine is running. This plus the fact that our carburetor was bone dry made it necessary to push the motorcycle about 10 or 15 feet to prime the carburetor.

Once the carburetor had filled with fuel, it was never necessary to push again. We might also mention that since there is no pulse in the exhaust system until the engine is running, it is necessary to keep fuel in the carburetor at all times.

The installation was ridiculously simple. The whole job took about an hour.

WORKS!

But this is no problem, unless, of course, you should run out of gas.

We found it was never necessary to shut the fuel cock off since the needle and seat are very positive and never leaked a bit.

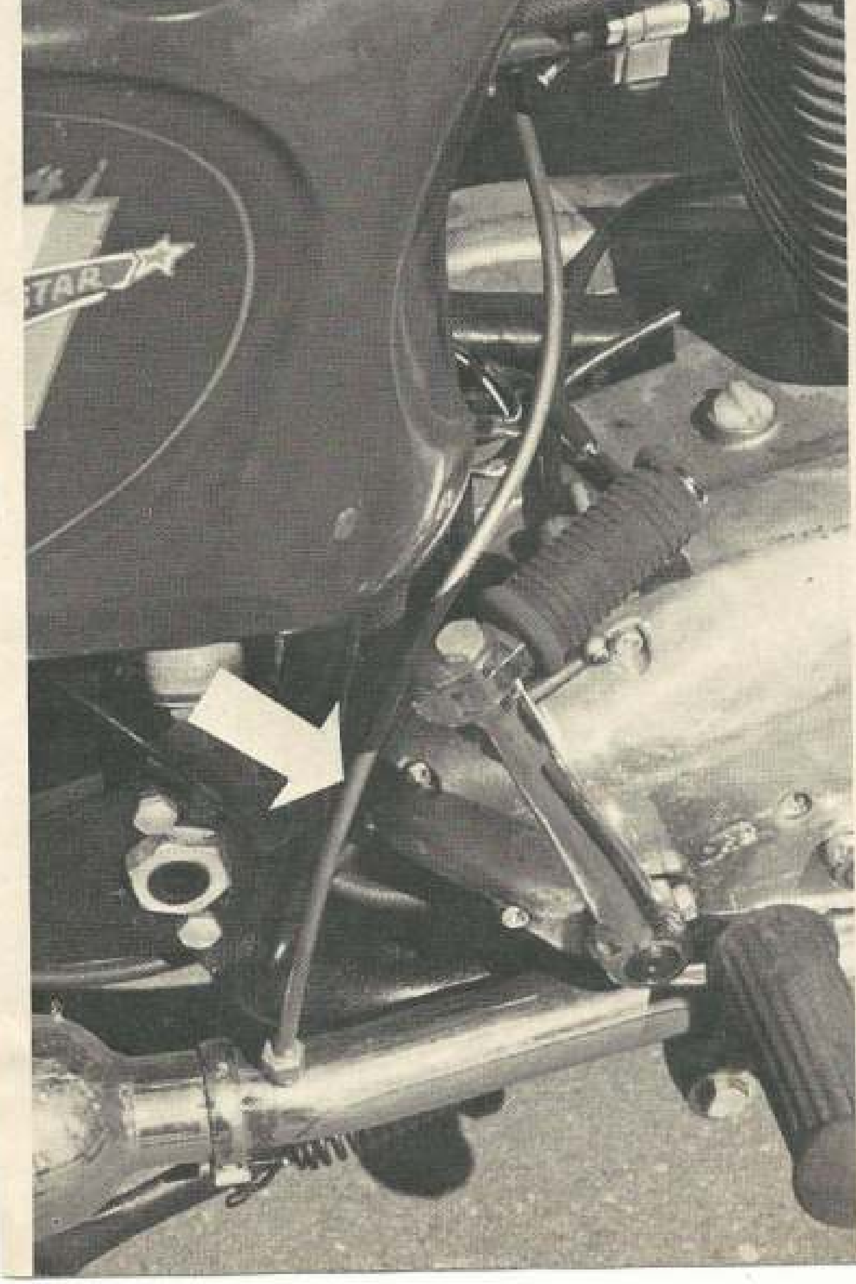
The carburetor we installed is not the same one we had used previously. It is a new, improved version which features a priming device, an anti-vapor locking gadget, and a host of other new features. It is not the McCullogh unit but another one that looks similar.

The pumping capacity of this new carburetor is astronomical. Just one turn open on the high speed jet (both jets are completely adjustable from the outside) will cause even the hungriest 360 moto-crosser to four-cycle.

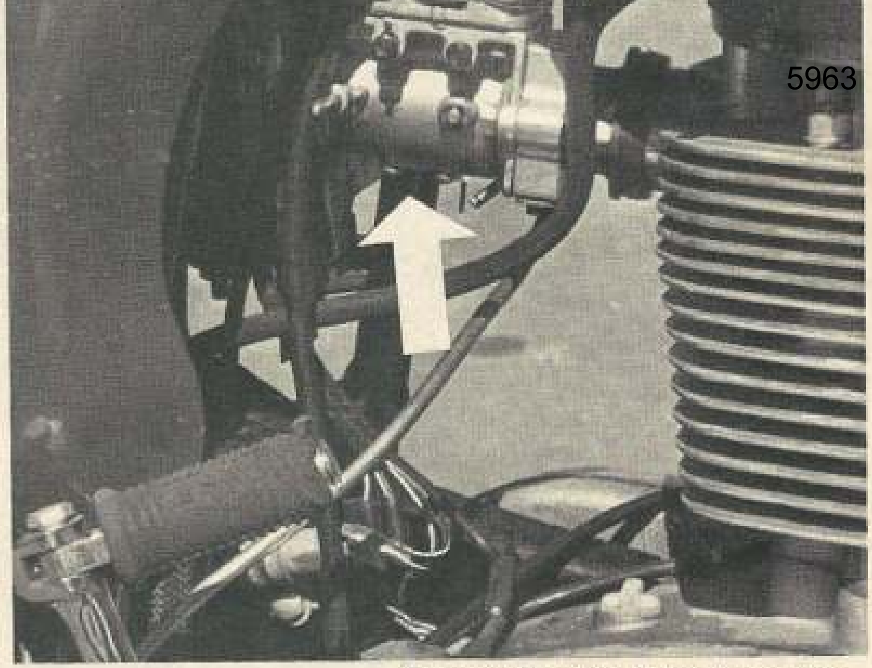
It differs from the earlier McCulloch unit in other ways. This unit does not inject fuel directly into the bore of the carburetor. Rather it depends on the velocity across the venturi (which, by the way, is 32 mm) to pick up the fuel and carry it into the engine.

An interesting sidelight was discovered shortly after the unit was mounted on a two-stroke for the first time. The carburetor ran absolutely cold. Some of the earlier units had the habit of heating up and thereby causing a vapor lock. Not so with the new one. Obviously the venturi in the bore of the carburetor raises the velocity to a point whereby the air rushing through helps to cool it down. Also the added fuel flow through the carburetor itself carries away much of the heat. The only time the carburetor had a tendency to get even slightly warm was when the motorcycle was stopped and the heat was allowed to radiate off the cylinder and cases, thereby heating up the castings that comprised the carburetor.

In the four-stroke it was pretty much the same situation. So far we have run these carburetors on a 441 BSA (shown here) and a Triumph 650 Twin. In both cases it worked very well. Much better in fact than the original concentrics. Throttle response was excellent, and the engines would turn up considerably tighter.



Incidentally, Kendrick Engineering distributes these units and they have worked with us in installing these carburetors on various motorcycles. So far we've had excellent luck.



Right now we are in the process of installing these carburetors on a BSA triple. As soon as we have definite word on how this works (and there is no doubt it will work quite well), we will let you know of the results.

The original carburetors were 26mm Amal concentrics, and we now have 32mm Kendrick units on them. The results should be quite interesting. ●

Except for the tube from the exhaust system, most people would overlook the new carburetor.

A line running from the exhaust pipe to the carb carries the pulse needed to operate the pump section.

38mm DIAPHRAGM CARBURETOR

The diaphragm carburetor is now available in a larger size to work on any large displacement two-stroke single.

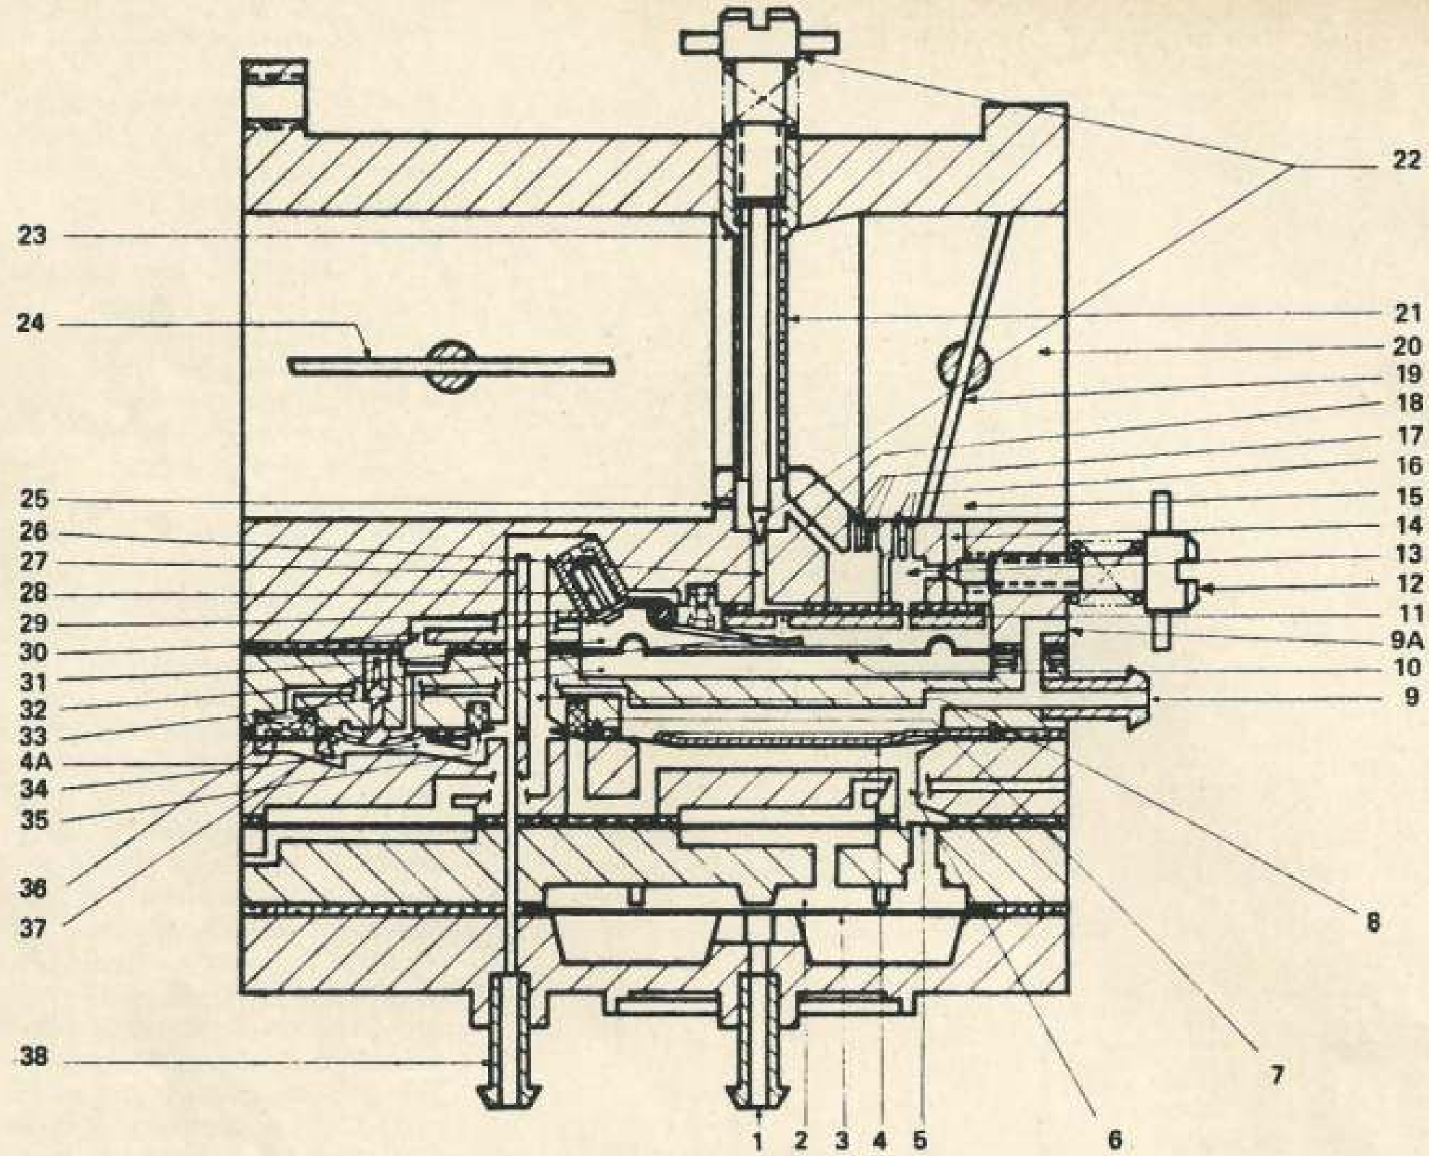
This carburetor thing is really getting out of hand. It seems like we're testing something new in this field each month. This time Kendick Engineering, 9520 DeSoto Ave., Chatsworth, CA. has hit the jackpot.

Their new 38mm diaphragm pumper pumps so much gas that the engine can't use it all, and any excess is pumped back into the tank. It might help to have a bit of background knowledge about the pumper carburetors before you can appreciate this new behemoth.



This new carburetor, if it can be called that, is named the Pressure Pulse Carburetor. As the name implies, it receives a pulse from the lower end of the engine telling it exactly how much fuel to deliver on the next stroke. Basically, this carburetor was designed for Go Kart engines, although it is now finding its way into the Snowmobile trade and other fields with rapid acceptance. We're sure that this doesn't sound like the motorcycle carburetor of tomorrow design, and possibly this is one reason it has been so overlooked by so many people in the motorcycle field.

By going into a little detail on the way this carburetor does its job, and how it differs from all other units, you will see that it is really a modern device. Most of us know that the carburetor's job is to meter and deliver the proper ratio of air-gas mix to the engine at each rpm level, from idle to maximum speed and back down again with an air-gas mixture of about 13-1 at all times. This is a tremendous job for a unit so small and it does it well. In reality the mix is changing up and down as the throttle is opened and closed and will vary from 10-1 to 100-1, although most of the time it is within a reasonable area of the 13-1 ratio that is optimum. It's rather hard for us to detect these differences due to the fact that they happen so fast and pass so quickly; but the engine reacts to them, both in response and power. So the key is to deliver the exact amount at all times with the unit that we can attach to the engine that will pass the necessary air. Most motorcycles today could use a larger carburetor for pure top speed, and to make it breathe better. However, in going to a large carburetor bore, the low end response suffers greatly. Therefore, the manufacturer has to settle for a bore diameter that will create enough venturi action to pull the liquid fuel from the float bowl well below the main discharge nozzle at low engine rpm when the air flow is rather slow in speed.

In the Pressure Pulse Carburetor we have a straight bore unit with no venturi at all. This helps air flow for better breathing, because the gas is actually pumped, or injected, into the stream of incoming air under a positive pressure. Each time the piston moves down in the cylinder, pressure in the lower end is created, which in turn sends a signal to the metering diaphragm telling it how much gas to pump into the air stream. The lower end pressure varies with the amount of air that has passed the throttle disc and entered the engine. As a result the pressure signals vary to the carburetor, which in turn varies the amount of fuel at these different rpm ranges. The amount of air that passes the throttle disc is in direct proportion to the amount of pressure built up in the lower end; also the signals to the diaphragm and pump in the carburetor are in direct proportion to these, so we always have a perfect balance of air and fuel.

In the design of the Pressure Pulse Carburetor, there are several features which lend themselves nicely to installation on almost any of the two-cycle motorcycles sold today—all the way from 100ccs to the larger 360 singles. It can be mounted in any position from horizontal to vertical, and from rightside up to upside down, with no effect on its operation whatsoever. The diameter of the bore is 38mm, and there is no venturi, which means that it is a straight shot. The size should be plenty for anything up to a 400cc single.

The pressure pulse carburetor makes use of only the pressure pulses of the crankcase to create a signal pressure on the carburetor diaphragm. The suction pulses from the crankcase are cut off by a one-way duck valve. The duck-valve is also known as a "duck-bill" valve, a "raspberry" valve, and a "Bronx cheer" valve. To prevent the pressure pulses from pumping up the carburetor signal chamber like a balloon, a bleed-down passage containing a carefully sized orifice releases pressure into the atmosphere from the signal chamber of the carburetor. The size of the orifice is determined by

DIAPHRAGM CARBURETOR MODS

Greater fuel delivery from your pumper carburetor is easy — Here's how

By Bob Braverman

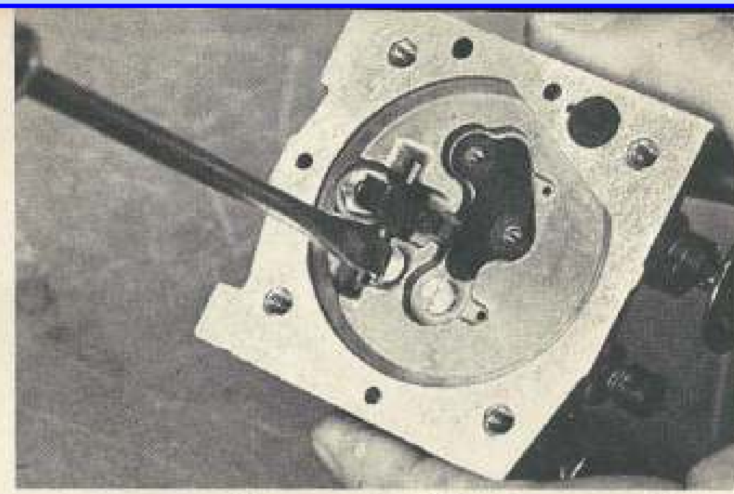
The series we have run in the past few months regarding the diaphragm carburetors has proved to be an overwhelming success. What started out to be a possible cure for a hard-starting 360 Maico has mushroomed into a boon for quite a number of the dirt riders hereabouts.



Inasmuch as a diaphragm carburetor is a completely new unit to most motorcyclists, they are rather reluctant to get in there and modify anything because they don't really know what they are doing. In a way, though, this is a good thing. This prevents them from possibly damaging something inadvertently. We have found, on some of the larger displacement two-strokes, there is a problem with fuel delivery in sufficient quantities. This sort of thing can prove to be disastrous on a hot summer day while pounding along at high speeds in the rough stuff.

When reports began to filter in about some of the larger displacement machines running out of gas at the top end, we immediately began to look into the possible causes and cures for this malady. It was then we discovered it was quite a simple matter to increase the pumper section output. As a matter of fact, another 20 or 25% is not hard to come by. This is more than enough to supply even the thirstiest 360.

Upon disassembly of the carburetor, we found that the McCulloch Corporation is rather casual in their manufacturing of these pressure type carburetors. By that I mean, they leak. By doing nothing more you can improve the performance potential of your diaphragm carburetor considerably by merely lapping the plates shown in this article, so as to prevent any air or fuel leakage. By lapping flat both the inlet and outlet sides of the carburetor, plus the top section that the plates and diaphragms sit against, you can help circumvent any possible leakage, and thereby improve performance.

A number of the very potent 360's, when whacking along at full tilt (75 to 90 mph), the fuel economy is terrible, even at best. So anything we can do to help deliver enough fuel to keep the engine from starving at the top revs is going to be a plus factor as far as reliability and longevity of the piston and cylinder is concerned. Not to mention the bearing surfaces.

One nice thing about this type of carburetor is that the needle valves for both the high speed and low speed are on the outside, and should you wish to richen or lean the mixture, it is merely a

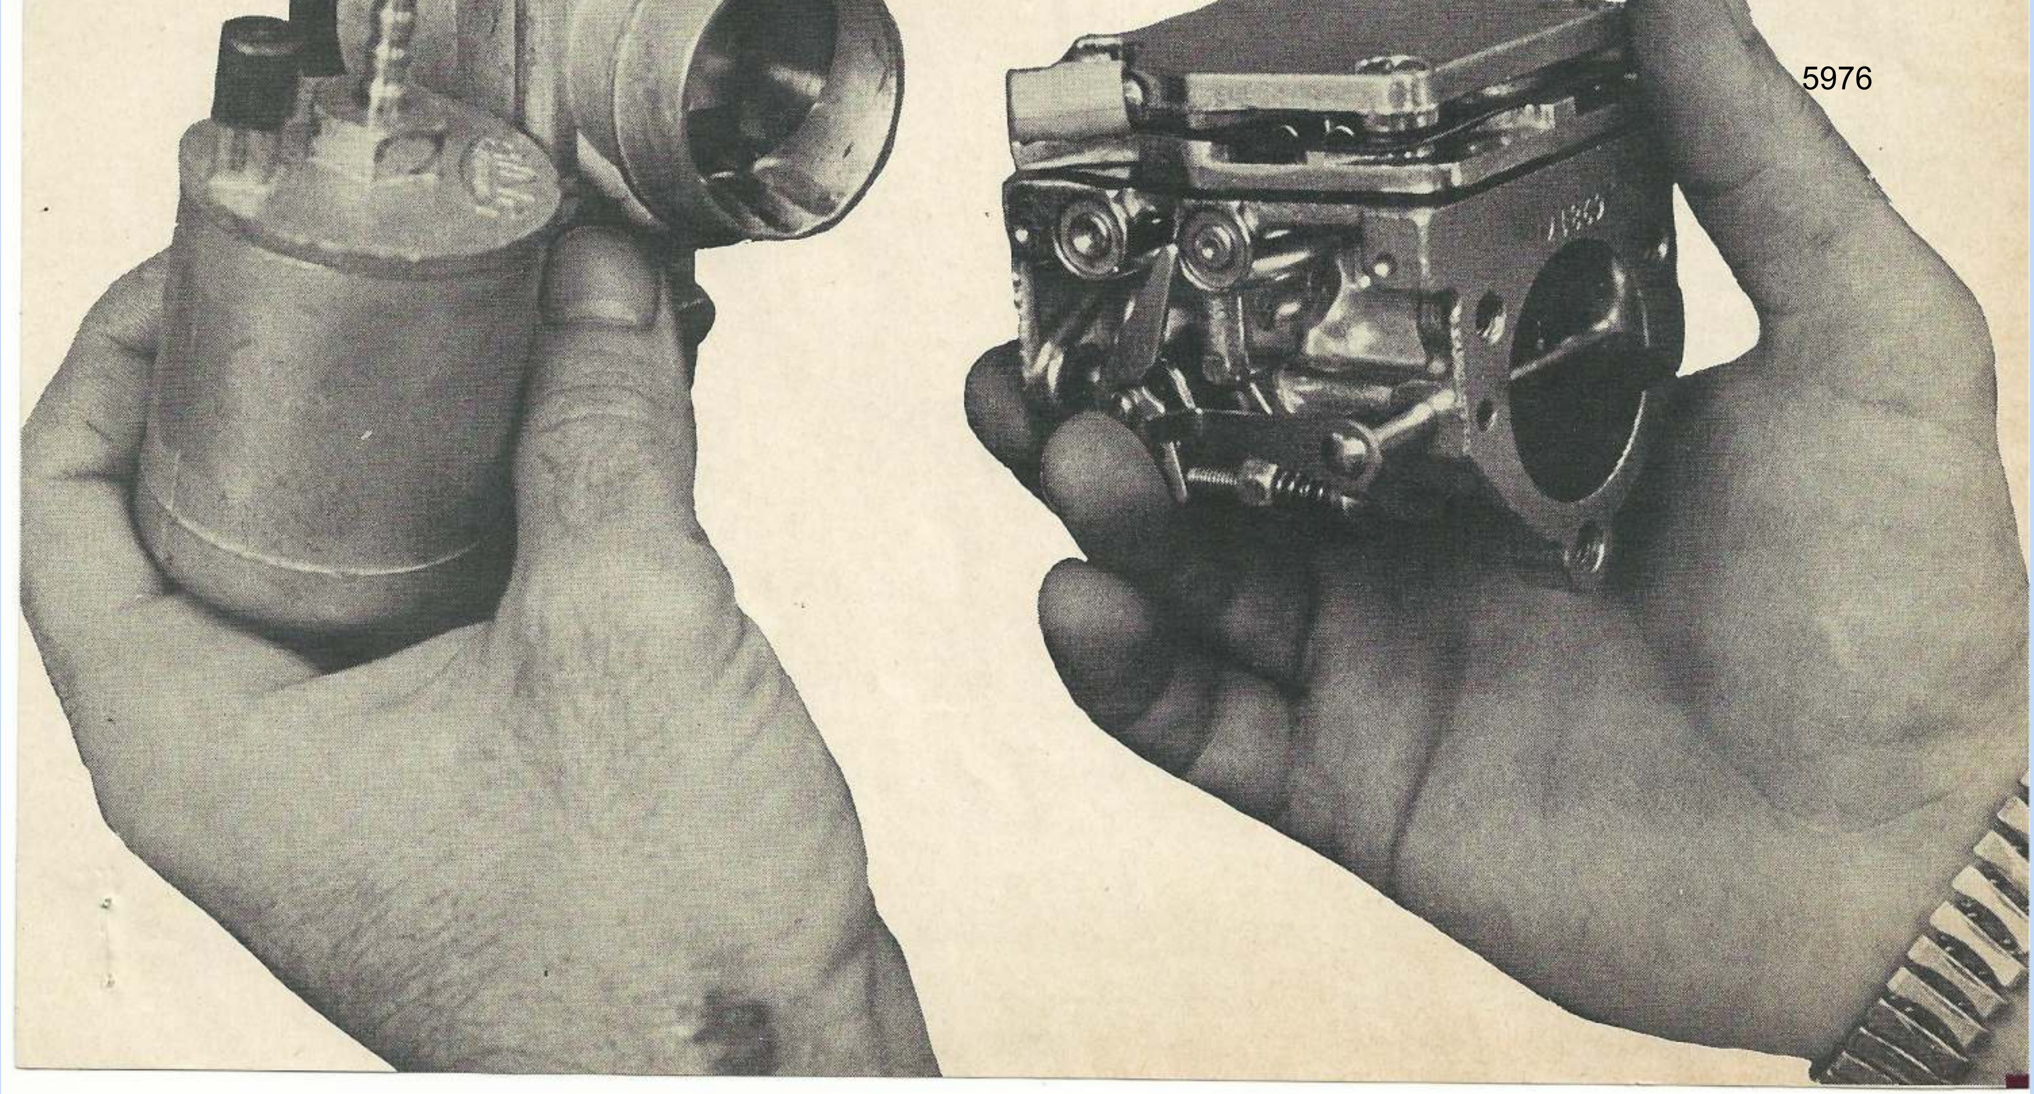
Last month, we published a story on diaphragm carburetor theory. Little did we realize what we were starting. Since that time, we have been deluged with requests from people who would like to know how to install this particular type carburetor on their own piece of transportation or sporting equipment.



The installation is quite simple. However, there are certain things that must be done, and in an effort to clarify these points, we thought it best to show a typical installation — in this case, my own 360 Maico. The truth of the matter is, the Maico is the reason this whole carburetor thing came about in the first place. While the machine has got to be one of the best things going it is hard to start when hot, and should you drop it on the right side, disaster is sure to follow. The float bowl being mounted on the left side of the carburetor allows fuel to pour into the engine and instantly floods it. This, however, is not unusual, as a number of other machines, similar in design, are prone to do the same thing, should the rider err and fall.

In an effort to circumvent this frustrating problem, I cast about looking for a carburetor that wouldn't have these hard starting tendencies. Then I remembered the old go kart days, when we used the diaphragm or pressure pulse carburetor. It was at this point that I decided to give it a try, for a number of reasons. First of all, it made no difference in what attitude the motorcycle was; upside down or right side up, the engine ran just as well.

WORLD'S CHEAPEST FUEL INJECTION

How to put a diaphragm carburetor on your machine.

Also, both the low speed and high speed jetting is adjustable from the outside of the carburetor. This meant there was no fiddling around with jetting, should I decide to change it. It was at this point I contacted Jerry Branch, only to find that he, too, had been working along the same lines. The result was the first installment of "All About Carburetors."

Any go-kart shop has a wide variety of carburetors to choose from. The reason I picked the McCullough was because of the size, and the fact that it had a choke assembly already mounted. This carburetor (Part No. 69817) is a standard unit that is used on Snowmobiles, and will adapt readily to any motorcycle we have run across. Of course, in a rotary valve type engine, where space is at a premium, you may have to go to one of the smaller units in order to squeeze it in. Regardless of the size carburetor you choose, the important thing is to be absolutely certain there are no air leaks leading from the lower end of the engine to the inlet side of the carburetor itself. This is absolutely imperative, if the carburetor is to function satisfactorily.

Another very nice feature of these carburetors is that you can use a carburetor bore size of astronomical proportions. This is because the carburetor is not dependent upon velocity across the venturi to pick up the fuel and carry the mixture into the lower end. The velocity in the crankcase of the engine does all mixture into the lower end. The vacuum in the crankcase of the engine does all the work. As such, the fuel is pumped into the bore of the carburetor under pressure, thereby creating a very simple form of fuel injection. Of course, installation problems will vary, but the format used on the 360 Maico is quite typical of any problems you are likely to encounter.

Naturally, as with any project of this type, there were a lot of things we didn't know and were curious about. We were quite lucky, and found a company by the name of Kendick Engineering, located in North Hollywood, California. They are in the go-kart business, and are really sharp when it comes to unusual installation problems. I contacted them, and they were so interested in our project they spent their one day off, which was Sunday, working with me to complete the carburetor installation you see pictured on these pages.

The whole job was done in one day. This included starting from scratch, with absolutely no knowledge of what we were going to wind up with. Inasmuch as this installation was so successful, I feel certain that anyone contemplating a venture such as this will be quite delighted with the results. So successful was our

Deliverance, Threat or Menace?

● REMEMBER GASOHOL? IT WAS SUPPOSED to be wonderful stuff, a magic elixir. All of Washington's talking heads—yea, even the Great Oz himself—hinted that we might banish energy crisis worries with alcohol; not in martinis, but mixed with alcohol; not in martinis, but mixed with gasoline. The mixture, gasohol, was to be made available everywhere in 20-proof form, and we were told of headier blends awaiting us in a brighter future.

In time, the talk implied, we would be wringing alcohol out of sunflower stalks and substituting it for imported petroleum. Gasohol, or perhaps straight alcohol, would end our often-humiliating bondage to those imports. Gasohol (the voices said) would balance our international trade accounts, employ the jobless, raise the American heartland's sturdy yeomen to a higher prosperity and return to us the service station attendant who wiped windshields and checked oil. Gasohol would do all this and . . . and make our vehicles' engines run more efficiently, powerfully, reliably, etc.

There was room for everyone on the big gasohol bandwagon. Politicians of every stripe hastened to get aboard because in the summer of '79 the vox populi was heard to call for Action, and one had only to say the magic word "gasohol" to be taken as a Man of it.

Nobody of any consequence in Washington had a clear understanding of whether the gasohol scheme would in Washington they often operate on the Nixon Principle, which presumes that the average American has the intellect and attention-span of a chicken. Whether gasohol was promising was beside the point; it was promisable, thus golden.

Ecologists went for gasohol in a surprisingly large way for people nursing a phobia about internal combustion. Maybe it was the organically grown aura surrounding alcohol, and buzz-phrases like "renewable resource." Maybe they envisioned an America lush with carefully tended, fermentable bio-mass; all its days ending in unpolluted sunsets watched over by the ghost of John Muir. Perhaps they really thought that gasohol, like bicycle racks, had the power to neutralize ratty old VW buses' exhaust emissions. Anything is possible in people who honestly believe that nature values the whale above smallpox virus or treponema pallida.

And the rest of us? We were favorably disposed toward the gasohol concept, though naturally wary of anything being offered up as a panacea by the folks in Oz on the Potomac. Gasohol's prospects did seem less dim than the chances that our new Department of Energy (born—noosed despots in the Middle East to take their oil and give themselves a cosmic enema with it.

ILLUSTRATION: LANE DUPONT

Relative calm has been restored to the international petro-market, and getting a vehicle's tank filled is once again only a matter of money. Still, sure as moonbeams, one of these days the Arabs are going to suffer another of their major politico-religious fits and Oil Crisis III (or is it IV?) will be upon us. That's when the presently moribund gasohol scheme will be resuscitated, because we are no better prepared for oil supply interruptions than we were in '73 and '79. Long gas lines are sure to form, and demands for action again heard, and in due course another trickle of gasohol will be established. You could end up buying some of that trickle for your motorcycle, so you should know something about mixed gasoline and alcohol as a motor fuel.

During the first great gasohol craze, a few voices, largely drowned in the uproar, asked what kind of alcohol would be used for the magical 10-percent stretching of our fuel supplies. Would it be plain old methanol, commonly known as wood alcohol and to chemists as $CH_3OH$? Was it the potable ethanol, grain alcohol, $C_2H_5OH$ that Washington had in mind? How about butyl alcohol, or glycerol, or allyl, or isopropyl, or even polyvinyl alcohol. It's a large chemical family, with huge price differences between $CH_3OH$ and $(CH_3)_3COH$.

Most alcohols are far too expensive for use as motor fuels. The choice really is between methanol and ethanol, and the latter is removed from consideration by its high production and political costs. Corn and wheat, America's only truly abundant materials for making ethanol, are in great demand as food and command high prices in the international marketplace. It makes no sense for us to convert bushels of wheat to ethyl alcohol when we can sell the grain and buy more fuel than we'd get by resorting to fermentation and distillation. Also, for what it's worth, the underdeveloped nations of the world would be put badly out of sorts if Americans drove while many of their citizens starved.

Methanol can be made from corn stalks and sawdust, two of the "renewable resources" dear to ecologists. Sorry, guys, but there never was much chance that we'd try to produce large quantities of methyl alcohol from vegetation. At least, not from plants seen in this geologic period. The most abundant and economical source of methanol is coal—which converts to a gas from which methyl alcohol can be synthesized.

Gasoline's best feature is its energy content: about 19,000 British thermal units per pound. Ethanol isn't nearly as energetic, yielding roughly 11,500 Btu/lb, and a pound of methanol has just 8600 Btu—less than half the heat burning an equal weight of gasoline gives.

So where did alcohol get its wonderful reputation as a racing fuel? That stems from two other properties, which combine to give methanol, especially, a remarkable ability to handle compression ratios vastly higher than those possible when gasoline is used. These properties are a high octane rating, which you'd expect, and the capacity for soaking up enormous amounts of heat in evaporating. Gasoline's "latent heat" is 135 Btu/lb. Methyl alcohol's is above 470 Btu/lb, and it is fed into cylinders in such rich air/fuel mixtures (about 4.5:1, compared with 14:1 for gasoline) that engines are made almost too cool for detonation to occur. The cooling abilities of methanol explain why speedway engines have almost no fins on their cylinders. Ethanol does not do quite so much cooling—its latent heat is 370 Btu/lb.

We all know that methanol-fueled engines can successfully run very high compression ratios. This isn't a myth: it is generally accepted that the HUCR (highest useful compression ratio) rating for methanol is up around 17:1. And it was widely assumed that a little methanol mixed in gasoline would juice it right up to aviation octane quality. That assumption ignores the large role of internal cooling it's fed gasohol. But if the fuel contains 10 percent methanol, then the engine is a tenth of the way toward needing a 6.5:1 air/fuel mixture. That is to say, gasohol makes engines set up for gasoline think they're being shortchanged, leaned-down, and they can detonate in protest.

Here are some other gasohol-related problems Washington's talking heads didn't mention, though they were known to technical people within government. One of the most vexing problems is cold starts and drivability during warm-up. Methanol has a boiling point up at 149 degrees Fahrenheit, while some of the more volatile components in gasoline will vaporize down at freezing. This means that a methanol-fueled engine won't start at all if it's truly cold, and tests place the threshold of starting at a balmy 50–60 degrees F. Gasohol, at 90/10, just makes engines a little cold-blooded—but if your bike's engine tends to be that way on straight gasoline it may become terrible on the blend.

The methanol in gasohol could do interesting things to your bike's paint, and if the bike has a fiberglass fuel tank you shouldn't put gasohol in it at all. Methanol attacks fiberglass's resins, and also wages war on cork and certain kinds of plastic gaskets and seals. It will cause overnight corrosion of any magnesium it contacts, and while methanol isn't too hard on brass main jets it will devour the other metals used in carburetors.

Methanol enthusiasts certainly never mentioned that, compared to gasoline, methyl alcohol can be synthesized.

It's too bad that coal cannot as easily be converted to some form of gasoline. We have to say "some form," because gasoline varies enormously in composition. All of it begins as crude oil, which is far from being chemically uniform, and then it gets rendered asunder, molecules shattered and scrambled in either catalytic or hydrocracking towers before being reassembled as gasoline. The finished product generally has octane-number properties sufficient to permit engine compression ratios of slightly above 9:1, which isn't what it was before the federal frown fell upon tetraethyl lead but is high enough for fair efficiency.

ignores the large role of internal cooling in methanol's HUCR ratings, and also the complex chemistry of burning gasohol. What you can expect from a gasoline/alcohol blend in the 90/10 proportions of American gasohol is no more than a slight improvement in detonation resistance, and perhaps none.

You could get a small upward nudge from the methanol in gasohol, and still end up with more detonation. The chemically correct proportions for an air/gasoline mixture are about 14.7:1, by weight; those for air and methanol are 6.5:1. A carburetor jetted for gasoline keeps right on delivering a 14.7:1 (or whatever it's set for) mixture even when mentioned that, compared to gasoline, the stuff is pure liquid fire hazard. As we have said before, gasoline and 5983ave to be mixed in just the right proportions before the gasoline will ignite. The gasoline in your motorcycle's fuel tank is blanketed by vapors too rich to ignite. But methanol vapors in the same tank would light instantly if an ignition source were to be provided. So if we ever do use alcohol as a motor fuel we'll have to put about 10 percent gasoline in it to make it adequately fire-proof. Just that amount of gasoline in the blend will make the vapors in fuel tanks too rich to ignite.

If gasohol's other problems weren't enough to make us think twice about using it, the likelihood of separation should turn the trick. Gasoline and alcohol mix fairly well as long as water doesn't contaminate the mixture. The difficulty is that alcohol likes water and will collect it out of the air, off the sides and bottoms of storage tanks or anywhere else it may be available. And if there's enough water absorbed by the alcohol, both are rejected by the gasoline. So a little water in your gasohol can get you back to running on gasoline, with frequent hiccups as clots of watered alcohol find their way down from the tank.

Many of you would already know about gasohol's shortcomings, except that the blends made available here con-tive plug life and on the plug's spark gap—which was, in turn, a potent factor in an engine's cold starting and idling characteristics.

Item: Jess Thomas, who had been listening when Arnold Frank spoke his piece about the pervasive weakness of motorcycles' ignition systems, suggested to the two staffers struggling with overly temperamental bikes that they "stop all that herming around and put some good coils on the things." This was done, and the results were eye-openers: the hard starting was corrected, and the marked tendency toward plug fouling was substantially relieved. Astonishingly, both bikes perked up and began to run more vigorters are as yet of only peripheral interest to motorcyclists. But there was the occasional gem of information with immediate application to the situation we face, and when you string all the gems together you find that we don't really need transistorized, "God's-Own-Lightning" ignition systems for our bikes. All we need is to catch up to where American automobiles were twenty-five years ago and we'll think we've surely died and gone to heaven.

Unless you're dealing with a racing two-stroke engine, which will have special and peculiar requirements, the name of the mixture-firing game is voltage. Forget about space-age technology, solid-state circuitry and magnetic triggering; the biggest improvement possible in most motorcycles' ignition systems is simply a change of coils. Switch to a set of ignition coils that will pump up some real kilovolts and you'll solve problems you never suspected as being related to ignition system performance, in addition to increasing effective plug life.

Some engines, and riders, make greater demands on spark plugs than others, but if we may for the moment ignore such extraneous factors then plug life may be said to be a function of voltage-required versus voltage-available. The voltage required to fire a new, clean spark plug at cylinder pressures attending wide-open throttle running will be in the order of 8–9 KV (kilo, or thousand, volts), but as the plug electrodes lose their sharp edges and semi-conductive deposits accumulate on the insulator, the requirement rises sharply. With time in service the plugs will stabilize, their voltage requirement then being about 5 KV higher on average, and further voltage demands will be made mostly as a result of electrode erosion, which will widen the spark gap at the rate of perhaps .001-inch per thousand miles. To handle just this much, the ignition system will need a potential of 13–14 KV, and in practice you also have to accommodate for the fouling deposits accumulated in traffic, which temporarily raise the voltage requirement even higher. Give an engine an ignition system with a peak potential up around 22–24 KV and its plugs will keep right on firing until erosion reduces their electrodes to scaley nubs; cut the potential to, say, 12 KV and the plugs will begin to misfire after only a few thousand miles in service.

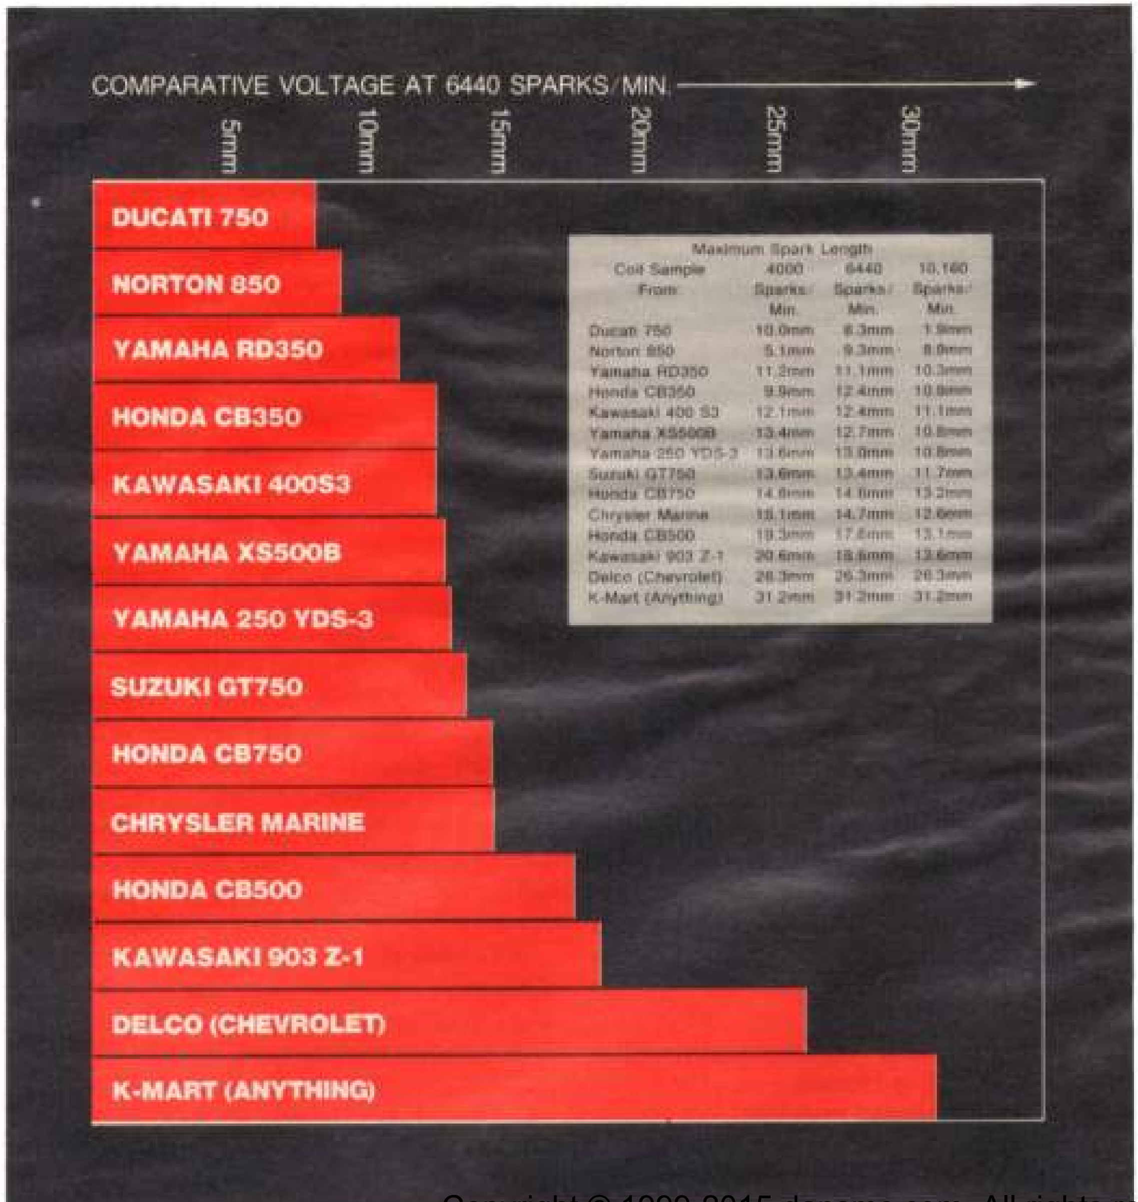
Plug gap distance is closely tied to available voltage, and if an engine's ignition system is weak the gap has to be set fairly narrow—which, it turns out, is a very bad thing. Air/fuel mixtures in stoichiometric proportions (that is to say, chemically-correct mixtures) are very easily ignited and will flame quite satisfactorily if hit with nothing more than a wispy spark bridging a very narrow electrode gap. But in practice perfect mixtures are more the exception than the rule. The best of carburetors cannot be jetted and adjusted for more than one air density and one fuel viscosity—both of which vary considerably in the real world. Further, neither carburetors nor fuel injection deliver perfectly mixed air and fuel, which means that the charge actually arriving inside the combustion chamber will always be overly rich at one point and lean at another. So there is no predicting the strength of the mixture that happens to be in and around the gap between the ously—and neither was slow before the change was made.

Item: Your reporter's own Ducati 750 GT had steadfastly refused to idle when cold, or to start if its plugs were gapped more than .026-inch. When the stock ignition coils were removed, and a pair of the cheapest available automotive coils substituted, the differences were profound. In the interest of experiment the plug gaps were initially left at the .024-inch that previously had proved satisfactory, and with that gap the only detecable difference was slightly easier cold starting and a willingness to idle, though slowly and uncertainly, after a much shorter warm-up period. But after the plug gaps were opened to .035-inch, the engine picked up 200 rpm at idle when cold, and was perceptibly smoother under all operating conditions. Merely installing fresh spark plugs had never worked that kind of transformation; there clearly was a lot here we hadn't understood.



All these things suddenly began to ask questions and demand answers, and we first went scurrying back to re-read those Champion reports. What we found in them were mostly long, tiresome discussions of how this factor or that was likely to effect exhaust emissions, and such mat-uncertain thing and all motorcycles conspicuous candidates for the compensating effects of ultrawide plug gaps. Similarly, factors involving engine design and circumstances of use make life very difficult for the motorcycle's spark plugs, which means that our two-wheelers—even more than cars—need ignition systems that deliver a lot of reserve voltage.

A quick glance through almost any spark plug catalogue will tell you that however much motorcycle engines might benefit from wide plug gaps, they aren't getting them. The motorcycle manufacturer's plug-gap recommendation is given in most examples, and a scan of the specifications in the 1975 NGK catalogue shows an average of about .024-inch, with several down around .016 to .020, and a high (ignoring a couple of CDI-fired Kawasakis) or .032. Read through the same kind of specifications for American cars and you won't find anything less than an .032-inch plug gap. Your neighbor's decade-old Chevy, the one you borrow to shop for plugs for your bike every month or so—and which gets its plugs replaced semiannually—rates a gap recommendation of .035-inch. Late-model Fords are up in the .044 to .054 range and some of the new Delco coils are made to push sparks across gaps up to .080-inch, which will fire even extremely lean mixtures with unfailing regularity and is of enormous importance in emission-control work.

So why the skimpy plug-gap specifications for motorcycle engines? That's a very good question, and one for which there is a straightforward answer: our plug electrodes at the moment the spark occurs, and this unpleasant fact of internal combustion life requires that the ignition system itself supply a measure of mixture tolerance. And the most effective measure anyone has discovered is a wide spark gap.

From what we are able to learn, it seems that the widened spark gap works to aid the ignition process in a couple of ways: it extends the spark duration, and increases the volume of mixture being exposed to the spark at any given moment. Both of these factors tend to improve the chances that a combustible portion of the fast-swirling charge will pass through the plug gap while the spark is present. The improvement thus obtained is then reflected in several areas, beginning with an engine's willingness to idle. Fuel atomization and vaporization is comparitively poor when an engine is idling, but if its plugs are gapped wide the mixture tolerance will be broadened enough to cope with this condition. Similarly, the mixture reaching the cylinder tends to be very uneven when an engine is cold, and wide-gap plugs can turn a "cold-natured" machine into one that coughs once on a chill morning and then is ready to get moving. And if there's a slight carburetion problem, like a lean condition at part-throttle cruise, the widely gapped plugs will keep it from becoming manifested as surging or hesitation.

There usually is a slight improvement in fuel economy, too, with increased plug gaps. However, most motorcyclists will be more interested in the wider gap's influence on other areas of performance. It would be nice to report that there's a solid, across-the-board power increase with higher spark voltages and wider plug gaps, but that isn't the case. All the increased distance between plug electrodes does is to decrease an engine's mixture sensitivity; the high voltage allows the use of wider gaps, and extends plug life. In short, the overall effect of such measures is to civilize engines rather than make them stronger.

Even among motorcycles civility is a desirable trait, albeit rare, yet in the areas under discussion here everything conspires against it. Motorcycles have relatively large-throat carburetors, almost invariably provided on the basis of one per cylinder, and that may be good for full-throttle performance but has a bad effect on low-speed atomization of fuel. Further, motorcycles do not have the automobile engine's heated intake manifold to aid in the vaporization of fuel. Finally, motorcycle carburetors tend to be comparitively crude instruments, not near as refined as those fitted on cars. These things combine to make the motorcycle engine's air/fuel mixture an especially variable, very good question, and one for which there is a straightforward answer: our ignition systems are too limp to handle anything but narrow spark gaps and still provide even marginally satisfactory plug life. We had long suspected motorcycles needed some help in this area; we didn't know how much—despite Arnold Frank's forthright comments—until after we had done some testing of our own.

Engineers whose specialty is ignitions systems surround themselves with elaborate and costly instrumentation, and fret over microseconds and millijoules and spark scatter and a host of other high-voltage minutae. But all the expert-written reports total up to an overall impression that sheer voltage is the first ignition system consideration, and you can learn a lot about that just allowing sparks to arc across an air gap. There will be a very direct correlation between the width of the gap a system is able to bridge with a spark and its voltage output. You really need an oscilloscope to assign voltage numbers; the spark gap is quite satisfactory for comparative testing—especially if you confine your interest to, and draw conclusions only from, large-scale differences. The spark gap method tells you nothing about rise-times, secondary firings or any of the less important nuances.

With a number of practical considerations in mind, we decided to test only battery-energized coils, and constructed a suitable apparatus on our trusty Sears Craftsman lathe. The variable-speed lathe was used to drive a Delco distributor at most of the time, dropping a particular set closed just long enough to produce magnetic saturation in the coil and then lifting them open again to produce a spark. The closed period is in many instances so brief that only one of a bike's two or three coils is active at any given moment. When that situation exists, a single ballast resistor inserted in the circuit between the ignition switch and the coils will suffice, because it is being asked to control the current to only one coil at a time. Only when there is an overlap, with more than one coil drawing current, is there any need to have more than a single ballast resistor.

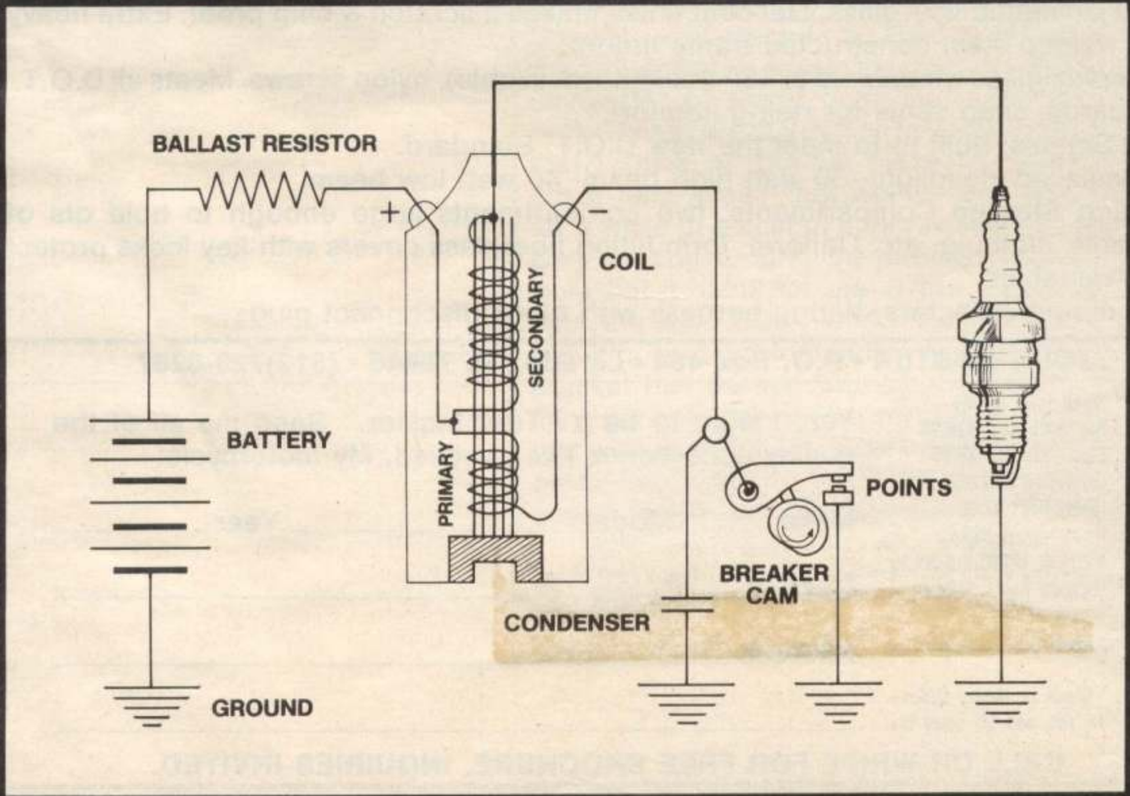
A word of advice here: when you turn on the ballast-resistor-equipped ignition system the very first time, you probably will get wisps of smoke floating up from the resistor coils. Don't panic, thinking something awful is happening; it will simply be a little oil left over from the manufacturing process being scorched off the hot resistor element. Do your worrying when the smoke is rising from one or more of the bike's insulated wires.

Mounting those big automotive coils will be a real pain in the neck, if you're trying to get them installed in the same location as the originals. More often than not, they won't fit because the space up under the fuel tank is limited. And they aren't going to fit into the stock brackets because of the automobile coil's larger size. You should try to position the replacements in roughly the same spot as the originals, as that will enable you to use t[illegible] electrical leads, but if there's just no extra space at all you can solve the problem by hanging the big car coils on the front frame downtubes—and hold them there with hose clamps until you get around to making up some proper mounting brackets. Coils don't have to be grounded to the frame.

Condensers do have to be grounded, as their outer cases constitute one of their two electrical terminals. Bikes often have their condensers do have to be grounded, as their outer cases constitute one of their two electrical terminals. Bikes often have their condensers buried cheek to jowl with the engine internals, and that's not good because condensers are more apt to fail when subjected to high temperatures. A far better spot for the motorcycle's condensers is up next to the coils, where they will be cooler—and they don't feel any significant difference, electrically, in that position. You simply mount the condensers so that their cases are grounded to the bike's frame (remember, paint is an insulator) and connect their leads to the points-side coil primary terminals. Here again, as was true of the ballast resistors, you shouldn't worry about matching coils and condensers. It is a verifiable fact that nearly all ignition condensers have a capacitance of .22 microfarads. You should get a set of American automotive condensers to go with your coils, because you can't beat them for price and reliability.



Conventional inductive-type ignition systems are so simple that it's almost [illegible] seriously unless you get excessively creative in doing the job. American automotive coils won't work as part of a CDI or magneto system, but they can be spliced into any of the numerous motorcycle systems that have mechanically operated contact points and battery-energized coils. As is shown in the schematic drawing that accompanies this text, all you need is a wire leading from the non-grounded battery terminal to the ballast resistor, from there to one primary terminal on the coil, then off the other coil primary terminal to the points—which lead to ground. The condenser also leads to ground, if very indirectly, and can be wired in anywhere between the coil and the points. In practice, the lead to the coil will take a detour through the ignition switch, but that's a small complication.

Do be careful with the coils' spark leads. Car coils are so strong that you can mount them clear back on your bike's rear fender, with spark leads five feet long, and they'll still deliver more than enough voltage at the spark plugs unless you let the voltage escape somewhere along the way. Don't tape the spark leads to the frame tubes. If there's a pinhole in the lead insulation the spark will leap to ground there instead of at the plug electrodes, and even if the insulation is perfect there'll be some voltage loss due to certain weird inductive and capacitive effects associated with long conductors and nearby masses of metal.

Another place the voltage can be lost is around the coil terminals. Give the coil chance and it will send sparks zapping down from its high-voltage terminal to a electrical leads, but if there's just no extra seriously unless you get excessively credown from its high-voltage terminal to a frame tube or its own primary terminal lugs. Coils really need those rubber boots that fit tightly around the spark leads and their nose. You can get by without such insulation sometimes, but a little dust and moisture on the coil's insulated end will cause a massive short-circuiting of the coil output.

Do your neighbors a big favor and use either resistor-type plugs or spark plug caps that incorporate a resistor. Without resistance in the high-voltage leads your ignition system will be a fairly powerful radio/TV transmitter, and when the public's reception is upset and they figure out that the problem is motorcycles, then our reception is going to suffer. Radio noise from ignition systems is almost as annoying as the more direct output from badly muffled exhausts; it's just not quite as obvious. Those in-line resistors verge on being more than motorcycle coils can handle, but an automotive coil's output is too high to be seriously weakened by their voltage-squelching effects.

I have boxes of barely-used spark plugs that had ceased to work satisfactorily in my 1969 Honda CB750. The bike fouled plugs even when new, and I tried everything—including a Boyer-Bransden transistor trigger—to make the problem go away. But the best solution I'd found until recently was to buy plugs wholesale.

Then, a little while ago, I read your article about spark plugs, which said that motorcycle ignition systems were weak, and it sent me off in a new direction—thinking about the ignition coil and plug wire. My 750 was getting old, the plug wire was getting leaky, but there was no provision for replacement without replacing the coils. I wasn't too impressed with Honda's dual-lead coil, and the things are expensive.

I knew that coils work just fine when

A COUPLE OF POINTS

Sept 1975

About Your "Coils" Story. Going from a primary current of one ampere to two per ignition coil (with a switch to automotive coils) is no problem for the alternator supply, but it cuts life expectancy on the contact points to less than half. Contact wear with inductive loads increases almost as the square of current increase. Decent size silver cadmium oxide contacts would increase the manufacturer's cost about 5¢ per set.

Install (adapt) a pair of automotive points or add a pair of high voltage silicon power transistors and zeners to cut point wear. (Get friendly with your neighbourhood ham or tinkerer if electronics scare you.) Do not install an automotive transistorized system—they are high current, low

I knew that coils work just fine when wired in series, since that was how the Boyer-Bransden unit operated, so I purchased four epoxy-coated 12-volt coils from Sears (approximately $6.00 each) and wired them all in series, connected to the transistor ignition. There was no need for a resistor, as that many coils in series provides its own ballast resistance. This system drew about 2.5 amps, and what's more it cured the bike's cold-blooded tendencies. It would also fire plugs that wouldn't flicker with the original coils, and fire them with the gap set at .035-inch.

This brings me to my real point: in your later article about coils you state that "standard automotive coils (cannot) be used as replacements for the twin-lead items used on Honda Fours, etc." That's not true. Right now my Honda is operating beautifully with automotive coils, as is my wife's 1965 CB160 cafe racer. Dual-lead coils like those on the Honda can be replaced with car coils, two for one, with a single set of points handling the two replacement coils. Just wire the car coils in pairs, with a ballast resister, in a series circuit. That is to say, the current from the battery goes through the ballast resister, through first one coil primary and then the other, and then to the points and ground.

The biggest problem with this installatorized system—they are high current, low inductance types meant to fire 8 cylinders at high speed from one coil. Totally ridiculous for a bike repetition rate.

First good news. J.C. Penney catalogue # R985-2682A replacement coil (a transformer with high resistance primary) does not need a primary resistor. It's meant for old 12V Rambler, VW, Studebaker systems. Send Penney's $4.99 plus postage and wire in directly. That's $10.00 total for my Yamaha RD250.

For cheapskates, no money and 10 minutes will yield quick starting and reliable running in rainstorms if the radio frequency interference suppressor resistor is removed from the plug connectors. Unscrew connector from high voltage wire, screw out plug catching connector, take out cylindrical 10k resistor and spring, cut #6 brass screw or a piece of #10 wire to length of resistor, reassemble, and test for spark fatness.

This will not increase voltage, but will double current when firing. It will supply voltage under wet conditions when previously the juice was shunted to ground at the coil, high tension wires, etc.

15 years ago my Saab 750GT automobile with 2 stroke, 3 cylinder distributor-type power plant would pull a 2200 lb. total load at 95 mph, get 25–30 mpg, permit my wife to do stop and go city driving, and get 15,000 miles to a set of driving, and get 15,000 miles to a set of plugs. After "space age" advances in design my Yamaha 250, 2 stroke, 2 cylin-der with no distributor losses will not pull 500 lbs. total at the same speed, gets 45 mpg with fresh plugs, 35 mpg after 200 miles and zero mpg during a rai storm. That's progress?

The biggest problem with this installa-tion is finding room for everything. Luckily, the Sears epoxy coils are somewhat smaller than Delco coils. I wrapped my coils with ensolite and taped them in place under the gas tank with duct tape. Crude, but effective, and nothing shows when the tank's in place. I feel pretty smug about all this, as I have been operating the system (and the same set of plugs) since January—long before your recent coils exposé appeared in print.

You can, if you like, perform a little test to tell you if your own motorcycle is suffering from a narrow plug gap-induced mixture intolerance. Get a new set of plugs, gap them at .035-inch, and give them a try—but don't ride too far from home because it's an odds-on bet your bike's ignition system isn't strong enough to fire those plugs once they have acquired a light dusting of soot and fuel deposits. And if the true nature of your bike's problem is an overly-rich mixture it may foul a plug before rolling clear of your own driveway. Our early attempts at testing the the ignition system on the subject motorcycle was so weak its engine wouldn't start with the gaps widened beyond .026-inch. However, we had enough faith in what we were told by experts in the field to swap the bike's stock coils for a pair of cut-rate automotive coils purchased at the local K-Mart store. After performing the coil transplant we tried the bike with its plugs gapped at .024-inch, and noted only a slightly enhanced willingness to start and cold-idle. The engine was then left overnight to cool, and we tried the same cold start/idle routine with its plugs re-mation. Without careful priming or choking the bike fired up on the second kick and immediately settled into a steady idle, which was 200 rpm faster than it had been at the narrower plug gap. Further, the bike's open-road behavior improved considerably with the .035-inch setting.

Similar tests made with the other motorcycles (a too-narrow sampling, as would become apparent) produced about the same results, which meshed very neatly with what we had been told about the effects of plug gap width. We had been told that a wide gap wouldn't do much for driveway. Our early attempts at testing the wide plug gap theory were foiled because cold start/idle routine with its plugs re-gapped to .035-inch—to find a transfor- told that a wide gap wouldn't do much for an engine that was getting too much fuel, unless it was backed by enough coil voltage to fend off outright fouling. That proved to be exactly right. We were promised that a wide plug gap would extend an engine's tolerance for leaneness—whether that arose from lean spots not worked out of the carburetion, or the poor fuel vaporization natural with cold engines—and that also proved to be correct. We didn't know how many motorcycles' ignition systems had enough voltage to permit wider plug gaps.

Knowing how very easy it is for us to nibble off more than we can chew, we decided to confine our investigation to ordinary inductive ignition coils of the kind found in service on almost every touring bike. These could be tested o[...] basis without resorting to the oscilloourselves assured us was solidly based on fact, that coils' maximum output was what should be checked, and that this could be done by making them force sparks across an adjustable air gap. The electrical pressure required to overcome the resistance of an air gap does vary somewhat with atmospheric conditions, but the air in our shop is of coastal southern California quality, which means it conforms very closely to the engineers' "standard atmosphere" on a monotonously regular basis. Thus, we could expect that the one-millimeter-equals-one-thousand-volts rule of thumb could be followed and that comparisons between coils would be valid unless they happened to be so close we'd be measuring air gaps with a micrometer.

We constructed a test apparatus which used an eight-cylinder distributor's points to switch the coils being tested and drove it with our trusty Sears lathe at speeds that gave us 4000, 6440 and 10,160 sparks per minute. Coil output was checked by changing the gap between the center electrodes of two "shelled" Champion gold-palladium plugs.

Our baseline data was taken with a Delco 12-volt automotive ignition coil, as it is representative of the kind used in a jillion General Motors cars and may be said to reflect what that mighty firm considers to be satisfactory coil output. The Delco coil was tested at all three spark rates, and it fired regularly across a 26.3mm air gap no matter how many sparks per minute it was asked to deliver. That air gap represents an output of 26.3 [...] the Delco coil windings; at 26.3 KV there never required to pump voltages up beyond the 15 KV level. In fact, only about 10 KV voltages are needed to force a spark across a .035-inch plug gap in a running engine, even at full throttle, when the plug is new. New electrodes have sharp edges that encourage the early formation of a spark when voltage rises in the coil's secondary (high voltage) windings. But plug electrodes don't stay sharp. Heat and chemical erosion blunt their edges and raise the voltage requirement by about 5 KV—which means that a coil must deliver a minimum of 15 KV if frequent spark plug replacement is to be avoided.

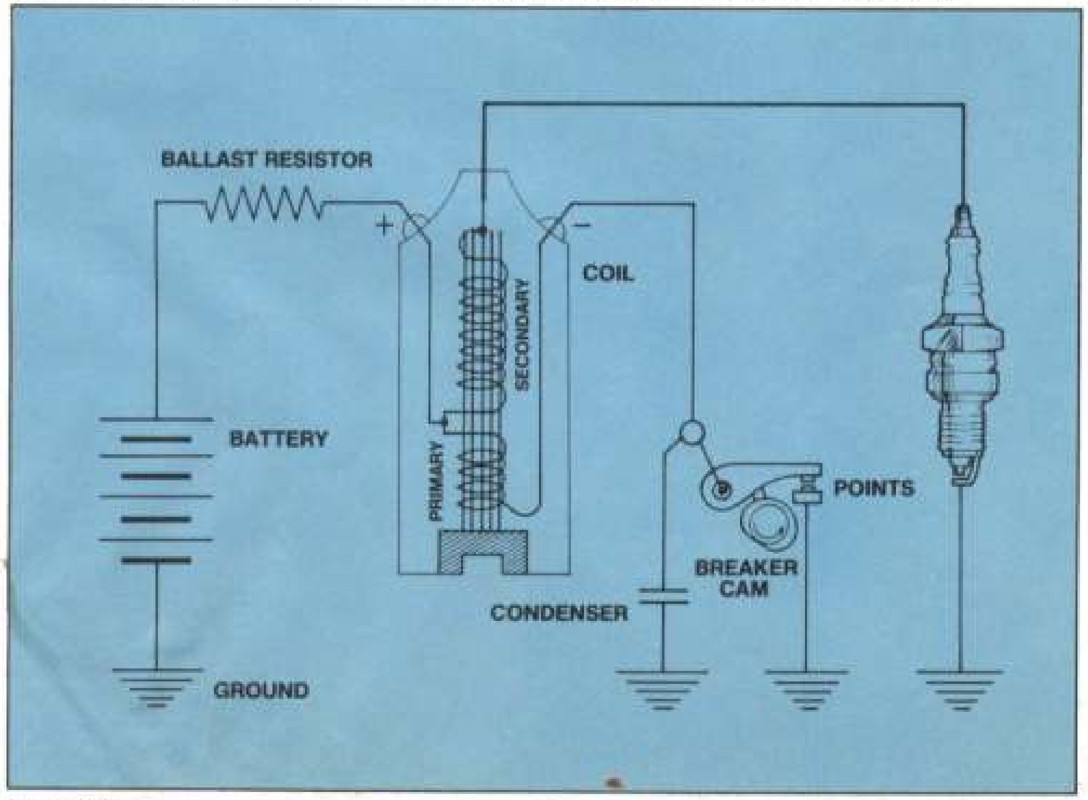
The reason for providing coil output in excess of 15 KV is to cope with the effects of fouling deposits that accumulate on the spark plug's insulator. These deposits provide a secondary path to ground, and the coil output must be sufficient to lose some of its potential through the accumulated coating of lead salts, etc., on the insulator and still have enough in reserve to push a spark across the plug gap. This reserve is not really voltage, as that never rises past the level required to ionize the gases in the gap between the plug electrodes; it actually is energy, which is fairly accurately reflected in the peak voltages a coil is capable of attaining.



In the Delco coil, we found an output reserve of 11.3 KV, or 75 percent more than the service minimum. In a really depressing comparison, the best motorcycle ignition coil we found was one from a Kawasaki Z-1, which quit firing regularly when the test air gap was extended wider than 18.6mm at a spark rate of only 6440 per minute. The Kawasaki's coil would bike. These could be tested on a realistic basis without resorting to the oscilloscopes, etc., needed to develop any meaningful data from testing the more exotic CDI magnetos. We proceeded on the assumption, which people wiser than kilovolts (26,300 volts) but not the peak for the Delco coil windings: at 26.3 KV there was uncontrollable short-circuit firing between the coil's high voltage terminal and its primary terminals.

Out in the real world the Delco coil is per minute. The Kawasaki's coil would handle a 20.6mm air gap at 4000 sparks/minute, but its output trailed off so badly at the 10,160-sparks/minute rate that the air gap had to be closed to 13.6mm. That means the best of motorcycle coils doesn't deliver enough punch to handle the .035-inch plug gap needed to clean up the Z-1's cold-start/part-throttle carburetion problems once the shine has gone off new plug electrodes—or have the reserve to deal with more than a light coating of fouling deposits. From this test result we would have to conclude that a Z-1 can be expected to develop a high-speed misfire after a couple of thousand miles of service on a set of plugs. The Z-1s owned by Cycle staffers conform to that expectation of performance.

But if the Z-1's coil is a bit weak, the average motorcycle coil is downright tubercular. We haven't tested any coils from 1977 motorcycles, so it is possible that there has been some improvement; the lack of changes in spark gap recommendations strongly hints that the new coils are much like those we tested in 1975—and those were awful, as you can see in the air gap numbers on the chart we've provided. You will also see that the cut-rate K-Mart coil (we bought it because it was handy and cheap) performed like a

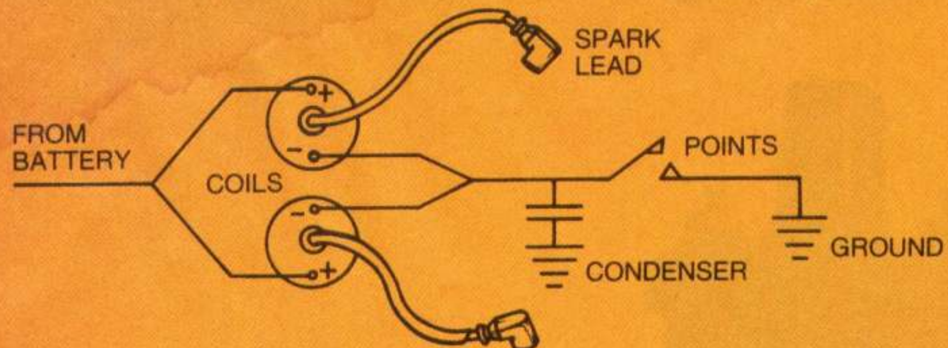
I've got a '71 Bonneville that started missing on the right cylinder after warming up. After reading some time ago in Cycle about how bad motorcycle electrics have always been, I decided to change the stock ignition units. At a local discount store I purchased two Holley 33-3 coils at $10.87 each and two Standard Motor Product Blue Streak FD-77X condensers (there are equivalent condensers for a Pinto, etc.) at $1.49 each. With the Holley 33-3 coils there is no need for an external ballast resistor as it is an internal part of the coil itself.



With these coils and condensers installed there is a noticeable difference in performance. The main things I like are engine. I would recommend a Champion N-3 (which is standard) or colder plug, depending on how hot you ride. Be sure to take several plug readings the first few days or so to make sure she's running fine. I run my plugs gapped at .028 and have yet to have any problems with this system. Even Satan couldn't ask for more fire. She starts up on the first kick every time and there is a noticeable improvement in smoothness at idle and on hard acceleration.

Thanks again to Cycle for turning us all on some time ago to a weak point in just about every bike's electrical system. It really makes a difference.

YES: *Coil resistance and available voltage vary greatly, so you need an adjustable power resister to let you fine-tune the circuit to a current that will give good coil output but not too-drastically shorten the life of the ignition contacts. primary current, but when both are switched by a single set of points the total load at the contacts rises to seven or eight amps. That's more than three times the motorcycle points' designed-for load, and though you'll get a terrific spark while they last you'll be replacing them while your fingers are still grubby from doing the conversion work.

There is a much better chance of making the coil transplant work if the paired primary windings are wired in a series circuit. In this arrangement, current is fed first through one coil, then the other, and finally to the contact points. Conventional car coils usually have a primary resistance of between 1.5 and 2.0 ohms, giving a total of three to four ohms for a series-connected pair. If we assume that the supplied voltage is 14 volts (as it commonly is, with a nominally 12-volt system) then these combined resistances will allow a total current of 4.6 to 3.5 amps. The former is too high for acceptable points life; the latter—3.5 amps—is about the right current for the [illegible] shouldn't cause too-rapid deterioration of come up with low-resistance coils, and your bike happens to have wiring and an especially vigorous generator and battery, you could end up with a five-amp load at the points—which would have to be reduced with a ballast resister. At the other extreme, the current might only be 2.5 amps and that would drop the coils' output voltage to a level 30 percent below normal, or about 21 kv. That's still better than the output of an average motorcycle coil but less than is needed to justify the effort and expense of making the coil transplant.

Our best guess is that a system with paired, series-connected car coils drawing between 3.0 and 3.5 amps will give the most satisfactory overall results. You wouldn't want your bike's ignition points to carry more than 3.5 amps, as higher currents will do bad things to the contact surfaces and also may cause overheating of the current-carrying points spring, with a high-speed misfire appearing as this thin steel strap goes limp. Neither should [illegible] below 3.0 amps, as coil output will then fairly heavy winding on a ceramic armature, with one moveable contact to let you vary the effective length of the resistance wire. You insert one of these resisters into each paired-coils circuit, connecting to one fixed terminal and taking the current from the sliding contact, and you can get exactly the total current you want. Or, more to the point, exactly what the ignition contacts and coils want. You can begin at three amps, gap your bike's spark plugs at .035-inch, and see how long your points last. If you find plug-related misfiring after a couple of thousand miles you can increase the primary current to the coils a bit and try it again. With experience, you should be able to hit upon a current that exactly matches spark plug and points life.

With the ignition primary current higher-than-stock, it will be necessary to pay close attention to what's happening to the points' contact surfaces, as the increased electrical load will make them much more sensitive to condenser capacitance. Most condensers (bike or auto) will have a capacitance somewhere the right current for the coils and shouldn't cause too-rapid deterioration of the contacts.

Now we can talk about the combination that seems as though it should work fine, but may not. This is the one with two coils wired in series, with the current controlled by a ballast resister. And if you happen to get the right coils on the right motorcycle it will perform very well. Unfortunately, we can't tell you to go ahead with this system of paired coils in series and a ballast resister for each pair, because there are too many unknowns influencing the final outcome. One unknown is the resistance of the wire leading from your bike's battery to its coils. Wire sized in anticipation of a 2.5-amp coil primary current may become a significant resistance at higher current rates. Similarly, the resistances at connections cannot be ignored, as these can add to the total voltage-drop. We don't think this will be enough to require anything as drastic as rewiring your motorcycle before the coil transplant is done; it can have a substantial effect on the final result.

Another important unknown factor is the resistance of the coils themselves. As we've indicated, coils' primary resistance does vary—between makes and often between individual coils obtained from a single manufacturer. So if you happen to you choke the coils' primary current below 3.0 amps, as coil output will then drop significantly. And the only sure way to stay within this 3.0- to 3.5-amp current bracket is to check the installation with an ammeter, taking readings for the entire circuit—including the leads from coils to points. Don't bother checking the current with the engine running: with the points opening and closing rapidly you get an ammeter reading that's an average, and not representative of the maximum current across the contact surfaces.

Chances are you'll find that two 12-volt automotive coils wired in series on your bike will draw somewhat more than 3.5 amps. We tried it with a pair of K-Mart coils and had a current of just over four amps, with a battery delivering 12.5 volts, and that was too high. Adding a ballast resister put us off-target in the other direction, reducing the current to only 2.5 amps. We suspect that your motorcycle will present you with the same situation, which means that some current adjustment will be necessary if you are to have the coil transplant's benefits without its potentially-undesirable consequences.

As it happens, there's a device that will do the current-adjustment job very neatly: a simple, cheap (about $2.50) adjustable power-resister rated for up to 50 watts and five ohms. These resisters have a itance. Most condensers (bike or auto) will have a capacitance somewhere around .18 to .22 microfarads, and the actual capacitance of an individual condenser may vary from manufacturer's specifications by up to 20 percent, which can create problems even in a stock ignition system. Ignition condensers function, in part, to keep the 200- to 300-volt primary backlash (which occurs when the points open) from blasting material off one contact face and depositing it on the other; this transferring of material is apt to proceed more rapidly at high current loads, and the need to have the condenser capacitance exactly right thus becomes more acute. The points themselves tell you the story on capacitance: in a negative-ground system, a build-up of material on the fixed contact is evidence that the capacitance is too great; a spike developing on the moving contact says it's not enough. Localized pitting along a single side of each contact face means that the contacts aren't meeting squarely—which is another thing you'll have to watch closely when using high-current coils. These problems arise with stock ignition systems, but they become more severe at higher electrical loads.

Four paired automotive coils seem to present plenty of opportunity for getting

The two coils and condensers can be mounted anywhere on the bike, but the spark leads must be as short as is possible.

to prevent people from over-revving their engines.

PM's story was that the misfire was being caused by the exhaust camshaft (which carries the breaker cam on its extended left end) and was upsetting the timing at high engine speeds. That did not seem likely to me, as the Honda's camshafts have a really hefty diameter, and lobes running right next to the support bearings. It had to be something else. And it was.

The 450's ignition breaker cam has an unusually steep opening ramp, and whacks the points open very smartly. A good thing in terms of easy starting and prolonging point life (a fast, clean break minimizes arcing), but definitely ungood at high engine speeds. Get that cam turning fast enough, and the points begin to float and bounce and in general misbehave very badly. At such times, you can get a whole volley of sparks from the ignition system—none of them occurring when they should.

There is a cure. You take a fine stone, and roll a bit more radius into the curve that joins the cam's flank and nose. Then with an even finer stone, you restore the cam's surface polish—which is necessary unless you want a rough spot on the cam that will file away at the breaker blocks. You must go very slowly in modifying that cam profile. Remove just a touch of material, widening the radius ever so slightly, and then put everything back together and ride the bike to see what the result has been. There is not much point in moving the point-of-misfire up beyond the engine's operating range. My 450 Honda will go to 12,000 rpm without missing a beat, but you are asking for missing a beat, but you are asking for trouble if you take it much above 10,500 rpm. The Honda wi6009 along with this foolishness a few times, but eventually there will be a big blow up. (For reasons that will be explained when I get around to the subject of cams and Honda's torsion-bar valve springs.)

That takes care of the point float; we still have to deal with the rest of the spark-producing system—which will probably sound complicated to you, but is easily managed if you understand what it is you are trying to accomplish. All you have to do is to make your own magneto, and that is—believe it or not—easier than fitting some existing mag' on the Honda engine.

The magneto I made for my 450 is of the "energy-transfer" variety, which is to say a magneto with separate low-voltage generator (engine driven) and high-voltage spark coils. For the low-voltage generator coils, I simply used the "daytime" coils in the Honda's alternator. The actual spark is produced by a Bendix magneto coil. You need a pair of these Bendix coils, and you can get them from Harley-Davidson, part #29576-63R. For this particular application, you must add to each coil a Lucas C lamination (to complete the magnetic loop) and these carry Lucas' part #54441946. The Bendix coils are a perfect fit in the Lucas C lamination, and are held with Lucas clips, part #54441104. (Four are required.) Finally, get a pair of Mallory condensers (the big fat kind, with a terminal lug on top) and a few feet of insulated, multi-strand copper wire. A couple of blade-type connectors will be useful, but are not an absolute must.

If the motorcycle is to be used for racing only, you may remove four of the six generating coils on the alternator's stator—which is done by straightening the tabs that hold them in place, cutting the wires, and pulling them off of their pole pieces. The two coils you will be using for the ignition system are those connected to the yellow lead. This is one of three leads on the alternator stator; another, pink, lead connects with the four "night" lighting coils. The third, common, lead is brown. It connects the ground side of all the coils.

Those daytime coils are 180° apart on the stator, and are connected in series. You will want to use them as separate generating units, so i[illegible]sary to scrape a bare spot on the bit of separate generating units, so it is necessary to scrape a bare spot on the bit of insulated wire running between them and ground it on the stator. The least complicated way of accomplishing this is to crimp one of the coil-holding tabs over on the bare spot, and then apply just a drop of solder between wire and tab to insure a good electrical connection. This done, you locate the leads coming out the other side of each coil and solder on long wires to carry the coil output up to the coils, condensers and breaker points.

To keep the alternator output phased with the points you must lock or remove entirely the automatic advance device.

You can remove redundant coils by bending the retaining tabs, cutting a few wires and sliding them off the pole-pieces.

The coils can be located anywhere on the bike. I chose to bolt them right against the frame strut that holds the stock coils. The hole pattern through the frame is not the same as in the Lucas C laminations, so you must drill an extra hole through the frame. You could drill through the laminations to make their holes match the frame, but in doing that, you will smear the metal in each individual plate enough to make an electrical connection between them and that will reduce the coil output some amount. Why? Because when the coils are operating, a magnetic field is flashing through those laminations and generating electricity there. Connect between the plates and you allow the current to flow and part of your field strength will be lost. Things like coil cores and stators are laminations made of many individual thin sheets, insulated from each other, for precisely that reason. The eddy currents generated in a

But this is no problem, unless, of course, you should run out of gas.

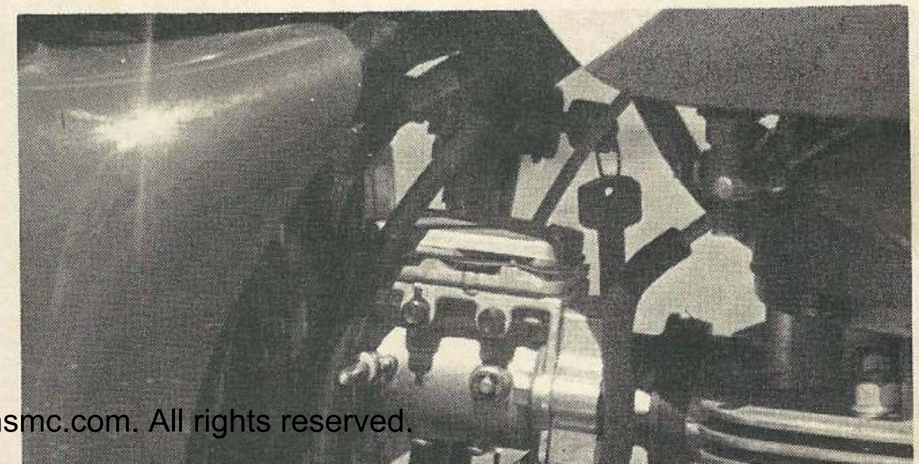
We found it was never necessary to shut the fuel cock off since the needle and seat are very positive and never leaked a bit.

The carburetor we installed is not the same one we had used previously. It is a new, improved version which features a priming device, an anti-vapor locking gadget, and a host of other new features. It is not the McCullogh unit but another one that looks similar.

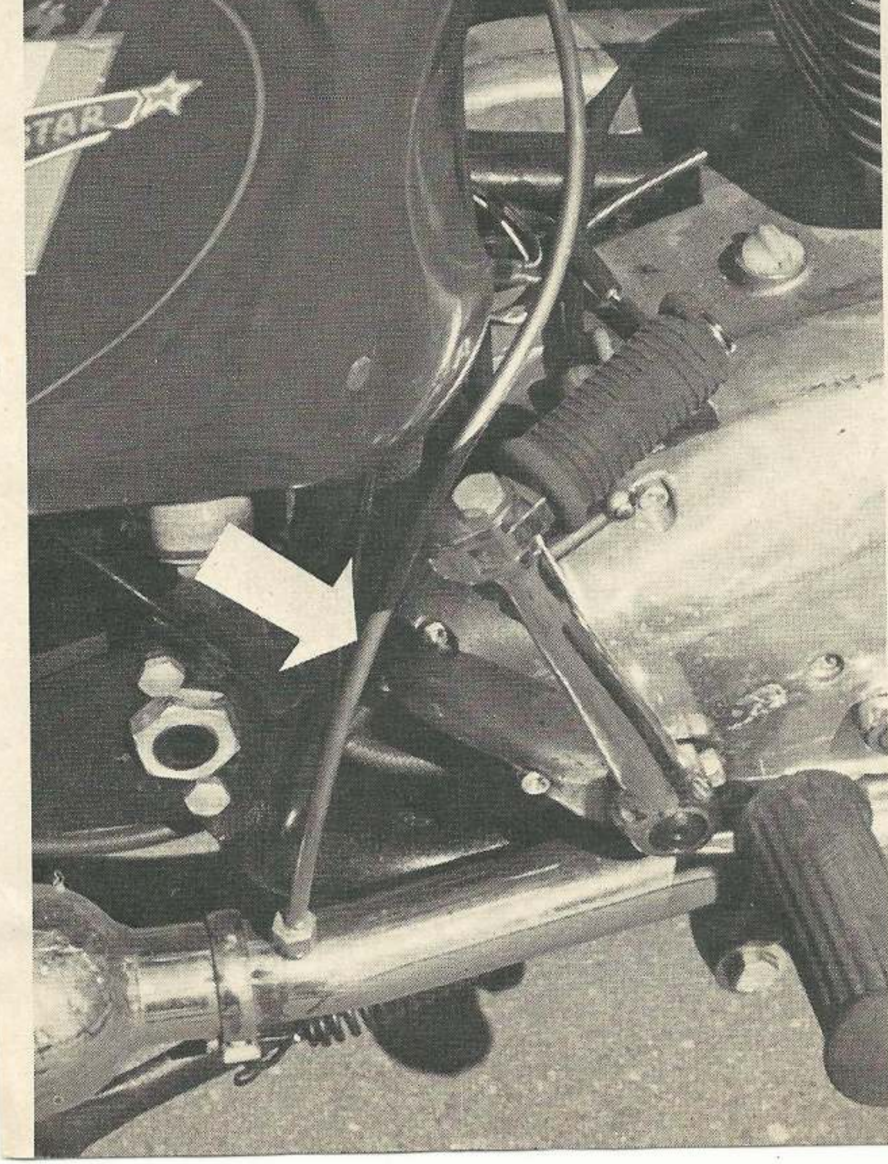
The pumping capacity of this new carburetor is astronomical. Just one turn open on the high speed jet (both jets are completely adjustable from the outside) will cause even the hungriest 360 moto-crosser to four-cycle.

It differs from the earlier McCulloch unit in other ways. This unit does not inject fuel directly into the bore of the carburetor. Rather it depends on the velocity across the venturi (which, by the way, is 32 mm) to pick up the fuel and carry it into the engine.

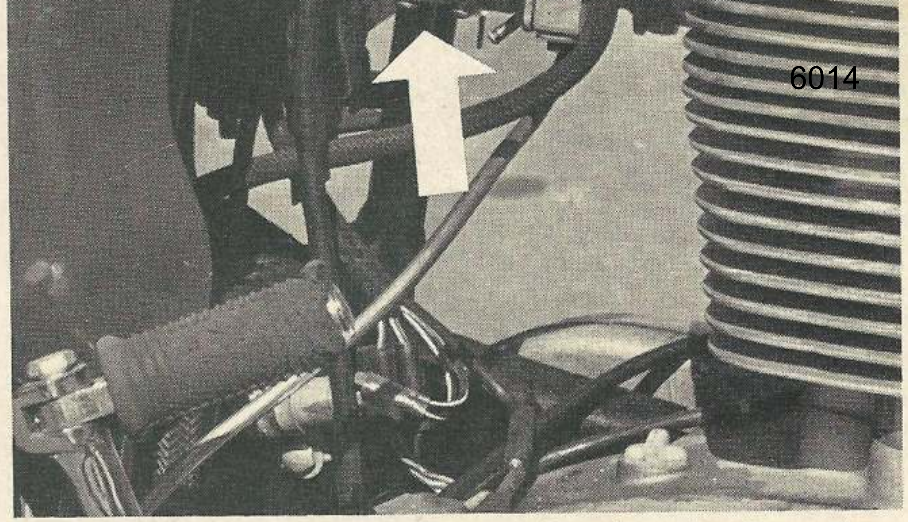
An interesting sidelight was discovered shortly after the unit was mounted on a two-stroke for the first time. The carburetor ran absolutely cold. Some of the earlier units had the habit of heating up and thereby causing a vapor lock. Not so with the new one. Obviously the venturi in the bore of the carburetor raises the velocity to a point whereby the air rushing through helps to cool it down. Also the added fuel flow through the carburetor itself carries away much of the heat. The only time the carburetor had a tendency to get even slightly warm was when the motorcycle was stopped and the heat was allowed to radiate off the cylinder and cases, thereby heating up the castings that comprised the carburetor.



In the four-stroke it was pretty much the same situation. So far we have run these carburetors on a 441 BSA (shown here) and a Triumph 650 Twin. In both cases it worked very well. Much better in fact than the original concentrics. Throttle response was excellent, and the engines would turn up considerably tighter.



Incidentally, Kendrick Engineering distributes these units and they have worked with us in installing these carburetors on various motorcycles. So far we've had excellent luck.



Right now we are in the process of installing these carburetors on a BSA triple. As soon as we have definite word on how this works (and there is no doubt it will work quite well), we will let you know of the results.

The original carburetors were 26mm Amal concentrics, and we now have 32mm Kendrick units on them. The results should be quite interesting. ● pumped, or injected, into the stream of incoming air under a positive pressure. Each time the piston moves down in the cylinder, pressure in the lower end is created, which in turn sends a signal to the metering diaphragm telling it how much gas to pump into the air stream. The lower end pressure varies with the amount of air that has passed the throttle disc and entered the engine. As a result the pressure signals vary to the carburetor, which in turn varies the amount of fuel at these different rpm ranges. The amount of air that passes the throttle disc is in direct proportion to the amount of pressure built up in the lower end; also the signals to the diaphragm and pump in the carburetor are in direct proportion to these, so we always have a perfect balance of air and fuel.

In the design of the Pressure Pulse Carburetor, there are several features which lend themselves nicely to installation on almost any of the two-cycle motorcycles sold today—all the way from 100ccs to the larger 360 singles. It can be mounted in any position from horizontal to vertical, and from rightside up to upside down, with no effect on its operation whatsoever. The diameter of the bore is 38mm, and there is no venturi, which means that it is a straight shot. The size should be plenty for anything up to a 400cc single.

The pressure pulse carburetor makes use of only the pressure pulses of the crankcase to create a signal pressure on the carburetor diaphragm. The suction pulses from the crankcase are cut off by a one-way duck valve. The duck-valve is also known as a ''duck-bill'' valve, a ''raspberry'' valve, and a ''Bronx cheer'' valve. To prevent the pressure pulses from pumping up the carburetor signal chamber like a balloon, a bleed-down passage containing a carefully sized orifice releases pressure into the atmosphere from the signal chamber of the carburetor. The size of the orifice is determined by the capacity of the crankcase, the pressures created by the movement of the piston, and the desired operating characteristics of the carburetor. Thus, a carburetor designed for a particular usage may not operate as efficiently in another application.

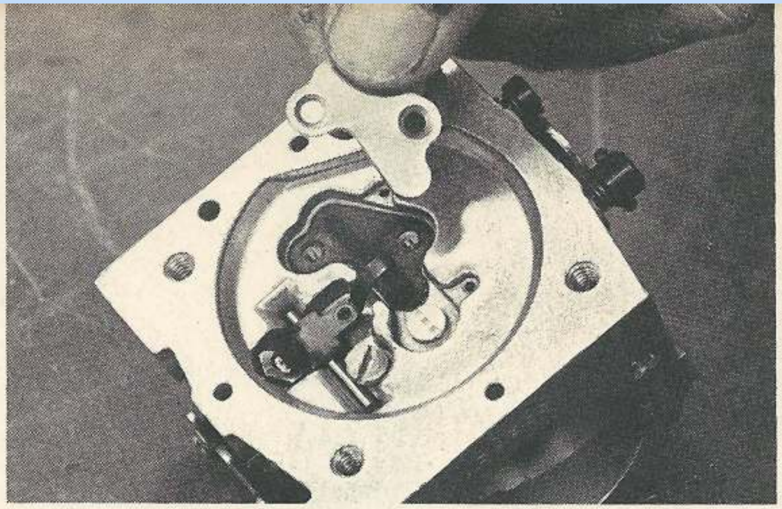
The difference between the pressures created by the pressure pulses and the bleed-down orifice at different engine speeds is the signal pressure. Signal pressure acts on the carburetor diaphragm to open the fuel inlet valve. When the pressure of fuel against the diaphragm exceeds the signal pressure, the diaphragm closes the fuel inlet valve.

At idle speed, pressure pulses are bled off quickly and the diaphragm moves only slightly. At high speeds, pressure builds up in the signal chamber and diaphragm movement is greater. This permits larger quantities of fuel to flow through the fuel inlet valve and demands a higher fuel pressure against the diaphragm to close the inlet valve.



Pressure pulses and the bleed-down orifice operate very much as a balloon with a small escape hole cut in it. As air is blown into the balloon, the balloon expands. If no more air is blown into the balloon, the balloon contracts as the air escapes through the small hole. If small puffs of air are blown into the balloon the size of the balloon will be balanced between puffs of pressure and the escaping air. If the amount of air blown in is increased the balloon will grow larger until entering air and escaping air are again in balance or until the balloon bursts. If less air is blown into the balloon turing of these pressure type carburetors. By that I mean, they leak. By doing nothing more you can improve the performance potential of your diaphragm carburetor considerably by merely lapping the plates shown in this article, so as to prevent any air or fuel leakage. By lapping flat both the inlet and outlet sides of the carburetor, plus the top section that the plates and diaphragms sit against, you can help circumvent any possible leakage, and thereby improve performance.

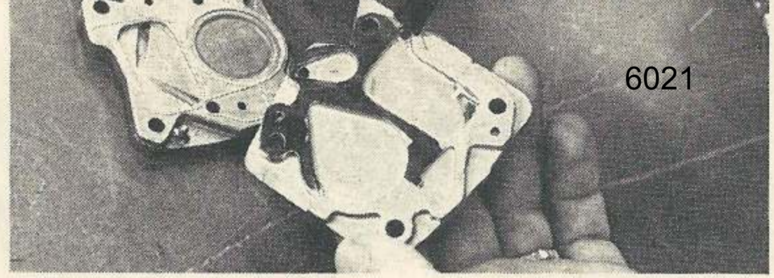
A number of the very potent 360's, when whacking along at full tilt (75 to 90 mph), the fuel economy is terrible, even at best. So anything we can do to help deliver enough fuel to keep the engine from starving at the top revs is going to be a plus factor as far as reliability and longevity of the piston and cylinder is concerned. Not to mention the bearing surfaces.



One nice thing about this type of carburetor is that the needle valves for both the high speed and low speed are on the outside, and should you wish to richen or lean the mixture, it is merely a simple matter of reaching down and tweaking the appropriate needle.

Extreme care should be exercised when working on the insides of the carburetor. While there is nothing fragile or delicate about it, it is extremely important that everything remain as clean as possible during the assembly process. By using a piece of ¼" glass and a piece of 280 wet or dry sandpaper, you can lap the various surfaces down until they are smooth, so as to provide permanent and positive seal against any possible leakage. Wet the sandpaper down with a very light solvent or oil to provide lubrication during the lapping process. It's usually a good idea to rotate the part with a figure-8 motion to insure an absolutely flat surface when finished.

The only parts we found that should be replaced were the needle and seat, which were replaced with a high capacity item, plus a new filter screen which had to be removed in order to open up the fuel passage hole underneath. Both of these items can be ordered as a separate part

Also, both the low speed and high speed jetting is adjustable from the outside of the carburetor. This meant there was no fiddling around with jetting, should I decide to change it. It was at this point I contacted Jerry Branch, only to find that he, too, had been working along the same lines. The result was the first installment of "All About Carburetors."

Any go-kart shop has a wide variety of carburetors to choose from. The reason I picked the McCullough was because of the size, and the fact that it had a choke assembly already mounted. This carburetor (Part No. 69817) is a standard unit that is used on Snowmobiles, and will adapt readily to any motorcycle we have run across. Of course, in a rotary valve type engine, where space is at a premium, you may have to go to one of the smaller units in order to squeeze it in. Regardless of the size carburetor you choose, the important thing is to be absolutely certain there are no air leaks leading from the lower end of the engine to the inlet side of the carburetor itself. This is absolutely imperative, if the carburetor is to function satisfactorily.

Another very nice feature of these carburetors is that you can use a carburetor bore size of astronomical proportions. This is because the carburetor is not dependent upon velocity across the venturi to pick up the fuel and carry the mixture into the lower end. The vacuum in the crankcase of the engine does all the work. As such, the fuel is pumped into the bore of the carburetor under pressure, thereby creating a very simple form of fuel injection. Of course, installaform of fuel injection. Of course, installation problems will vary, but the format used on the 360 Maico is quite typical of any problems you are likely to encounter.

Naturally, as with any project of this type, there were a lot of things we didn't know and were curious about. We were quite lucky, and found a company by the name of Kendick Engineering, located in North Hollywood, California. They are in the go-kart business, and are really sharp when it comes to unusual installation problems. I contacted them, and they were so interested in our project they spent their one day off, which was Sunday, working with me to complete the carburetor installation you see pictured on these pages.

The whole job was done in one day. This included starting from scratch, with absolutely no knowledge of what we were going to wind up with. # GASOHOL alcohol, $C_2H_5OH$ that Washington had in mind? How about butyl alcohol, or glycerol, or allyl, or isopropyl, or even polyvinyl alcohol. It's a large chemical family, with huge price differences between $CH_3OH$ and $(CH_3)_3COH$.

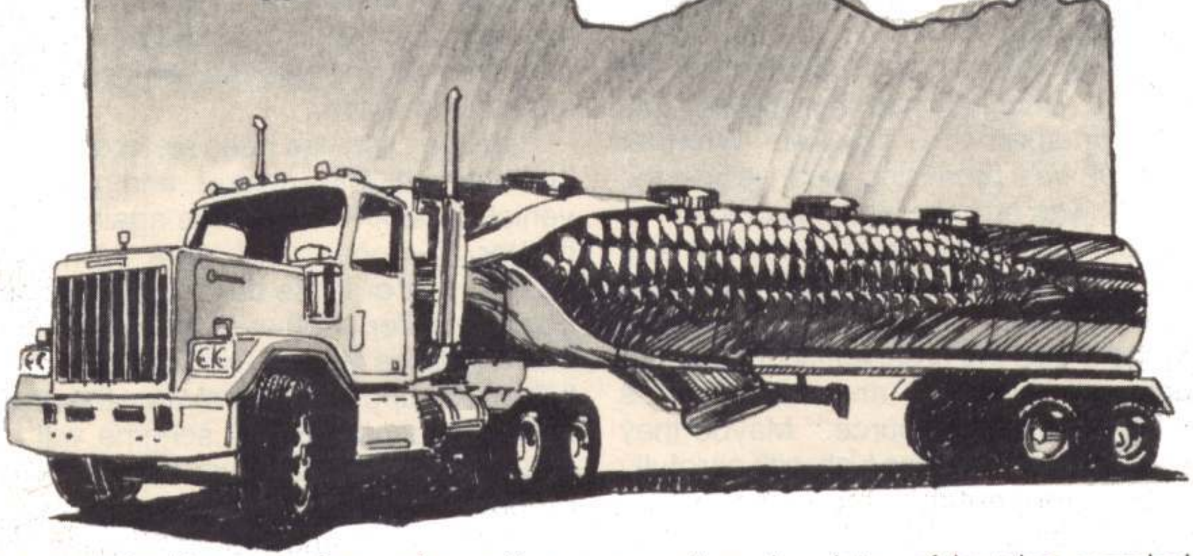
Most alcohols are far too expensive for use as motor fuels. The choice really is between methanol and ethanol, and the latter is removed from consideration by its high production and political costs. Corn and wheat, America's only truly abundant materials for making ethanol, are in great demand as food and command high prices in the international marketplace. It makes no sense for us to convert bushels of wheat to ethyl alcohol when we can sell the grain and buy more fuel than we'd get by resorting to fermentation and distillation. Also, for what it's worth, the underdeveloped nations of the world would be put badly out of sorts if Americans drove while many of their citizens starved.

Methanol can be made from corn stalks and sawdust, two of the "renewable resources" dear to ecologists. Sorry, guys, but there never was much chance that we'd try to produce large quantities of methyl alcohol from vegetation. At least, not from plants seen in this geologic period. The most abundant and economical source of methanol is coal—which converts to a gas from which methyl alcohol can be synthesized.

It's too bad that coal cannot as easily

Gasoline's best feature is its energy content: about 19,000 British thermal units per pound. Ethanol isn't nearly as energetic, yielding roughly 11,500 Btu/lb, and a pound of methanol has just 8600 Btu—less than half the heat burning an equal weight of gasoline gives.



So where did alcohol get its wonderful reputation as a racing fuel? That stems from two other properties, which combine to give methanol, especially, a remarkable ability to handle compression ratios vastly higher than those possible when gasoline is used. These properties are a high octane rating, which you'd expect, and the capacity for soaking up enormous amounts of heat in evaporating. Gasoline's "latent heat" is 135 Btu/lb. Methyl alcohol's is above 470 Btu/lb, and it is fed into cylinders in such rich air/fuel mixtures (about 4.5:1, compared with 14:1 for gasoline) that engines are made almost too cool for detonation to occur. The cooling abilities of methanol explain why speedway engines have almost no fins on their cylinders. Ethanol does not do quite so much cooling—its latent heat is 370 Btu/lb.

We all know that methanol-fueled engines can successfully run very high compression ratios. This isn't a myth: it is generally accepted that the HUCR (highest useful compression ratio) rating for methanol is up around 17:1. And it was widely assumed that a little methanol mixed in gasoline would juice it right up to aviation-octane quality. That assumption ignores the large role of internal cooling in methanol's HUCR ratings, and also the it's fed gasohol. But if the fuel contains 10 percent methanol, then the engine is a tenth of the way toward needing a 6.5:1 air/fuel mixture. That is to say, gasohol makes engines set up for gasoline think they're being shortchanged, leaned-down, and they can detonate in protest.

Here are some other gasohol-related problems Washington's talking heads didn't mention, though they were known to technical people within government. One of the most vexing problems is cold starts and drivability during warm-up. Methanol has a boiling point up at 149 degrees Fahrenheit, while some of the more volatile components in gasoline will vaporize down at freezing. This means that a methanol-fueled engine won't start at all if it's truly cold, and tests place the threshold of starting at a balmy 50–60 degrees F. Gasohol, at 90/10, just makes engines a little cold-blooded—but if your bike's engine tends to be that way on straight gasoline it may become terrible on the blend.

The methanol in gasohol could do interesting things to your bike's paint, and if the bike has a fiberglass fuel tank you shouldn't put gasohol in it at all. Methanol attacks fiberglass's resins, and also wages war on cork and certain kinds of plastic gaskets and seals. It will cause overnight corrosion of any magnesium it contacts, and while methanol isn't too hard on brass main jets it will devour the other metals used in carburetors.

Methanol enthusiasts certainly never mentioned that, compared to gasoline, the stuff is pure liquid fire hazard. As we have said before, gasoline and air have to be mixed in just the right proportions before the gasoline will ignite. The gasoline in your motorcycle's fuel tank is be converted to some form of gasoline. We have to say "some form," because gasoline varies enormously in composition. All of it begins as crude oil, which is far from being chemically uniform, and then it gets rendered asunder, molecules shattered and scrambled in either catalytic or hydrocracking towers before being reassembled as gasoline. The finished product generally has octane-number properties sufficient to permit engine compression ratios of slightly above 9:1, which isn't what it was before the federal frown fell upon tetraethyl lead but is high enough for fair efficiency.

complex chemistry of burning gasohol. What you can expect from a gasoline/alcohol blend in the 90/10 proportions of American gasohol is no more than a slight improvement in detonation resistance, and perhaps none.

You could get a small upward nudge from the methanol in gasohol, and still end up with more detonation. The chemically correct proportions for an air/gasoline mixture are about 14.7:1, by weight; those for air and methanol are 6.5:1. A carburetor jetted for gasoline keeps right on delivering a 14.7:1 (or whatever it's set for) mixture even when oline in your motorcycle's fuel tank is blanketed by vapors too rich to ignite. But methanol vapors in the same tank would light instantly if an ignition source were to be provided. So if we ever do use alcohol as a motor fuel we'll have to put about 10 percent gasoline in it to make it adequately fire-proof. Just that amount of gasoline in the blend will make the vapors in fuel tanks too rich to ignite.

If gasohol's other problems weren't enough to make us think twice about using it, the likelihood of separation should turn the trick. Gasoline and alcohol mix fairly well as long as water doesn't contaminate the mixture. The difficulty is that alcohol likes water and will collect it out of the air, off the sides and bottoms of storage tanks or anywhere else it may be available. And if there's enough water absorbed by the alcohol, both are rejected by the gasoline. So a little water in your gasohol can get you back to running on gasoline, with frequent hiccups as clots of watered alcohol find their way down from the tank.

Many of you would already know about gasohol's shortcomings, except that the blends made available here contain too little alcohol to have much effect one way or the other. But in Brazil, where the whole gasohol scheme is being taken very seriously (to avoid a balance of trade catastrophe culminating in hyper-inflation), people are dealing with the Real Thing. There, gasohol is already 20 percent alcohol (ethanol, we believe, made from cane sugar), and all kinds of engines are being changed to run on it.

Honda, for example, is already in the pre-production prototype stages of giving the Brazilians a made-for-gasohol motorcycle. It's the CG125, a version of the gasoline-fueled CB125 single familiar to American motorcyclists. The Honda CG125's specifications are revealing, as they were developed by people who were trying to make alcohol work as a motor fuel and who were not merely trolling for votes.

The most obvious difference between a CB125 and the CG125 alcohol burner is that the latter has a cast-iron cylinder and head. The engine's upper end, with its scanty finning, is unmistakably different. Different, too, is the starting drill required: the CG125 owner will have to depress a "tickler" button on the carburetor when the engine is cold, in addition to choking. The button releases a quantity of straight gasoline, held in a separate fuel tank, into the carburetor to help the engine get its fire going.

It is noteworthy, too, that the Brazilian Honda will have—among other th[...]
a fuel tank and carburetor with interiors

Honda will have—among other things—a fuel tank and carburetor with interiors specially treated for corrosion resistance. Also, that the engine has been tuned much more for economy than it has for power.

We think it might be very difficult to get acceptable power and economy out of a streetable engine running on pure methanol. All the efficiency gains possible with a higher compression ratio turn out, upon close examination, to be much smaller than you might suppose. For one thing, you cannot just raise a motorcycle engine's compression ratio, willy-nilly, to take advantage of methanol's detonation resistance. It's hard to do and still have adequate clearance around and under valves, and when it's possible mechanically it still makes engines devils to start. And if you succeed in all this, the efficiency gain in raising the compression ratio from 9:1 to 16:1 is less than 15 percent. As for fuel consumption, it would be double that obtained on gasoline. A big motorcycle burning 2.5 gallons of gasoline per hour during fast touring would consume no less than 4.8 gallons of methanol over the same period.

The fact is, methanol and the other alcohols aren't especially good motor fuels. And gasohol is less good than gasoline, except for persuading people that our leaders have the energy situation in hand. They don't. Whatever it is they may have in hand, it isn't the situation. ◉ plug electrodes at the moment the spark occurs, and this unpleasant fact of intersurging or hesitation.

There usually is a slight improvement uncertain thing and all motorcycles conspicuous candidates for the compensating effects of ultrawide plug gaps. Similarly, factors involving engine design and circumstances of use make life very difficult for the motorcycle's spark plugs, which means that our two-wheelers—even more than cars—need ignition systems that deliver a lot of reserve voltage.

A quick glance through almost any spark plug catalogue will tell you that however much motorcycle engines might benefit from wide plug gaps, they aren't getting them. The motorcycle manufacturer's plug-gap recommendation is given in most examples, and a scan of the specifications in the 1975 NGK catalogue shows an average of about .024-inch, with several down around .016 to .020, and a high (ignoring a couple of CDI-fired Kawasakis) or .032. Read through the same kind of specifications for American cars and you won't find anything less than an .032-inch plug gap. Your neighbor's decade-old Chevy, the one you borrow to shop for plugs for your bike every month or so—and which gets its plugs replaced semiannually—rates a gap recommendation of .035-inch. Late-model Fords are up in the .044 to .054 range and some of the new Delco coils are made to push sparks across gaps up to .080-inch, which will fire even extremely lean mixtures with unfailing regularity and is of enormous importance in emission-control work.

So why the skimpy plug-gap specifications for motorcycle engines? That's a very good question, and one for which there is a straightforward answer: our ignition systems are too limp to handle anything but narrow spark gaps and still provide even marginally satisfactory plug life. We had long suspected motorcycles occurs, and this unpleasant fact of internal combustion life requires that the ignition system itself supply a measure of mixture tolerance. And the most effective measure anyone has discovered is a wide spark gap.

From what we are able to learn, it seems that the widened spark gap works to aid the ignition process in a couple of ways: it extends the spark duration, and increases the volume of mixture being exposed to the spark at any given moment. Both of these factors tend to improve the chances that a combustible portion of the fast-swirling charge will pass through the plug gap while the spark is present. The improvement thus obtained is then reflected in several areas, beginning with an engine's willingness to idle. Fuel atomization and vaporization is comparitively poor when an engine is idling, but if its plugs are gapped wide the mixture tolerance will be broadened enough to cope with this condition. Similarly, the mixture reaching the cylinder tends to be very uneven when an engine is cold, and wide-gap plugs can turn a "cold-natured" machine into one that coughs once on a chill morning and then is ready to get moving. And if there's a slight carburetion problem, like a lean condition at part-throttle cruise, the widely gapped plugs will keep it from becoming manifested as

There usually is a slight improvement in fuel economy, too, with increased plug gaps. However, most motorcyclists will be more interested in the wider gap's influence on other areas of performance. It would be nice to report that there's a solid, across-the-board power increase with higher spark voltages and wider plug gaps, but that isn't the case. All the increased distance between plug electrodes does is to decrease an engine's mixture sensitivity; the high voltage allows the use of wider gaps, and extends plug life. In short, the overall effect of such measures is to civilize engines rather than make them stronger.

Even among motorcycles civility is a desirable trait, albeit rare, yet in the areas under discussion here everything conspires against it. Motorcycles have relatively large-throat carburetors, almost invariably provided on the basis of one per cylinder, and that may be good for full-throttle performance but has a bad effect on low-speed atomization of fuel. Further, motorcycles do not have the automobile engine's heated intake manifold to aid in the vaporization of fuel. Finally, motorcycle carburetors tend to be comparitively crude instruments, not near as refined as those fitted on cars. These things combine to make the motorcycle engine's air/fuel mixture an especially variable, life. We had long suspected motorcycles needed some help in this area; we didn't know how much—despite Arnold Frank's forthright comments—until after we had done some testing of our own.

Engineers whose specialty is ignitions systems surround themselves with elaborate and costly instrumentation, and fret over microseconds and millijoules and spark scatter and a host of other high-voltage minutae. But all the expert-written reports total up to an overall impression that sheer voltage is the first ignition system consideration, and you can learn a lot about that just allowing sparks to arc across an air gap. There will be a very direct correlation between the width of the gap a system is able to bridge with a spark and its voltage output. You really need an oscilloscope to assign voltage numbers; the spark gap is quite satisfactory for comparative testing—especially if you confine your interest to, and draw conclusions only from, large-scale differences. The spark gap method tells you nothing about rise-times, secondary firings or any of the less important nuances.

With a number of practical considerations in mind, we decided to test only battery-energized coils, and constructed a suitable apparatus on our trusty Sears Craftsman lathe. The variable-speed lathe was used to drive a Delco distributor at

THE GREAT IGNITION COIL TEST

500, 805 and 1270 rpm, and the distributor's eight-lobe cam thus gave us 4000, 6440 and 10,160 make/break cycles per minute at its contact points, which were controlling the current from a 12-volt Yuasa battery through the coil being tested. The distributor head was one rescued from a salvage yard, but was fitted with a new set of points and a new .22 microfarad condenser just to make sure the coils were being properly energized. The electrodes for our adjustable air gap were removed, with their insulators, from a new pair of Champion gold-palladium spark plugs. These electrodes were chosen because, while we did not anticipate problems with electrical erosion at ambient temperatures, we did not want their sharp edges to become blunted as testing proceeded. Such blunting would have changed (increased) the electrical pressure required to force a spark across any given gap, and we didn't want to introduce any unnecessary error. For the same reason, we kept close watch over the condition of the contact points, and the short time available for magnetic saturation of the coil, but we still got a 26.3mm spark distance.

With that baseline established, we went forward with the testing of our collection of motorcycle spark coils. The only way these could have emerged from the testing looking good would have been if we had used a Zippo lighter to produce our baseline spark. We didn't try every motorcycle coil, but we had a representative sampling of those energized by a battery and controlled with mechanical breaker points, and this sampling was uniformly lousy. Some were slightly better or worse than their fellows, but the bulk of them fizzled at about half the gap distance (and half the output voltage) our baseline Delco would produce. On average, the motorcycle coils tested would push an arc just over 13mm at 6440 sparks/minute, and around 12mm at the higher rate of delivery. Most of the numbers shown on the chart presented with this story compare very unfavorably against the figures for our baseline Delco.

Honda Four owners may read the numbers and figure that they have been given the best of a bad deal, but that's not necessarily true. Honda's twin-lead spark coils, used on all Fours, do pump up a bit more voltage than the typical single-lead motorcycle coil; they also have to fire across two spark gaps. The voltage path for a Honda Four (and Kawasaki Z-1) coil is out one lead to a plug's center electrode; from there it jumps to the ground electrode and passes through the head to another plug's ground electrode, jumps a second gap to yet another center electrode and then returns to the

when it started getting spark voltage from a pair of automotive coils.

We very strongly suspect that there are few motorcycles that wouldn't benefit from a similar switch in coils, but many just aren't eligible. Magneto and CDI systems pretty generally require special coils, which the Delco is not; neither can standard automotive coils be used as replacements for the twin-lead items used on Honda Fours, etc. That leaves only bikes like the Yamaha twins, bikes with conventional, battery-energized ignition systems and single-lead coils as candidates for a coil transplant, and there are problems (though minor) even among these. You have to find room for those big automotive coils, which are nearly twice the size of even the largest motorcycle counterparts, and you have to insert a ballast resistor to limit the current through the auto coils, just as in a car's electrical system. Finally, there's the greater amperage requirement to be considered—about two amps while running, compared with one amp for a motorcycle coil at the same rate of spark delivery—but that really isn't a serious difficulty, as most bike's electrical systems will have the reserve to handle it.

All of the above leaves a single potential difficulty, which is price, and that turns out not to be a problem at all. We checked with various motorcycle dealers and were quoted coil prices ranging from $10.00 (Kawasaki 400 triple) to $30.00 (Honda CB750 Four). Delco coils go for about $15.00, and automotive ballast resistors retail for around $2.50, so you can fit your ailing Double-Zoomy twin with a trick ignition system for a grand total of maybe the condition of the contact points, and maintained the battery at full charge. All spark gap measurements were taken at the distance at which sparking was regular, though some of the coils tested would fire intermittently across slightly wider gaps than those for which numbers were actually recorded.

As a first step, we ran an ordinary Delco automotive coil on our test rig, using the companion ballast resister to make the results valid. What we wanted was a baseline number against which all other coils tested could be compared. Relatives of the Delco coil we used can be found in literally millions of General Motors products (Chevrolets, Buicks, Oldsmobiles and Pontiacs) and we really don't think this coil sets unreasonably high standards for voltage output. The people at GM don't ask it to work against plug gaps wider than .035-inch in engines with moderate compression ratios, and you can buy the coil for less than $15.00, retail, almost anyplace in the country.

Triggered to give 6440 sparks per minute, the Delco coil fired with impressive regularity out to a gap 26.3mm in width, beyond which point leakage from the high-tension terminal across the insulator and down to the battery/points terminals began to dampen its enthusiasm. This test was repeated a half-dozen times, with the same result, so we tried the Delco coil at 10,160 sparks/minute. At the higher rate output must have dropped, due to center electrode and then returns to the coil via the second lead. Taking into consideration that one of those jumps is a "reverse-polarity" affair (going from the cool ground to the hot center electrode, which takes more voltage than the other way) and the existence of the extra gap, the net improvement is slight. The marginal nature of the improvement is reflected in the plug gaps recommended for Honda's CB350 Twin, with a single-lead coil, and the CB750 Four: both, according to NGK, should have their plugs gapped at .028-inch.

If no motorcycle coil were conspicuously better than the rest, one distinguished itself by being a lot worse. The coil Ducati provides with its 750 twins, the little beauty that did so much to encourage this investigation, stands in about the same relationship to other bike coils as they occupy relative to the Delco. We checked six Ducati coils, and the miserable little spark we got from the best of the lot is responsible for the depressing figures you see on our chart. At 6440 sparks/minute the Ducati coil was straining to bridge an 8mm gap; at 10,160 sparks/minute it would just wisp its way between electrodes 1.9mm apart. Of course in real life the Ducati coil never has to crank out more than 4500 sparks per minute, so to give the thing a break we tried it down at 4000—and it responded by leaping a miserable 10mm gap. It's no wonder that my own Ducati perked up nition system for a grand total of maybe $32.50, plus tax, and light a mighty fire in your fussy two-stroke triple for less than $50.00—even if you can't get a volume discount on the coils.

Phil Schilling beat the current-draw/ballast resistor problem by buying a pair of Chrysler Marine coils for his Ducati Super Sport, and you might want to give them a try. Phil worked a swindle and bought his wholesale for $16.00 apiece, and was truly delighted with them because they are very small and fit right into the stock coil brackets, and they made the Super Sport run a world better. He lost only a little of his enthusiasm for them when testing showed (see chart page 47) that while they were a whole lot better than the Ducati coils and slightly stronger than the average for all motorcycle coils, they fell far short of matching the larger car coils' output.

And the spark-throwing, electrode-sizzling champion of our coil test? It is an all-purpose automotive coil sold by K-Mart, along with discount-priced shoes and bath oils. We don't know who makes the K-Mart coil, but the thing retails locally for $6.66 and is the spark-producing bargain of the year. The K-Mart coil (which may be sold by other discount stores, under other names) is a little shorter than the Delco coil it is made to replace, making it a bit easier to mount, and like the Delco its output limit is reached not with

AGAINST ALL ODDS

I have boxes of barely-used spark plugs that had ceased to work satisfactorily in my 1969 Honda CB750. The bike fouled plugs even when new, and I tried everything—including a Boyer-Bransden transistor trigger—to make the problem go away. But the best solution I'd found until recently was to buy plugs wholesale.

Then, a little while ago, I read your article about spark plugs, which said that motorcycle ignition systems were weak, and it sent me off in a new direction—thinking about the ignition coil and plug wire. My 750 was getting old, the plug wire was getting leaky, but there was no provision for replacement without replacing the coils. I wasn't too impressed with Honda's dual-lead coil, and the things are expensive.

I knew that coils work just fine when wired in series, since that was how the Boyer-Bransden unit operated, so I purchased four epoxy-coated 12-volt coils

A COUPLE OF POINTS

About Your "Coils" Story. Going from a primary current of one ampere to two per ignition coil (with a switch to automotive coils) is no problem for the alternator supply, but it cuts life expectancy on the contact points to less than half. Contact wear with inductive loads increases almost as the square of current increase. Decent size silver cadmium oxide contacts would increase the manufacturer's cost about 5¢ per set.

Install (adapt) a pair of automotive points or add a pair of high voltage silicon power transistors and zeners to cut point wear. (Get friendly with your neighbourhood ham or tinkerer if electronics scare you.) Do not install an automotive transistorized system—they are high current, low inductance types meant to fire 8 cylinders at high speed from one coil. Totally ridiculous for a bike repetition rate.

chased four epoxy-coated 12-volt coils from Sears (approximately $6.00 each) and wired them all in series, connected to the transistor ignition. There was no need for a resistor, as that many coils in series provides its own ballast resistance. This system drew about 2.5 amps, and what's more it cured the bike's cold-blooded tendencies. It would also fire plugs that wouldn't flicker with the original coils, and fire them with the gap set at .035-inch.

This brings me to my real point: in your later article about coils you state that "standard automotive coils (cannot) be used as replacements for the twin-lead items used on Honda Fours, etc." That's not true. Right now my Honda is operating beautifully with automotive coils, as is my wife's 1965 CB160 cafe racer. Dual-lead coils like those on the Honda can be replaced with car coils, two for one, with a single set of points handling the two replacement coils. Just wire the car coils in pairs, with a ballast resister, in a series circuit. That is to say, the current from the battery goes through the ballast resister, through first one coil primary and then the other, and then to the points and ground.

The biggest problem with this installation is finding room for everything. Luckily, the Sears epoxy coils are somewhat smaller than Delco coils. I wrapped my ulous for a bike repetition rate.

First good news. J.C. Penney catalogue # R985-2682A replacement coil (a transformer with high resistance primary) does not need a primary resistor. It's meant for old 12V Rambler, VW, Studebaker systems. Send Penney's $4.99 plus postage and wire in directly. That's $10.00 total for my Yamaha RD250.

For cheapskates, no money and 10 minutes will yield quick starting and reliable running in rainstorms if the radio frequency interference suppressor resistor is removed from the plug connectors. Unscrew connector from high voltage wire, screw out plug catching connector, take out cylindrical 10k resistor and spring, cut #6 brass screw or a piece of #10 wire to length of resistor, reassemble, and test for spark fatness.

This will not increase voltage, but will double current when firing. It will supply voltage under wet conditions when previously the juice was shunted to ground at the coil, high tension wires, etc.

15 years ago my Saab 750GT automobile with 2 stroke, 3 cylinder distributor-type power plant would pull a 2200 lb. total load at 95 mph, get 25–30 mpg, permit my wife to do stop and go city driving, and get 15,000 miles to a set of plugs. After "space age" advances in design my Yamaha 250, 2 stroke, 2 cylinder with no distributor losses will not pull smaller than Delco coils. I wrapped my coils with ensolite and taped them in place under the gas tank with duct tape. Crude, but effective, and nothing shows when the tank's in place. I feel pretty smug about all this, as I have been operating the system (and the same set of plugs) since January—long before your recent coils exposé appeared in print.

COILS

Gor[illegible] article on ignition coils will be a big help to the camshaft business. We run headlong into the problem of poor coil output. At high engine speeds, the high lift—long duration camshaft boosts the compression pressure. If the ignition is marginal, the added compression pressure often snuffs out the spark. The camshaft gets the blame. We cure about 100% of the poor performance complaints by telling the customer to close down his plug gaps.

Coil output is related to the weight of the coil. More copper and iron adds up to more energy. Exceptions are the CD systems. We have made excellent CD in ignition voltage, which is what you're going to get with car coils, will cause problems with spark plugs or require switching to another plug heat range. There won't be any noticeable difference in either aspect, assuming that the plugs you are now using are correct. If the plug heat range is too cold, then the extra voltage available from the coil will tend to keep them firing instead of fouling. Electrical erosion of the plug electrodes will be a problem only if the plugs' heat range is off on the hot side, in which case the spark will tend to carry metal away from the overheated center electrode. The only shift in spark plug specification concerns the electrode gap. Half of the overall reason for boosting ignition voltage is to allow the use of a wider plug gap, and you'll want to switch from the .024- to .028-inch gap presently specified for your bike to something wider: we'd recommend a gap of between .035- and .040-inch. Car coils will fire even wider gaps for a while, but you'll get most of the wide-gap benefits at .040-inch and anything wider will just use up the voltage reserve needed to keep the plugs firing after time in service has blunted their electrode edges and coated their insulators with fouling deposits.

Our experience with mixed car/bike ignition systems, though not yet extensive enough to be offered as positive proof of ultimate durability, indicates that car coils—though much stronger than the bike equivalent—don't cause any difficul[illegible] battery drain or accelerated contact surface burning of the points.

IT WORKED, IT WORKED!

Your coil test in the July issue filled me with proper British pride when I discovered that my Norton coils finished second from the top. Only upon reading the article did I discover that the top was really the bottom, as far as coil quality was concerned.

Since the 1500 miles accumulated on my plugs had caused the starting procedure to degenerate from a two kick affair to a dozen pumps with luck, I decided to switch coils.

I purchased two used Ford coils, circa 1965 and 1968, complete with brackets for $2 each. I chose Ford coils as they were the same length as my Lucas coils. And although they looked rather scrungy, [illegible] and responded well to coils out of puny 12-volt ... coils. Or, ... augh meter," which is a high voltage milliameter in series with the adjustable gap, won't rate even a smile out of some of the bike coils. Incidently a milliameter is a very necessary instrument in evaluating coil output. While widening the gap tells us something about the coil's chances of firing a spark plug, a milliameter indicates the energy which is heat, and it is heat that lights off the charge.

Abnormal spark advance requirements are a dead giveaway. Firing further down the hole simply means that the compression pressure at that point is lower and the spark will "make it" across the electrodes. The least spark advance one can run and still satisfy top-end requirements will always give best all-around performance. A better ignition sometimes means that you can now run optimum spark advance.

Big ccs, big carburetion, big rubber, big compression ratios mean little if the spark doesn't jump across the plug electrodes. Many carburetor problems have been solved by working on the ignition!

... contact surface burning of the points. They just work, and work well, even if you get the primary voltage polarity reversed and in general do a half-shabby wiring job. The automotive coils are strong enough to overcome such piffling difficulties. They also are strong enough to render unnecessary any further electrical/electronic complications, such as "dwell extenders," or any of the other miracles of magic box science. All you have to do is make your motorcycle's ignition system as strong as the one in a typical 1955 Chevy, and you'll have done all that's necessary.

Finally, don't ask us if you can work pairs of automotive coils off a single set of points in a Honda or Kawasaki four. We haven't tried it and don't know. The fours, like all the twins and triples, would benefit from stronger ignition systems but there's nothing available at present to replace their dual-lead coils. Neither will we supply detailed instructions for converting specific motorcycles. The wiring diagram we have provided is what you'll find (minus the ballast resistor) working one coil in a Suzuki or Kawasaki triple, Honda twin or whathaveyou. The only thing missing is a little inventive improvisation in making coil brackets and switching leads from one set of coils to another. That part you'll have to supply yourselves; we think the results will be worth the effort. ●

And although they looked rather scrungy, they tested fine, and responded well to a solvent wash-up and 2 coats of flat black.

Installation proved to be ridiculously easy. Not only did the Ford brackets bolt up directly in place of their Lucas counterparts, but the Lucas electrical fittings and nuts fit the Ford terminals directly. Since the Norton already uses a ballast resistor, no rewiring was necessary. One only needs to remember that a Ford has a negative ground, while a Norton has a positive ground. Therefore, the Ford terminal marked BAT. is connected to the points and condenser, while the terminal marked DIST. is connected to the black lead from the ballast resistor.

The only other comment needed concerns the spark plug wire. Since the Ford coil tower is considerably taller than that on the Lucas coil, one must push the coil boot up the wire to ensure good contact.

After installation I regapped my dirty plugs to .035 inches and did indeed reap the benefits of easier starting and idling as promised by your article.

Bikes' breaker cams can be modified to reduce their dwell time, which is longer than car coils require.

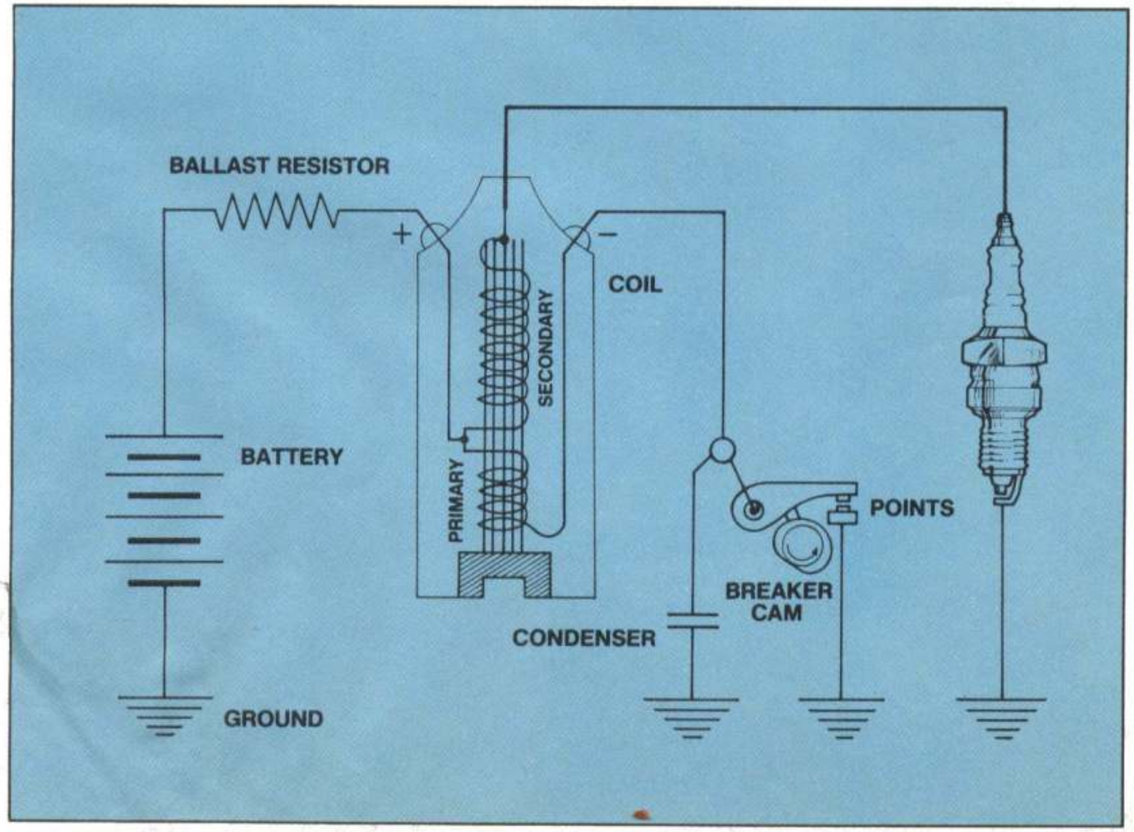
unless it was backed by enough coil voltage to fend off outright fouling. That proved to be exactly right. We were promised that a wide plug gap would extend an engine's tolerance for leaness—whether that arose from lean spots not worked out of the carburetion, or the poor fuel vaporization natural with cold engines—and that also proved to be correct. We didn't know how many motorcycles' ignition systems had enough voltage to permit wider plug gaps.

Knowing how very easy it is for us to nibble off more than we can chew, we decided to confine our investigation to ordinary inductive ignition coils of the kind found in service on almost every touring bike. These could be tested on a realistic basis without resorting to the oscilloscopes, etc., needed to develop any meaningful data from testing the more exotic CDI magnetos. We proceeded on the assumption, which people wiser than ourselves assured us was solidly based on fact, that coils' maximum output was what should be checked, and that this could be done by making them force sparks across an adjustable air gap. The electrical pressure required to overcome the resistance of an air gap does vary somewhat with atmospheric conditions, but the air in our shop is of coastal southern California quality, which means it conforms very closely to the engineers' "standard atmosphere" on a monotonously regular basis. Thus, we could expect that the one-millimeter-equals-one-thousand-volts rule of thumb could be followed and that comparisons between coils would be valid unless they happened to be so close we'd be measuring air gaps with a micrometer.

We constructed a test apparatus which used an eight-cylinder distributor's points to switch the coils being tested and drove it with our trusty Sears lathe at speeds that gave us 4000, 6440 and 10,160 sparks per minute. Coil output was checked by changing the gap between the center electrodes of two "shelled" Champion gold-palladium plugs.

Our baseline data was taken with a Delco 12-volt automotive ignition coil, as it is representative of the kind used in a jillion General Motors cars and may be said to reflect what that mighty firm considers to be satisfactory coil output. The Delco coil was tested at all three spark rates, and it fired regularly across a 26.3mm air gap no matter how many sparks per minute it was asked to deliver. That air gap represents an output of 26.3 kilovolts (26,300 volts) but not the peak for the Delco coil windings: at 26.3 KV there was uncontrollable short-circuit firing between the coil's high voltage terminal and its primary terminals.

Out in the real world the Delco coil is never required to pump voltages up beyond the 15 KV level. In fact, only about 10 KV voltages are needed to force a spark across a .035-inch plug gap in a running engine, even at full throttle, when the plug is new. New electrodes have sharp edges that encourage the early formation of a spark when voltage rises in the coil's secondary (high voltage) windings. But plug electrodes don't stay sharp. Heat and chemical erosion blunt their edges and raise the voltage requirement by about 5 KV—which means that a coil must deliver a minimum of 15 KV if frequent spark plug replacement is to be avoided.



The reason for providing coil output in excess of 15 KV is to cope with the effects of fouling deposits that accumulate on the spark plug's insulator. These deposits provide a secondary path to ground, and the coil output must be sufficient to lose some of its potential through the accumulated coating of lead salts, etc., on the insulator and still have enough in reserve to push a spark across the plug gap. This reserve is not really voltage, as that never rises past the level required to ionize the gases in the gap between the plug electrodes; it actually is energy, which is fairly accurately reflected in the peak voltages a coil is capable of attaining.

In the Delco coil, we found an output reserve of 11.3 KV, or 75 percent more than the service minimum. In a really depressing comparison, the best motorcycle ignition coil we found was one from a Kawasaki Z-1, which quit firing regularly when the test air gap was extended wider than 18.6mm at a spark rate of only 6440 per minute. The Kawasaki's coil would handle a 20.6mm air gap at 4000 sparks/minute, but its output trailed off so badly at the 10,160-sparks/minute rate that the air gap had to be closed to 13.6mm. That means the best of motorcycle coils the assumption, which people wiser than means the best of motorcycle coils doesn't deliver enough punch to handle the .035-inch plug gap needed to clean up the Z-1's cold-start/part-throttle carburetion problems once the shine has gone off new plug electrodes—or have the reserve to deal with more than a light coating of fouling deposits. From this test result we would have to conclude that a Z-1 can be expected to develop a high-speed misfire after a couple of thousand miles of service on a set of plugs. The Z-1s owned by Cycle staffers conform to that expectation of performance.

But if the Z-1's coil is a bit weak, the average motorcycle coil is downright tubercular. We haven't tested any coils from 1977 motorcycles, so it is possible that there has been some improvement; the lack of changes in spark gap recommendations strongly hints that the new coils are much like those we tested in 1975—and those were awful, as you can see in the air gap numbers on the chart we've provided. You will also see that the cut-rate K-Mart coil (we bought it because it was handy and cheap) performed like a demon, pumping out voltages so high that even though it went into cross-terminal firing like the Delco coil, it had enough reserve to fire across a 31.2mm air gap. As you might expect, we've switched to K-Mart coils—where such transplanting is possible—on all our own motorcycles.

In Coils II we said, "Conventional inductive-type ignitions are so simple that it's almost impossible to botch the coil transplant seriously unless you get excessively creative in doing the job." Wrong again: we correctly assessed the pernicious influence of creativity, but completely underestimated the powers of unfamiliarity, anxiety and circumstance.

One of the items that seemed to cause problems was the ballast resistor (also known as a coil resistor) used with automotive coils. Many of you got yourselves worked up into a sweat about having the right resistance, in ohms, even though we told you ballast resistors don't have a fixed resistance. These electrical devices vary their resistance to control current flow, and they're all substantially alike. When line voltage is low the ballast resistor's wire-coil element cools off, lowers its resistance, and the spark coil still gets the current flow needed to make a strong spark; when line voltage rises the resistor's element becomes hotter, its resistance rises, and the current is held to a level the ignition's contact points can tolerate—3.5 to 4.0 amperes.

All the major domestic auto manufacturers use about the same material in their sion of that matter a bit further along.

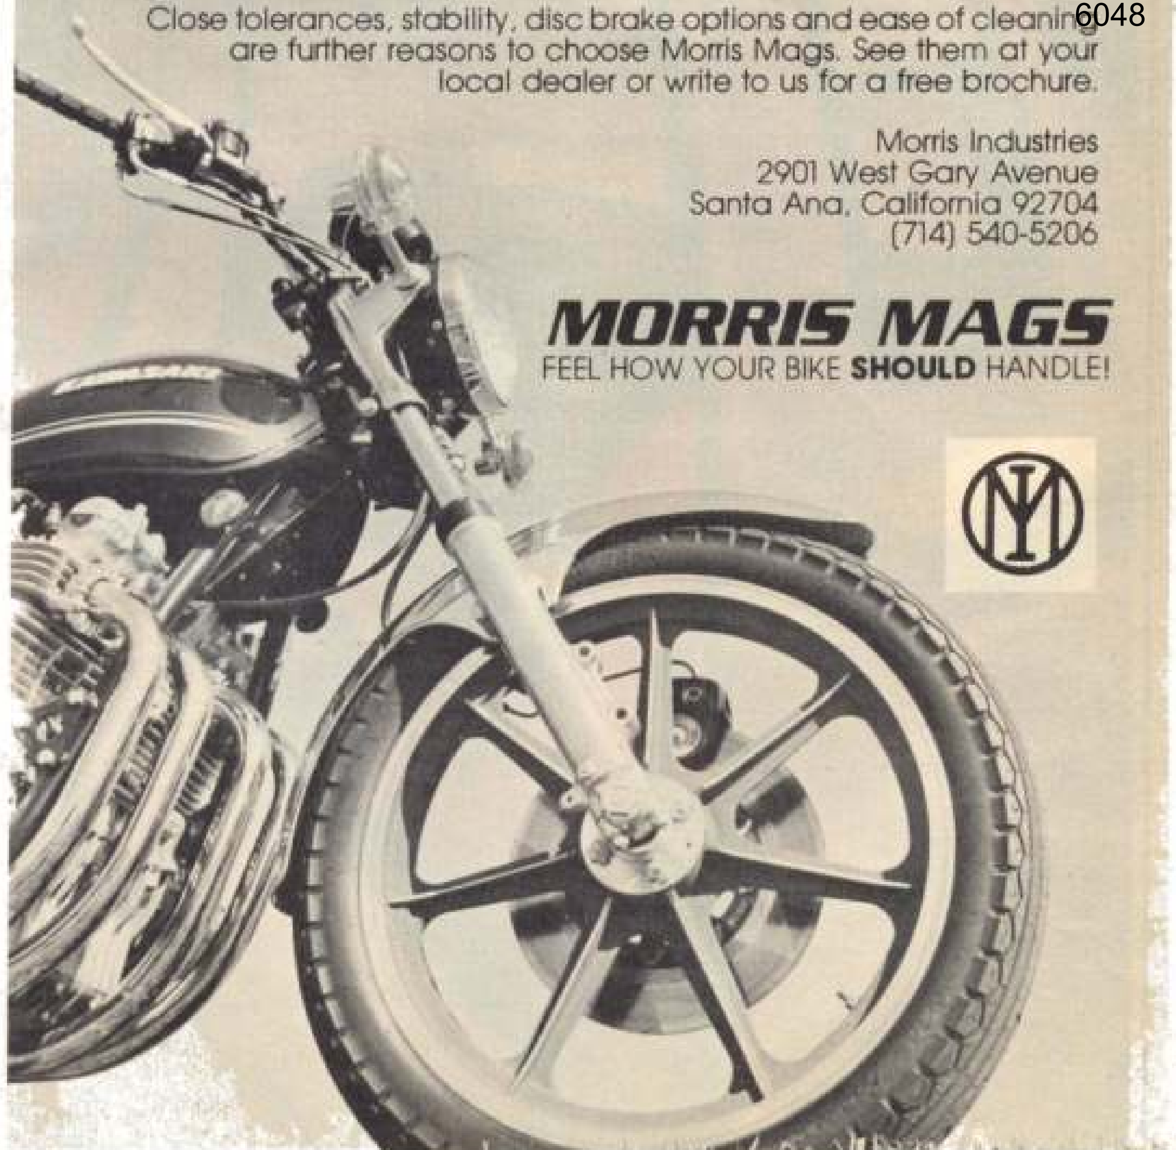
Condensers also seemed to confuse a lot of people. We won't go into the way a condenser functions in an ignition system except to tell you it's an electrical shock absorber, of sorts, and that the system won't work without it for very long. You can install a condenser anywhere between the ignition coil's points-side terminal and the points' moving contact, though most installations will have the condenser's pigtail lead attached directly at the coil or points terminal. The condenser body, or its mounting strap, must be grounded. Manufacturers usually locate condensers inside the engine's points housing, which is tidy and (for them) convenient. We prefer placing the condensers up at the coils, where they stay cooler, and where there is no space problem—which means we can use any ignition condenser that's cheap and available. All such condensers have rated capacities right at .22 microfarads, and a condenser made for a Chevy works just fine on a Suzuki or any other motorcycle that has a conventional points-type ignition system; it will work even when there has been no change in ignition coils.



Cars seldom have more than a single ballast resistor, because they seldom have more than a single ignition coil. Motorcycles are a different matter entirely unless their ignition breaker cams are

All the major domestic auto manufacturers use about the same material in their ignition points, the points fix the current limit, and all the domestic ballast resistors are made to hold current at that limit. So you can just step up to the counter at your local auto parts store and ask for an ignition ballast resistor. The parts man will hand you a small ceramic block that has two terminal lugs, a mounting strap, and what looks like a heating coil set into a groove along its side. Don't worry about the brand name on the ballast resistor, and don't worry about the wisp of smoke you'll see rising from its resistance coil the first time it's hit with current; there's usually a film of oil on the coil which burns away at first use.

You can splice the ballast resistor(s) into the circuit (leading from a bike's ignition switch, through the spark coil, to the contact points, to ground) anywhere between the switch and the points. Do not, as one reader did, install the ballast resistor back at the battery, because then you'll have your bike's lights, ignition and everything sharing the trickle of current intended for the coil alone. Just remember that a ballast resistor will limit the total current in the circuit between itself and ground to 3.5–4.0 amps, and you want the ignition coil to have all that current. Some motorcycles can use a single ballast resistor to control the current to two or three coils; others need a ballast resistor for each coil. We'll get to a detailed discus-primary current, but when both are switched by a single set of points the total load at the contacts rises to seven or eight amps. That's more than three times the motorcycle points' designed-for load, and though you'll get a terrific spark while they last you'll be replacing them while your fingers are still grubby from doing the conversion work.

There is a much better chance of making the coil transplant work if the paired primary windings are wired in a series circuit. In this arrangement, current is fed first through one coil, then the other, and finally to the contact points. Conventional car coils usually have a primary resistance of between 1.5 and 2.0 ohms, giving a total of three to four ohms for a series-connected pair. If we assume that the supplied voltage is 14 volts (as it commonly is, with a nominally 12-volt system) then these combined resistances will allow a total current of 4.6 to 3.5 amps. The former is too high for acceptable points life; the latter—3.5 amps—is about the right current for the coils and shouldn't cause too-rapid deterioration of the contacts.

Now we can talk about the combination that seems as though it should work fine, but may not. This is the one with two coils come up with low-resistance coils, and your bike happens to have wiring and an especially vigorous generator and battery, you could end up with a five-amp load at the points—which would have to be reduced with a ballast resister. At the other extreme, the current might only be 2.5 amps and that would drop the coils' output voltage to a level 30 percent below normal, or about 21 kv. That's still better than the output of an average motorcycle coil but less than is needed to justify the effort and expense of making the coil transplant.

Our best guess is that a system with paired, series-connected car coils drawing between 3.0 and 3.5 amps will give the most satisfactory overall results. You wouldn't want your bike's ignition points to carry more than 3.5 amps, as higher currents will do bad things to the contact surfaces and also may cause overheating of the current-carrying points spring, with a high-speed misfire appearing as this thin steel strap goes limp. Neither should you choke the coils' primary current below 3.0 amps, as coil output will then drop significantly. And the only sure way to stay within this 3.0- to 3.5-amp current bracket is to check the installation with an ammeter, taking readings for the entire fairly heavy winding on a ceramic armature, with one moveable contact to let you vary the effective length of the resistance wire. You insert one of these resisters into each paired-coils circuit, connecting to one fixed terminal and taking the current from the sliding contact, and you can get exactly the total current you want. Or, more to the point, exactly what the ignition contacts and coils want. You can begin at three amps, gap your bike's spark plugs at .035-inch, and see how long your points last. If you find plug-related misfiring after a couple of thousand miles you can increase the primary current to the coils a bit and try it again. With experience, you should be able to hit upon a current that exactly matches spark plug and points life.

With the ignition primary current higher-than-stock, it will be necessary to pay close attention to what's happening to the points' contact surfaces, as the increased electrical load will make them much more sensitive to condenser capacitance. Most condensers (bike or auto) will have a capacitance somewhere around .18 to .22 microfarads, and the actual capacitance of an individual condenser may vary from manufacturer's specifications by up to 20 percent, which but may not. This is the one with two coils wired in series, with the current controlled by a ballast resister. And if you happen to get the right coils on the right motorcycle it will perform very well. Unfortunately, we can't tell you to go ahead with this system of paired coils in series and a ballast resister for each pair, because there are too many unknowns influencing the final outcome. One unknown is the resistance of the wire leading from your bike's battery to its coils. Wire sized in anticipation of a 2.5-amp coil primary current may become a significant resistance at higher current rates. Similarly, the resistances at connections cannot be ignored, as these can add to the total voltage-drop. We don't think this will be enough to require anything as drastic as rewiring your motorcycle before the coil transplant is done; it can have a substantial effect on the final result.

Another important unknown factor is the resistance of the coils themselves. As we've indicated, coils' primary resistance does vary—between makes and often between individual coils obtained from a single manufacturer. So if you happen to ammeter, taking readings for the entire circuit—including the leads from coils to points. Don't bother checking the current with the engine running: with the points opening and closing rapidly you get an ammeter reading that's an average, and not representative of the maximum current across the contact surfaces.

Chances are you'll find that two 12-volt automotive coils wired in series on your bike will draw somewhat more than 3.5 amps. We tried it with a pair of K-Mart coils and had a current of just over four amps, with a battery delivering 12.5 volts, and that was too high. Adding a ballast resister put us off-target in the other direction, reducing the current to only 2.5 amps. We suspect that your motorcycle will present you with the same situation, which means that some current adjustment will be necessary if you are to have the coil transplant's benefits without its potentially-undesirable consequences.

As it happens, there's a device that will do the current-adjustment job very neatly: a simple, cheap (about $2.50) adjustable power-resister rated for up to 50 watts and five ohms. These resisters have a specifications by up to 20 percent, which can create problems even in a stock ignition system. Ignition condensers function, in part, to keep the 200- to 300-volt primary backlash (which occurs when the points open) from blasting material off one contact face and depositing it on the other; this transferring of material is apt to proceed more rapidly at high current loads, and the need to have the condenser capacitance exactly right thus becomes more acute. The points themselves tell you the story on capacitance: in a negative-ground system, a build-up of material on the fixed contact is evidence that the capacitance is too great; a spike developing on the moving contact says it's not enough. Localized pitting along a single side of each contact face means that the contacts aren't meeting squarely—which is another thing you'll have to watch closely when using high-current coils. These problems arise with stock ignition systems, but they become more severe at higher electrical loads.

Four paired automotive coils seem to present plenty of opportunity for getting

creative with condensers. We'd suggest that in view of the other areas of confusion (potential or realized) in the coil transplant, you should take the easy way out, and use one ordinary automotive condenser with each coil. The condenser cases can be grounded on the bike's frame (under the paint) and their leads connected to the coils' points-side terminals, or vice versa; they'll work fine either way. This multiplicity of condensers calls for a few extra connections and parts, but is the cheapest arrangement and also provides the most latitude for tailoring each pair of coils' capacitance to handle their primary backlash most effectively. Your local automotive tune-up specialist can check the actual capacitance of the condensers you use; knowing what you have will give you a good idea of what you need in the event that contact surface pitting and spiking does prove to be a serious problem.

We have not, until now, mentioned the possibility of using series-paired six-volt coils, which some people seem to think is the Hot Tip in coil transplants. The fact is that everything we've said about 12-volt coils applies to those intended for a six-volt system. You wire them together in pairs and in series circuits, and then you check the current at the points before any congratulations are in order. Sure, BMW uses a pair of six-volt Bosch coils, in series, switched with a single set of points; that doesn't mean you can do the same with a set of six-volt Delco coils on a with a set of six-volt Delco coils on a Honda. And if you're smart you'll stick with American-made coils, because they can't be beaten in terms of output and price.

If you're both smart and lazy, you may want to live with the coils you have just a little longer. It isn't easy to find room for four big car coils on a bike, and they do create problems (point life and, sometimes, more of a current drain than bikes' electrical systems can handle). There definitely are benefits in the wider spark gaps possible with stronger ignition systems, but there's evidence that some motorcycle ignition systems are getting strong enough. We understand that the newer Honda GL1000 coils, for example, are better than any of the dual-lead coils we tested back in 1975. Also, there are some American-made dual-lead accessory coils being introduced right now, and these may very well solve a lot of the big-four owners' ignition problems . . . for a price. Four K-Mart coils will cost you about $30.00, maximum, and that's less than half what you'd spend for a pair of the dual-lead accessory coils presently available. If the latter can give you 30-plus-kv output, at a reasonable current, then their advantages in reduced bulk and wiring-harness complications would seem to justify their price. Maybe it's time for us to rebuild our 1975 coil test rig, collect a bunch of dual-lead coils, and have another try at spark-measuring. ● get them from Harley-Davidson, part #29576-63R. For this particular application, you must add to each coil a Lucas C lamination (to complete the magnetic loop) and these carry Lucas' part #54441946. The Bendix coils are a perfect fit in the Lucas C lamination, and are held with Lucas clips, part #54441104. (Four are required.) Finally, get a pair of Mallory condensers (the big fat kind, with a terminal lug on top) and a few feet of insulated, multi-strand copper wire. A couple of blade-type connectors will be useful, but are not an absolute must.

If the motorcycle is to be used for racing only, you may remove four of the six generating coils on the alternator's stator—which is done by straightening the tabs that hold them in place, cutting the wires, and pulling them off of their pole pieces. The two coils you will be using for the ignition system are those connected to the yellow lead. This is one of three leads on the alternator stator; another, pink, lead connects with the four "night" lighting coils. The third, common, lead is brown. It connects the ground side of all the coils.

Those daytime coils are 180° apart on the stator, and are connected in series. You will want to use them as separate generating units, so it is necessary to scrape a bare spot on the bit of insulated wire running between them and ground it on the stator. The least complicated way of accomplishing this is to crimp one of the coil-holding tabs over on the bare spot, and then apply

To keep the alternator output phased with the points you must lock or remove entirely the automatic advance device.

You can remove redundant coils by bending the retaining tabs, cutting a few wires and sliding them off the pole-pieces.

is to crimp one of the coil holding tabs over on the bare spot, and then apply just a drop of solder between wire and tab to insure a good electrical connection. This done, you locate the leads coming out the other side of each coil and solder on long wires to carry the coil output up to the coils, condensers and breaker points.

The coils can be located anywhere on the bike. I chose to bolt them right against the frame strut that holds the stock coils. The hole pattern through the frame is not the same as in the Lucas C laminations, so you must drill an extra hole through the frame. You could drill through the laminations to make their holes match the frame, but in doing that, you will smear the metal in each individual plate enough to make an electrical connection between them and that will reduce the coil output some amount. Why? Because when the coils are operating, a magnetic field is flashing through those laminations and generating electricity there. Connect between the plates and you allow the current to flow and part of your field strength will be lost. Things like coil cores and stators are laminations made of many individual thin sheets, insulated from each other, for precisely that reason. The eddy currents generated in a solid core would do bad things to the magnetic field. Don't upset what the engineers have worked so hard to accomplish.

For convenience, I used the same bolts securing the coils to the frame to hold the Mallory condensers. And, also for convenience, I used the condenser terminals as terminal posts for all the wires. You don't even need a wiring diagram for this job; all leads—from coil, points and alternator— attach at the condenser terminal. In other words, everything is wired in parallel. Of course, you have to treat the whole lash-up as two separate systems, but you can use either of the generating coils in the alternator to spark either cylinder. Just don't do any cross-wiring between sides, or the spark disappears. In fact, this is how you rig a kill-switch: take an ordinary two-lead toggle switch and attach each lead to a terminal. When the switch is "on" it makes a direct short between the two sides of the system and presto! The spark is gone.

Now then, with the wires hooked from alternator to condenser to coil to points, you can "time" the engine. To do this job, you must remove the alternator rotor and stator, and bolt a degree wheel to the end of the crankshaft. Reach down through the sparkplug hole with a dial indicator and ease the engine over to find top dead center, then "zero" your degree wheel. After that, you proceed in the usual fashion: backing the crank by the number of degrees of spark advance you want. Stock full advance is 40° and that is best for mid-range running. Mid and upper range performance is better with the timing at 45-48° BTC, and that is what you want for racing.

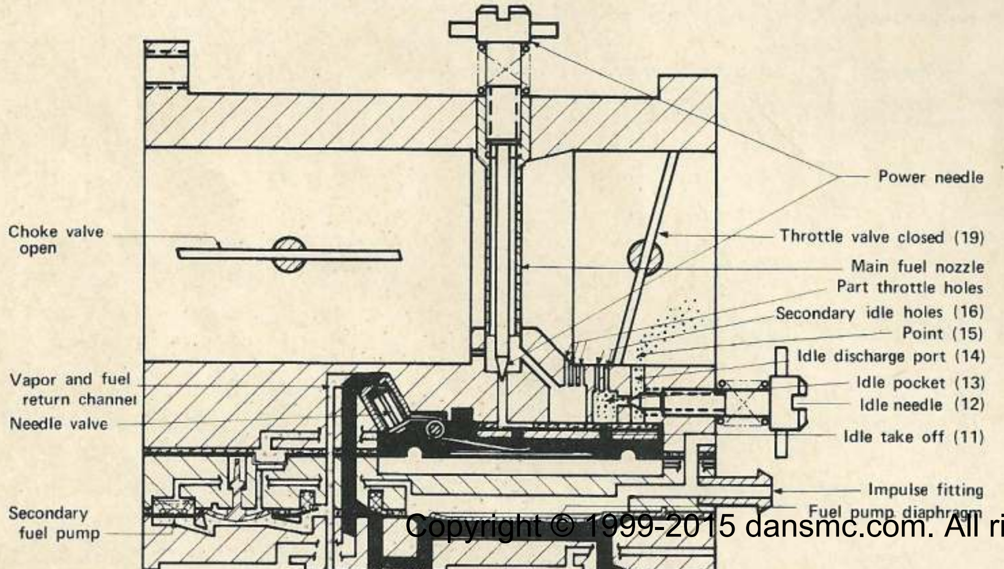
Having backed the crank into "firing" position, you are almost ready to set the ignition timing. "Almost" because you must first rework things to eliminate the automatic advance mechanism. This centrifugal device swings the timing 35° between 2000 rpm and 3500 rpm, and the pulses coming up from the alternator don't last that long. So, if you leave the advance mechanism intact, you will have an engine that starts—but won't get much past idle; or you can have one that will run after it is cranked up past 3500 rpm—but you can't be started in a normal manner.



You can simply pull the advance over to full-advance, and weld it in place. I chose to remove weights, springs and everything else, and then silver-solder the breaker cam to its shaft (which is really a tube that fits over the end of the exhaust camshaft). The sequence here is to slip everything into place on the end of the exhaust camshaft, and then install the points plate right in the middle of its adjustment range. You then rotate the breaker cam with your fingers until it just begins to lift the points to your left (which fire the left cylinder) and then mark, with file or punch, the breaker cam and its tubular shaft. The purpose here is to get the breaker cam timed to the crank, and the marks allow you to assemble cam and shaft with proper indexing while you silver-solder them together.

With all that out of the way, you get to the tricky business of phasing the alternator to the points. Before removing the degree wheel from the crank, you must lock the crank securely at 45° before top center. Good luck to you with this job. I made a ring that fits under the oil-filter cover and jams the filter sleeve (which is bolted to the end of the crankshaft) when the cover is replaced and tightened. Don't try to get without securing the crank in "timed" position;

Starting (Choke) Operation

This Is How It Works:

Fuel from the supply tank is drawn in the fuel inlet (1) into the surge chamber (2) through the filter screen (3) by pulsations of the fuel pump diaphragm (4). The engine crankcase pulsations transmitted through the external impulse fitting (9) or internal impulse hole (9A) actuates the fuel pump diaphragm (4) which supplies pumping action for the fuel pump. The fuel is drawn from the surge chamber through the check valve (5) and the channel (6). The fuel continues past the fuel pump outlet check valve (7) and into channel (8). Fuel continues through fuel channel (8) and to the needle valve (28). The metering lever spring (29) transmits a force through the metering lever (30) and seats the inlet needle valve (28) against pressure. The metering diaphragm (10) is pulled upward by engine suction which is transmitted through the idle discharge port idle hole (14) secondary idle holes (16) and part throttle feed holes (17). The diaphragm action depresses the metering lever (30) and unseats the needle valve (28) and allows the fuel to enter the metering diaphragm chamber (31) and pass through the idle take off (11). Check valve (32) is (11). Check valve (32) is forced open passing fuel into the main nozzle (21) which also feeds the part throttle holes (17). Fuel only is fed through all discharge holes. 6060

Idle Operation

At idle speed the fuel passes from the idle take off (11) to the idle pocket (13) where it mixes with air from the secondary idle holes (16). This rich mixture passes around idle needle (12) through the idle discharge port (14) where it mixes with additional air passing the throttle valve (19) at point (15).

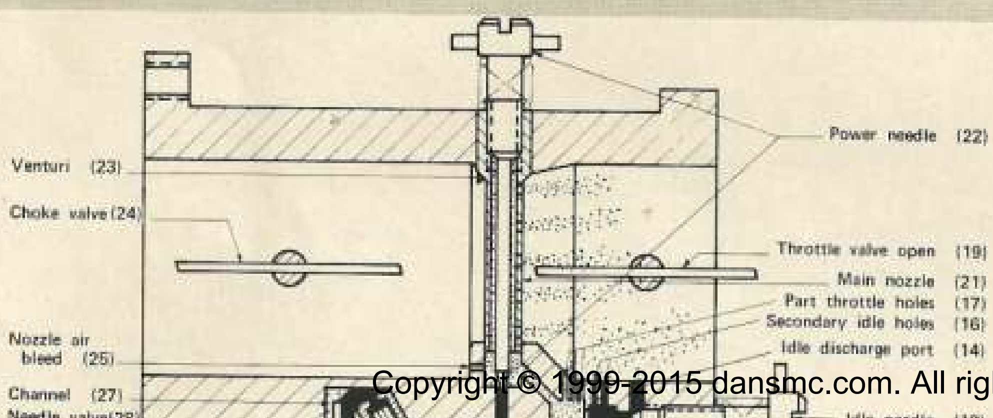
the capacity of the crankcase, the pressures created by the movement of the piston, and the desired operating characteristics of the carburetor. Thus, a carburetor designed for a particular usage may not operate as efficiently in another application.

The difference between the pressures created by the pressure pulses and the bleed-down orifice at different engine speeds is the signal pressure. Signal pressure acts on the carburetor diaphragm to open the fuel inlet valve. When the pressure of fuel against the diaphragm exceeds the signal pressure, the diaphragm closes the fuel inlet valve.

At idle speed, pressure pulses are bled off quickly and the diaphragm moves only slightly. At high speeds, pressure builds up in the signal chamber and diaphragm movement is greater. This permits larger quantities of fuel to flow through the fuel inlet valve and demands a higher fuel pressure against the diaphragm to close the inlet valve.



Pressure pulses and the bleed-down orifice operate very much as a balloon with a small escape hole cut in it. As air is blown into the balloon, the balloon expands. If no more air is blown into the balloon, the balloon contracts as the air escapes through the small hole. If small puffs of air are blown into the balloon the size of the balloon will be balanced between puffs of pressure and the escaping air. If the amount of air blown in is increased the balloon will grow larger until entering air and escaping air are again in balance or until the balloon bursts. If less air is blown into the balloon

Part Throttle Operation

At part throttle, in addition to the fuel fed into the throttle bore by the idle system, more fuel enters past the check valve (32) through passage (26) around the power needle (22) and through the passage (18) and discharged into the throttle bore (20) through the part throttle holes (17). All ports except the main nozzle feed progressively as throttle valve opens for smooth acceleration. Air is intermixed through air bleed nozzle (25).

Full (Wide Open) Throttle Operation

At full throttle operation fuel passes around the power needle (22) and is discharged through the main nozzle (21) into the venturi (23). During full throttle air is mixed with fuel in the main nozzle (21) through the nozzle air bleed (25). Suction (or vacuum) created by the engine's piston action draws fuel and air as the ports are exposed by position of the throttle valve.

Fuel and Vapor Return System

At high temperature or high elevation fuel vaporizes and collects in channel (8) and metering diaphragm chamber (31). As fuel is pumped past the fuel pump diaphragm (4) through channel (8) to the needle valve (28) some fuel and vapor is pumped into channel (27) and on out the fuel and vapor return line fitting (38). Vapor in the metering diaphragm chamber (31) is pumped by a secondary fuel pump (4A), through channel (36) past check valve (37) into chamber (34) through the outlet valve (35) into the vapor and fuel return channel (27) and out the vapor return line fitting (38).

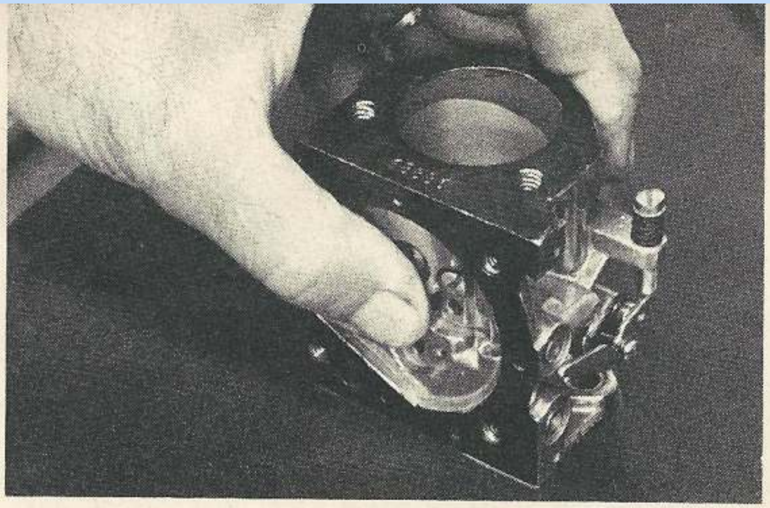
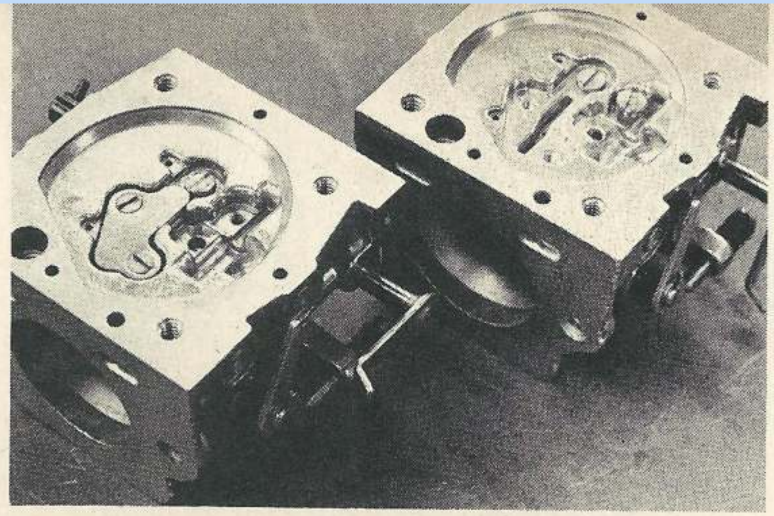
than escapes through the exit hole, the balloon will shrink until the air is in balance again.

Low speed pulsations create a low signal pressure which allows a small amount of fuel to enter the fuel chamber before the fuel pressure on the diaphragm closes the fuel inlet valve. The fuel inlet control lever spring assists in this closing operation, and helps prevent fuel pump pressure from forcing the fuel inlet valve open.

High speed pulsations create high signal pressures which easily overcome the pressure of the fuel inlet control lever spring and the fuel inlet valve remains almost constantly open at high speed. This permits the fuel pump pressure to force fuel through the main discharge system into the air stream. Because the same pressure is applied to the idle system, fuel also emerges from the idle discharge and air bleed.



Idle and main discharge systems have fuel adjustment needles for regulation of the amounts of fuel passing through each system. In addition, the main system has a fuel discharge check valve. The check valve prevents air from the air passage entering the main discharge system during idle operation.



Built into the base of the carburetor is a diaphragm type fuel pump, which operates off the same pressure signal from the lower end as the one which operates the metering unit. When the signal (or pressure) is weak, it pumps less, so the engine has little air and therefore needs less gas for the correct mixture. When the engine is running and there is a rather low gas level in the gas tank, the pumping action of the pump itself creates a suction at the gas fitting in the tank, helping to eliminate a starvation problem. simple matter of reaching down and tweaking the appropriate needle.

Extreme care should be exercised when working on the insides of the carburetor. While there is nothing fragile or delicate about it, it is extremely important that everything remain as clean as possible during the assembly process. By using a piece of ¼″ glass and a piece of 280 wet or dry sandpaper, you can lap the various surfaces down until they are smooth, so as to provide permanent and positive seal against any possible leakage. Wet the sandpaper down with a very light solvent or oil to provide lubrication during the lapping process. It's usually a good idea to rotate the part with a figure-8 motion to insure an absolutely flat surface when finished.

So successful have these modifications been that Kendick Engineering, in North Hollywood, California, is now in the process of modifying standard carburetors to be sold over the counter as regular units to be installed on motorcycles. These boys have worked with us from the beginning in working out various problems and getting a smooth running carburetor to be used on as many motorcycles as possible.

The diaphragm carburetor project series has proven quite successful, and it has also proven to us that there is more than one way to skin a cat. As mentioned previously, what started out as a possible cure for hard-starting motorcycles has blossomed into yet another area to get additional performance from a standard motorcycle. The diaphragm carburetor provides a home tuner with another tool by which he can experiment to get that last little bit out of his motorcycle without disassembling the engine to modify it. ●

tain too little alcohol to have much effect one way or the other. But in Brazil, where the whole gasohol scheme is being taken very seriously (to avoid a balance of trade catastrophe culminating in hyper-inflation), people are dealing with the Real Thing. There, gasohol is already 20 percent alcohol (ethanol, we believe, made from cane sugar), and all kinds of engines are being changed to run on it.

Honda, for example, is already in the pre-production prototype stages of giving the Brazilians a made-for-gasohol motorcycle. It's the CG125, a version of the gasoline-fueled CB125 single familiar to American motorcyclists. The Honda CG125's specifications are revealing, as they were developed by people who were trying to make alcohol work as a motor fuel and who were not merely trolling for votes.

The most obvious difference between a CB125 and the CG125 alcohol burner is that the latter has a cast-iron cylinder and head. The engine's upper end, with its scanty finning, is unmistakably different. Different, too, is the starting drill required: the CG125 owner will have to depress a "tickler" button on the carburetor when the engine is cold, in addition to choking. The button releases a quantity of straight gasoline, held in a separate fuel tank, into the carburetor to help the engine get its fire going.

It is noteworthy, too, that the Brazilian Honda will have—among other things—a fuel tank and carburetor with interiors specially treated for corrosion resistance. Also, that the engine has been tuned much more for economy than it has for power.

for power.

We think it might be very difficult to get acceptable power and economy out of a streetable engine running on pure methanol. All the efficiency gains possible with a higher compression ratio turn out, upon close examination, to be much smaller than you might suppose. For one thing, you cannot just raise a motorcycle engine's compression ratio, willy-nilly, to take advantage of methanol's detonation resistance. It's hard to do and still have adequate clearance around and under valves, and when it's possible mechanically it still makes engines devils to start. And if you succeed in all this, the efficiency gain in raising the compression ratio from 9:1 to 16:1 is less than 15 percent. As for fuel consumption, it would be double that obtained on gasoline. A big motorcycle burning 2.5 gallons of gasoline per hour during fast touring would consume no less than 4.8 gallons of methanol over the same period.

The fact is, methanol and the other alcohols aren't especially good motor fuels. And gasohol is less good than gasoline, except for persuading people that our leaders have the energy situation in hand. They don't. Whatever it is they may have in hand, it isn't the situation. ◉

THE GREAT IGNITION COIL TEST

500, 805 and 1270 rpm, and the distributor's eight-lobe cam thus gave us 4000, 6440 and 10,160 make/break cycles per minute at its contact points, which were controlling the current from a 12-volt Yuasa battery through the coil being tested. The distributor head was one rescued from a salvage yard, but was fitted with a new set of points and a new .22 microfarad condenser just to make sure the coils were being properly energized. The electrodes for our adjustable air gap were removed, with their insulators, from a new pair of Champion gold-palladium spark plugs. These electrodes were chosen because, while we did not anticipate problems with electrical erosion at ambient temperatures, we did not want their sharp edges to become blunted as testing proceeded. Such blunting would have changed (increased) the electrical pressure required to force a spark across any given gap, and we didn't want to introduce any unnecessary error. For the same reason, we kept close watch over the condition of the contact points, and maintained the battery at full charge. All spark gap measurements were taken at the distance at which sparking was regular, though some of the coils tested would fire intermittently across slightly wider gaps than those for which numbers were actually recorded.

the short time available for magnetic saturation of the coil, but we still got a 26.3mm spark distance.

With that baseline established, we went forward with the testing of our collection of motorcycle spark coils. The only way these could have emerged from the testing looking good would have been if we had used a Zippo lighter to produce our baseline spark. We didn't try every motorcycle coil, but we had a representative sampling of those energized by a battery and controlled with mechanical breaker points, and this sampling was uniformly lousy. Some were slightly better or worse than their fellows, but the bulk of them fizzled at about half the gap distance (and half the output voltage) our baseline Delco would produce. On average, the motorcycle coils tested would push an arc just over 13mm at 6440 sparks/minute, and around 12mm at the higher rate of delivery. Most of the numbers shown on the chart presented with this story compare very unfavorably against the figures for our baseline Delco.

Honda Four owners may read the numbers and figure that they have been given the best of a bad deal, but that's not necessarily true. Honda's twin-lead spark coils, used on all Fours, do pump up a bit more voltage than the typical single-lead motorcycle coil; they also have to fire across two spark gaps. The voltage path for a Honda Four (and Kawasaki Z-1) coil is out one lead to a plug's center electrode; from there it jumps to the ground electrode and passes through the head to another plug's ground electrode; jumps a second gap to yet another center electrode and then returns to the coil via the second lead. Taking into consideration that one of those jumps is a "reverse-polarity" affair (going from the cool ground to the hot center electrode, which takes more voltage than the other way), the incidence of the extra gap, the net improvement is slight. The mar-when it started getting spark voltage from a pair of automotive coils.

We very strongly suspect that there are few motorcycles that wouldn't benefit from a similar switch in coils, but many just aren't eligible. Magneto and CDI systems pretty generally require special coils, which the Delco is not; neither can standard automotive coils be used as replacements for the twin-lead items used on Honda Fours, etc. That leaves only bikes like the Yamaha twins, bikes with conventional, battery-energized ignition systems and single-lead coils as candidates for a coil transplant, and there are problems (though minor) even among these. You have to find room for those big automotive coils, which are nearly twice the size of even the largest motorcycle counterparts, and you have to insert a ballast resistor to limit the current through the auto coils, just as in a car's electrical system. Finally, there's the greater amperage requirement to be considered—about two amps while running, compared with one amp for a motorcycle coil at the same rate of spark delivery—but that really isn't a serious difficulty, as most bike's electrical systems will have the reserve to handle it.

All of the above leaves a single potential difficulty, which is price, and that turns out not to be a problem at all. We checked with various motorcycle dealers and were quoted coil prices ranging from $10.00 (Kawasaki 400 triple) to $30.00 (Honda CB750 Four). Delco coils go for about $15.00, and automotive ballast resistors retail for around $2.50, so you can fit your ailing Double-Zoomy twin with a trick ignition system for a grand total of maybe $32.50, plus tax, and light a mighty fire in your fussy two-stroke triple for less than $50.00—even if you can't get a volume discount on the coils.

As a first step, we ran an ordinary Delco automotive coil on our test rig, using the companion ballast resister to make the results valid. What we wanted was a baseline number against which all other coils tested could be compared. Relatives of the Delco coil we used can be found in literally millions of General Motors products (Chevrolets, Buicks, Oldsmobiles and Pontiacs) and we really don't think this coil sets unreasonably high standards for voltage output. The people at GM don't ask it to work against plug gaps wider than .035-inch in engines with moderate compression ratios, and you can buy the coil for less than $15.00, retail, almost anyplace in the country.

Triggered to give 6440 sparks per minute, the Delco coil fired with impressive regularity out to a gap 26.3mm in width, beyond which point leakage from the high-tension terminal across the insulator and down to the battery/points terminals began to dampen its enthusiasm. This test was repeated a half-dozen times, with the same result, so we tried the Delco coil at 10,160 sparks/minute. At the higher rate output must have dropped, due to the net improvement is slight. The marginal nature of the improvement is reflected in the plug gaps recommended for Honda's CB350 Twin, with a single-lead coil, and the CB750 Four: both, according to NGK, should have their plugs gapped at .028-inch.

If no motorcycle coil were conspicuously better than the rest, one distinguished itself by being a lot worse. The coil Ducati provides with its 750 twins, the little beauty that did so much to encourage this investigation, stands in about the same relationship to other bike coils as they occupy relative to the Delco. We checked six Ducati coils, and the miserable little spark we got from the best of the lot is responsible for the depressing figures you see on our chart. At 6440 sparks/minute the Ducati coil was straining to bridge an 8mm gap; at 10,160 sparks/minute it would just wisp its way between electrodes 1.9mm apart. Of course in real life the Ducati coil never has to crank out more than 4500 sparks per minute, so to give the thing a break we tried it down at 4000—and it responded by leaping a miserable 10mm gap. It's no wonder that my own Ducati perked up of Chrysler Marine coils for his Ducati Super Sport, and you might want to give them a try. Phil worked a swindle and bought his wholesale for $16.00 apiece, and was truly delighted with them because they are very small and fit right into the stock coil brackets, and they made the Super Sport run a world better. He lost only a little of his enthusiasm for them when testing showed (see chart page 47) that while they were a whole lot better than the Ducati coils and slightly stronger than the average for all motorcycle coils, they fell far short of matching the larger car coils' output.

And the spark-throwing, electrode-sizzling champion of our coil test? It is an all-purpose automotive coil sold by K-Mart, along with discount-priced shoes and bath oils. We don't know who makes the K-Mart coil, but the thing retails locally for $6.66 and is the spark-producing bargain of the year. The K-Mart coil (which may be sold by other discount stores, under other names) is a little shorter than the Delco coil it is made to replace, making it a bit easier to mount, and like the Delco its output limit is reached not with an over-widened spark gap but when it begins firing heavily between its own terminals. We tried gobbing silicon grease around the spark lead boot and the side terminals, and with the spark gap pulled out to the distances shown on our chart it would cross-fire furiously. Any coil that strong will fire plugs even if the electrodes are half-gone from erosion and their insulators ankle-deep in accumulated deposits. A pair of them make for an ignition system for any twin that will out-trick the average magic-box wonder, and at a total price of $15.82. They'll save the typical Ducati owner that much every month just in the spark plugs he doesn't replace.

If the results of our testing, and experimenting, had been less dramatic, the motorcycle industry's techo-mavens could argue with the results. Our test equipment was, after all, not terribly sophisticated, and we cannot state with certainty that one kind of motorcycle coil is clearly better than another. The point is, our testing has shown that no motorcycle coil is appreciably better than the really dismal average, that none is in the same league with American automotive coils, and that improvement is needed. Maybe we can find K-Mart's supplier and get those people to make coils for motor-get those people to make coils for motorcycles; the motorcycle industry surely isn't doing much in terms of ignition systems an honest man could talk about without blushing. ◉

COILS

Gor[illegible] article [illegible] ignition coils will be a big help to the camshaft business. We run headlong into the problem of poor coil output. At high engine speeds, the high lift—long duration camshaft boosts the compression pressure. If the ignition is marginal, the added compression pressure often snuffs out the spark. The camshaft gets the blame. We cure about 100% of the poor performance complaints by telling the customer to close down his plug gaps.

Coil output is related to the weight of the coil. More copper and iron adds up to more energy. Exceptions are the CD systems. We have made excellent CD in ignition voltage, which is what you're going to get with car coils, will cause problems with spark plugs or require switching to another plug heat range. There won't be any noticeable difference in either aspect, assuming that the plugs you are now using are correct. If the plug heat range is too cold, then the extra voltage available from the coil will tend to keep them firing instead of fouling. Electrical erosion of the plug electrodes will be a problem only if the plugs' heat range is off on the hot side, in which case the spark will tend to carry metal away from the overheated center electrode. The only shift in spark plug specification concerns the electrode gap. Half of the overall reason for boosting ignition voltage is to allow the use of a wider plug gap, and you'll want to switch from the .024- to .028-inch gap presently specified for your bike to something wider: we'd recommend a gap of between .035- and .040-inch. Car coils will fire even wider gaps for a while, but you'll get most of the wide-gap benefits at .040-inch and anything wider will just use up the voltage reserve needed to keep the plugs firing after time in service has blunted their electrode edges and coated their insulators with fouling deposits.

Our experience with mixed car/bike ignition systems, though not yet extensive enough to be offered as positive proof of ultimate durability, indicates that car coils—though much stronger than the bike equivalent—don't cause any difficulties with battery drain or accelerated contact surface burning of the points. They just work, and work well, even if you get the primary voltage polarity reversed and in general do a half-shabby wiring [illegible] coils are strong enough to overcome such piffling diffi-

IT WORKED, IT WORKED!

Your coil test in the July issue filled me with proper British pride when I discovered that my Norton coils finished second from the top. Only upon reading the article did I discover that the top was really the bottom, as far as coil quality was concerned.

Since the 1500 miles accumulated on my plugs had caused the starting procedure to degenerate from a two kick affair to a dozen pumps with luck, I decided to switch coils.

I purchased two used Ford coils, circa 1965 and 1968, complete with brackets for $2 each. I chose Ford coils as they were the same length as my Lucas coils. And although they looked rather scrungy, they tested fine, and responded well to a solvent wash-up and 2 coats of flat black.

Installation proved to be ridiculously easy. Not only did the Ford brackets bolt [illegible] of their Lucas counter is a very necessary instrument in evaluating coil output. While widening the gap tells us something about the coil's chances of firing a spark plug, a milliameter indicates the energy which is heat, and it is heat that lights off the charge.

Abnormal spark advance requirements are a dead giveaway. Firing further down the hole simply means that the compression pressure at that point is lower and the spark will "make it" across the electrodes. The least spark advance one can run and still satisfy top-end requirements will always give best all-around performance. A better ignition sometimes means that you can now run optimum spark advance.

Big ccs, big carburetion, big rubber, big compression ratios mean little if the spark doesn't jump across the plug electrodes. Many carburetor problems have been solved by working on the ignition!

enough to overcome such piffling difficulties. They also are strong enough to render unnecessary any further electrical/electronic complications, such as "dwell extenders," or any of the other miracles of magic box science. All you have to do is make your motorcycle's ignition system as strong as the one in a typical 1955 Chevy, and you'll have done all that's necessary.

Finally, don't ask us if you can work pairs of automotive coils off a single set of points in a Honda or Kawasaki four. We haven't tried it and don't know. The fours, like all the twins and triples, would benefit from stronger ignition systems but there's nothing available at present to replace their dual-lead coils. Neither will we supply detailed instructions for converting specific motorcycles. The wiring diagram we have provided is what you'll find (minus the ballast resistor) working one coil in a Suzuki or Kawasaki triple, Honda twin or whathaveyou. The only thing missing is a little inventive improvisation in making coil brackets and switching leads from one set of coils to another. That part you'll have to supply yourselves; we think the results will be worth the effort.

easy. Not only did the Ford brackets line up directly in place of their Lucas counterparts, but the Lucas electrical fittings and nuts fit the Ford terminals directly. Since the Norton already uses a ballast resistor, no rewiring was necessary. One only needs to remember that a Ford has a negative ground, while a Norton has a positive ground. Therefore, the Ford terminal marked BAT. is connected to the points and condensor, while the terminal marked DIST. is connected to the black/white lead from the ballast resistor.

The only other comment needed concerns the spark plug wire. Since the Ford coil tower is considerably taller than that on the Lucas coil, one must push the coil boot up the wire to ensure good contact.

After installation I regapped my dirty plugs to .035 inches and did indeed reap the benefits of easier starting and idling as promised by your article.

demon, pumping out voltages so high that even though it went into cross-terminal firing like the Delco coil, it had enough reserve to fire across a 31.2mm air gap. As you might expect, we've switched to K-Mart coils—where such transplanting is possible—on all our own motorcycles.

In Coils II we said, "Conventional inductive-type ignitions are so simple that it's almost impossible to botch the coil transplant seriously unless you get excessively creative in doing the job." Wrong again: we correctly assessed the pernicious influence of creativity, but completely underestimated the powers of unfamiliarity, anxiety and circumstance.

One of the items that seemed to cause problems was the ballast resistor (also known as a coil resistor) used with automotive coils. Many of you got yourselves worked up into a sweat about having the right resistance, in ohms, even though we told you ballast resistors don't have a fixed resistance. These electrical devices vary their resistance to control current flow, and they're all substantially alike. When line voltage is low the ballast resistor's wire-coil element cools off, lowers its resistance, and the spark coil still gets the current flow needed to make a strong spark; when line voltage rises the resistor's element becomes hotter, its resistance rises, and the current is held to a level the ignition's contact points can tolerate—3.5 to 4.0 amperes.

All the major domestic auto manufacturers use about the same material in their ignition points, the points fix the current limit, and all the domestic ballast resistors are made to hold current at that limit. So you can just step up to the counter at your sion of that matter a bit further along.

Condensers also seemed to confuse a lot of people. We won't go into the way a condenser functions in an ignition system except to tell you it's an electrical shock absorber, of sorts, and that the system won't work without it for very long. You can install a condenser anywhere between the ignition coil's points-side terminal and the points' moving contact, though most installations will have the condenser's pigtail lead attached directly at the coil or points terminal. The condenser body, or its mounting strap, must be grounded. Manufacturers usually locate condensers inside the engine's points housing, which is tidy and (for them) convenient. We prefer placing the condensers up at the coils, where they stay cooler, and where there is no space problem—which means we can use any ignition condenser that's cheap and available. All such condensers have rated capacities right at .22 microfarads, and a condenser made for a Chevy works just fine on a Suzuki or any other motorcycle that has a conventional points-type ignition system; it will work even when there has been no change in ignition coils.

Cars seldom have more than a single ballast resistor, because they seldom have more than a single ignition coil. Motorcycles are a different matter entirely unless their ignition breaker cams are you can just step up to the counter at your local auto parts store and ask for an ignition ballast resistor. The parts man will hand you a small ceramic block that has two terminal lugs, a mounting strap, and what looks like a heating coil set into a groove along its side. Don't worry about the brand name on the ballast resistor, and don't worry about the wisp of smoke you'll see rising from its resistance coil the first time it's hit with current; there's usually a film of oil on the coil which burns away at first use.

You can splice the ballast resistor(s) into the circuit (leading from a bike's ignition switch, through the spark coil, to the contact points, to ground) anywhere between the switch and the points. Do not, as one reader did, install the ballast resistor back at the battery, because then you'll have your bike's lights, ignition and everything sharing the trickle of current intended for the coil alone. Just remember that a ballast resistor will limit the total current in the circuit between itself and ground to 3.5–4.0 amps, and you want the ignition coil to have all that current. Some motorcycles can use a single ballast resistor to control the current to two or three coils; others need a ballast resistor for each coil. We'll get to a detailed discus-profiled so there is no overlap between points-closed periods. For example, the Yamaha 650 twin, which has a 360-degree separation between power strokes, has its points located on opposite sides of its breaker cam. The Yamaha's breaker cam closes one set of points, sending current to one coil to create a magnetic field in the coil's primary winding, and then opens that set of points to trigger a spark while the second set of points remains out of action. Therefore you can use a single ballast resistor on the Yamaha 650, as it never requires more than enough current for a single coil at any moment.

The 650's little two-stroke brothers, which also have their two sets of points positioned on opposite sides of the breaker cam, do require separate ballast resistors. The two-strokers' breaker cams leave their points closed for more than 180-degrees of rotation, and there is an overlapping of the points-closed periods. If you use two automotive coils on a Yamaha RD400, and try to get by with a single ballast resistor, then you'll have one coil switching on and grabbing half the resistor-limited supply of current just as the other coil is about to be switched off to make a spark. That current sharing will really chop away at the spark voltage.

Inductive ignition coils will produce a small voltage surge when current is switched into their primary winding, but the big jolt comes only when they are switched off. You don't get much voltage

We may deduce something about coils' saturation time, or dwell requirements from the examples provided by our testing, and from our test apparatus. The eight-cylinder distributor we used provided a 30-degree points-closed period, and at the highest cam speed (1270 rpm) that gave each coil just a trifle under .004-second to acquire enough magnetic saturation to fire a spark. That time is almost exactly what's available to the Yamaha 650's coils at a crank speed of 7500 rpm, and our tests show it isn't enough: the dwell time at our lowest test speed was .010-sec, and with that lengthy saturation period the sample Yamaha coil hit a 13.4 KV peak; it trailed off to 12.7 KV with the dwell reduced to .006-sec and fell on its face at .004-sec. From this we may conclude that the Yamaha coil needs all the saturation time it can get, and that seems to be typical of all motorcycle coils. In sharp contrast, the automotive coils' output didn't drop enough even at a .004-sec dwell for the voltage difference to show up in our testing. That's hardly surprising, as a V-8 engine running at a piffling 4500 rpm gives them only .002-sec in get-ready time. The conclusion here is that automotive coils simply do not need much dwell time—measured by motorcycle standards—and that switching them with a long-dwell motorcycle contact breaker cam merely imposes an unnecessary drain on a motorcycle's electrical system.

The Ducatis Cycle's staffers own and have fitted with K-Mart coils don't have especially good electrical systems, but tion systems and headlights. Also, their breaker cams are profiled for a relatively brief points-closed period, which means that the coils are switched off much of the time. These factors kept us from encountering the current supply problem some of you have discovered.

There is a way to deal with the current-drain problem created by a coil transplant, besides your riding during daylight hours. That wouldn't help all motorcycles anyway. Plenty of new-model motorcycles are wired so that their headlights can't be turned off; a lot of older models have electrically separated alternator windings, with full output switched in with the headlight. So unless you are prepared to deal with extra switches (fairly easy) or concocting your own system of alternator output control (difficult), the sensible solution to the current-drain problem is to fix things so the car coils don't pull so much current—which can be done without seriously reducing spark voltage.

If you're still awake you may recall that the Yamaha coil we mentioned needed a minimum of .006-sec of saturation time to produce anything near adequate voltage, but that car coils maintain their output pretty well with their contact points' dwell time reduced to a mere .002-sec. Look at those numbers for a moment and it should dawn on you that motorcycles' breaker cams provide for three times as much dwell as car coils demand—and drain off three times the required electrical energy. The answer, then, is to reduce the energy drain by reducing the dwell. We don't switched off. You don't get much voltage when the coil is switched on because the resulting flow of current in the coil's primary winding builds a magnetic field inside the coil, and the creation of that field induces a counteracting voltage that retards the whole process; it's the abrupt interruption of current when the points open that causes the rapid magnetic field movement needed to generate high voltages in the coil's secondary winding. This effect is more than an interesting curiosity: the very fact that the coil's magnetic field builds slowly when the points close requires that the points be closed for some perceptible fraction of a second before the coil is magnetically saturated and ready to produce a spark.

In the Yamaha 650 twin the ignition breaker cam closes each set of contacts for about 90-degrees of its own rotation before bumping them open again, and that represents 180-degrees of crankshaft rotation—almost exactly the same period as is provided by the RD400's crank-speed breaker cam. This period is called "dwell" in the automotive trade, and it's something they worry about because car coils have to make 12,000 sparks per minute for a V-8 that's turning only 3000 rpm. In contrast, the Yamaha 650's coils are never asked to deliver more than 3750 sparks/minute, and even those on the RD400 two-stroke do not have to provide more than 8500 sparks/minute.

especially good electrical systems, but they've been able to handle the coils and still keep their batteries charged. That experience led us to think car coils' current demands weren't going to be a problem, but our Ducatis are used almost entirely as sporting machines; their generators very seldom have to feed both ignidrain by reducing the dwell. We don't think it's necessary to try for a two-third reduction. Chopping the typical motorcycle's dwell period in half should bring the car coils' current drain down to a level manageable by any semi-healthy motorcycle electrical system, and still keep the coils working at full strength. After all, the creative with condensers. We'd suggest that in view of the other areas of confusion (potential or realized) in the coil transplant, you should take the easy way out, and use one ordinary automotive condenser with each coil. The condenser cases can be grounded on the bike's frame (under the paint) and their leads connected to the coils' points-side terminals, or vice versa; they'll work fine either way. This multiplicity of condensers calls for a few extra connections and parts, but is the cheapest arrangement and also provides the most latitude for tailoring each pair of coils' capacitance to handle their primary backlash most effectively. Your local automotive tune-up specialist can check the actual capacitance of the condensers you use; knowing what you have will give you a good idea of what you need in the event that contact surface pitting and spiking does prove to be a serious problem.

We have not, until now, mentioned the possibility of using series-paired six-volt coils, which some people seem to think is the Hot Tip in coil transplants. The fact is that everything we've said about 12-volt coils applies to those intended for a six-volt system. You wire them together in pairs and in series circuits, and then you check the current at the points before any congratulations are in order. Sure, BMW uses a pair of six-volt Bosch coils, in series, switched with a single set of points; that doesn't mean you can do the same with a set of six-volt Delco coils on a Honda. And if you're smart you'll stick with American-made coils, because they can't be beaten in terms of output and price.

If you're both smart and lazy, you may want to live with the coils you have just a little longer. It isn't easy to find room for four big car coils on a bike, and they do create problems (point life and, sometimes, more of a current drain than bikes' electrical systems can handle). There definitely are benefits in the wider spark gaps possible with stronger ignition systems, but there's evidence that some motorcycle ignition systems are getting strong enough. We understand that the newer Honda GL1000 coils, for example, are better than any of the dual-lead coils we tested back in 1975. Also, there are some American-made dual-lead accessory coils being introduced right now, and these may very well solve a lot of the big-four owners' ignition problems . . . for a price. Four K-Mart coils will cost you about $30.00, maximum, and that's less than half what you'd spend for a pair of the dual-lead accessory coils presently available. If the latter can give you 30-plus-kv output, at a reasonable current, then their advantages in reduced bulk and wiring-harness complications would seem to justify their price. Maybe it's time for us to rebuild our 1975 coil test rig, collect a bunch of dual-lead coils, and have another try at spark-measuring. ◉ solid core would do bad things to the magnetic field. Don't upset what the engineers have worked so hard to accomplish.

For convenience, I used the same bolts securing the coils to the frame to hold the Mallory condensers. And, also for convenience, I used the condenser terminals as terminal posts for all the wires. You don't even need a wiring diagram for this job; all leads–from coil, points and alternator– attach at the condenser terminal. In other words, everything is wired in parallel. Of course, you have to treat the whole lash-up as two separate systems, but you can use either of the generating coils in the alternator to spark either cylinder. Just don't do any cross-wiring between sides, or the spark disappears. In fact, this is how you rig a kill-switch: take an ordinary two-lead toggle switch and attach each lead to a terminal. When the switch is "on" it makes a direct short between the two sides of the system and presto! The spark is gone.

Now then, with the wires hooked from alternator to condenser to coil to points, you can "time" the engine. To do this job, you must remove the alternator rotor and stator, and bolt a degree wheel to the end of the crankshaft. Reach down through the sparkplug hole with a dial indicator and ease the engine over to find top dead center, then "zero" your degree wheel. After that, you proceed in the usual fashion: backing the crank by the number of degrees of spark advance you want. Stock full advance is 40° and that is best for mid-range running. Mid and upper range performance is better with the timing at 45-48° BTC, and that is what you want for racing.

Having backed the crank into "firing" position, you are almost ready to set the ignition timing. "Almost" because you must first rework things to eliminate the automatic advance mechanism. This centrifugal device swings the timing 35° between 2000 rpm and 3500 rpm, and the pulses coming up from the alternator don't last that long. So, if you leave the advance mechanism intact, you will have an engine that starts–but won't get much past idle; or you can have one that will run after it is cranked up past 3500 rpm–but you can't be started in a normal manner.

You can simply pull the advance over to full-advance, and weld it in place. I chose to remove weights, springs and everything else, and then silver-solder the breaker cam to its shaft (which is really a tube that fits over the end of the exhaust camshaft). The sequence here is to slip everything into place on the end of the exhaust camshaft, and then install the points plate right in the middle of its adjustment range. You then rotate the breaker cam with your fingers until it just begins to lift the points to your left (which fire the left cylinder) and then mark, with file or punch, the breaker cam and its tubular shaft. The purpose here is to get the breaker cam timed to the crank, and the marks allow you to assemble cam and shaft with proper indexing while you silver-solder them together.

With all that out of the way, you get to the tricky business of phasing the alternator to the points. Before removing the degree wheel from the crank, you must lock the crank securely at 45° before top center. Good luck to you with this job. I made a ring that fits under the oil-filter cover and jams the filter sleeve (which is bolted to the end of the crankshaft) when the cover is replaced and tightened. Don't try to get without securing the crank in "timed" position;

the Honda 450 engine is incredibly free turning, and easily nudged out of position.

Having locked the crank, you may proceed with assembling and timing the alternator. Slide the stator in place and tighten all the screws first, then you can install the rotor. There is a keyway in both rotor and crankshaft, and a key—which is discarded in this application. Just slide the rotor onto the tapered end of the crankshaft, and turn it so that the LF (Left Fire) mark is aligned with the pointer Honda has so thoughtfully provided on the stator. This sets the rotor phasing with the stator so that you get full strength output with the crank set at 45°BTC. That's why you must have the crankshaft locked in position during this phasing operation. If the crank moves, full wave strength will occur at some other point. In any case, you get it when those marks are in alignment, and as the points must be set to open with the rotor/stator timing marks, the rotor must go on the end of the crank just things happen in a hurry. First, the retarding induced magnetic field evaporates, which leaves the rotor's field free to surge through the stator coil, and it does so with such rapidity that electrical pressure in that coil zooms sky-high—to about 400 volts, I believe. Now if there was not a condenser in the system to soak up this voltage, it would arc across the points (at this time no more than barely open) and would be lost. But because there is that condenser, the voltage surge is captured momentarily while the points are opening a bit farther, and then both alternator and condenser hit the coil with a big, 400-volt jolt—and it does make a considerable spark. Those who know how a conventional battery/coil system works will see that this is an entirely different process, and that's why you must use special coils. I chose Bendix magneto coils "converted" to E.T. (Energy Transfer) operation; you can use Lucas E.T. coils. Ordinary coils may work, but they will work badly and they probably won't work for long.

the rotor/stator timing marks, the rotor must go on the end of the crank just right.

You will probably worry about having discarded the key. Don't give it a thought. That key is strictly for indexing. Wipe the taper, and the matching tapered hole through the rotor, and pull the end bolt up tight to seat the rotor solidly on the taper. It won't slip. In fact, the only way you can get the rotor off is by using the appropriate Honda puller.

And now, at long last, you will be ready to set the points, which is done just as outlined in the Honda manual. You set the points to break just as the rotor/stator timing marks swing into alignment, and unless you have made a mistake somewhere along the line, you will get a nice, fat spark. It doesn't need a high cranking speed; you'll see a spark at the plug even if you merely stick a wrench on the rotor bolt and swing the crank around by hand.

The way the whole thing works is as follows: With the points closed, and the rotor swinging into position, the magnetic flux generates electricity in the alternator coil, and because there is a direct path to ground through the points, there is not much voltage but a lot of current. Which does a strange they probably won't work for long.

A season of racing experience with the Honda 450 racer (Grandson of Secret Weapon?) has revealed a number of short-comings; none of these are in the ignition system, which has been a marvel of reliability and effectiveness. I run the coldest plug Champion supplies, the N52R, without fouling problems. Starting, after sorting out the carburetion, has been very easy and the only time I have heard a misfire was when vibration was doing funny things to the float chamber (twice) or when a valve fell down into the engine (thrice).

The only peculiarity of my home-grown E.T. magneto is that (a) it is very sensitive to timing (the points must be working with the alternator) and (b) it is even more sensitive to anything that would come under the general heading of "crud" on the points. This last is understandable, as dirty points create a resistance that drops the current in the generator coils in those critical moments just before the points open, which in turn flattens the voltage surge that follows points-opening.

Neither of these things are a problem if you know about them—and they are common to all magnetos. What remains a problem is a defect built into the 450 lot of current. Which does a strange thing: an electrical current flowing through a coil creates a magnetic field, and the magnetic field created in the stator coil pushes back against the rotor's magnetic field. (And, incidentally, this will happen no matter what the system's polarity, so don't worry about which magnet is working on what coil.) Anyhow, the magnetic fields push against each other and the rotor's field gets bent back, until the points open. Right then, with the direct path to "ground" having suddenly been eliminated, current in the stator coil substantially disappears and with that a lot of a problem is a defect built into the 450 engine: the camshaft bearings, plain aluminum bushings, are a loose-ish fit around the camshaft journals, and that means a bit of wobble at the breaker cam when the engine is running. You set the spart at 45° BTC—and the wobble sends it dancing about 5° either side of nominal at 8000 rpm. You can assume that sparks happen somewhere between 40 and 50°. It seems as though there is room for improvement here—maybe with a near-zero clearance ball bearing at the "ignition" end of the exhaust camshaft. Maybe I'll get around to giving it a try. ◉

As fuel is pumped past the fuel pump diaphragm (4) through channel (8) to the needle valve (28) some fuel and vapor is pumped into channel (27) and on out the fuel and vapor return line fitting (38). Vapor in the metering diaphragm chamber (31) is pumped by a secondary fuel pump (4A), through channel (36) past check valve (37) into chamber (34) through the outlet valve (35) into the vapor and fuel return channel (27) and out the vapor return line fitting (38).

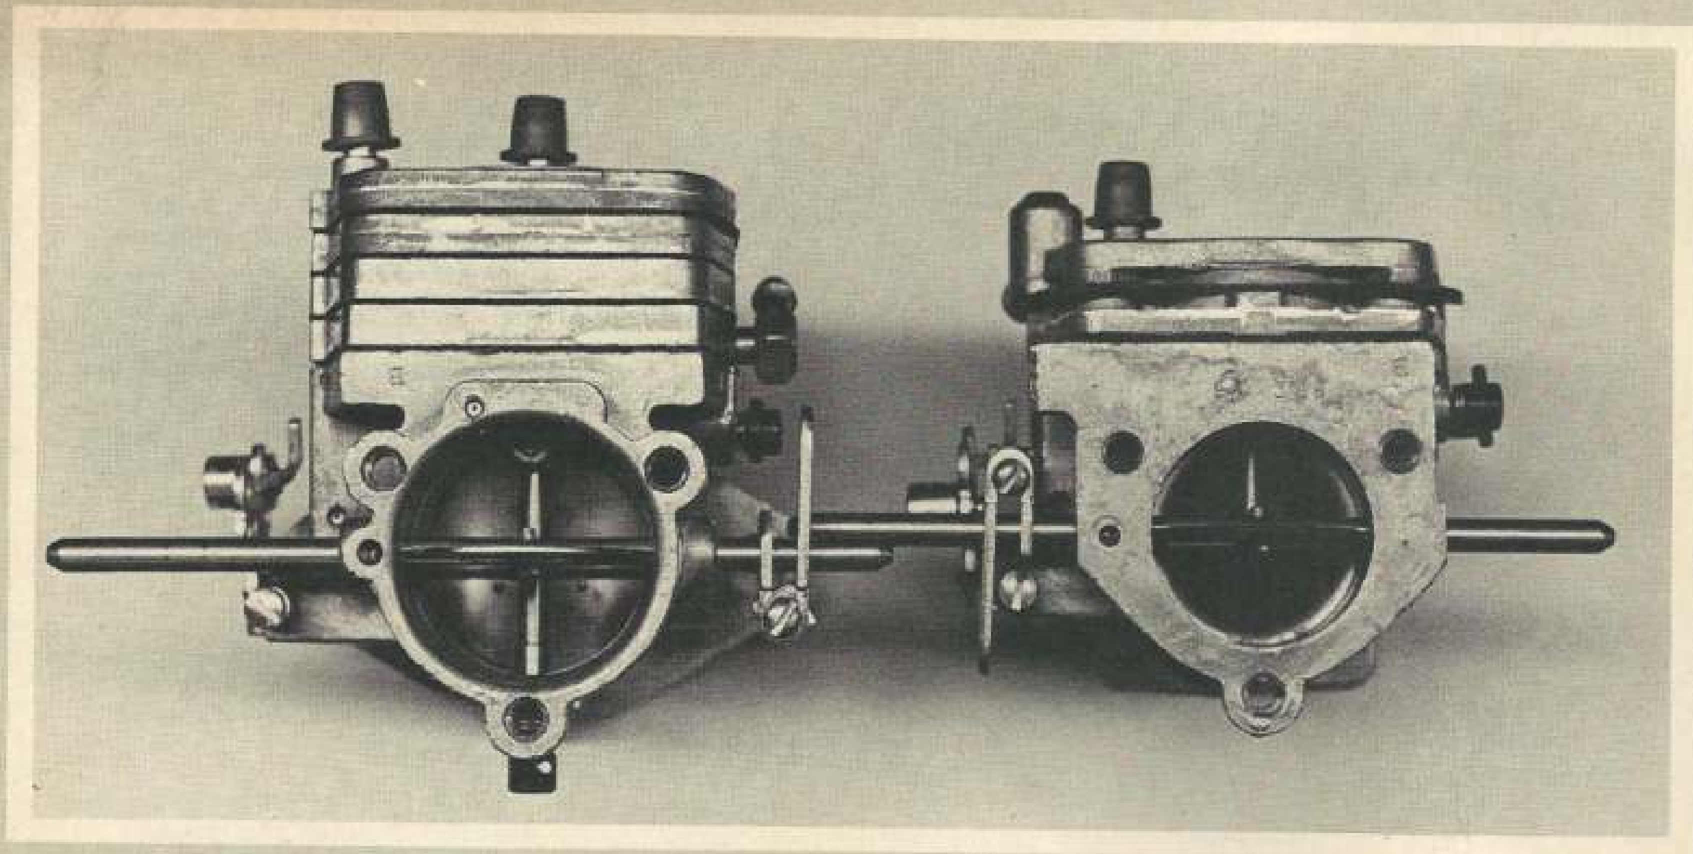
than escapes through the exit hole, the balloon will shrink until the air is in balance again.



Low speed pulsations create a low signal pressure which allows a small amount of fuel to enter the fuel chamber before the fuel pressure on the diaphragm closes the fuel inlet valve. The fuel inlet control lever spring assists in this closing operation, and helps prevent fuel pump pressure from forcing the fuel inlet valve open.

High speed pulsations create high signal pressures which easily overcome the pressure of the fuel inlet control lever spring and the fuel inlet valve remains almost constantly open at high speed. This permits the fuel pump pressure to force fuel through the main discharge system into the air stream. Because the same pressure is applied to the idle system, fuel also emerges from the idle discharge and air bleed.

Idle and main discharge systems have fuel adjustment needles for regulation of the amounts of fuel passing through each system. In addition, the main system has a fuel discharge check valve. The check valve prevents air from the air passage entering the main discharge system during idle operation.

Built into the base of the carburetor is a diaphragm type fuel pump, which operates off the same pressure signal from the lower end as the one which operates the metering unit. When the signal (or pressure) is weak, it pumps less, so the engine has little air and therefore needs less gas for the correct mixture. When the engine is running and there is a rather low gas level in the gas tank, the pumping action of the pump itself creates a suction at the gas fitting in the tank, helping to eliminate a starvation problem. Due to the fact that there is always positive fuel pressure in the carburetor itself, we do away with the foaming action and air bubbles that are set up at certain rpm levels by high frequency vibrations in the bowl type carburetor. In very rough cross country riding, sometimes a long series of bumps will upset the float level of the standard bowl type carburetor, keeping the float needle off the seat and causing the engine to run overly rich. At other times when going up long steep hills, the angle of the carburetor has changed so that the float level is much too low to give the proper mixture.

Another very good feature of this "pumper" carburetor is the fact that all adjustments and mixture controls are on the outside and can be adjusted with the fingers, even while riding.

profiled so there is no overlap between points-closed periods. For example, the Yamaha 650 twin, which has a 360-degree separation between power strokes, has its points located on opposite sides of its breaker cam. The Yamaha's breaker cam closes one set of points, sending current to one coil to create a magnetic field in the coil's primary winding, and then opens that set of points to trigger a spark while the second set of points remains out of action. Therefore you can use a single ballast resistor on the Yamaha 650, as it never requires more than enough current for a single coil at any moment.

The 650's little two-stroke brothers, which also have their two sets of points positioned on opposite sides of the breaker cam, do require separate ballast resistors. The two-strokers' breaker cams leave their points closed for more than 180-degrees of rotation, and there is an overlapping of the points-closed periods. If you use two automotive coils on a Yamaha RD400, and try to get by with a single ballast resistor, then you'll have one coil switching on and grabbing half the resistor-limited supply of current just as the other coil is about to be switched off to make a spark. That current sharing will really chop away at the spark voltage.

Inductive ignition coils will produce a small voltage surge when current is switched into their primary winding, but the big jolt comes only when they are switched off. You don't get much voltage when the coil is switched on because the resulting flow of current in the coil's primary winding builds a magnetic field inside the coil, and the creation of that field induces a counteracting voltage that re-

We may deduce something about coils' saturation time, or dwell requirements from the examples provided by our testing, and from our test apparatus. The eight-cylinder distributor we used provided a 30-degree points-closed period, and at the highest cam speed (1270 rpm) that gave each coil just a trifle under .004-second to acquire enough magnetic saturation to fire a spark. That time is almost exactly what's available to the Yamaha 650's coils at a crank speed of 7500 rpm, and our tests show it isn't enough: the dwell time at our lowest test speed was .010-sec, and with that lengthy saturation period the sample Yamaha coil hit a 13.4 KV peak; it trailed off to 12.7 KV with the dwell reduced to .006-sec and fell on its face at .004-sec. From this we may conclude that the Yamaha coil needs all the saturation time it can get, and that seems to be typical of all motorcycle coils. In sharp contrast, the automotive coils' output didn't drop enough even at a .004-sec dwell for the voltage difference to show up in our testing. That's hardly surprising, as a V-8 engine running at a piffling 4500 rpm gives them only .002-sec in get-ready time. The conclusion here is that automotive coils simply do not need much dwell time—measured by motorcycle standards—and that switching them with a long-dwell motorcycle contact breaker cam merely imposes an unnecessary drain on a motorcycle's electrical system.

The Ducatis Cycle's staffers own and have fitted with K-Mart coils don't have especially good electrical systems, but they've been able to handle the coils and still keep their batteries charged. That experience led us to think car coils' current demands weren't going to be a problem, but our Ducatis are used almost tion systems and headlights. Also, their breaker cams are profiled for a relatively brief points-closed period, which means that the coils are switched off much of the time. These factors kept us from encountering the current supply problem some of you have discovered.

There is a way to deal with the current-drain problem created by a coil transplant, besides your riding during daylight hours. That wouldn't help all motorcycles anyway. Plenty of new-model motorcycles are wired so that their headlights can't be turned off; a lot of older models have electrically separated alternator windings, with full output switched in with the headlight. So unless you are prepared to deal with extra switches (fairly easy) or concocting your own system of alternator output control (difficult), the sensible solution to the current-drain problem is to fix things so the car coils don't pull so much current—which can be done without seriously reducing spark voltage.

If you're still awake you may recall that the Yamaha coil we mentioned needed a minimum of .006-sec of saturation time to produce anything near adequate voltage, but that car coils maintain their output pretty well with their contact points' dwell time reduced to a mere .002-sec. Look at those numbers for a moment and it should dawn on you that motorcycles' breaker cams provide for three times as much dwell as car coils demand—and drain off three times the required electrical energy. The answer, then, is to reduce the energy drain by reducing the dwell. We don't think it's necessary to try for a two-third reduction. Chopping the typical motorcycle's dwell period in half should bring the car coils' current drain down to a level manageable by any semi-healthy motor-induces a counteracting voltage that retards the whole process; it's the abrupt interruption of current when the points open that causes the rapid magnetic field movement needed to generate high voltages in the coil's secondary winding. This effect is more than an interesting curiosity: the very fact that the coil's magnetic field builds slowly when the points close requires that the points be closed for some perceptible fraction of a second before the coil is magnetically saturated and ready to produce a spark.

In the Yamaha 650 twin the ignition breaker cam closes each set of contacts for about 90-degrees of its own rotation before bumping them open again, and that represents 180-degrees of crankshaft rotation—almost exactly the same period as is provided by the RD400's crank-speed breaker cam. This period is called "dwell" in the automotive trade, and it's something they worry about because car coils have to make 12,000 sparks per minute for a V-8 that's turning only 3000 rpm. In contrast, the Yamaha 650's coils are never asked to deliver more than 3750 sparks/minute, and even those on the RD400 two-stroke do not have to provide more than 8500 sparks/minute.

lem, but our Ducatis are used almost entirely as sporting machines; their generators very seldom have to feed both ignisystems weak enough to be forced into deficit opepation by the added load of automotive coils do not come down with a flat battery in the first two or three hours of operation; it's something that shows up only after a number of days.

Reducing dwell isn't easy, but it is a task that can be done by anyone who has access to the services of a metal-turning lathe and a propane torch. It's all a matter of recontouring your bike's ignition breaker cam, and that job's a lot less difficult than it sounds simply because the cam in question is a really unsophisticated piece of hardware. Most motorcycle ignition cams are, in profile, little more than a circle with a flat cut on one side and the ends of the flat blended into the circle. The flat may be an eighth-inch deep at its low point, but the points' rubbing block doesn't care about that: the .014-inch maximum contact-surface gap specified for most points will only let the tip of the rubbing block drop down into the flat about .010-inch, and it's only that much of the blended radius leading onto the cam's outer circle—and the circle itself—that have any effect. Moreover, the points-opening end of the flat is the only spot on the cam where the profile has to be carefully dimensioned, and we don't propose that you lay a finger on that spot.

To shorten the ignition dwell, you puddle just a drop or so of brass, from a brazing rod, on the points-closing side of the cam's flat, building it up a little higher than the outer circle's diameter and filling in a little more than half the length of the flat. You then skim the cam circle in a lathe, extending it into the material you've added without taking more than a couple of thousandths off the original circle diameter. Then shape a new points-closing ramp with a fine file, and the final operation is to put a polish on all of the cam surface rubbed by the points block. You'd never get away with doing this kind of thing to valve-actuating cams; the pressures and surface speeds are too high. But you can do almost anything to a points cam, if you're careful. We've welded and brazed material all over them, extended their dwell by broadening the points-closing flats with a bench grinder, and softened their action by touching-up opening ramps with a whetstone. The only thing that will sneak you into trouble is a distortion of the bore inside the cam, which in most installations is a close but free fit on some kind of spindle. That probably won't happen at brazing temperatures if you're careful.

We can't tell you much more about the specifics of coil transplants unless we begin to deal with specific motorcycle models—of which there are thousands. You've been told how well motorcycle ignition coils perform, why wider spark plug gaps would clear up some of our carburetion problems, that automotive coils pump up more than enough voltage to let us use wider plug gaps, how to splice-in car coils and their ballast resistors, why it is sometimes necessary to use one resistor per coil, and what to do about condensers. We also filled you in on the current-drain problem some people have found, and suggested a solution to that problem. That's about as far as we can take you—apart from telling you what others have done wrong.

Don't try to use automotive coils as replacements for the twin-lead coils on the Kawasaki, Suzuki and Honda fours. Attempts have been made to fit car coils with two spark leads, branching from a "Y," to replicate the stock coils, and these have been failures: the coil output, all of it, fires through the plug offering the least resistance. Others have tried to use four coils, and switch them with the two sets of points provided with the stock ignition system. That doesn't work either, as doubling up in that manner doubles the current load on the points' contact surfaces, raising it to around seven amps, which tends to melt the contacts even before it overheats the current-carrying points spring. And do not, as one reader did, fit three coils and three ballast resistors—and wire all the resistors in series. These are mistakes we've heard about; there doubtless are many others that have remained unreported.

Try not to come up with any new ones. ■

the Honda 450 engine is incredibly free turning, and easily nudged out of position.

Having locked the crank, you may proceed with assembling and timing the alternator. Slide the stator in place and tighten all the screws first, then you can install the rotor. There is a keyway in both rotor and crankshaft, and a key—which is discarded in this application. Just slide the rotor onto the tapered end of the crankshaft, and turn it so that the LF (Left Fire) mark is aligned with the pointer Honda has so thoughtfully provided on the stator. This sets the rotor phasing with the stator so that you get full strength output with the crank set at 45°BTC. That's why you must have the crankshaft locked in position during this phasing operation. If the crank moves, full wave strength will occur at some other point. In any case, you get it when those marks are in alignment, and as the points must be set to open with the rotor/stator timing marks, the rotor must go on the end of the crank just right.

You will probably worry about having discarded the key. Don't give it a things happen in a hurry. First, the retarding induced magnetic field evaporates, which leaves the rotor's field free to surge through the stator coil, and it does so with such rapidity that electrical pressure in that coil zooms sky-high—to about 400 volts, I believe. Now if there was not a condenser in the system to soak up this voltage, it would arc across the points (at this time no more than barely open) and would be lost. But because there is that condenser, the voltage surge is captured momentarily while the points are opening a bit farther, and then both alternator and condenser hit the coil with a big, 400-volt jolt—and it does make a considerable spark. Those who know how a conventional battery/coil system works will see that this is an entirely different process, and that's why you must use special coils. I chose Bendix magneto coils "converted" to E.T. (Energy Transfer) operation; you can use Lucas E.T. coils. Ordinary coils may work, but they will work badly and they probably won't work for long.

A season of racing experience with the Honda 450 racer (Grandson of Secret Weapon?) has revealed a number ing discarded the key. Don't give it a thought. That key is strictly for indexing. Wipe the taper, and the matching tapered hole through the rotor, and pull the end bolt up tight to seat the rotor solidly on the taper. It won't slip. In fact, the only way you can get the rotor off is by using the appropriate Honda puller.

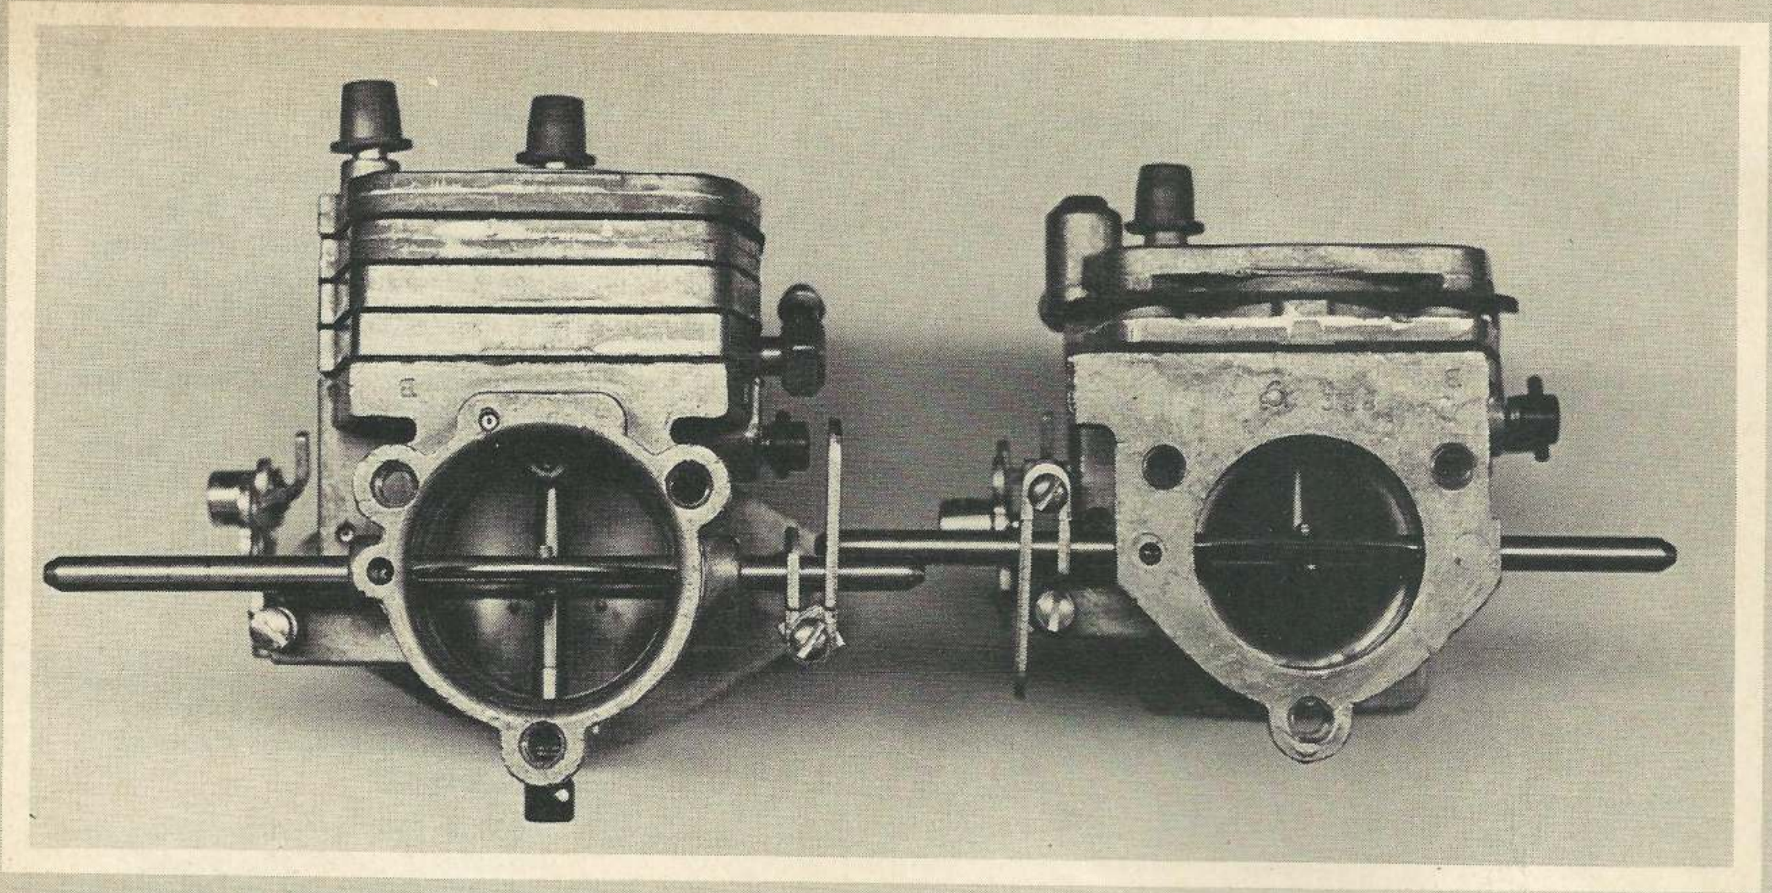
And now, at long last, you will be ready to set the points, which is done just as outlined in the Honda manual. You set the points to break just as the rotor/stator timing marks swing into alignment, and unless you have made a mistake somewhere along the line, you will get a nice, fat spark. It doesn't need a high cranking speed; you'll see a spark at the plug even if you merely stick a wrench on the rotor bolt and swing the crank around by hand.

The way the whole thing works is as follows: With the points closed, and the rotor swinging into position, the magnetic flux generates electricity in the alternator coil, and because there is a direct path to ground through the points, there is not much voltage but a lot of current. Which does a strange thing: an electrical current flowing through a coil creates a magnetic field



Secret Weapon?) has revealed a number of short-comings; none of these are in the ignition system, which has been a marvel of reliability and effectiveness. I run the coldest plug Champion supplies, the N52R, without fouling problems. Starting, after sorting out the carburetion, has been very easy and the only time I have heard a misfire was when vibration was doing funny things to the float chamber (twice) or when a valve fell down into the engine (thrice).

The only peculiarity of my home-grown E.T. magneto is that (a) it is very sensitive to timing (the points must be working with the alternator) and (b) it is even more sensitive to anything that would come under the general heading of "crud" on the points. This last is understandable, as dirty points create a resistance that drops the current in the generator coils in those critical moments just before the points open, which in turn flattens the voltage surge that follows points-opening.

Neither of these things are a problem if you know about them—and they are common to all magnetos. What remains a problem is a defect built into the 450 engine: the camshaft bearings, plain aluminum bushings, are a loose-ish fit through a coil creates a magnetic field, and the magnetic field created in the stator coil pushes back against the rotor's magnetic field. (And, incidentally, this will happen no matter what the system's polarity, so don't worry about which magnet is working on what coil.) Anyhow, the magnetic fields push against each other and the rotor's field gets bent back, until the points open. Right then, with the direct path to "ground" having suddenly been eliminated, current in the stator coil substantially disappears and with that a lot of aluminum bushings, are a loose-ish fit around the camshaft journals, and that means a bit of wobble at the breaker cam when the engine is running. You set the spart at 45° BTC–and the wobble sends it dancing about 5° either side of nominal at 8000 rpm. You can assume that sparks happen somewhere between 40 and 50°. It seems as though there is room for improvement here–maybe with a near-zero clearance ball bearing at the "ignition" end of the exhaust camshaft. Maybe I'll get around to giving it a try. ◉ to the fact that there is always positive

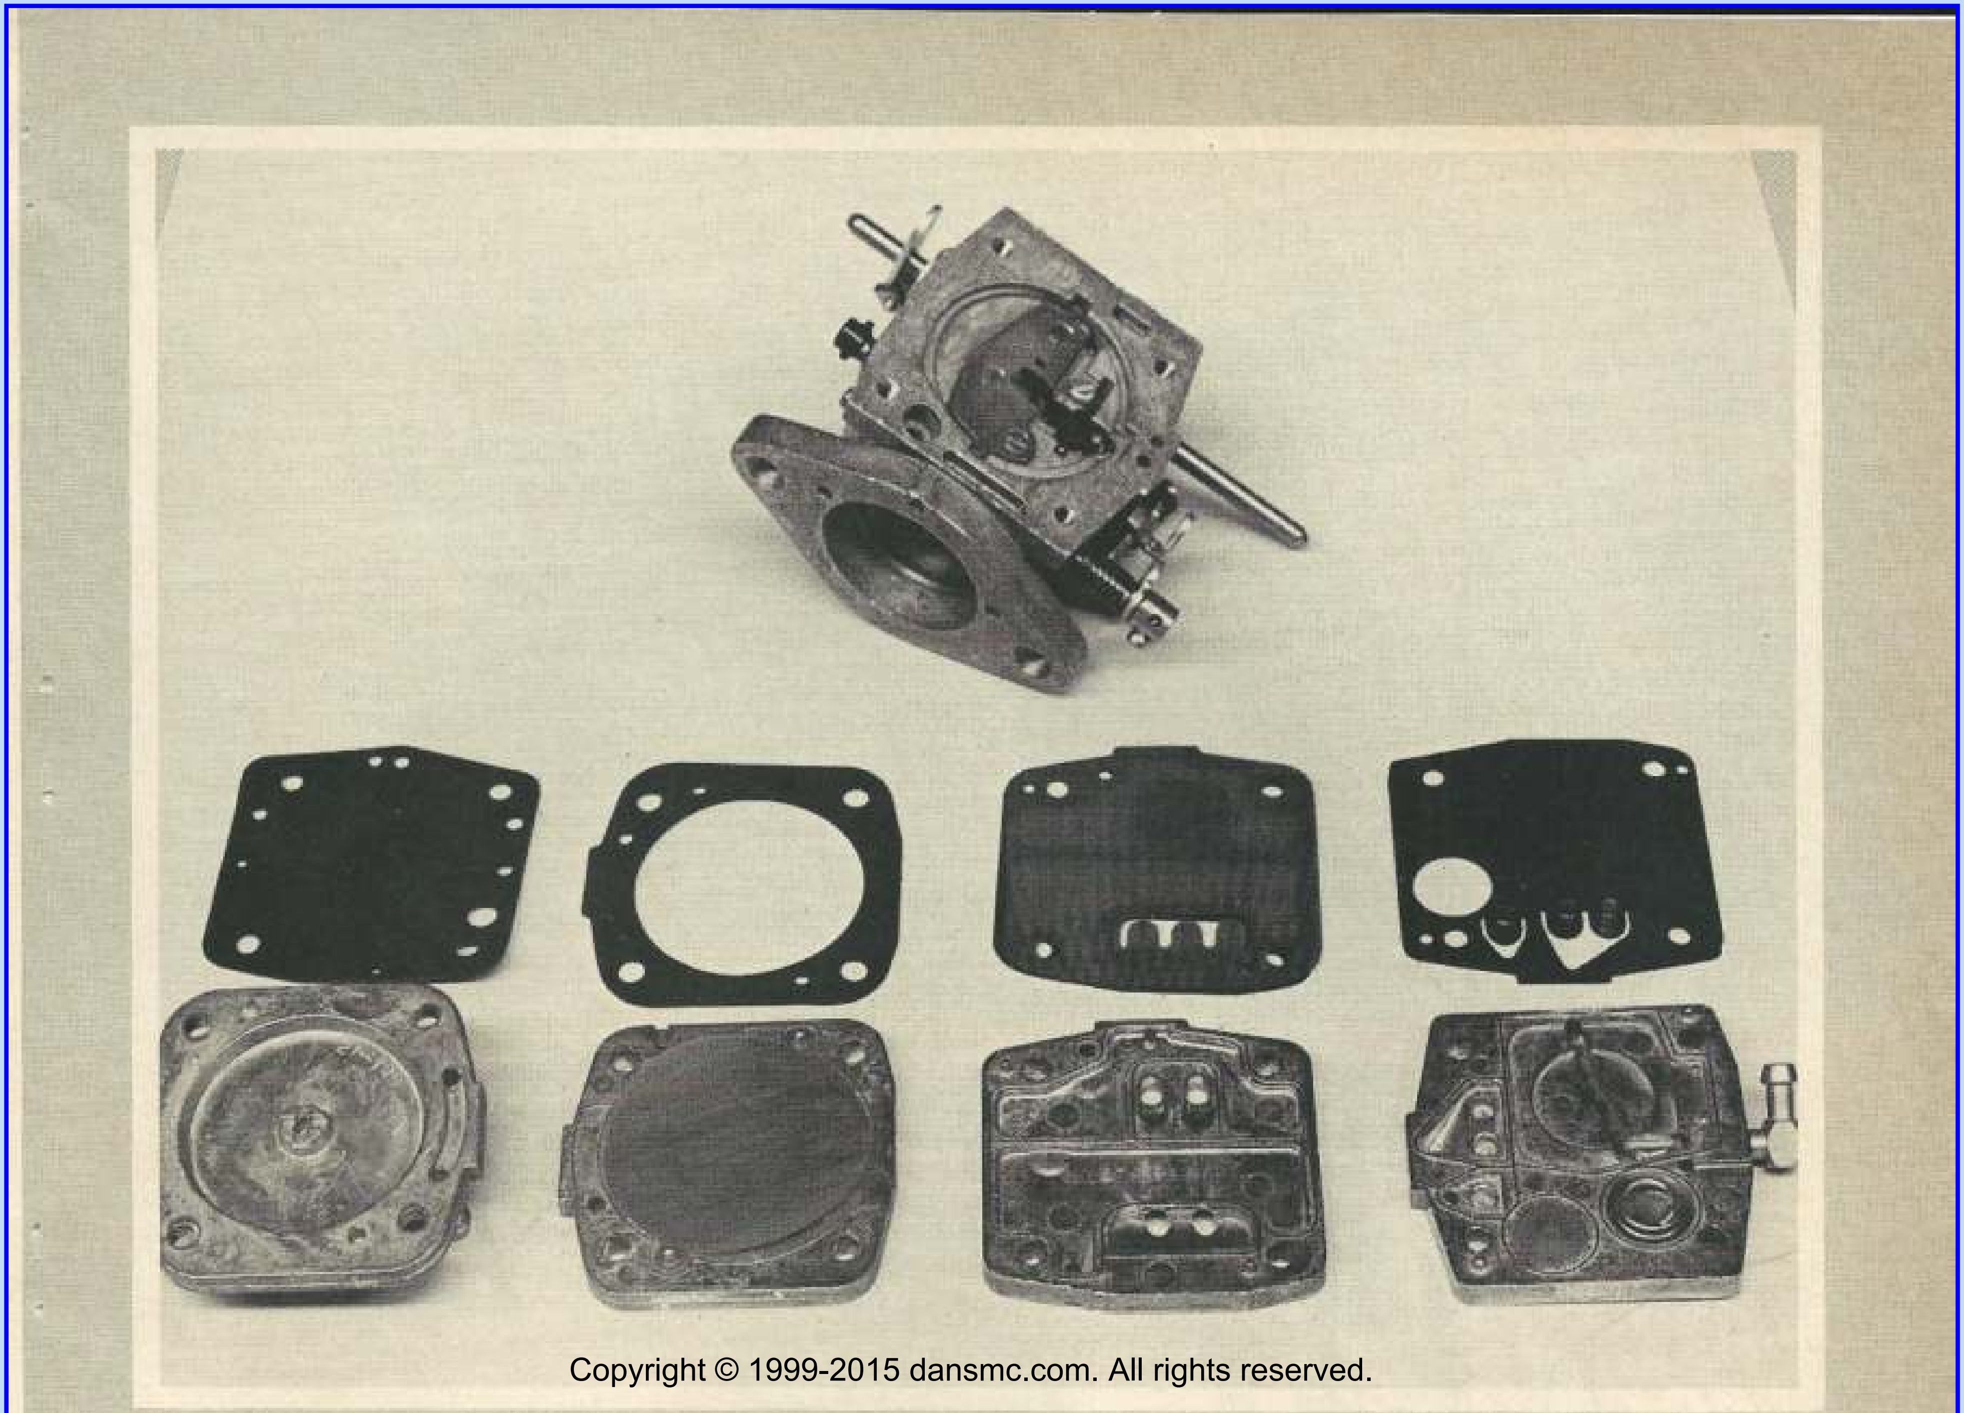
to the fact that there is always positive fuel pressure in the carburetor itself, we do away with the foaming action and air bubbles that are set up at certain rpm levels by high frequency vibrations in the bowl type carburetor. In very rough cross country riding, sometimes a long series of bumps will upset the float level of the standard bowl type carburetor, keeping the float needle off the seat and causing the engine to run overly rich. At other times when going up long steep hills, the angle of the carburetor has changed so that the float level is much too low to give the proper mixture.

Another very good feature of this ''pumper'' carburetor is the fact that all adjustments and mixture controls are on the outside and can be adjusted with the fingers, even while riding.



The carburetor comes ''stock'' with a top-mounted high speed power needle but side location is available as an option. Most riders will find the top location easier to locate and adjust while riding.

As mentioned before, the one thing that sets this apart from past pumpers is that it can actually deliver an excess of gasoline to the engine; even on a thirsty 400cc Maico!

Dyno tests showed that on a stock Maico the usable power band ran from 4,000 to 6,500 rpm. There was no significant difference in maximum power with the diaphragm carburetor, but the power band ranged from 3,000 to 7,500 rpm. CM installation that Kendick immediately jumped on the bandwagon, and tooled up to make an identical setup for Hodakas. More about this next month.

As previously mentioned, the carburetor I used has a choke, and this is for a very good reason. It is quite important to either prime or choke this carburetor when the engine is cold. If you have an air cleaner mounted, it is virtually impossible to do either, unless, of course, the choke is incorporated into the body in the first place. We found that the same size carburetor would work quite well on virtually every engine it was installed on. So far, there have been four engines we have mounted this carburetor on, all with the same degree of success. Not only is the bottom end cleaner, but so is the mid-range and top end.

The front wheel seems to be connected to the throttle. When the throttle is screwed on, the front wheel pops off the ground. There is none of this staggering about and spitting back through the carburetor at low speed, which you normally associate with the slide type units. If you live in the Southern California area, and you contemplate an installation such as I've done here, drop in to see the boys at Kendick. They are a pretty enthusiastic group, and they will do all they can to help you out. They are located at: 13327 Sherman Way, North Hollywood, Calif.

He is quite a competent individual, so if any of you do experience problems in this area, just write to him.

All in all, this has been a very satisfying experience. No longer do I have any starting problems. And, should the machine find itself on its side (in other words, if I fall down), the engine continues to run smoothly and efficiently, just as though it were up on its wheels and motoring along. The biggest thing, however, is the ease with which the machine can be started, hot or cold, no matter how long it has been sitting. Usually one kick, with the choke closed, brings the engine to life, even after sitting for two weeks. Once the engine has been warmed up, one stab at the starter, and you're on your way. Very few slide type carburetors will give this performance, if the engine has been modified at all. I cannot recommend this installation too highly. It has worked out extremely well for me, and for a number of other people who have tried it. ■
